

Chapter 1141

Breathing the air on the earth, feeling the familiar scene and the familiar gravity, Legend felt the long lost feeling, as if he was reborn.

He didn't stay long in the Secret Realm, but it seemed to him that he had been there for a long time.

what happened inside to him was so impressive that he would never forget it for the rest of his life!

Tom's terrifying strength gave him an unprecedented awe and a deep sense of inferiority.

Originally, he was proud and arrogant, thinking that he was peerless in the world. With enough time, he could be the top one master in the world.

But now, he had completely given up on this idea!

Because, Tom's appearance let him realize that there was always someone better than him.

He was no match for Tom!

When he returned to H Country and saw his senior brother Albert, he showed a smile on his face.

In the past, he had always been unable to see through Albert's strength. In his eyes, he was unfathomable, unable to be seen through at all.

But now, he could tell that Albert was in the second grade of the God Becoming Level.

Although he was no match for Albert, given enough time, he could overshadow him.

Albert smiled at him, because he immediately felt that Legend had successfully broken through to the God Becoming Level.

"Congratulations, junior!"

Albert came over, patted Legend on the shoulder, and said merrily. He was sincerely happy for Legend.

At the same time, he was happy for H Country. Finally, there was another expert in God Becoming Level in H Country, and he was his junior brother.

In this way, he was not so lonely.

"Thank you, senior." Legend nodded.

Albert was stunned for a moment, feeling the change in his junior brother who became more humble. Out of curiosity, he asked, "Junior brother, you have changed. Have you been through a battle there?"

Legend nodded and said, "Yes, I was almost killed."

Albert immediately frowned and said, "What happened? Tell me."

Then, Legend briefly told Albert what happened there. The week before he entered the Secret Realm, nothing dangerous happened. Even indigenous peoples in some tribes were ordinary.

It wasn't until the next week that he walked out of the forest to the city that he soon met the Strong inside, who were half a step ahead of the God Becoming Level.

They had a fight. If it weren't for his quick reaction and deeper martial foundation than the aboriginals inside, he would have died inside.

Upon hearing this, Albert sighed with surprise and said, "I didn't expect that over the years, half a step of the God Becoming Level would emerge in the Secret Realm. This is amazing! Back then, even the masters of the Innate Realm were rare."

Legend sighed, "Yes, the aboriginals inside have gradually developed their intelligence. They know the mysteries of their world, and they have been constantly searching for all kinds of rare and strange fruits. Even some people know the existence of fruits. Once they find enough fruits, swallow them and break through to the God Becoming Level, by then they are likely to be ostracized by their world and, in turn, come to the earth..."

Albert's face suddenly changed when he heard this.

"What? I can't believe it!" Albert was surprised, because he had been there and knew what the world was like, but it was already several decades ago, when the Secret Realm was very simple, and the indigenous peoples inside had no idea about cultivation except that they were taller and stronger.

But now, according to Legend, they had obviously found a way to cultivate, and they knew that the existence of all kinds of rare and exotic fruits could improve their own strength.

In particular, once the aboriginals swallowed the fruits and broke through to the God Becoming Level, they were likely to be compelled to the earth!

Over the years, the Strong on earth was hard on the indigenous peoples. Great hatred had been developed between them. By then, the Strong of the indigenous God Becoming Level would definitely bring a disaster to the earth!

In this way, people would be plunged into misery and suffering.

The worst thing was that the Clan World was about to invade the Secular World on a large scale in the near future.

Hearing this, Albert felt depressed.

Legend fell silent.

Legend was originally very confident in himself, but now he was dispirited as he knew that on earth, there were many stronger than him.

After a pause, Albert thought of something and asked, "What happened next? How did you escape?

And did you meet Tom?"

Legend's eyes shone with awe and gratitude. He nodded and said, "Yes, I did. In fact, I was saved by him. It's ridiculous that I thought he was the one who killed me and I scolded him."

Speaking of this, Legend blushed with shame. He felt ashamed of what he had said.

Back then, he didn't trust Tom, but to his surprise, he easily killed the five indigenous peoples.

When he told everything about that day, Albert opened his mouth wide in shock. After a while, he said with emotion, "Tom is awesome! If he breaks through to the God Becoming Level, he must be the best of all, and he might even become the strongest person on earth!"

Chapter 1142

Legend would have definitely refuted words like those disdainfully in the past. In his opinion, the strongest person on earth was a heavy title that couldn't be given to ordinary people!

There are too many powerful people on earth and those who were known by the public were only a few of them. In fact, many of the strongest people lived in seclusion. They were also called old monsters!

But now, after he met Tom and saw Tom's terrifying power with his own eyes, he agreed with Albert's statement. Legend nodded and said, "Yes, Tom is indeed invulnerable. It's highly possible that he will become the number one in the world!"

Albert asked again, "Where is he? Why didn't he come out with you?"

Legend said, "He didn't come out because he wanted to find more fruits."

Albert's eyes widened and he said, "He has collected eight fruits. Wasn't he satisfied?"

Legend said with a bitter smile, "Yes, he was not satisfied with eight fruits and continued to collect them. He said he had to collect ten fruits before he was willing to swallow them."

Ten fruits. It was too difficult. It was such a big talk even for Albert!

He had only swallowed three fruits at that time. Albert could not imagine how huge the impact would be if one swallowed ten fruits at once. The human body couldn't handle a huge impact like that. His body would definitely explode.

He shook his head and said, " Tom will pay for his arrogance this time. It is only theoretically feasible to swallow ten fruits at a time. No one has ever done this before. Even the former No.1 genius, Cassio of the Blood Thirst Sect, swallowed only seven fruits, which gave him the power to dominate the world."

Legend did not say anything. He would have been jealous when faced with such an outstanding peer like Tom in the past. But now, what he felt was only envy and awe.

"I asked him but he said he was confident."

Legend said so.

Albert shook his head and said, "It's easy to say than to do it. It will be a huge loss for H Country if Tom dies in the Secret Realm! Besides, in the near future, the Four Major Sects of the Clan World will call on all the Clans to attack the secular world together. H Country will have a difficult time without Tom!"

Even he himself had not realized that Tom had gradually grown to the backbone of H Country. Albert, the God of War of H Country, had also high expectations of Tom.

