

Chapter 1221

When Phoebe heard that, her face lit up. She blurted out, "Really?"

With an amicable smile, Cassio gently stroked Phoebe's hair and said softly, "Of course it's true. I'll never lie to you."

Cassio looked so sincere, but Phoebe instinctively felt that something was wrong. She found it hard to believe that her father became so affable.

This seemed a little different from the father in her memory.

However, Phoebe was overjoyed to hear that. If what her father said was true, it was indeed the best result for her!

After saying it, Phoebe was also prepared to bear the anger.

However, what she didn't expect was that Cassio sighed, as if feeling guilty, and said, "It seems that you don't want to stay here. Anyway, if my son-in-law is willing to come here to pick you up, then you can go with him."

Trent frowned slightly in disbelief. In her opinion, Phoebe, who had been away for so long, did not know her father as well as she did. In principle, their father was not a push over.

Most importantly, Tom killed Melvin and King of Carefree, the Super Geniuses of the Blood Thirst Sect, and they were also the favorites of their father. She was unable to believe that her father let Tom go.

She felt unrealistic.

However, it was hard for her to say anything under the circumstances.

She decided to give Phoebe a reminder after her father left.

Phoebe said, "Well, could I go back and contact him?"

Cassio said, "There's a phone in the sect. You remember his number, right? Just call him. What do you think?"

Phoebe frowned. After all, she realized that her father wanted Tom to come here to pick her up!

And this was the Blood Thirst Sect, her father's territory. She was afraid that Tom would be in danger.

For a moment, she was caught in a dilemma.

Cassio's face showed some displeasure and he said, "Ashlynn, do you think I'm trying to trick you into getting Tom here?"

Phoebe quickly shook her head and said, "No, father, I definitely didn't mean that, but..."

"What?" Cassio seemed a little displeased. He waved his hand and sighed, "Well, since you don't trust me, forget about it. I'll let you stay here."

Phoebe panicked. She quickly shook her head and said, "No, father, you misunderstood. I... Okay, I'll call him."

"Well, alright." Cassio patted Phoebe on the shoulder and said, looking pleased, "I really hated that you married a man in the Secular World, because I thought everyone in the Secular World was mediocre, and no one could match up to my daughter. I used to be biased. Tom is a genius. He deserves to be my son-in-law."

After saying that, he continued to comfort Phoebe for a while.

When he turned around and left, the smile on his face disappeared in an instant and was soon replaced by coldness.

His acting was so excellent that Phoebe totally believed him, and she thought that Cassio really approved of Tom.

Trent wanted to say something, but Cassio gave her a look before he left, making her shudder.

She didn't stay with Phoebe for long either. After greeting, she found an excuse and left.

When she came out, she saw Cassio waiting for her in the pavilion.

"Father!"

She walked up and saluted Cassio.

"Yes." Cassio nodded and said blandly, "Don't be big-mouthed in front of Ashlynn, okay?"

After hearing this, Trent's heart suddenly thumped, and she was more certain that his father had lied to Phoebe to get Tom over!

She hesitated for a moment and said, "Father, Ashlynn seems very happy in the Secular World. Do you have to force her back?"

Cassio's face darkened. "Are you lecturing me?" He asked coldly.

Trent quickly apologized, lowering her head, "I don't dare!"

Cassio's face softened. He said in a gentler tone, "Trent, you are the favorite daughter of me. I have high hopes for you. I will personally send you into the next Secret Realm. It's up to you to fulfill the unfinished wish of your Brother Carefree."

Hearing this, Trent panicked and said, "Father, I'm no match for him."

Cassio said, "How come? He was killed by Tom, and his fortune is condensed on him. Otherwise, Tom won't be able to improve at such a fast speed. When he comes to the Blood Thirst Sect, I will subdue him, and you have to kill him and take his fortune. By then, your achievements will be greater than your Brother Carefree!"

Suddenly, Trent was shocked. It seemed that her father was thinking about killing Tom!

To be honest, after hearing this, she was surprised, but it also met her expectation.

She knew that her father certainly did not want to let Tom go, but it'd be a big blow to Ashlynn to kill Tom in this way!

She couldn't bear it and said, "Father, if we do this, wouldn't it be too cruel for Ashlynn?"

Cassio snorted, "Woman's pity! Ashlynn is from the the Jimenez family. Tom is not worthy of her! Besides, he killed so many elites in Clan World, which has made him the top enemy of us long ago. If I allow Ashlynn to be with him, we will stand on the opposite side of the Clan World! Otherwise, how can we explain to Melvin and Brother Carefree if we let him go?"

Trent realized that her father had made up his mind to kill Tom.

She had no feelings for Tom at all. Even when she found out that Tom killed Melvin and King of Carefree, she had a urge to kill him.

But Tom was Ashlynn's husband, after all, and it seemed that they were affectionate to each other.

It was conceivable how desperate and painful Ashlynn would be.

