

Chapter 1191

It was obvious that Albert was furious.

Kannon's face was pale. After he witnessed Tom's great strength, he felt regretful. He knew that the only person who could save him was Albert.

"Brother Campbell, for the sake of my half-blood of H Country, please help me beg Tom to forgive me." Kannon begged.

Albert snorted and ignored his words.

Now that the war was near, the Secular World really needed people, by which the fact made Tom unhappy. Situ and his son did it wrong this time. Even Tom chose to kill them, it would be justice.

Seeing this, Kannon knelt down directly in front of Tom. "Tom, it's all my fault. I beg you to forgive me this time! Now that the war has begun, as a God Becoming Level master, I could help you to some extent though I'm far inferior to you. I swear, I will act against you again!"

He said genuinely, and Tom felt that.

Tom hesitated for a moment and then waved his hand, "Fine. You can go."

Kannon was stunned. He was just trying to persuade Mr. Howard with little hope. After all, Tom was much stronger than him. He didn't expect Tom to let him go.

Then, when he came back to his senses, he was immediately filled with joy and said quickly, "Thank you, Tom! Thank you!"

After that, he turned around and went back. He helped Sawyer up and they together left quickly, in case that Tom would change his mind if they stayed longer.

Albert was also a little surprised. He didn't expect Tom to generously let them go.

"Tom, are you sure? Why?" Albert asked doubtfully.

Tom smiled and said, "He's right. The war is coming soon. The power of the Secular World is much weaker than the Clan World. Anyway, Kannon is also a God Becoming Level master. To keep him is better than to kill him."

Albert then immediately felt respectful to Tom. Legend said, "Aren't you afraid that he will make trouble for your family?"

Tom smiled disdainfully, with a rare expression of extreme contempt and arrogance on his face. "If he dares to, I will make him suffer a great deal."

Legend was silent. He knew that it was impossible for Situ and his son to trouble Tom who had incomparable strength.

Those who wanted to take revenge should really take Mr. Howard's strength into consideration!

It was not suitable to stay here for a long time as it was messy already. Some people who were watching the fight got injured.

For Tom, he didn't need to deal with this. Albert would arrange someone to clean it up. He just had to do his own thing.

Just as he was about to leave, Camila stopped him. "Senior Mr. Howard!"

Tom turned around and looked at her calmly.

Camila bit her lip and said, "I'm sorry about what happened tonight. I don't want to see it either."

Tom smiled and said, "It's okay. It's none of your business."

After that, he turned around and left.

For the next few days, Tom had been cultivating to further stabilize his strength and explore deeper. He always felt that his current strength was far from perfection!

There must be a higher level after the God Becoming Level.

However, it was too difficult to break through from the God Becoming Level to the next level. It was so difficult that many of the Strongs thought there was no way forward.

But Tom knew that there must be a higher level.

But the way would be even tougher to complete...

The Clan World began to attack the Secular World on a large scale, and more and more countries began to be attacked by the Sect World.

Many high-levels of these countries had been killed in this short period of time.

Yes, this time, the invasion of the Clan World did not start a war directly, but began their beheading action based on their advantages.

The Clan World was originally an existence which worshipped cultivation. There were not many of them, but all were masters. It was easy to start the beheading action, as most of the high-levels of could not defend themselves at all.

After the successful beheading action, they began to attack the local.

In fact, there were more than Four Major Sects in the Clan World. There were more than a dozen large and small Clans, including Nüwa Sect and the Saint Abbey.

Because Tom supported H Country, no one dared to make trouble for the nation for a while.

However, Tom knew that this serenity would not last long.

The attack from the Clan World was too overwhelming. Many small countries could not undertake it at all and began to ask H Country for help.

In this case, H Country could not ignore their requests, so it gradually sent troops to support.

With the help of H Country, these small countries immediately got time to recover from their loss.

Among these rescue actions, Legend went to a neighboring small country. He beheaded two half-step God Becoming Level masters, which made him trustworthy!

It greatly relieved the pressure of that small country.

However, with the help of H Country, the Clan World broke the serenity between the H Country and it, it began to attack H Country!

Among them, the first city to be attacked was from the north. Several high-level people were beheaded directly!

This action directly provoked anger in H Country.

At that moment, there were many masters going north in H Country. They wanted to kill those murderers from the Clan World in their country!

This time, it was the Little Martial God from Y City who fought. He now reached the Half-step God Becoming Level and was only one last step away from the God Becoming Level. Moreover, Y City was in the north, and it was best for him to take the lead.

As expected, the Little Martial God set a good example. He directly killed those masters of the Clan World in H Country!

Because of the Little Martial God, the war escalated, which also meant that H Country had officially joined the battle!

This time, countless small citizens began to know that this world was not the only one in existence as reported on TV, but there was some unknown world.

It caused panic.

Fortunately, H Country had already prepared for this moment, and did the appeasement work very well, which quickly suppressed this kind of panic.

But even so, it couldn't solve the key problem.

The war was getting more and more intense. As the Clan World did not just plot the beheading action, but began to officially attack ordinary people.

Chapter 1192

At the Blood Thirst Sect.

For Phoebe, she had been having a hard time for a month.

Ever since she was brought back by Cassio, she had not left the room for half a step. Without a cell phone, a computer, and a TV, she didn't have tools for entertainment or a way to know about the outside world. She had not seen anyone else except a maid who delivered meals regularly every day.

She felt as if she was cut off from the outside world.

This was something she had not experienced.

She felt lonely, deep in her bones!

In fact, she was not a person who could not stay alone. If she had enough faith, she could stay alone for a long time.

But that was based on faith.

And now she had no faith, so she felt every day appeared like a year in length.

She even wondered if it was the end of the world outside.

Did the Clan World begin to attack the Secular World?

How was it going in H Country?

What happened to her foster parents, her brothers and sisters, her relatives and friends, the people she cared about, and the people who cared about her?

There were no answers. She felt that she was now isolated from the world and became deaf and blind.