Legend's expression changed when he heard his words. He said, "Why is the war coming so soon? The Clans and the secular world have lived in peace for many years. Why will the Clans attack the secular world this time?"

Albert said gravely. "Is there any other reasons? Every war was because of seizing resources and power. The secular world thinks we are going the wrong way. If we continue to develop like this, we will make the whole human race go extinct. They want to be the leader of the human race because they think their way is right. This is an inevitable war of ideas."

Legend said with a gloomy face, "But many people will die because of the war."

Albert sighed, "Yes, many, many people will die..."

Both of them lost their initial excitement.

The atmosphere turned gloomy.

At the same time, there was a heated discussion all over the world.

Chosen Ones were coming back from the Secret Realm to earth one after another. The returning spots of some of them were on the street. With a wave of space, a man would appear out of nowhere on the street suddenly.

A car drove towards him at high speed but the man didn't dodge at all. He was hit hard by the car, got knocked off, and finally fell to the ground. Other people on the street were screaming out of shock, but what shocked them the most was that the man didn't get any injury.

Others would appear in the air and fall down.

An ordinary person would die from falling down, but the Strongs of God Becoming Level would just be fine.

In the world of Clans, people like Emmett and Alistair returned to their sects one after another in order to keep themselves safe.

At the same time, many people noticed that most of the names on the list of fruits of the Secret Realm had turned gray, which meant that many people had returned to Earth.

However, two names remained bright. Tom and The Great King!

There were numbers behind their names on the list. One was '8' and the other was '7'.

This meant that Tom now had eight fruits, and The Great King had seven.

"Look, all the Chosen Ones except Tom and The Great King have come back! What's going on now?"

"Did something happen to the two of them in the Secret Realm?!"

"How is that possible? The Great King is the Chosen One who ranks the first on the List of Immortals. He has been invincible for so many years and also the most powerful in the Secret Realm! What's more, Tom is also a powerful man that shouldn't be underestimated..."

"Then why didn't the two of them come back?"

"I think they are trying to find ten fruits. One of them has found 8 and another has found 7 and they still don't want to return!"

"Hiss... Ten fruits. That's the limit in theory. No one has ever succeeded in all these years. They may explode and die!"

"Yes, they have overestimated their power. It will be a big loss if they swallow ten fruits and explode."

There were heated discussions all over the world.

They knew that all the other Chosen Ones had returned. Now Tom and The Great King were the only two people inside.

They wanted to see what was going on inside or had the two of them met each other now.

If they did, their meet would definitely be as fierce as Mars hit Earth, which would cause the biggest sparks!

Unfortunately, Tom and The Great

King were both in the Secret Realm. People on Earth couldn't see them though they truly wanted to!

After Emmett and Alistair had returned to their sects, they received lots of questions, such as what was going on in the Secret Realm, why didn't The Great King return with them, and how did Melvin, Fatty, and Skinny die?

They answered the questions honestly. People gasped in shock when they heard that Tom had killed them all by himself. They couldn't help admiring Tom.

Chapter 1143

"It seemed that Tom is not the ordinary as the public thought, who deserved his fame."

"Yes, being able to take an advantage over The Great King in the Secret Realm shows that he has real ability."

"And it's not enough to have the real ability. He must be bestowed with great luck to win over The Great King all the time!"

"Is Tom also the Chosen Son of this era?"

"But The Great King is already a Chosen One. Is it possible to have two in one era?"

"Maybe The Great King is not the chosen one. It is Tom. Have you ever thought about this possibility?"

"This, this, this is impossible..."

In the Clan World, many people were discussing this. They no longer looked down on Tom, because those who could win over The Great King in the Secret Realm must have their own ability. However, what shocked them even more was the topic of the chosen son.

If the chosen son was not The Great King, but was Tom, then it was really big news.

At this time, no one dared to despise Tom anymore. Even those old monsters who had been in seclusion for a long time granted him enough value!

But soon, someone made a different sound. "Hmph, you've blown up the ability of Tom too much, and even ranked him on the same level as The Great King? Now he hasn't come out yet. Although he has taken eight fruits and one more than The Great King, they haven't met yet. As long as they meet and have a fight, with The Great King's strength, he will crush Tom."

Hearing this, many people immediately agreed.

Indeed, think about it, although Tom had collected eight fruits, one more than The Great King did, after all, he hadn't swallowed them yet. Moreover, as he did not confront The Great King, the jury's out on who was the stronger.

Besides, in their opinion, Tom was definitely not as powerful as The Great King. As they continued to search, they would meet at last. At that time, a super war would break out. Tom was probably no match for The Great King.

And in this level of super war, losing means death!

From now on, Tom was also a super-genius, if only he could survive.

So, after they figured it out, they still had absolute confidence in The Great King.

They were now worried that Tom did not dare to continue collecting. Instead, he would swallow the eight fruits, and successfully broke through to the God Becoming Level and was ostracized to earth. In this way, The Great King could do nothing about him.

When Tom returned to earth, he would really be a big shot.

Now they were even more anxious about being unable to see the scene in the Secret Realm. If someone could create a live broadcast there now, the box office would definitely sell out!

Just as the whole world was in anxiety, suddenly, news came out on a strange external network: A pop-up window said that it could provide a live broadcast of Tom and The Great King in the Secret Realm, but it required a fee. The price was ten million!

It could be said to be extremely expensive.

So at first, most people regarded it as a lie, because in their understanding, the Secret Realm was another world. How could anyone on earth have the ability to make a live broadcast there?

However, not long after this mysterious website released a video, it caused a huge uproar all over the world!

The video was only two minutes, and the image was only visible, at most 360p. However, it showed the scene that Tom killed Melvin and the fat and the skinny men to death with one against three!

This video caused a tsunami on the internet once released!

It went straight to the hottest spot of the day, and the website was about to explode.

Soon, many people began to pay.

Even at such a high price of ten million Hua dollars, there were hundreds of thousands of people paid in a day, and the total value was even more terrifying!

It was also known that there were so many Strongs in this world, and these Strong people were so rich.

"It's really Tom!!"

In the Blood Thirst Sect of the Clan World, there was an angry roar.

They all saw the video. Their favored disciple Melvin was killed defenselessly by Tom.

Their hatred for Tom reached a peak.