Chapter 1222

A few more days passed, and the war between the Clan World and the Secular World was getting more large-scale. At the same time, its influence was getting wider.

During the period of time, some small countries that were not very powerful had been taken down by the Clan World.

It was a battle of ideas, a slaughter of humanity, and the age of heroes.

Tom didn't know how many people died, how many sad stories took place, how many heroes were born, and how many families were destroyed during the war. Countless people lost their lives forever on the battlefield.

Among more than 200 countries in the world, there were few of them that could still completely maintain their sovereignty and avoided being violated.

H Country was one of them.

Even some western countries were inevitably implicated.

Generally speaking, science and technology developed fastly nowadays, and there was no way to fight against high-tech by manpower alone.

However, the strong people in the Clan World were too powerful. Not to mention the strong people in Innate Realm, there were even many people who had achieved God Becoming Level.

In the past, no one would have thought that there were so many strong people in the Clan World, especially those who were in God Becoming Level. They really caused a huge impact on major countries of the Secular World!

In the Secular World, major countries had developed advanced technology and weapons of mass destruction. However, the problem was if they could hit the target successfully.

Worse still, the Clan World disrupted people's minds by constantly spreading the method of practice around countries. Under these two tricks, major countries kept retreating with internal and external troubles. It was impossible for them to stop the invasion of the Clan World!

Some western countries even called the strong people of the Clan World superheroes, like superman and iron man in science fiction movies...

It was awfully disadvantageous for all major countries.

As a result, more and more countries began to ask H Country for help.

Under the circumstance, H Country did not stand by. It sent its own elites to help other countries.

However, it was not very effective.

Therefore, many people resorted to Tom. To them, Tom was their savior.

Only Tom himself could solve the current plight.

But where did Tom go?

They couldn't find Tom for a moment.

After killing Thoreau, Tom devoted himself to practice.

Defeating Thoreau was a big gain for Tom.

Most importantly, he learned the real identity of Phoebe's father from Thoreau.

Her father was Cassio, the overload of the Blood Thirst Sect, who was also the strongest person of the current world.

To be honest, Tom was shocked when he heard the news.

He wasn't afraid of Cassio. On the contrary, he knew clearly that there would be a battle between him and Cassio sooner or later. However, he didn't expect that his rival would be his father-in-law. What a coincidence!

Tom knew very well that Cassio would definitely not let him go. For one thing, he was now one of the strongest people in the Secular World, and he killed so many strong people of the Clan World. For another thing, he killed Melvin and King of Carefree in Secret Realm. Cassio could not let him go.

However, he never expected that Cassio would be Phoebe's father.

Now that Phoebe was with Cassio, Tom could not help but worry.

He thought more than once to attack the Blood Thirst Sect no matter what happened.

However, every time when this idea came out, he held it back because he knew that with his current strength, it would be no different from committing suicide!

In the Blood Thirst Sect, Cassio was not the only strong person. There was also a Supreme Elder called Oliver. Besides, their disciples were not easy to deal with.

The whole world was at war now, so he could never use H Country's power to rescue Phoebe. This would undoubtedly get H Country into trouble.

So he had to hold back and continue to practice to enhance his strength. When he had enough strength, he would consider going to the Blood Thirst Sect!

He went to the Blood Thirst Sect to save Phoebe, not to die for love.

He had always remembered it clearly.

Fortunately, he had been progressing very quickly during this period of time. He was getting stronger every day.

The longer he practiced, the stronger he would become.

However, he also knew that he didn't have much time.

That day, he received a call from H Country. They asked for his help, so he had to show up ahead of time.

"Tom, I heard you killed Thoreau?"

Albert asked in surprise as soon as Tom arrived in Y City.

Tom was a little surprised that Albert knew it. When he fought with Thoreau, there was no one around them.

"How did you know that?"

Tom asked. Obviously, he tacitly admitted the news.

Albert stared at Tom and said, "Tom, you're really something! You could defeat a strong person like Thoreau now."

It was obvious that Albert was indeed quite emotional. He had to admit that the waves pushed forward waves.

After a pause, Albert said seriously, "Thoreau is a big shot. He is the strongest person of the Sky Reaching Sect. The news that you killed him has spread. The Sky Reaching Sect will definitely seek revenge on you in the future. You should be careful."

Tom nodded and said, "Yes, I know."

"By the way, Professor Campbell, why do you look for me this time?"

Albert sighed and said, "Well, I believe you probably knew that this war came too fast and too intense. Many countries have fallen. If this trend continues, we will lose. And we can't afford to lose."

Tom kept silent for a while. How could he not know?

Even if he had not joined the war yet, he could feel the intensity of it.

Now, he had the force of H Country on him, so he could sense that it was weakening.

What was worse, the force of many countries around the world was also decreasing. Some even showed the sign of extinction.

If this continued, the whole world would not last long.