Finally, on this day, she couldn't help but rush out and leave this damnable place!

She didn't want to stay here anymore!

However, when she had just rushed to the door, the maid who appeared regularly every day appeared with a poker face. She looked at Phoebe calmly and stopped her, "Eldest Miss, please stay."

Phoebe said coldly, "Get out of the way."

The maid did not give in or reply. She just looked at Phoebe indifferently, as if she was just a soulless puppet.

Phoebe didn't say anything either. Attacking directly, she wanted to rush out of this damnable place with violence!

She wanted to go back to H Country to see her family, her friends, her husband. She belonged to that place, not this place!

Now that Phoebe was a master of the Innate Realm, she was no longer the weak woman who had no strength to tie a chicken. She was sure that she could defeat this maid.

However, she still overestimated herself.

Faced with her attack, the maid only reached out her hand faintly and suppressed all her moves. She pushed her back without any fluctuation, "Eldest Miss, please go back."

Phoebe gritted her teeth and continued to attack.

But the gap between her and the maid was too big. The maid did not exert much force and easily pushed her back every time.

Even if Phoebe changed her strategy and started to rush towards the window, the result was the same. That damned maid would always appear in front of her on time, then stop her, and gently push her back. She could stop her, but she wouldn't hurt her.

Phoebe finally knew that the maid was more than one level stronger than her. No matter what she did, it was futile!

Finally, her mentality collapsed and she could no longer remain calm. She shouted out loudly, "Get out of my way! I can't stay in this damnable place anymore!!"

However, even if she screamed hysterically, the maid was still indifferent, not even her eyelids twitching. There was still no emotional fluctuation in her words, "Eldest Miss, please go back."

Deep in her eyes, she showed contempt and disdain for Phoebe.

She knew who Phoebe was. She was the illegitimate daughter of Overlord Cassio, who had been kidnapped many years ago and was stranded in the Secular World.

Her strength was too weak.

But then, Phoebe made a move that made her unable to keep calm and her pupils constricted.

Phoebe picked up a pair of scissors from the table, put them around her neck, and said coldly, "If you don't let me go, I'll cut my neck!"

The maid was indeed frightened by her actions.

Cassio ordered her to take care of Phoebe. If Phoebe really committed suicide in front of her, then she would definitely take full responsibility, and the consequences of this responsibility would be one word-- death.

"Eldest Miss, overlord has told me that you can't leave here for the time being. So please put down the scissors in your hand." The expression on the maid's poker face finally changed. It was no longer as cold as before, and she said in a pleading tone.

Phoebe snorted and said, "I said I want to go out!"

The maid explained, "Eldest Miss, I've said it many times just now. You can't go out yet..."

Eldest Miss, please stop!"

When the maid saw that Phoebe actually began to cut her neck and a bloodstain appeared on her neck, she was frightened!

"For the last time, get out of the way. Otherwise, I will commit suicide here!" Phoebe said firmly.

The maid was really in a dilemma. Cassio gave her the order to guard Phoebe here. If Phoebe really died here, then her life would be over.

Just as she was in a dilemma, suddenly, there was a sound of footsteps coming from outside. Then, she heard a teasing voice, "Oh, elder sister, you have just come home for a few days, and you want to commit suicide?"

When the maid heard this voice, her nervous face softened a little. She quickly turned around and saluted a woman who came in, "Ahnu, pay my respect to the Akali!"

Akali?

Phoebe was surprised. Then, she looked over and saw a woman walking in from the door. The woman looked a little similar to her, wearing something similar to ancient clothes. There was a feminine aura on her body, which gave Phoebe an uncomfortable feeling.

"Are you my sister?"

Phoebe asked.

She was surprised that she had a sister. She was not alone here.

"Sister, you're just in time. Let me go!" Phoebe said eagerly.

However, the woman did not reply her, but walked to her unhurriedly and began to look at her with a kind of teasing, disdain, jealousy, hatred, and disgust. "Is you that father has been thinking about all these years, a good-for-nothing like you?"

Hearing this, the smile on Phoebe's face immediately disappeared.

She was not stupid. At this moment, she could understand that although the other party was her sister, she didn't plan to save her. Instead, she was to humiliate her!

It was the first time she had been called "good-for-nothing."

In the past, she always heard someone call Tom like that.

Chapter 1193

No matter who said that, it would Phoebe uncomfortable.

Her expression spoke volumes of her hostility and rejection towards Phoebe.

"Did I provoke you?" Phoebe said with a frown.

Akali walked up to Phoebe. She had to look up at Phoebe as she was a little shorter than Phoebe. But even so, the aura that she exuded was more imposing than that of Phoebe.

"You provoked me, indeed. How dare you ask me?" She showed her disdain to Phoebe. In her eyes, Phoebe was like an ant, in no position of standing alongside her.

"You do have a stench of Secular World!" She sneered and said, "Jimenez Ashlynn, you are really the black sheep of the Jimenez family!"

Whoever was suddenly insulted would definitely be as irritated as Phoebe.

"Shut up! First, my name is Phoebe, not Jimenez Ashlynn. Second, I'm your sister. You are not qualified to say that to me!"

Phoebe still looked very imposing now. Ever since she practiced martial arts with Tom, she began more confident. Also, she had the aura of a superior by running such a large Howard Group for a long time. So for a moment, she still had a few advantages in the face of Akali.

But soon, her aura paled in comparison.

Akali slapped Phoebe hard in the face, and cursed, "Shut up! You bitch! You don't deserve Jimenez as your last name. You have tarnished the reputation of the Jimenez family!"

Phoebe's face was paining, swelling up and bleeding.

She instantly became furious and fought back.

Unfortunately, her martial arts couldn't hold a candle to Akali's.

Just as Phoebe approached Akali, Phoebe was slapped hard on the ground again, unable to fight back.