Even many higher-ups were furious.

"What the hell! What the hell!"

The Supreme Elder was so outraged that his pale face turned red. Melvin was the most talented disciple in the Blood Thirst Sect other than The Great King, who had been granted high hope and was even trained to be the next overlord.

However, he was killed by Tom in the Secret Realm!

The video was also spread all over the world, and now the face of the Blood Thirst Sect was lost!

They could imagine that after the video spread, countless people around the world must be laughing at the Blood Thirst Sect.

Especially in the secular world.

This was absolutely intolerable to the Blood Thirst Sect!

Not only in Oliver, but many high-ups were now furious and resentful.

"This Tom was so hateful, too hateful!
He must die!!"

"How dare he kill the pride of the Blood Thirst Sect? The crime is unforgivable and he must die!"

"Not only him, but his family, friends, and all the people related to him must die!"

"Yes, his whole clan must die!"

Many people were roaring.

Oliver, the Supreme Elder, was confused to see Cassio close his eyes and say nothing. He snorted with dissatisfaction, "Cassio, Melvin is your direct disciple. Say something. When did you become mute?"

All of a sudden, all the high-ups of the Blood Thirst Sect turned their attention to Cassio.

At this moment, Cassio opened his eyes.

Chapter 1144

Under everyone's gaze, he said calmly, "Tom can't walk out of the Secret Realm. He will meet Xiaoyao, and Xiaoyao will avenge Melvin."

All the other executives breathed a sigh of relief. They calmed down and thought about it. The Great King was still inside. He would definitely not let Tom go.

Thinking of this, they couldn't wait to watch the live streaming to see how Tom was tortured and killed by The Great King!

The crueler The Great King was, the happier they would be!

Moreover, the Clan World was about to attack the Secular World. Now, all the Strong in the world were watching the live streaming. The Great King killing Tom cruelly would have a great impact on the Secular World. It would be easier and more encouraging for Clan World to attack the Secular World.

They all agreed that Tom was no match for The Great King.

This was not that they were overconfident, but The Great King was too powerful for many years. Even some of the masters of God Becoming Level among them were not The Great King's opponent, and Tom was far worse than The Great King.

In H Country, countless people bought the right to watch live streaming.

"Do you investigate this website?"

Joseph dressed in military uniform and asked in a deep voice at the highest level meeting in H Country.

In front of him were all the important people in H Country, and they valued the live streaming very much.

This website was mysterious. It even had the live streaming of the Secret Realm, which was unusual. It was difficult for people to know what happened in Secret Realm with the current technology.

Although they were concerned about Tom's situation inside, they were also curious about the mysterious website and the power behind it.

"Not yet. This website is so weird. It appeared out of nowhere. Even the most professional hackers in our country can't crack their network." A man in military uniform shook his head and said, his face solemn.

Joseph frowned as he said, "Can't our best hackers crack it? Is there no trace at all?"

The man in military uniform shook his head and said, "No, the technician said that the technology of this sudden website has greatly surpassed what we currently have on earth. Our hacker methods are unable to attack it."

The conference room fell into silence right away.

They were at a loss for this website.

It was an unknown power, and they felt uneasy and even scared.

In fact, not only the H Country but also many other countries began to study this suddenly appeared website.

However, the result was no different from that of H Country. No one knew where this website came from, and everyone was curious and awed by it!

They didn't know why anyone could get live streaming in Secret Realm, which was completely incredible.

It reminded people of the amazing and even terrifying appearance of the Secret Realm entrance.

At that time, all the countries in the world were in a panic and went to investigate. Unfortunately, none of them found out why.

Later, the scientists unanimously believed that this might be some unknown natural phenomenon, similar to the idea of wormholes in physics.

Between the two black holes, there was a wormhole connected. Stepping into the wormhole, one could travel through time and space and come out from another distant time and space.

But now, the appearance of the mysterious website caused a stir again.

It appeared on the internet all over the world and earned money crazily. This was definitely not a natural phenomenon. It was certain that there must be an organization that no one knew and was manipulating behind it!

But what exactly was this organization and which power it belonged to?

No one knew about this, which was the most frightening part.

At the same time, on earth, in an extremely mysterious place where even satellites, radar, and all the technology on earth could not detect, there was a conversation going on.

"These earthlings are interesting."

"Yes, their countries have sent professional scientists to track us down. Unfortunately, their technology is too backward."

"No matter what, the people on earth are very fragile now."

"Princess, why did you do this all of a sudden?"

"Because I'm interested in this earthling named Tom..."

The scene returned to the Secret Realm.

Tom, who was now carrying eight fruits, did not know his every move became live streaming for the Strong on earth to watch.

Fortunately, he didn't do anything indecent. Otherwise, he would really be famous.

Now that he had eight fruits on him, his perception of the remaining fruits became even stronger. He could even know exactly where the remaining fruits were.

He only had two fruits left, and he could collect ten.

As long as he gathered ten fruits and swallowed them together, he could break through to the theoretical Supreme God Becoming Level!

He would then be strong enough to protect the people around him in the next world war.

In fact, he now knew that there were not many people left in the Secret Realm. He could feel people swallowing the fruits in the past few days, breaking through to the God Becoming Level, and then being sent back to earth.

Even Legend, who was beside him, swallowed three fruits a few days ago and then disappeared in front of him.

He knew that if he swallowed the eight fruits, he could successfully break through to the God Becoming Level and be transported back to earth.

But he didn't do it because his goal was more than that.

He walked for another day and stopped. He could already feel the remaining fruits not far ahead of him.

There was another pile of fruits approaching the rest of the still and undeveloped fruits.

If he was right, that must be The Great King!

He knew that he would fight with The Great King sooner or later. He looked forward to it, but he had never been afraid.

He stopped to recuperate, adjust himself to his best condition, and then make a final battle with The Great King.

In fact, he could feel that The Great King was planning the same thing as him.

Chapter 1145

He knew that he would have a fight with The Great King.

In fact, after he heard of The Great King who was the Chosen One on the List of Immortals and had been on the top of the list for many years, and also known as the number one expert in the God Becoming Level, he knew that there must be a battle between himself and The Great King.

He had been preparing for this great fight all the time, and finally it came today!