Although his previous suggestion was effective, it still seemed a little inadequate facing such a huge war.

"Okay, I probably know what to do."
Tom nodded and said.

After a pause, Tom thought of something and asked, "By the way, Professor Albert, what do you know about Cassio?"

Chapter 1223

"Cassio?"

When Albert heard this, he was obviously astonished. Then he frowned and seemed extremely fearful and in awe in a flash.

Although his emotions were well hidden, Tom still could tell at a glance.

Albert was in awe of Cassio!

And it may not be just the simple fear and awe. Obviously, Albert was so afraid of Cassio that as long as he heard the name, he would shudder.

To be honest, Tom had known Albert for a long time, and it was the first time he had ever seen Albert so afraid of someone.

Even King of LT Organization had never made Albert this shudder before!

In fact, Tom already knew the answer he wanted from Albert's reaction.

Cassio was really a terrible and horrible person!

No wonder he was said to be the strongest in the world!

"Yes, I was talking about Cassio." Tom nodded and asked, "Professor Campbell, have you ever seen him?"

Albert sighed and said, "Yes. I had the honor to meet him once in the Secret Realm. He is the strongest person I have seen during all these years. His talent is no worse than yours. In our era, he was the Chosen One that could never be defeated. At that time, no one could compete with him though there were so many Strong and talented young men. Even the super-strong and the Chosen One of previous era were killed by him..."

Hearing this, Tom was really shocked.

He knew that Cassio was the strongest man in the world, but he didn't expect Cassio's strength to be so terrifying. He even killed the last Chosen One?

How horrible was he?

Tom now knew that everyone had a certain amount of fortune. If someone killed his opponent in a specific way, he would get the dead's fortune.

Now that Cassio killed the last Chosen One, he definitely got the mental force of the dead. How horrible was Cassio's strength?

To be honest, Tom couldn't even imagine!

To be honest, it was not appropriate at all to say that the reason why he, Tom, could achieve what he got today was his talents. He would never dare to say that. He knew clearly that he had come all the way here because he absorbed the fortune of many people by coincidence. In the beginning, especially, he swallowed the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit in Lion Mountain. Then he gathered the fortune of H Country by chance in the Kungfu Cup, and only then did he start to advance by leaps and bounds.

Later, he killed King of Carefree in the Secret Realm and swallowed a hundred fruits. That was why he could achieve what he had today.

Hearing Albert's words, Tom knew that Cassio's experience couldn't be worse than his.

Besides, the most horrible thing was that Cassio was much older than him. Who knew how strong Cassio was today?

To be honest, even Tom had no confidence in winning if he fought Cassio now.

"Tom, do you want to provoke Cassio?"

Albert thought of something and stared at Tom. "Tom, you must give up this idea immediately! Although you are a genius and the Chosen One of this era, and you have swallowed a hundred fruits in the Secret Realm, don't forget Cassio is also the Chosen One. He had been practicing for decades longer than you. Even if he had only swallowed seven fruits in the Secret Realm, you could never win him now!" Albert said in a deep voice.

Albert was very serious. He was not joking at all.

In fact, Tom felt a little upset after hearing what Albert said.

However, that did not mean he was afraid.

He had come through all kinds of obstacles, difficulties, and crises of life and death to today. There was no concept of fear in his dictionary anymore.

Cassio was strong, but he would never fear Cassio. Besides, he had already confirmed that Phoebe was taken by Cassio. How could he be afraid?

However, Tom didn't tell Albert about it. He smiled and said, "No, I just want to know him and prepare for the future fight."

Hearing Tom's words, Albert nodded and chose to believe him. Indeed, Now the Clan World and Secular World are at war. Cassio, as the strongest person in the Clan World, would naturally stand on the opposite side of H Country. It was inevitable for Tom to fight with Cassio.

So he told Tom everything he knew.

Hearing Albert's words, Tom felt heavy-hearted. He further realized Cassio's extraordinary strength.

But at the same time, he was also encouraged. He must win!

In the following days, the war continued in full swing. With more and side of the Secular World. Otherwise, things would be even crueler.

He now realized that the Clan World started this war not only because of the battle of ideas.

They must be using this war to prepare for something!

Under such a cruel environment, Tom became more and more silent. The less he spoke, the more he did. He put all his spare energy into practising, without any waste.

He had an intuition that the final competition between him and Cassio was about to come. He must do his best to improve his strength during this period of time.

more strong people joining the war, more and more people also died. It was a disaster and slaughter.

Many people had been numb they were extremely fearful. Human life became a number to some people. Tom finally realized the cruel truth that human life was as unimportant as an ant in a chaotic world.

He had tried his best to change the situation. However, his ability alone was just a drop in the ocean. He couldn't take care of everyone. He deeply understood that there was only one chance to stop this war!

That was to decide the winner!

Moreover, the winner must be on the

He couldn't lose. If he lost, everything would be gone!