Moreover, Akali, her sister, stepped on her chest, making Phoebe unable to get up. She pressed Phoebe on the ground and said with disdain, "You are the black sheep of the Jimenez family. I really don't know why father brought you back! You were even married and lost your virginity in the Secular World. Yuck!"

Akali spat on Phoebe's face and said with scorn, "Killing you will just stain my hands!"

Then she let go of Phoebe and said to the maid beside her, "Ahnu, keep an eye on her. If she dares to run away again, break her legs!"

Ahnu said with a little embarrassment, "Akali, but overlord..."

Akali said, "I will talk to my father. Just do it. I'll protect you. What are you afraid of?"

Hearing this, Ahnu looked more relaxed. Her eyes were full of worship as she looked at Akali. She nodded quickly and said, "I will follow your instructions!"

Akali nodded and left.

She did not look at Phoebe again before walking out of the room, as if Phoebe was just an unimportant fly to her.

Phoebe stood up and returned to her seat without saying a word.

She was deep in thought with her head down.

But no one knew how humiliated and resentful she was!

But she was at a complete loss. She was like, as Akali said, the trash in an isolated world.

She suddenly recalled the years when Tom lived under her roof. At that time, Tom must have suffered pain like this, right?

Fortunately, she had high psychological quality. Over the years, she had trained her mentality when enduring the vicissitudes.

Now she took a deep breath, quickly calmed herself down, and began to analyze the status quo.

First, she knew for sure that since her father had brought her back from the Secular World with strenuous efforts, he would not just leave her here.

Also, she firmly believed that she was still helpful, as Cassio had been looking for her.

In fact, ever since she broke through the Innate Realm, she was all the more sure that a treasure was hidden in her body. She wanted to tell Tom, but she held it back.

Because she knew that this treasure would surely invite danger!

Or, it was a huge danger itself!

She didn't want to hurt Tom.

She could tell that her biological father, Cassio, brought her back not for the reunion between them, but for the treasure of her body.

The treasure called 'magic power'.

She did not know how to use it.

But on no account should she give up easily.

In this month of loneliness, she thought a lot, but she thought about Tom the most!

Before she came, she was afraid of harming Tom and didn't dare to tell him.

But now, she missed Tom so much.

She had changed her mind and stopped resigning herself to the current situation. She had to survive by all means. She had to escape from the prison, return to the Secular World, return to H Country, and reunite with Tom!

Originally, she had never taken cultivation seriously. First, she was not interested in it. Second, Tom protected her and spared her the trouble ahead. As a result, she had been slack on the cultivation.

But now, things had changed. She wanted to break free by improving her cultivation!

And she had a secret that no one knew. Even Tom didn't know about it. That is, her martial arts talent could rival that of Tom and other geniuses in the world!

Then she closed her eyes and began to practice.

After hearing what Akali said just now, Ahnu was standing at the door and looking at Phoebe with disdain. She was bold enough to break Phoebe's legs if Phoebe tried to escape!

But now, for some inexplicable reason, she got terrified when looking at Phoebe, who was meditating with her eyes closed.

Chapter 1194

As for Tom, he got harder to enter a state of meditation recently.

Because he was no longer pure and calm. He had always been very anxious. This anxiety did not come from himself, but from Phoebe!

It had been a month since Phoebe was taken away.

However, he still hadn't heard from her at all. There was no way to find out who took Phoebe or where she was taken.

During this period of time, he had asked Amelia, Sunny, and his mother, but none of them told him!

The more this happened, the more uneasy he felt.

Their actions only showed one thing, which was that the person who took Phoebe was powerful. That man must be so powerful that they didn't think Tom stood a chance against him, so they refused to say anything.

So, after figuring this out completely, Tom stopped asking because he knew that no matter how much he asked, they wouldn't tell him.

In their opinion, telling him was like pushing him into the living hell.

At first, Tom was angry, but now, he understood.

In this world, Phoebe was not the only one who loved him. Whether it was his mother, Amelia, or Sunny, they all loved him. Naturally, they would not watch him die.

However, understanding did not mean consent, nor did it mean obedience!

A day together as a couple meant endless devotion. He had to save Phoebe no matter what.

Now, the battle between the Clan World and the Secular World was becoming more and more frequent, and the scale was getting bigger and bigger.

Even H Country began to be involved in the war.

Because of this war, ordinary people all over the world knew the truth of this world.

Under the circumstances of war, there were a lot of ordinary people who began to practice martial arts to strengthen themselves against foreign enemies and defend their country.

For a moment, there were also a lot of geniuses. In a very short time, many masters emerged and they even broke through to the Innate Realm.

This was the beginning of a new era.

Tom figured it out in this situation, which was actually a victory for the Clan World.

The reason why they attacked the Secular World was to spread the idea of cultivation to the whole world and assimilate the whole human race.

Now, in the case of war, more and more people realized that the thermal weapons, guns, rockets, missiles, and tanks that they relied on could not defeat these extraordinary experts who were excel in martial arts.

The state apparatus, which they thought so formidable, was so vulnerable to the Strong.

And they found that in fact, there were many higher-ups in their country who had been practicing martial arts, including some big shots and magnates. Only ordinary people like them were powerless...

Under such circumstances, their beliefs changed even more.

In a western country, after the leaders of their country were beheaded by the Four Major Sects, they directly used the largest local media to start a live telecast for the whole world.

It was Emmett who was speaking.

He stood in front of the camera with a bloody head in his hand, dressed in white, and began to speak with great passion, "Even your leader is secretly practicing martial arts, whose strength has reached the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. He, on the other hand, has been deluding you all day, saying that there is no martial arts, no transcendence, and no miracle, and that only athletes can push human limits. This is a hoax aimed at you ordinary people! He is humiliating you!"

Strangely enough, many citizens did not express so much anger and hatred after hearing his words, and many were even lost in their thoughts.

Emmett continued, "Let me tell you the truth of this world! This world is not just what you see on TV, newspapers, and the internet! Our greatest wealth is not money, not status, but ourselves! Our body is the greatest wealth! Because each of us has great secrets in our bodies!"