In fact, even though he was famous for trouncing Adam before, he was preparing for the battle with The Great King because he knew that only The Great King was his real opponent.

And he was also the most powerful expert Tom had ever met.

In fact, after he had gathered most of H Country's good fortune, he was destined to have a fight with The Great King.

Originally, there was no dispute that The Great King was the chosen one of this era.

But Tom appeared, and after he had gathered the good fortune of H Country, he was destined to wrest the name of the chosen one of this era with The Great King.

And this day finally came.

He took a deep breath and adjusted himself to his best. Then he began to stride in that direction.

He had already sensed that the remaining fruits were waiting for him in that place. If he could get them, collect ten of them and swallow them together, he would definitely become the chosen one of this era!

He would completely suppress The Great King.

At the same time, The Great King was preparing for this too. He was also walking in that direction. It wouldn't be long before they met!

On the other side, The Great King paused for a while and adjusted himself. Soon, he adjusted himself to his best and then opened his eyes abruptly.

The moment he opened his eyes, it seemed that the sky and the earth were a little brighter, and the environment changed. Even many birds and beasts around him were scared and scattered as if they felt an incomparably fierce momentum and did not dare to stay.

This was The Great King's imposing manner.

"Tom, you're the only one left. I already feel that you're not far away."

The Great King muttered, his face cold as he flicked his fingers, making a sound of gold and stone intersecting. "Originally, I didn't take you seriously. I didn't expect that my negligence would let you grow to this extent and you even killed my junior fellow apprentice Melvin. Since you are so reckless, then I will teach you a lesson."

After saying this, he no longer walked leisurely forward, but accelerated. With a whoosh, he suddenly disappeared from his original place. When he reappeared, it was already several hundred meters away. His speed was extremely fast, even several times faster than the sound!

Same as Tom, when he came to the Secret Realm, his strength had also improved a lot, especially in his spirit and cardio-pulmonary function. Now his strength increased at least by half in comparison to that on earth!

Originally, he was absolutely invincible on earth. Except for those secluded old masters, few people in the world could be his rivals.

Now that he had increased by half on this basis, how strong would he be?

Even he himself did not know how strong he had become.

He had not fought for a long time. This time, he would not give Tom any chance to win!

At the same time, on earth, countless people were watching the live broadcast in front of the computer. Although Tom and The Great King had not met yet, they could feel the suffocating atmosphere through the live broadcast.

It was a sense of oppression.

However, this atmosphere was also the most exciting, because this meant that Tom and The Great King were about to have a century war!

"Tom and The Great King are about to meet. Who do you think will be the winner between them?"

On the website where they could watch the live broadcast, there was also a forum, and now countless people spoke and expressed their views.

"Humph, needless to say, it must be The Great King! Don't you know that he is the number one expert in the God Becoming Level and also the chosen one of this era? Then how could Tom be a match for The Great King?"

"Hehe, that's not necessarily true. Tom is not a nobody. He has the ability to fight with The Great King! Don't forget, Tom is still number one on the List of Masters of the Secret Realm, and he has one more fruit than the The Great King!"

Some people argued for Tom, thinking that Tom's strength was not worse than The Great King's.

"Humph! That doesn't prove anything! It's only what Tom has. He hasn't swallowed them yet. What's the difference between eight and seven fruits? There's no difference! Besides, once Tom and The Great King meet, as long as he can't defeat The Great King, then he won't be able to swallow a single fruit. At that time, everything will be in vain! There's nothing left and he will die directly in the Secret Realm."

More people were on The Great King's side, thinking that The Great King was stronger.

There was heat discussion on the forum of this website. However, many people saw the business opportunity and started to make a bet. The odds given to The Great King were 1 to 1.34, while Tom's odds were 2.67. In other words, the dealer was very optimistic about The Great King, so the odds given to Tom would be so high!

But even so, most people still bet on The Great King. They all thought that The Great King would win the battle.

It was not that they despised Tom, but that The Great King's invincible image was too strong. In contrast, even if Tom had been famous during this period of time, he was still far worse than The Great King.

Only in H Country, there were more people who believed in Tom.

"Why don't they trust Tom?!"

At the Military Intelligence 3, Thorn immediately felt that these strong men around the world were too disrespectful to Tom.

Marlin didn't say much. He said directly, "I think Tom will win this battle. I've already bet three million on Tom."

Thorn immediately said in surprise, "Marlin, you're putting all your money on Tom!"

Marlin nodded and said, "Of course."

The same thing happened one after another in the Military Intelligence 3. They all bet on Tom to win. Even if some of them thought that Tom's chances of winning were not big, they had to support him.

At this moment, suddenly, someone on the forum said, "Stop arguing. Watch the live broadcast. Tom and The Great King have met!!"

Chapter 1146

Hearing this, everyone became quieter.

Many people began to look at the live broadcast again. As expected, they found that Tom and The Great King had met each other.

However, to their surprise, when Tom and The Great King met, nothing special as they imagined happened. The scene was even a little boring.

At this time, in the Secret Realm, Tom had already met The Great King.

"The Great King."

"Tom."

The two of them called each other's names one after another, yet they seemed not to be on the verge of breaking out a fight. Instead, they looked very calm, as if they had just seen a friend they had not seen for a long time, which really surprised everyone.

In their opinion, when Tom and The Great King met, they would fight against each other immediately.

Tom looked at The Great King calmly. He immediately realized that The Great King's strength was much higher than when he first met him on the earth. Obviously, The Great King had also benefited a lot during his stay in the Secret Realm.

"The Great King, you've improved a lot." Tom walked casually towards him and turned a blind eye to the string of suspended fruits on his left, as if Tom could not see them at all.

Similarly, The Great King did not look at the bunch of fruits either. Obviously, they all came for this bunch of fruits, but at this moment, they had nothing else but only each other in their eyes.

The Great King smiled slightly and began to walk towards Tom. He walked slowly just like strolling in the park after a full meal.

"Same to you." The Great King said calmly. "You're the first person I've misjudged all these years."

Hearing The Great King's words, Tom just smiled and said, "Really? It seems that I surprised you. But just the reverse, after I first knew about you, I knew that there must be a war between you and me."

They were all walking towards each other very slowly, and the atmosphere seemed very relaxed, not even as suffocating as before.

This made many people on the earth wonder why this happened.