Fortunately, his efforts were not in vain. During this period of time, his strength was improved by leaps and bounds. He achieved the Third Rank of God Becoming Level!

Meanwhile, he was also engaged in decapitation strike. He challenged the Strong in the Secular World and also killed the strongest people in the Clan World.

Finally, he received a strange call one day. And he heard a familiar voice over the phone!

He had missed the voice for a long time. He wouldn't forget about it even if he died!

It was Phoebe!

Tom was even ready to fight the Blood Thirst Sect alone save Phoebe, no matter what difficulties he would meet.

But now, he was surprised and happy because Phoebe actually called him in advance.

He instantly understood that her phone call might mean that she was out of trouble.

"Phoebe? Is that you? Really?" Tom asked carefully. Although he had heard Phoebe's voice with certainty, he still didn't dare to believe it. Because he hadn't seen Phoebe for a long time and he highly missed and worried about her.

Chapter 1224

Hearing this voice, Tom paused immediately.

"Hello, Tom, it's me, Phoebe." She said.

Tom had a familiar and strange feeling when hearing her voice.

He felt familiar because he had heard this voice for many years.

He felt strange because he had not heard her voice for a long time and even not met her for many days.

To be honest, at this time, he never expected to receive a call from Phoebe.

This was beyond his expectation.

If he hadn't been mentally strong enough, he would have been suffering from anxiety by now!

Therefore, he had an illusory sense when he answered Phoebe's phone call.

Finally, Phoebe cried on the other side of the phone. "Tom, it's me, Phoebe. I miss you so much."

Hearing her voice, Tom was about to cry.

He really missed her too much. When hearing Phoebe crying and feeling her love from her tone and words, he bordered on crying.

However, Tom soon calmed down because he knew that there must be some trouble for Phoebe to call him at this time.

"Phoebe, I miss you very much." Tom expressed his emotion and said, "Phoebe, how have you been lately? Haven't you been hurt?"

In fact, when he asked this question, he was nervous. Besides, he almost wanted to kill anyone who had hurt her if she said she was bullied by someone. If Phoebe lived a bad life at the Blood Thirst Sect and was bullied, he would rush to the Blood Thirst Sect immediately!

But Tom tried to be calm and refrained his emotions because he wasn't sure if Phoebe's call had been monitored or if someone was right beside her.

In fact, Tom was right, because beside Phoebe stood next to Cassio who was aggressive and murderous though smiling in an amicable way.

Cassio deliberately asked Phoebe to call Tom.

When Phoebe heard this, she quickly shook her head and said, "Nothing. I'm fine. I live a happy life here."

"Really? That's fine!" Tom answered.

Then Tom felt relaxed because Phoebe was not bullied.

However, he was not completely relaxed when hearing her answer. He clearly knew that there was a long-running feud between him and the Blood Thirst Sect. Besides, he also knew that Cassio would try to kill him by hook or by crook regardless of the romantic relationship between him and Phoebe.

After all, Tom killed Melvin and King of Carefree of the Blood Thirst Sect.

Tom and Phoebe chatted a few words and both expressed their deep love for each other.

But Phoebe didn't dare to say much. Then she coughed twice and said, "Tom. I told my father about us and he agreed to our marriage. He wanted to see you in person. Is it convenient for you to come over during this time?"

Phoebe said this softly and felt nervous and hopeful.

However, Tom immediately knew why she called her this time.

The worst-case thing Tom was worried about still happened. Tom knew Cassio asked Phoebe to lure him to the Blood Thirst Sect!

Tom had thought of this possibility before but did not expect that it really happened.

Tom thought carefully and understood that Cassio knew his relationship with Phoebe. Cassio knew he wouldn't give up her.

Then Cassio convinced Phoebe to call Tom by talking with her about family.

Tom clearly knew that if he went to the Blood Thirst Sect alone at this time, he would probably die!

However, he could not refuse Phoebe's requirement when she said in this way.

Phoebe noticed Tom didn't say any words and quickly asked carefully, "Tom, if you have something to do, you can come back later."

Tom felt that she was as considerate as ever.

When hearing her words, Tom felt warm and helpless.

Tom could not refuse Phoebe, the woman he loved the most in his life.

Just as Tom was about to speak, a man said. "Tom, I'm Phoebe's father and your father-in-law. I want to see you."

Then Tom instantly became indifferent!

Tom could clearly it was Cassio and knew that this man was threatening him though with a friendly tone.

Tom knew Phoebe would meet troubles if he didn't go over.

Such a despicable and shameless man.

Tom thought Cassio, Phoebe's father, was so vicious.

However, at this time, Tom had to agree.

Tom could refuse this requirement unless he didn't want Phoebe anymore.

So Tom smilingly said, "Okay, father-in-law, I'll be there. But I don't know your address. Can you tell me?"

Cassio quickly replied. "It's very simple. Ashlynn and I are now in the Gods Killing You must know where the Blood Thirst Sect is. We are waiting for you."