He constantly deluded people around the world into thinking that practicing martial arts was beneficial.

He told them what changes and benefits would ordinary people had after they practiced martial arts.

After the ordinary people practiced martial arts, he would first reached the Master Realm, then the Grandmaster Realm, then the Innate Realm, and finally the God Becoming Level...

He spoke with fervor and assurance in front of the camera.

Thoughts thronged people's mind, and yearning appeared in their eyes.

Finally, someone among the crowd said, "I want to practice martial arts too. I want to be a master too. I want to be powerful, but not a coward. I want to be immortal too!"

Others all agreed with what he said.

There was a fever in their red eyes, and they shouted louder and louder, "I want to practice martial arts too!"

"Yes, we want to practice martial arts too!"

"Why are you hiding it from us? Aren't we human?"

"Why are you doing this to us?"

"Are highborns born high? I'm so smart and I work so hard. Why should I be normal? If I practice martial arts, I can definitely become a super strong person and stand at the peak of the world!!"

More and more people were shouting.

Emmett, who was in front of the camera, showed an evil smile when he saw this scene. He succeeded in his scheme.

Of course, wise people knew that Emmett was deluding and assimilating ordinary people in a bloodless way!!

It was conceivable that once all the people were deluded and began to practice martial arts instead of working, what would the world look like?

It wouldn't be long before the world fell apart!

This was not an unfounded worry, but something inevitable.

There was a smart and conscientious person who discovered this problem, and he immediately stood up to appeal to everyone, "Everyone, do not believe in the hoax of these monsters! They are evil. They want to break our spirit and make us their lackeys. If all of us practice martial arts, then this country, and even this world, will soon collapse!!!"

However, no one really listened to him. Instead, most of the people regarded him as an enemy and soon ignored him.

Chapter 1195

Similar things happened in many places around the world.

Although Emmett's words were provocative and sounded appealing.

However, as long as people were rational and cautious enough, they would know that if everyone went to cultivate, then it wouldn't be long before the world collapsed!

It was not an alarmist thing.

Cultivation was as simple as doing business. People would still go back to work once their business was not running well.

But once ordinary people got involved in cultivation, they would not want to return to their ordinary life. They would directly forget their steadiness and responsibilities. Most importantly, they would forget their position and put too much expectation and confidence in themselves!

Moreover, if cultivation really went universal, it would cause a huge impact on public security!

First of all, it was not difficult for ordinary people to improve their strength in a short period of time if they got started.

Moreover, after their first cultivation, they would have an illusion that they were very powerful when they felt their strength and speed increase and thought they were much stronger than those athletes.

The most important thing was that when they first entered Master Realm as practitioners, their characters would also change, becoming violent, arrogant, and supercilious.

And the result was that the whole social order would collapse!

Once such a thing happened, the national power would be unable to stop it. Especially when there were people in Clan World making trouble.

When Tom heard Emmett's words, he immediately thought of this and his face darkened.

He could imagine that the whole world would turn into a hell!

And these were the purpose of those guys in Clan World.

He still didn't know the purpose of them doing this. Were they trying to die together?

Or did they think that there were too many people on earth and they wanted to have a big purge?

Like a voodoo?

No matter what, Tom had to stop this from happening.

Legend, who was on the side, smashed the TV and said angrily, "Emmett is simply a demonic scourge! What do he and people in Clan World want to do? Do they want to make everyone die together?"

Albert didn't say a word. He frowned and looked rather worried.

Joseph also said furiously, "How dare he! What do these guys from Clan World want to do? Is that their purpose? Do they want to destroy the whole world?"

In fact, not only he and Legend were very angry, but also many of H Country's top officials, who were now also very angry. They were not stupid and they could understand the harm of universal cultivation.

In fact, there were so many countries on earth that did not say anything about cultivation. It really wasn't that they were stingy, let alone selfish, and wanted to wield hegemony.

But they understood that if they did, the country would not be far from collapse.

So many countries had made the agreement.

Because it was conceivable that if the whole people started cultivation, resources would be a huge problem.

"Tom, what's your opinion?"

At this moment, Joseph looked at Tom and asked.

Tom was no longer the young man he used to be. He was now qualified to express his thoughts in H Country.

Everyone looked at him.

Tom said faintly, "They used a superficial ploy, and we had to hit back in the same way."

"Tom, have you thought of a plan?" Joseph's eyes lit up immediately.

The others also looked at him expectantly.

Tom said, "Well, just do as they say and let all the people cultivate."

"What?"

When everyone heard this, they thought they had heard it wrong. Joseph frowned and said, "Tom, did I hear it right? You mean, ignore them?"

Tom shook his head and said with a smile, "Of course not ignoring them, but that we have to secretly help them."

Hearing his words, everyone's faces changed even more.

Many of the executives even became angry and stared at Tom. If Tom wasn't in his current position, they would have scolded Tom in public!

However, they had to endure him now.

Legend said, "Tom, are you sure you're not joking?"

Everyone was very serious. For a moment, they did not understand the purpose of Tom.

Since everyone knew how bad the consequences of universal cultivation were, everyone tried their best to stop this from happening.

Why did Tom would like to help them instead of thinking of a way to stop them?

To be honest, if they didn't know that Tom was from a good family, they would have thought that Tom was also from Clan World.

Tom smiled under everyone's gaze and said, "A speech like Emmett can't be stopped. Clan World will make such a speech all over the world. This is their plan, and it's the biggest way they invade us! Because they know that if they only rely on force, their Clan World is definitely not enough to defeat us. No matter how many masters they have, we still have a lot of high-tech weapons."

When everyone heard his words, they all fell silent, thinking that his words made sense. But what does this have to do with what Tom said to help them? On the contrary, since they know the tricks of Clan World, shouldn't they try their best to stop them?

At this moment, Albert, who had been silent all the time, suddenly understood what Mr. Howard meant and said, "Tom, do you mean that dredging is better than blocking?"