The Great King stared at Tom and said, "Did you kill Melvin?"

He was very calm, but Tom still felt a strong murderous intent flash in his eyes.

Tom nodded calmly. "It's me."

People on the earth who were watching the live broadcast couldn't help but hold their breath when they heard Tom's bluntness. Because at this moment, they felt that the atmosphere had suddenly changed.

The Great King, who was originally very calm, suddenly changed his momentum after Tom answered his question. Even if the people on the earth were in front of the screen, they could feel the fierceness and oppression!

The Great King's pace quickened a little. His originally calm eyes suddenly became sharper, "Why? Don't you know that he is my junior fellow apprentice?"

The corners of Tom's mouth curved up slightly, revealing a proud smile. He turned a blind eye to The Great King's threat and said something shocking, "So what?"

So what?

He said lightly, but what it meant was too heavy. Obviously, as Tom speaking, The Great King's face immediately darkened.

The air froze all over the scene, and even the wind stopped!

The Great King stopped and stared at Tom, "It's been a long time since anyone dared to ignore my authority like you. Tom, you're the first!"

Tom did not stop, but continued to walk towards the him and said with a smile. "Really? Then I am really honored."

The Strong on the earth who watched the live broadcast couldn't help but admire Tom's courage. How dare he talk to The Great King like this? He was so bold that he didn't know who he was facing!

In the Blood Thirst Sect, all the disciples and higher-ups were watching the live broadcast. On the island of the Blood Thirst Sect, a huge screen was erected, and everyone could see the live broadcast of the Secret Realm.

When they saw Tom being so arrogant, they couldn't help but curse.

"Tom is so arrogant. He is trying to get himself killed!"

"He dares to act rashly and kill Melvin, and he's even so arrogant in front of senior fellow apprentice The Great King! What a pity that I am not in the Secret Realm, or I must take his life!"

"Hateful, he's so hateful! Our Blood Thirst Sect, as the number one clan in the Clan World, is the most powerful in the world. When did we suffered wrong? Tom must die!"

"Humph, he must be dead. He will be killed by The Great King soon! Even if he dies, we can't let him off so easily. When we attack the secular world and find Tom's family and friends, we should kill them all! Anyone who has anything to do with Tom must die! We should kill his men and rape all the women to death. Especially Tom's woman, we should do all the vicious things to them to vent our anger!"

"Yes! We must avenge Melvin!"

At this moment, inside the Blood Thirst Sect, everyone was scolding Tom with indignation. Their hatred was extremely strong.

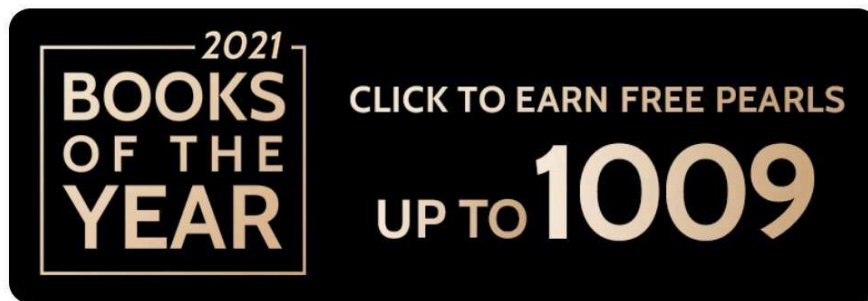

In addition to the Blood Thirst Sect, other Clans also believed that Tom would die this time. Not only would he die, but even his family and friends would suffer.

The Blood Thirst Sect was not an ordinary clan.

The Great King frowned and suddenly smiled. "Tom, you have a lot of guts. Originally, I thought that you were also the Chosen One and the only person in this era who could be on the same level as me, so I planned to let you die with dignity. But I didn't expect that you're so arrogant. In that case, I would chop you into pieces. Moreover, when the four great Clans invade the secular world and a bloodbath takes place in the H Country, I will find all your relatives and friends and kill them all!"

He ground his teeth and accentuated the last three words of the sentence. His murderous intent on Tom was even more condensed!

Tom only raised his eyebrows. He was not afraid of The Great King at all, but he was angry. He looked at The Great King, then extended his thumb, and slowly turned it upside down.

Chapter 1147

In an instant, The Great King's expression froze. At the same time, the corner of his mouth was twitching wildly. He looked extremely gloomy. Even he was so angry that his body could not help but tremble!

Tom actually made a thumbs-down gesture at him to humiliate him!

At this moment, The Great King was really angry. All he could feel was a surge of anger rushing from his abdomen to his mind.

The anger burned his entire body, leaving him in a state of absolute rage!

He was The Great King was the undisputed number one on the List of Immortals and was also the number one expert under the God Becoming Level!

This statement was not accurate. He was not only the top expert under the God Becoming Level, but many of the experts of the God Becoming Level were no match for him.

He was the most talented and miraculous one in the Half-step God Becoming Level. In front of him, all the geniuses were overshadowed. Or it could be said that any genius in front of him was not a genius, but a mediocrity.

And no one had dared to be so presumptuous in front of him in all these years!

Tom was the first and only one.

At this moment, his anger and killing intention towards Tom could be said to have reached the extreme. Even the air was still, and all the wind had stopped blowing. Even the clouds in the sky seemed to have stopped moving.

At the same time, on earth, all the people watching the live broadcast in front of the computer were stunned, their eyes widened, and looked at Tom on the screen in disbelief.

How dare Tom be so disrespectful to The Great King?

Especially those who knew The Great King and had seen The Great King's demeanor were now even dumber.

They could not imagine why Tom dared to do this. Was Tom really not afraid of death?

After all, The Great King was much more powerful than Melvin. As long as The Great King wanted to kill someone, then this person would die. Even at the ends of the world, this person could not escape from The Great King.

Back then, there was a God Becoming Level expert who was also considered a strong. Because he offended The Great King, he was chased by The Great King worldwide. Even if he hid at the ends of the earth, he was cruelly killed by The Great King.

It had been a thing happening several years ago. Now that so many years had passed, The Great King's strength had increased again. Who knew how strong The Great King was now?

At this moment, Tom did feel a strong killing intention surging in, making him feel a little suffocated.