Chapter 1225

Cassio seemed to be friendly like he was looking forward to meeting his daughter-in-law.

Even Phoebe didn't notice Cassio's untruthful kindness. But how could Tom be easily deceived by Cassio?

Tom immediately noticed Cassio's malice and his intent on murder.

Cassio was obviously plotted against Tom, making threats against Tom with Phoebe's safety and forcing Tom to come to Cassio.

Though Tom knew that meeting Cassio was risky, Tom couldn't refuse Cassio.

Tom clearly knew that he had no choice but to face it. If Tom didn't go, Cassio would definitely hurt Phoebe!

Although Cassio didn't say it directly, how could Tom ignore Cassio's malice? If Tom didn't go, Phoebe would be in danger.

Tom remained silent for a while, then smiled and said, "Well, I definitely accept your invitation. But I have been busy recently and can't leave H Country. What about you come to meet me? I will definitely entertain you!"

Tom responded politely and hid his sarcasm.

But Cassio smiled and narrowed his eyes. Though Cassio had never seen Tom before, Cassio had heard of Tom countless times.

Previously, Cassio had never taken a young man like Tom seriously. But now, Cassio had to admit that Tom surpassed him and made him feel threatened. So Cassio let Phoebe make the call, threatening Tom with Phoebe.

Before, although Tom was very powerful and showed great talent, Cassio didn't take Tom seriously and focused on getting Phoebe's magic power. As long as Cassio got it, no matter how powerful Tom was, Tom couldn't beat him.

But now, even Thoreau who reached

Third Rank of God Becoming Level was killed by Tom. It brought Cassio a sense of crisis. Cassio realized that if he didn't kill Tom as soon as possible, he might fail miserably.

So Cassio called Tom today.

Cassio gave a bright and kind smile and said, "Ha ha ha, thanks for your suggestion, but I'm too old and can't be fagged to visit a country so far away. You'd better come. Phoebe's big day is coming. As her husband, you should be present, right?"

Hearing this, Tom became furious.

How could Tom not realize that Cassio was going to hurt Phoebe?

"The big day" mentioned by Cassio was definitely not something good but dangerous.

Although Tom did not know the purpose of Cassio's painstaking trip to H Country to take Phoebe away, Tom was sure that Cassio would hurt Phoebe. Cassio clearly didn't cherish Phoebe as his daughter.

Tom hesitated for a while, thinking about how to deal with Cassio. Finally, Tom nodded and agreed, "Yeah, I should be there to accompany Phoebe. I'll come."

"Okay," Cassio smile and then gave the phone to Phoebe.

When Cassio turned his back to Phoebe, his eyes were immediately full of coldness and malice. There was no trace of kindness.

Cassio was determined to kill Tom. As long as Tom dared to come, he had no chance of survival.

In fact, the reason why Cassio called Tom here was not only because he was afraid of Tom, but also because Phoebe's magic power was going to be mature.

It would be great if Tom was there on such a big day.

Phoebe then chatted with Tom. Phoebe did not realize that she had already caused great trouble for Tom. She was even very happy to hear that Tom was coming to pick her up.

Tom noticed Phoebe's joy, but didn't tell her Cassio's true color. Because Tom didn't want to make Phoebe worry and feel guilty. Tom wanted to give her a happy life.

With Cassio around, Phoebe didn't chat with Tom for long. After finalizing the date, Phoebe hung up the phone.

"Father, Tom is very filial. He will definitely take good care of you," Phoebe walked up to Cassio and said seriously. She tried to persuade Cassio to accept Tom.

Although Phoebe had no affection for Cassio, Cassio was always her biological father. They had an inseparable blood relationship. If Cassio could accept Tom, it would be thinking those. No matter what, he would never abandon Phoebe. He would not cowardly escape though he was not fully prepared..

Tom decided to put all his energy into cultivation. He must make full use of the last few days, cultivating crazily, to adjust himself to the best state.

Besides, Tom had to make a plan. Cassio was obviously plotted against Tom. So if Tom came unprepared, he would definitely suffer!

Tom couldn't let that happen.

He had to come up with a way to minimize the risk!

Originally, Tom wanted to tell Albert about it, but after thinking about it great.

Cassio smiled, patted Phoebe on the shoulder, and said with a smile, "Really? I look forward to meeting him."

After Tom hung up the phone, he sighed heavily and felt a weight on his mind!

To be honest, he had considered saving Phoebe from Blood Thirst Sect, but now was not the appropriate time. Tom was not strong enough and fully prepared, and was caught off guard by Cassio.

Moreover, because of the world war, H Country and the Secular World needed him.

Tom shook his head and stopped carefully, he gave up the idea.

Because Tom knew that if he told Albert, Albert would definitely go to the Blood Thirst Sect with him. In this way, Albert would be implicated. Tom couldn't do this.

H Country needed Albert now.