Tom nodded and said, "Exactly, because they are doing it at the same time, and they are premeditated. We can't stop them on our own! Besides, the seeds of Clan World's bewitching the entire human race have been planted, and we can't stop them at this time. So, simply, let them develop and wait until the critical moment before we do anything. At this time, what we have to do is to protect ourselves and to unite..."

Chapter 1196

The people present were not stupid. When they heard what Tom said, they immediately understood with the expression of enlightenment.

Tom's words did make sense.

As the Clan World had already buried the seed of delusion, they could not stop it though they wanted to.

Moreover, it is the Information Age now, which could spread the news quickly. Within a blink of an eye, the news could spread all over the world, which was unlike the ancient era where information was blocked.

Therefore, it was almost impossible for them to stop this completely, even though they made it, what they needed to handle was more resistance from the people!

After they figured this out, they admired Tom even more. And the executives who were dissatisfied with Tom now felt guilty and realized that they misunderstood him.

However, someone soon found another key point. "Tom, your words make sense and is very constructive, but have you ever thought of a problem? That is, if we let it go, the balance will shift to the Clan World. By then, the situation will be even more difficult to deal with. If we can't even control it, what should we do?"

Yes, what this senior said hit the point and was worth considering.

Although it was better to unleash than block it, if we really let it go, this situation would be even worse. At that time, to a certain extent, the national power could not control it, then what should we do? Just allow the entire human to be deluded? Continue to wear out and die?

However, Tom seemed to have thought of this question for a long time. His expression did not change at all. Instead, he smiled and said, "This will not happen."

After hearing his words, even Albert was a little surprised and asked, "Oh? Why do you say that, Tom? Tell me."

"Because, if we do this, first we can blind the people of the Clan World. Second, we can also let those ordinary people who don't have much desire for cultivation gradually see the suffering of the people who practice martial arts. By then, these ordinary people will be on our team. Besides, we can also greatly reduce the pressure from the Clan World which attacks our ordinary people!"

When everyone heard that, they became even more confused. Why would it reduce the attack of the Clan World on the national forces?

In principle, wasn't their attack more aggressive?

However, Tom clearly understood the key point. He said faintly, "It's very simple. If we go against the Clan World now and divide the people into two parties, the cruel people from the Clan World will surely assassinate those who resist. Moreover, those ordinary people who yearned for cultivation would also become the same team with the Clan World and hurt people of the same kind. If this happened, it would satisfy the Clan World, so we must not do this! Since the Clan World has already taken a transparent step, we might as well treat them at their own game."

After a pause, his eyes flickered and he said, "When most of the ordinary people are focused on martial arts, which will reduce the slaughter, we can naturally let the Strong battle at the same time. By then, it will be the fight between the Strong in the Clan World and the Strong in our national force!"

"And once we defeat the Strong in the Clan World, the pressure on the ordinary people will naturally be relieved." Tom said with a smile.

Snap!

Joseph immediately patted his thigh hard and said excitedly, "Wonderful! Hahaha, Tom is indeed the wisest. He is not only excellent in martial arts, but also is countless times smarter than ordinary people. He should immediately understand the key to the question."

When the others realized the point, a smile appeared on their faces.

Indeed, he took a critical step.

Then, one of them asked, "Should we tell the executives of other countries to join us?"

Legend said from the side, "That's for sure. If we have more to back us up, we are more likely to win. And it's not just the war between H Country and the Clan World, but the war between all the national forces and the sect world!"

However, Tom shook his head and rejected his words. "You can't talk to them."

"Hmm?"

Hearing Tom's words, Legend was immediately stunned and confused. "No, Tom, shouldn't we be in the same team with the other countries of the world?"

Many people also felt confused.

Tom said, "It's useless to tell them, it will just be counterproductive. Besides, to a certain extent, if they can't bear it anymore, they will see clearly that our H Country is the best one in this battle. At that time, they will naturally come to ask for help."

Legend was confused and did not understand, but Albert understood. He smiled again and gave Tom a thumbs-up. "Tom, you're so smart. When the time comes, H Country will be the most powerful country. It will kill two birds with one stone!"

Joseph also understood when he heard this. His eyes lit up and he said, "Very good, with this example done by our H Country, they will naturally close to us and respect us. Once the war is over, then H Country's international status will definitely get higher!"

Speaking of this, Joseph actually bowed deeply to Tom and said, "Tom, I appreciate your effort on behalf of all people in H Country. Thank you!"

Tom was immediately shocked. He didn't expect that Joseph would give him such a bow. He quickly let him up and said, "Oh, senior, you definitely needn't do this. Just up! I just talk rather than take action. I can't accept your bow!"

Although many people did not bow like Joseph, they also sincerely admired and appreciated Tom.

It was conceivable how powerful H Country would be at that time.

Of course, the premise was that they won the war!

But it was too difficult. To be honest, many people present had no confidence at all.

Next, they began to discuss the details about how to do it.

These were all things to consider.

For Tom, the next thing he had to do was... to behead!

Chapter 1197

Today, it had been a week since Emmett was broadcasting live worldwide, inciting and deluding.

In this week, great changes had taken place all over the world!

First of all, almost everyone in the world saw the live broadcast and knew that ordinary people could also cultivate.

They also realized the benefits of cultivation. These benefits were not only the increase in strength but also the increase in the life span of ordinary people after they cultivate, which attracted their attention.

Especially those young people, who thought they were also martial arts geniuses, could definitely reach the peak of cultivation.

Of course, cultivation was not easy to conduct, but there was a very important reason why so many people did not cultivate. For most ordinary people, even if they wanted to cultivate, could not get the method of cultivation.

It was as if a person wanted to drive, but how could he drive without a car?

In the clan world, after deluding the people all over the world, what they did was to give everyone a ca r. The specific method was that they began to spread the method of cultivation.

The result was that in just a week, the world had changed a lot.