The Great King really had an unprecedented killing intention to Tom. If it were anyone else, even a God Becoming Level expert like Adam would definitely be scared out of his wits and run away without any thoughts of resistance.

However, to Tom, provoking The Great King did not make him feel fearful. Instead, it increased the excitement and his desire to fight in his heart!

Over the years, he had challenged many strongs who were more powerful than himself. Without exception, all these so-called strongs were defeated by him.

Even The Great King, who was very influential, was no exception.

"Tom!" The Great King said angrily. His eyes, at this moment, began to turn red. In particular, his eyeballs were covered with blood, as if a vine had spread through his pupils, looking particularly terrifying.

At the same time, a strong black and red gas slowly emitted from his body, looking particularly terrifying.

After these black and red gases spread to the ground, they actually instantly withered the plants on the ground. The picture was extremely strange and terrifying.

The people watching the live broadcast could not help but shiver when they saw this scene!

There was no other way. The Great King now looked really horrible, completely beyond their endurance.

Anyone could tell that The Great King was really angry at this moment.

Everyone in Blood Thirst Sect fell silent at this moment. They were all staring at The Great King on the screen.

"Brother Carefree was so angry that he didn't hesitate to use Magic. He was going to kill Tom in an extremely cruel way!!!"

"Good! Great! That's what he should do! Tom is too arrogant and should be killed cruelly!"

"The Great King!"

"The Great King!"

"The Great King..."

Everyone in Blood Thirst Sect was cheering for The Great King. They all cheered that Tom must be dead this time.

Because they knew The Great King and knew that he was really angry and had a real killing intention this time.

Magic was an extremely strong move in Blood Thirst Sect. Once people used it, their own strength would improve a lot in a short time.

And they would enter a wild state, and any opponent who stood in front of them would be cruelly torn apart.

Moreover, the threshold of this move was extremely high, and only extremely talented people could cultivate it successfully. Therefore, there were very few people in the entire Blood Thirst Sect who could manage to cultivate it, and The Great King was one of them.

However, they had never heard of who The Great King had used this move on, because The Great King was so strong that he didn't need to use this move in front of any opponent.

Now Tom was the first and only one.

"No!"

In Y City, H Country, Albert and Legend were also watching the live broadcast. When Albert saw that The Great King had used Magic from the beginning, his face suddenly changed, "The Great King actually used Magic so quickly! He's determined to kill Tom! Tom is in danger!"

He looked solemn and worried, thinking that Tom was in danger this time and that it was likely that Tom would be killed by The Great King.

Even Legend's expression changed drastically at this moment. His lips trembled twice and he said, " The Great King actually directly used Magic. He doesn't intend to give Tom any way to live! What should he do now? Oh, why did Tom humiliate The Great King like this? He is courting death!"

When the others heard this, they were also extremely worried, but they did not know the power of Magic. They asked curiously. When they heard it from Albert, their faces turned pale and they thought that Tom would be dead this time.

Chapter 1148

Tom, who was in the Secret Realm, felt a huge crisis at this moment.

The The Great King brought him an unprecedented sense of crisis. All of a sudden, he was even fear of him!

Moreover, he had the urge to run away because he thought he was no match for him.

This was rare. With so many years of hard work, Tom had practiced and built a strong mentality. There was almost nothing that could shake him or scare him.

But the The Great King exactly scared him.

Usually, people at his level would have accurate intuition. In other words, it was not his illusion. The The Great King was really powerful and maybe even stronger than Tom himself!

However, he did not step back even at this moment. On the contrary, he quickly calmed down and adjusted his currently disordered breathing. He immediately recovered from nervousness, with his eyes calmer.

He looked at the The Great King quietly, with the intention of fighting kept rising. He knew that the The Great King was serious because he directly treated him with Magic, his special move. He could also feel that the The Great King was improving the momentum, which meant that he was not at his strongest state. In a while, the The Great King would acquire the ultimate power!

Logically speaking, it was the best time for him to stop the The Great King from accumulating momentum.

But he didn't do that. Instead, he was also preparing to enter his own fighting mode!

Unlike the The Great King, Tom's eyes did not turn red but became even white. It seemed that his pupils had changed from dark to white.

Without the color of pupils, his eyes were snowy white, which looked scary.

At the same time, his body began to emit white gas, which had the opposite effect of the The Great King's. When the white gas was spreading to plants on the ground, they would not wither, but began to grow at an obvious speed, flourishing as if they were under the magic!

The The Great King had already scared people enough, but what Tom had shown subversed everyone's cognition. It was unable to clearly understand or explain.

Why did this happen?

These plants were not mimosas, nor fast-growing plants. Why did they grow at such an incredible rate? This was completely unscientific.

Moreover, neither of them moved.

They stood dozens of meters away and observed each other.

However, instead of spreading in a circle around the two people, the two streams of gases emitted from their bodies seemed to be directed by them, sweeping towards each other. When the two streams of gases collided, they began to devour each other.

In addition, different shapes were formed.

The white gas from Li Tom turned into the shape of a dragon. The gas dragon widely opened its mouth and was trying to swallow the dark red gas from the The Great King. The gas dragon even made a sound like a real dragon's chant, which sounded extremely impressive.

While the dark red gas from the The Great King transformed into the shape of a giant viper. It also hugely opened its mouth, being eager to devour Tom's gas dragon. At the same time, it also hissed like a real viper. It sounded especially terrifying and creepy.

However, it was obvious that it was Tom's dragon-shaped gas that prevailed. Soon, the dragon-shaped gas continued to devour the viper-shaped gas.

It seemed that the The Great King was about to lose. Soon, his dark red gas changed in shape. It turned into the shape of a farmer, who reached out his hands and clenched the place which was about seven inches away from the dragon's head. This was the most vulnerable place of a real dragon. Then, the dragon-shaped gas started to dissipate.

Then, the dark red gas of the 'The Great King' began to pounce on Tom and swallow him. The viper immediately prevailed!

At the same time, Tom's white gas quickly began to accumulate and then transform into the shape of a fierce tiger. It suddenly bit off the farmer's thigh!

The two streams of gas kept transforming and colliding. Neither of them would like to give in. Unexpectedly, they were evenly matched.

The Strongs who were watching the live broadcast on earth were shocked and confused. They could not understand why Tom was able to compete with the The Great King. It was impossible!