Therefore, during the rest of the time, Tom also devoted himself to help develop H Country.

The appointed day had finally come. And Tom went to the Blood Thirst Sect alone.

Chapter 1226

Tom had long heard of the Blood Thirst Sect.

It was no exaggeration to say that the Blood Thirst Sect was the largest force in the world, and its strength was greater than that of many countries.

Even a big country like H Country had no advantage over the Blood Thirst Sect.

In particular, there were super strong ones like Cassio and Oliver as well as so many powerful people in the entire Blood Thirst Sect. If they really fought, H Country was not a match for the Blood Thirst Sect.

Tom also knew that there would be a fight between him and the Blood Thirst Sect sooner or later.

But what he didn't expect was that this day would come so soon.

If he had enough time, he would be very confident to fight against the Blood Thirst Sect in three or five years.

But now, it was still too early for him.

But there was no choice, and he had to go to the Blood Thirst Sect.

Although Phoebe and Cassio did not tell him the exact location of the Blood Thirst Sect, this matter was not difficult for him.

Three days later, he was already standing in front of the Blood Thirst Sect.

Tom raised his head and looked at the towering Sect, which covered a large area and gave people a feeling of absolute oppression and deterrence. He had to admit that the Blood Thirst Sect's strength was still beyond his expectations.

In particular, he could clearly feel that there was huge fortune in the Blood Thirst Sect, and it showed a thriving scene.

Tom didn't have to look for it. He could clearly feel that there were many powerful people in the Blood Thirst Sect.

Among them, there were countless people in the Innate Realm, and he had never seen so many cultivators above the Innate Realm.

Tom was so excited and proud when he first stepped into the Innate Realm. And he thought that he could go anywhere he wanted.

He thought that he had stepped into the Innate Realm, and he would stand at the peak of the world.

In retrospect, he was still too naive then.

After experiencing so much, he now understood that the Innate Realm was really nothing but an entrance.

As long as there were enough efforts and methods, it was not difficult for ordinary people to step into the Innate Realm.

Only the God Becoming Level was the real difficulty.

In the Blood Thirst Sect, he could feel that there were a lot of experts in the Innate Realm, and even the masters in the God Becoming Level were not rare!

No wonder that the Blood Thirst Sect was the world's largest force.

Tom had also been to the LT Sect, but it was far behind the Blood Thirst Sect in terms of talent.

Standing in front of the Blood Thirst Sect, Tom could not calm down. He knew what was waiting for him once he stepped in.

It was very dangerous, and a little carelessness would cause his death!

However, no matter how many difficulties and obstacles ahead, he had to go in.

He was standing there, and soon attracted the attention of the people inside. Soon, two young men in long robes leaped over and stood in front of him. They looked at him arrogantly, as if they were born to be nobler than him.

"Who are you?"

The two young men were both experts in the Innate Realm. Although their level was not very high, they were talented, and it was possible for them to reach the God Becoming Level.

Even the two disciples guarding the gate had such talent. It was conceivable how strong the talent pool of the Blood Thirst Sect was.

Tom cupped his hands politely, not saying that he was Tom. He was not stupid.

Cassio asked him to come over. But he wouldn't be so stupid as to use his real name to scare them off.

Although he was confident in himself, it didn't mean that he would be so stupid.

He was already prepared to disguise himself as an ordinary disciple of the and then get into the Blood Thirst Sect in other ways. Anyway, he couldn't let Cassio know that he had come early.

Of course, although Tom thought that in his mind, he still looked very respectful and said, "Sure. What can I do for you?"

The disciple had a curious expression on his face and said, "Bro, I heard that you went to participate in the battle in the Secular World. Have you seen Tom in the Secular World?"

Hearing this, Tom paused, and then he was getting nervous!

What did he mean? Did he already know that he was Tom?

But he still remained calm, shook his Blood Thirst Sect, so he could get in secretly.

After inquiring about it, the two disciples found there was nothing wrong. The name and information were right, and Tom seemed very ordinary. So they did not suspect him and quickly let Tom get in.

However, when Tom was about to enter, one of the disciples stopped him and said, "Bro, wait a minute."

Hearing this, Tom got nervous. Was he exposed?!

He was ready to kill them with one strike.

If he was really exposed, then he could only kill the two disciples immediately head, and said, "I haven't seen him. If I found him, I would definitely kill him!"

Tom said with confidence and hatred, and he was also looking at the two disciples from the corner of his eye.

He immediately found the two disciples laughing, not at him, but at his naivety. It's obvious that they knew about Tom's reputation.

The other disciple said, "Hahaha, bro, it's good that you think so, but I suggest that if you really meet Tom, you should run as far as you can. Don't think about killing him."

"Do you think I'm afraid of him?!" Tom pretended to be very angry.

The disciple waved his hand and said,

"It's not easy for the ordinary disciples like us to deal with Tom..."