Many industries, many countries, were directly paralyzed by more than a half. Many people were not have the heart to make a living, to go to work and they focused on their cultivation.

This result was the biggest blow to the power of the country. For a moment, the economy of many countries plummeted!

Moreover, the crime rate also rose sharply.

This was a terrible thing.

It had only been a week, and it was already like this. One could imagine what would happen if there was more time.

By then, it would be a scene of man's mortality!

And these were things that no one wanted to do.

In this week, it could be said that H Country and a few countries did the best. Although many people in their country began to get agitated, they did not cause too much trouble after all.

In this battle, the power of the state could be said to have no ability to resist in front of the clan world.

At the same time, there were many people gathering in a luxurious manor.

And these people, without exception, were some masters, the weakest of who were all masters of the innate realm, and the strong after the fourth stage of the innate realm were countless. In addition, there were many masters like the major perfection realm of the innate realm, and even half a step of the major perfection realm were more than ten.

The scary thing was that there were three god becoming level masters in this manor!

It could be said that the power here could sweep through all small countries.

Even a powerful country must be extremely fearful in front of this force!

Now, they were singing and dancing, what a festive scene! Because they were celebrating that they had achieved such great results in just two months.

They were all from the clan world.

Of course, in addition, there were also many women, most of whom were abducted from the national forces. They were all looked beautiful like flowers, lively and colorful.

But here, they were all men's playthings.

They begged for someone to come and save them, but they all knew that such a wish was completely extravagant hope, because they had seen how powerful the strong here were!

They also knew that these people were extraordinary and powerful, and any one of them could cause great harm in society.

They hated why their country failed to protect them.

Let them fall into this painful abyss and suffer the humiliation of these gangsters.

"Hahaha, Emmett, your plan is really perfect!

Ever since you broadcast it live, all these mortals in the secular world have become eager to cultivate and have no intention of making a living. Soon, without our help, these countries in the secular world will collapse directly! And by then, it will be the time for the strong of our clan to rule the world. Haha!"

There was a man who was laughing loudly. He was a half-step god becoming level master. Now he stood in front of Emmett and flattered him.

In addition to him, someone immediately echoed, "Yes, yes! Emmett's hand is indeed perfect. We don't have to do it at all, and they collapse. This week, I've been amused to see those so-called national forces running around in a mess!"

"Vulnerable, I told you, their way is not feasible. If humans, want to live for a long time, only cultivation is the king's way."

"However, there are only those resources on the earth. By letting them cultivate and kill each other, it is once-and-for-all method to destroy most of the waste on the earth."

"Yes, there is too much waste on the earth. This waste should be dead and clean, which seriously hinder the development of our elites."

They were talking happily, but at the same time, they showed their disdain for those ordinary people in the secular world. For them, these ordinary people in the secular world were simply trash, waste, who should have been eliminated long ago.

Therefore, their actions are just acts.

However, they never thought that the ordinary people they looked down on were actually human beings and their kind.

Their behavior was no different from that of an animal.

Emmett became the main character of the night, and the method of deluding ordinary people in the secular world to cultivate was actually not what he had thought of, but what the higher-ups of the sect had thought of.

However, as an executor, he would not naturally give this credit out.

For the past week, he had been constantly deluding people all over the world to cultivate through live broadcast.

And now, it seemed that this effect was very good.

Now he was especially pleased.

Ever since he came out of the secret realm, he was now a master of the god becoming level. Although his current strength was not comparable to the top of the god becoming level, his strength was also not to be underestimated.

Now he, in terms of strength, was more than a few times better than when he was in the half-step god becoming level.

At this time, someone said, "By the way, with so many of our masters gathered here, is there any risk?"

Hearing this man's words, someone immediately said, "What risks can there be?"

The man added, "What if the secular side sends out masters to behead us and we are all killed? What should we do?"

Chapter 1198

After his words, it was silent for a few seconds. Then, someone said disdainfully, "Andy, you worried too much! Not to mention that it is impossible for the Secular World to know that we are here. Even if they know, so what? Who dares to come and kill us?"

"Right, see the people there. There are three masters of God Becoming Level, more than ten have reached Half-step God Becoming Level, and hundreds of Innate Realm experts. Do you think anyone in the Secular World is powerful enough to behead us?"

"Hahaha, Andy, your worry is completely unnecessary. If anyone from the Secular World really dares to come, they just asked for death, okay? I'm really looking forward to it. Who is brave enough to do it?"

Everyone on the spot expressed disdain and carefreeness. This was not because of their arrogance, but their confidence.

Because they were powerful enough as well. Not to mention in the Secular World, even in the Clan World, they were too strong to be underestimated!

As for being beheaded or hit by the so-called high-tech in the Secular World, it was nothing at all in their mind.

Even if a missile bombed here from the Secular World, it would not pose any threat.

For one thing, as a practitioner, they had a unique warning system which prevented them from danger. If something dangerous happened, they would definitely know in advance.

So they were not worried about it at all.

However, just as they were laughing disdainfully, a hurried footstep came from the door, and then, accompanied by a panicked voice. Someone stumbled in and shouted in horror, "Oh no, oh no!"

The interruption stunned everyone on the spot. Then, they all frowned when seeing the man's appearance.

The person who rushed in was a master of the Innate Realm. Although he was not particularly top-notch, he at least reached the Innate Realm, with his psychological quality far stronger than ordinary people. However, he looked frightened and shocked, as if he had seen a ghost, which immediately confused everyone present.

Someone realized what had happened and scolded him in a deep voice, "Rambo, have you met a ghost? You yelling ruined the happy scene!"

The person who scolded Rambo was the middle-aged Strong who seemed to be Rambo's boss.

The others frowned and looked unsatisfied as well.

Now they had won a huge victory and were celebrating. Suddenly, the guy rushed in, which really reduced their happiness.

But Rambo didn't panic at all. Instead, he said in a shrill voice, "Something bad happened. Something bad! Tom's coming. He's coming!"

Hearing the words, they were immediately stunned.