It was even more unacceptable especially for those disciples in the Blood Thirst Sect.

"Did, did I see wrong, did I? The amazing Magic of our Brother Carefree was resisted by the damned Tom? This is impossible!"

"Didn't you say Brother Carefree is invincible, especially his Magic? This is the secret and the most powerful technique of the Blood Thirst Sect. He was impossible to fail! He should defeat Tom!"

"It must be that Brother Carefree didn't do his best. Yes, it must be like this! Brother Carefree is going to kill the damn Tom step by step!"

"That's right, it must be like this! Our Brother Carefree is invincible. When he comes back from the Secret Realm, it won't be long before he becomes the strongest man in the world. At that time, our Blood Thirst Sect will dominate the world!"

After encouraged each other, they soon resumed confidence in the The Great King. In their opinion, their Brother Carefree was absolutely invincible, and Tom was no match for him.

While people in the H Country were previously worried about Tom and even began to feel desperate. But when they saw that Tom was actually able to compete with the The Great King, they greatly relaxed.

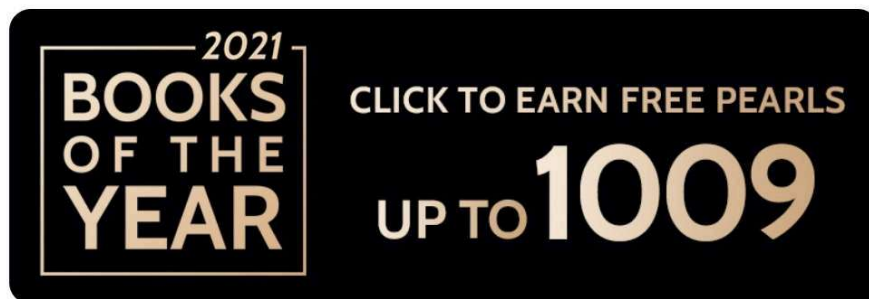

All their hopes lied in Tom. If Tom lost the competition, it would be a huge loss for the H Country, which was something they could not accept!

As for the The Great King, he was also surprised. He had even started to treat Tom with the Magic, but it didn't defeat him. This was really beyond his expectations.

However, he calmed down soon, because he had more trump cards!

"Tom, it's your time to die."

Finally, he adjusted himself to his best.
Then, he jumped straight at Tom,
starting to attack him.

Chapter 1149

The whole place was shaking. The The Great King just walked with ease but caused an earthquake!

The whole land under his feet was shaking. Trees around them shook so violently that leaves and fruits massively fell to the ground. It was as if the earth was quivering because of the shocking power.

Although there were only Tom and him within a hundred-kilometer radius, those on earth who watched the live stream on the internet gasped at this scene. They could clearly feel the ferocity emanating from the The Great King. The tumult his attack had caused was beyond most people's imagination.

Even those who had already heard of the invincibility of the The Great King were amazed by his actual force.

Even the frame of the live stream quivered as if it was affected by the power of the The Great King.

The quivering added to the audience's awe toward him.

In their opinion, Tom was doomed. A tragic death was awaiting him and there was nothing he could do.

The disciples of the Blood Thirst Sect perked up after the The Great King struck.

"Haha, the The Great King has finished condensing his power. Tom is such a fool to stand by and watch him accumulate momentum. Now he's dead!"

"Of course he's dead. Tom should've picked his rival more carefully. Compared with the The Great King, he's nothing but a playboy. Let see how he will be slaughtered in front of the whole world.

"That's right. His death will also pave the way for the conquer of the Secular World in the future. Hahaha..."

After the first blow, Tom realized that the The Great King was the most formidable rival he'd ever met and that he was in a fatal crisis now.

The The Great King was even more powerful than him.

He knew that it was difficult to defeat him.

However, that was what made this battle meaningful!

Tom was well aware that his main battlefield was not in the Secret Realm but back on earth.

The The Great King wanted to kill him to demoralize the Secular World and vice versa.

Considering that the Clan World was about to attack the Secular World and the The Great King was the representative of the Clan World, it would be a huge blow to the Clan World if he could use the The Great King's body as a stepping stone to his further development.

It would cause catastrophic loss to the Blood Thirst Sect.

And he also knew that if he killed the The Great King, the whole Blood Thirst Sect would be after him, but it didn't matter. Tom had never feared anyone since he'd started this course.

The The Great King didn't stop his attack.

While Tom was immersed in his thoughts, the The Great King had come to him.

He was so fast that Tom felt some pressure. The The Great King was faster than sound and reached him before the explosion of the air caused by his punch did.

It was after Tom parried his punch that he heard a loud explosion.

The The Great King was overpoweringly strong and his moves were extremely tricky. In front of him, Tom felt that he was at the end of his wits with all his thoughts being seen through.

This feeling was indescribable. It was as if he had no secrets in front of the The Great King at all.

Even his heart uncontrollably trembled when he raised his head and looked into the eyes of the The Great King.

He saw hell, death, bone-gnawing cold, and numerous skeletons in those eyes.

These were all the enemies the The Great King had killed. They'd turned into ghosts and were absorbed by the The Great King into his own spirit. Once they were woken, his opponents would feel great pressure and be influenced inevitably.

This was the first time Tom had fought the The Great King. The latter's eeriness made him expose the weak chink in his armor.

"Tom, you're about to lose."

Raising the corners of his mouth dismissively, the The Great King started a flurry of blows at Tom. His attacking angles were tricky and his speed was blinding. Above all, he attacked Tom in places where parry was impossible.

Bang!

Tom groaned as he was thrown away by a punch.

Blood welled from the corner of his mouth.

In less than a minute, Tom got punched by the The Great King and was injured!

This showed how powerful the The Great King was!

He'd injured Tom in the first round!

The The Great King stopped his attack after Tom was knocked off his feet.

With one hand behind his back, he gave him a scornful smile and said, "Tom, you should've gone against me. You'll die today."

Tom wiped off the blood streaming from the corner of his mouth without saying anything. His eyes turned icy.

"The The Great King, I underestimated you. I didn't expect you to be so powerful!"

Tom said in a low voice.

All the Strongs watching the live stream on earth gulped.