After a pause, he asked again, "By the way, you've been in the Secular World for so long, and you must have heard a lot about Tom. I heard that he killed Thoreau. Is that true?"

Tom finally realized that they were not suspicious of his identity, but interested in Tom.

Tom laughed in his sleeve. He didn't expect that he was so famous in the Blood Thirst Sect.

Chapter 1227

But it was normal. He was now the public enemy of the Blood Thirst Sect and even the public enemy of Clan World. It was normal for him to become famous.

After entering the Blood Thirst Sect, he really stepped on the land of the Blood Thirst Sect and immediately felt that the fortune and vitality in the Blood Thirst Sect were different from any other country in Secular World.

Even LT Sect could not compare with it.

Here, Tom felt deeply what it meant to be a place of great people, with the aura of the Strong coalescing almost everywhere.

This place was especially grand and full of vitality. He had a feeling that if he practiced here, it would be faster than anywhere else.

And most importantly, the seasons were like spring all year round. It was winter, but not cold at all. Blood Thirst Sect was not located near the equator, but near the north pole.

This showed that the Blood Thirst Sect is indeed a very magical place!

Tom had already disguised himself and changed his aura. His presence wouldn't be felt by anyone who was not particularly familiar with him.

Along the way, he had to admire that Blood Thirst Sect was a good place. No wonder it could have so many Strong experts. In particular, Blood Thirst Sect had good martial skills. He saw many disciples practicing here, and their basic skills were very good.

This was a holy land of martial arts.

"Hey, have you heard of it? The overlord is about to choose a husband for Eldest Miss Ashlynn."

"What? Is there such a thing? I've never heard of it."

"Hmph, of course you haven't heard of it. You are not qualified enough. This is insider information!"

"Since it's insider information, how do you know?"

"You don't understand. I heard it from the master..."

Choosing a husband?

When Tom passed by, he heard this and immediately stopped and frowned.

He knew that Phoebe's other name was Ashlynn. She was Cassio's eldest daughter. So the two disciples must be talking about Phoebe.

But what does choosing a husband mean?

Just a few days ago, Cassio asked him to come over, and now he was going to choose a husband?

Was Cassio fooling him?

Tom could not help but feel angry.

He was ready to fight Cassio to death, but he didn't allow Cassio to use Phoebe or even hurt her!

However, he did not say anything and listened to the two of them quietly.

Soon, a third person came over and heard their conversation, "What are you talking about? When did the overlord say he was going to choose a husband for his daughter?"

"Hello, Senior Marcus."

When the two disciples saw this young man, they immediately make a bow with hands folded in front respectfully. Tom also saw at a glance that this young man named Senior Marcus was not simple. He had the Innate Realm of Major Perfection Realm. He was powerful at his age.

"Don't talk nonsense about such things, okay?" Senior Marcus said with a cold expression.

The man just now added, "Senior, the master shouldn't lie to me. Besides, Senior Sister Ashlynn is indeed at the age of marriage."

After Senior Marcus heard this, he was silent for a while and said, "You may as well wait until the overlord has announced this message before discussing it."

Hearing what he said, the two disciples also knew that this must be true. Otherwise, Senior Marcus wouldn't have said that. When Tom heard it, his pupils immediately shrank!

It seemed that Cassio was really going to choose a husband for Phoebe. Cassio was humiliating him. He didn't take him seriously, nor did he care about Phoebe's happiness!

In an instant, Tom's murderous intent on Cassio was was intense to the extreme.

Because of the leak of his killing intent, the three disciples immediately felt, especially Senior Marcus. He was instantly on the edge of his seat and immediately looked around.

"Murderous!"

Senior Marcus said in a deep voice.

Tom sobered in an instant and suppressed the murderous aura. After one breath, he regained his composure.

Soon, Senior Marcus noticed him and stared at him, "Where are you from? Why do you look so unfamiliar?"

Tom was now completely calm. He cupped his fists at Senior Marcus and said with some respect, "I'm from Danfeng Mountain."

Tom explained his disguised identity. There was indeed this person. In addition to Tom's current inconspicuous appearance, he did not attract Senior Marcus's attention.

After leaving here, Tom's mood was somewhat heavy. After walking around the Blood Thirst Sect, he was almost certain that Cassio was really going to choose a husband for Phoebe!

And, the time was just three days from now!

It had to be said that Cassio was really cunning. The time they agreed on was in five days, and Cassio had to force Phoebe to marry two days ahead of schedule. It was obvious that Cassio wanted to infuriate him.

ut he didn't know whether Phoebe knew it or not!

He had been in the Blood Thirst Sect for two days, and in these two days, he had looked around the Blood Thirst Sect.

First, he got familiar with the location of the Blood Thirst Sect so as to plan for a retreat route.

Second, he had a clear understanding of the strength and structure of the Blood Thirst Sect.

Third, he tried to find out where Phoebe lived and saw if he could secretly take Phoebe away.