Tom?

Emmett first realized the situation. His expressions changed as soon as he heard the words "Tom"!

He was extremely familiar with the name.

Actually, after The Great King died in the Secret Realm, among the younger generation, he feared Tom most. He did not take any other Strong of the similar age in his eyes.

But he failed to expect that Tom would dare to come.

What idea he came up with first was that Tom was crazy!

Because in addition to him -- Emmett, there were two masters of the God Becoming Level!

Not to mention that so many masters were present as well.

Tom came here alone. No matter how powerful he was, it was impossible for him to kill them!

Could it be that Tom was not alone, other Strongs from the Secular World also came here?

If so, he really had to be careful!

Emmett immediately calmed down and spread his feelings to feel how many Strongs had come.

However, he could only feel Tom, the only Strong.

He suddenly became confused. Did it mean that Tom come alone?

Hearing the news, others also began to feel who came with Tom. Similarly, nobody else was felt.

At this moment, Tom had already walked in under the gaze of the crowd.

He just walked in slowly in white.

A faint smile was even on his face, which made him look kind as if he was just here to attend a banquet at ease. Those who didn't know him might suppose they were from the same camp.

Everyone closed their mouths and stared at Tom as he came in.

The atmosphere became very strange at this moment.

Facing so much hostility and murder, Tom seemed not to be afraid at all as if he could not feel it. He still smiled like a spring breeze.

He walked in step by step, glancing at everyone present and finally at Emmett. Then he said, "It seems that I came at the right time. All of you are here."

Hearing his words, for some reason, all people were down and became panic!

However, they soon realized that Tom was alone, while there were more than a hundred Strong people here!

Among them, three had reached the God Becoming Level. Why did they need to be afraid?

There was no need to be afraid at all!

Then, they regained their confidence and composure, and at the same time, some of them revealed their intent to kill him.

Someone walked out abruptly and stared at Tom, "Tom, you came here alone?"

"Yes." Tom nodded and replied.

The man added, "Are you here alone to be killed?"

"No, I'm here to kill you." Tom said happily with a bright smile as if he surrounded more than 100 people instead of being surrounded by them!

Chapter 1199

In an instant, everyone present was angry, furious!

Tom had a great reputation and was able to kill The Great King in the Secret Realm, he was worthy of being the chosen one of this era. No one in the same era would be his match.

But that didn't mean that Tom was the strongest person in the world, and he could trample on their dignity at will!

Now, Tom was trampling on their dignity and slamming it to the ground!

Tom now could only fight by himself, and they had more than a hundred experts here, including three God Becoming Level experts. Even if it was a medium-sized country, they could sweep it over.

But Tom came alone and said he was here to kill them?

How arrogant and hubristic was he?

Even The Great King had never been so arrogant when he was alive. To be quite frank, he never had done such a stupid thing!

So, at this moment, Tom had greatly angered everyone present.

Even Emmett and the other two God Becoming Level masters could not help but widen their eyes and get furious!

God Becoming Level masters couldn't be humiliated, even by experts of the same level!

One God Becoming Level expert laughed disdainfully. "Hahaha..."

He looked as if he had heard the funniest joke in the world, but there was no smile in his eyes. He glared at Tom, his eyes cold and full of murderous intent.

"Tom, I've only heard of your reputation before.

I've never seen you. Originally, I still had some respect for you, but I never expected you to be a lunatic."

The God Becoming Level expert said jokingly, pointing at him and strode out. "I would like to see how you kill more than 100 Strongs here."

Emmett's eyes were also full of anger, staring fixedly at Tom. This was not the first time he had met Tom. Before he reached the Secret Realm, he first met Tom in M Country. At that time, his strength was at the same level as Tom. He did not choose to fight Tom back then.

However, after a trip to the Secret Realm, Tom's power was above him.

From then on, Tom became famous for being above all of them!

He had long disliked Tom.

Although he knew that with his current strength, the odds were slim of defeating Tom.

However, this did not mean that he was afraid of Tom. On the contrary, there was a voice in his heart that one day, he would ruthlessly unscrew Tom's head and tell the world he was the strongest person in the world!

But he didn't expect that day would come so soon. He didn't know what was Tom thinking. How dared Tom to be so arrogant and come to challenge them alone.

The reason why Tom did this didn't matter. One thing he had to do now was to let Tom die here!

He clapped. "Good, very good! Tom, I didn't expect you would come to us. How dare you come here? In this week, you H Country didn't make any moves. I didn't know what you were thinking before, but now, from the moment you appeared, I figured it out. So H Country wanted to kill us at the least cost. Am I right?"

Emmett was still very smart. It was just Tom's one move, and he figured out the whole thing. No wonder Emmett was the Chosen One on the List of Immortals, only ranking after The Great King.

Even though he figured it out, it wouldn't change the result.

Tom smiled and looked at Emmett with some appreciation, "That's right. You're very smart."

So that was true.

When the others heard this, they became even angrier. If all the Strongs in H Country came together and used their so-called high technology to encircle and annihilate them, they would feel normal.

But now Tom was the only one here to implement this Beheading Action!

Was this a joke?

Emmett shook his head and said, "Tom, I admit that you are very powerful. Even people like The Great King was killed by you. You deserve to be the chosen son of our generation. But you shouldn't be so arrogant."

Speaking of this, he took a step forward, and the momentum on his body became stronger. "Do you think that you are really invincible in the world, so you can think nothing of the Strongs here? Beheading Action? Today, beheading is your head!"

At this point, Emmett's aura was already extremely powerful, covering the entire hall.

Not only he, but everyone present was also beginning to gather their momentum, without concealing their strong killing intent on Tom.

Moreover, they had a tacit understanding to surround Tom in a circle, which was to kill him here!

And they had the confidence to kill him here!

At this moment, Tom did feel a great pressure.

But that was all.

Gathering his momentum, Tom scattered the pressure with a second.

He did come alone to complete this mission. At first glance, he was arrogant and might die here, but in fact, was this really the case?