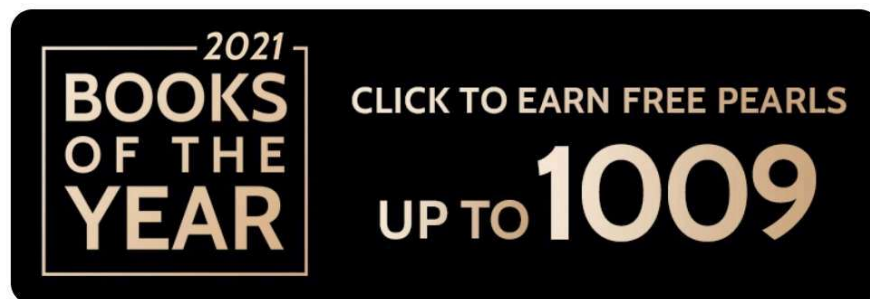

They were all shocked and deeply awed by the The Great King.

Even some old recluses fixed their eyes on the The Great King on the screens with serious faces.

The power the The Great King had displayed was horrifying, far beyond the power of a man at the Half-step God Becoming Level.

In the frame, although Tom and the The Great King had only fought for less than a minute, the surrounding forests in a ten-mile radius were all in ruins. The bodies of animals that had not been able to escape in time were everywhere.

Chapter 1150

After a few seconds of pause, countless comments erupted on the live-streaming website forum.

"Damn it! The Great King's strength is too terrifying! Is this really the strength that humans can control? It's only been less than a minute, the entire forest and everything within ten miles has been in ruins!"

"So terrifying. I knew The Great King was very strong, but the strength he is showing now is still far beyond my imagination. It seems that I was too naive and underestimated The Great King!"

"Is The Great King really still in the Half-step God Becoming Level? I don't think even an expert of the God Becoming Level could have the ability to do so!!"

"Yeah, an expert of the God Becoming Level will be no better than him. Not long ago, Tom and Adam had a fight in M Country, and I saw the live broadcast. But the damage caused by that fight was far less than this!"

"Could it be that the Clan World is on the right path? Humans really have no limits. We can break through infinitely. To a certain extent, we can even control our soul out of the body and achieve eternal life?!"

"I don't know. I just know that Tom was going to die this time. He was going to be beaten to death by The Great King!"

Hundreds of comments covered the entire website immediately.

The Great King injured Tom, obviously he was stronger than Tom. There were many people around the world watching the live broadcast. After they saw the scene, they had already assumed that Tom would die.

All the people in the Clan World cheered up at this moment, extremely excited and proud, and also crazily ridiculed the secular people on the live broadcast website.

"Hahaha, I was right. Tom in your secular world is just a nobody in front of The Great King. He is no match for The Great King at all!"

"Isn't that nonsense? What kind of person is the The Great King? He was the fierce man who has been the number one on the List of Immortals for a long time, and the chosen one of this era. Tom is just a greenhouse flower that the secular world has spent a country's fortune cultivating. He's not worth mentioning at all!"

"Haha, you secular people were very arrogant just now. Do you still think Tom will definitely win? Now come out and talk to me. How is it? Are you all mute?"

"Open your eyes and what do you secular people want to say? Tom, whom you had high hopes for, is about to die in The Great King's hands. It's amazing that he has been on the top of the List of Masters of the Secret Realm for the past few days. I didn't expect that he is so vulnerable in front of The Great King."

Faced with the ridicule and provocation of the Clan World, the Strong in the secular world all blushed, but they could not refute, because they also knew that Tom was defeated and was no match for The Great King.

This was really unacceptable for them!

Especially for the Strong in H Country, it was a huge blow.

Almost all the people of H Country had high hopes for Tom. They all hoped that Tom would be as powerful and invincible as before and kill The Great King in an absolute crushing manner.

Because in the past few years, Tom kept showing invincibility. No matter how strong his opponent was, he could also crush him directly.

But now, Tom let them down...

No, they were not disappointed, but desperate.

Even Albert was silent now, and his face was extremely gloomy.

Legend's lips trembled and he said, "Tom is going to lose. They are in the Secret Realm, the The Great King will not let him go!"

Joseph trembled violently. The walnut in his hand fell to the ground. For a moment, he looked as if he had grown old suddenly. His energy was gone. Finally, he sighed heavily and said with great regret and sadness, "It seems that Tom is going to die. Unfortunately, there is still over half of our National Fortune of H Country on him. I still hope that he can lead H Country to glory. But now it's impossible, all hope is gone..."

In the huge conference room, in addition to the three of them, there were a lot of people, and also senior leaders of H Country. They all had high hopes for Tom and thought that Tom had a great chance to win.

Once Tom won, H Country would have a powerful assistant who would definitely play a huge role in the next world war.

However, things went contrary to their wishes.

Tom lost, and so did they.

At this moment, a voice broke the silence.

"He won't lose!"

The voice was very abrupt, and its tone was extremely sharp, scaring everyone. They looked over and immediately saw a beautiful woman. She stood up. Her eyes were full of determination and confidence.

The woman was gorgeous, and her face was absolutely stunning.

She was Lexie.

Her eyes were bright and full of confidence. She looked closely at Tom on the screen and said in an incomparably firm tone, "Tom will not lose. He will definitely win!"

Hearing her words, everyone shook their heads and did not take her words seriously, because they could see that Tom had already been rendered powerless.

In a battle at this level, the two parties' strength was roughly the same. If one party was injured, it meant that his strength was weakened. Once his strength was weakened, his disadvantage would be infinitely magnified until he was completely killed.

In their opinion, Tom had already exposed his disadvantage, so it was already a matter of time before he was defeated.

It didn't even take long.

Albert sighed and said, "Turn off the live broadcast. Let's plan the details of the war."

When everyone heard this, their faces darkened, filled with despair and sadness. Even the God of War said so, then Tom really had no chance to survive!

"Alas, it's a pity that Tom is such a talented person and he is the hope of our H Country, but he is still a little unlucky in the Secret Realm. What a pity!"

Someone sighed with regret.

The others agreed with him, and their tears streamed down on their faces. They said, "Alas! Tom is still too greedy. He has already got eight fruits. If he swallowed them directly and broke through to the God Becoming Level, he wouldn't die in the Secret Realm."

"Ah..."

For a moment, the conference room was filled with sighs.