Naturally, the answer was no. He fought no battle unprepared.

Now, he said to Emmett, "Emmett, you have no idea how large the gap between our strengths is."

After saying this, he had already launched the attack.

In fact, he rarely took the initiative to attack. Now, facing Emmett and two other God Becoming Level masters, and so many other Strongs, his desires for fight surged throughout his body.

Beheading Action was his idea. And this was the best way to resist for his country!

Emmett was already prepared. When he saw Tom take the initiative to attack, his eyes flashed with murderous intent, and he snorted coldly. Without any hesitation, he lunged at Tom.

At the same time, the two God Becoming Level experts beside him also had a tacit understanding. They moved almost at the same time with Emmett and launched a siege on Tom.

They were very angry at Tom's arrogance and thought that he was courting with death. But they did not despise him. Instead, they gave him great respect!

They knew that Tom must be very powerful, because he had swallowed ten Fruits in the Secret Realm.

But what they didn't expect was that his strength would be so terrifying!

Chapter 1200

From the time Tom moved to the time Emmett and the other two God Becoming Level experts surrounded Tom, only a moment past.

In an instant, Tom fought with them at the same time.

One versus three.

Tom had just reached the God Becoming Level, but he had to face three top God Becoming Level experts, especially two of them were sophisticated experts. There was no suspense in this battle, no matter how miraculous and powerful Tom was.

In fact, they just met each other. But Tom directly showed his incomparable strength, directly attacking the three God Becoming Level experts!

Although Tom had just reached the God Becoming Level, his strength and level had been already not on the same level with those of Emmett, an ordinary God Becoming Level expert.

Tom used the moves smoothly, which could be said to be extremely fierce.

He had only made a move but defeated the three people directly. In the eyes of everyone else, Tom was now a big devil with an incomparably huge figure, while Emmett and other God Becoming Level experts in front of him looked small.

Tom gave Emmett and the other two God Becoming Level experts a feeling of invincibility with just one punch.

Moreover, they didn't even know how to describe Tom's punch!

In their sight, Tom's punch they saw didn't exist in this space, but as if flew from a distant galaxy toward the earth and them at an extremely fast speed.

That speed was beyond their comprehension.

That kind of power was completely beyond what they could bear.

In their opinion, such a punch should not exist in this world.

It was as if a huge meteorite had entered the solar system at a speed close to light from a distant sky and cut through the earth's atmosphere, burning and enveloping the three people at the same time.

It was a kind of absolute fear. The irresistible punch made them all fear, so they had an impulse to escape!

Bang, bang!

Tom's punch finally arrived. He punched the three people at the same time at an extremely fast rate. Because the three punches were too fast, so it seemed that they were thrown at the same time.

As a result, the two God Becoming Level experts, at the most critical moment, knew that there was no way for them to retreat. At an extremely fast speed, they put their arms in front of their chest and blocked Tom's punch.

They believed that Tom could only throw one punch which looked unreal and that he couldn't throw a second one.

Until now, they still believed that as long as they survived Tom's first attack, he would definitely lose to them.

However, they still overestimated themselves or underestimated Tom.

Almost instantly, Tom's punch hit their elbows almost at the same time.

It sounded like two nuclear bombs exploding. After the two punches hit their elbows, there was a huge sound wave. At the same time, with the sound of bones breaking, their bodies, like shells, flew out fiercely!

At this time, the third punch came to Emmett.

When Emmett felt Tom's punch, he already knew that things went wrong. He was the first to react and just dodged the punch at a speed that exceeded his level, so he wasn't hit.

However, even so, it scared him into a cold sweat.

At the same time, he also saw that the two God Becoming Level experts who were hit by Tom's punch bumped against several walls in a row and even bumped against a few trees. Finally, the strength disappeared.

The screams of these two God Becoming Level experts were still floating in this space, but he had already felt that the two God Becoming Level experts had no signs of breath.

In other words, Tom's punch had already killed these two God Becoming Level experts!

How powerful was this?

Even Emmett, when he realized this, his face turned pale, his body trembled, and he had boundless fear!

Originally, he thought that Tom was courting death. With him, Emmett, and the two veteran God Becoming Level experts fighting Tom together, Tom would have to give in no matter how powerful he was.

But in the end, he underestimated Tom's strength!

They just met Tom. Before they could fight, he had killed two God Becoming Level experts!

This kind of strength, this kind of overbearing and this kind of complete victory, made him have boundless fear. At the same time, he couldn't understand why the gap between them could be so big since they were both God's Favored People and they had both eaten the fruits in Secret Realm!

He admitted that he could not defeat Tom by himself. After all, he had only swallowed five fruits in Secret Realm but Tom swallowed ten!

Even if the fruits Tom ate were double those he ate, there wouldn't be such a big difference!

As for the strength that Tom had shown just now, it was no longer the strength of a First Rank of Becoming Level expert. Even a Third Rank of God Becoming Level expert was no better than him!

Emmett even seriously suspected that their overlord would be no match for Tom!

Of course, such an idea just flashed through his mind.

Soon, he heard a sound of surprise from Tom. Emmett was a little surprised. Then Tom looked over, as if he was a little surprised that Emmett was able to dodge his punch. Then Emmett heard Tom's praise, "Emmett, you're not bad. You can dodge my first punch. I don't know if you can dodge my second punch. If you can, I can spare your life."

Tom said this calmly, and there was even a smile on his face. How could there be any killing intention? It was as if he was chatting with a friend.

However, in Emmett's ears, it was extremely cold, extremely terrifying, and comparable to the voice of Death.

He had no any hesitation and did not hesitate to burn his cultivation and run away at the highest speed!

He now knew that he was no match for Tom. If Tom caught him, he would die.

He was decisive and reacted quickly. He was not simple.

Unfortunately, in front of Tom, he had no chance to escape.

Just in the blink of an eye, Tom chased after Emmett at the speed that was faster than that of Emmett!