He did a good job with the first two. He had a clear understanding of the retreat route, the strength and the structure.

As long as he handled it well, he could take Phoebe away directly.

Unfortunately, the third point was that he never found out about Phoebe's residence. It was not that he was not capable enough, but that Cassio hid Phoebe too well. Not many people in the entire Blood Thirst Sect knew about Phoebe's residence.

Soon, time passed and it was finally the day for Phoebe to choose her husband.

On this day, the entire Blood Thirst Sect didn't work and took part in this grand banquet of choosing a husband!

Even, besides the Blood Thirst Sect, there were other three sects!

It was so lively.

Seeing this, Tom felt more and more worried.

Under such circumstances, it was absolutely impossible for him to take Phoebe away with force!

He could only take it wisely.

Soon, he thought of a way...

Chapter 1228

Tom decided to beat them at their own game.

Cassio wanted to choose a husband for his daughter. Well, then Tom would participate in the selection. With absolute strength, he would defeat all the competitors and marry Phoebe openly!

In fact, all along, Tom had a regret that he didn't give Phoebe a very decent wedding.

Back then, they got married without even holding a wedding. They then just lived together.

In the beginning, they hardly treated

So he had absolute confidence that he could deceive Cassio.

When Tom defeated all his competitors and marry Phoebe, the entire Blood Thirst Sect would definitely let down their guard. Then on the wedding night, he would secretly take her away. He then just completed his mission effortlessly.

Then, he thought about the plan in detail.

However, there was a loophole in this plan. Would the identity he was using now arouse suspicion?

No, it would definitely arouse suspicion.

So, could he stand the investigation?

each other as a wife and husband. Moreover, in the first few years of their marriage, he was like a chore man for the the Scotts, and she never treated him as a husband.

But later, there were so many difficulties they had overcome together, then their relation was deepened by the day.

Therefore, the unaccomplished wedding was indeed a pity to him.

Now that he had the opportunity to give her a proper wedding, he must seize it.

Moreover, he had already disguised as another person. Even if Phoebe might not recognize him.

But after careful consideration, he came up with an idea.

It was to disguise oneself as another disciple.

And this disciple was not from the Blood Thirst Sect, but from another unknown Clan. In this way, the Blood Thirst Sect had no way to investigate him.

After making up the decision, he took action quickly.

Three days passed in a flash.

During these three days, Tom had made good use of time. Apart from cultivating, he kept dressed up as another person, and asked about the specific steps and contents of this "husband selection."

In his mind, he had thought of countless plans. At the same time, he also anticipated every possible situation and solution to each of them.

He was no longer an impetuous young man. Now he did things in a pragmatic manner and he couldn't make any mistake this time.

"What?! Choose a husband for me! You can't do that to me!"

At this point, Phoebe suddenly heard the news, and was taken aback.

Only a day before the selection, she realized that Cassio didn't really want to wait for Tom, but wanted to choose a husband for her!

It was clear that Cassio did not treat her like a daughter, for he never really cared about her thoughts.

And she would never accept such a thing!

She was already the wife of Tom, which would never change.

However, her father did not give her the chance to refuse at all. He looked down at her coldly and said, "It's not up to you this time."

As soon as she heard that, she gnashed her teeth and said, "But you promised me. Tom will come the day after tomorrow. As a famous figure, you're not going to go back on your word, aren't you?"

Standing beside her were Trent, Akali and some senior members of the Blood Thirst Sect. Yet they all turned deaf to such a situation.

Cassio said coldly, "Anyone can participate in the selection this time. If you and Tom are really destined to be together, he can participate. If he can defeat all the competitors and win, then I won't stop you being with him anymore."

"You!" After hearing this, Phoebe was very angry and felt that her father was incomparably shameless. He had an agreement with Tom that they could meet the day after tomorrow. But now that Cassio had held the "husband selection" two days in advance. Tom hadn't gotten this news yet. How could he come early and participate?

If Tom was here now, he would come to meet her at first. But if he didn't, then...

Thinking of this, she felt extremely aggrieved and painful. She felt that Cassio had gone too far, but she could do nothing to change his mind. Right now, she was both helpless and hopeless.

"But he doesn't know you bring the selection forward. I'll call and tell him now!" She then looked for her phone.

But he stopped her and said coolly, "You don't have to call him. This is a test for him. If he can't even pass this test, then it means that you're not meant to be together."

She then grew very emotional. If she could defeat him, she would show him no mercy.

But no matter how she struggled and begged, he still ignored her and even pointed her acupoint, making her unable to move. Now she could only accept the upcoming selection.

Tears flowed from the corner of her eyes.

Seeing this scene, the people present showed different expressions.

Trent was sympathetic to her, but Trent couldn't help her. At this time, if she spoke for Phoebe, not only would it be useless, but it would worsen the situation. She knew their father too well, and knew that once he made up his mind, there was no way to change it.

As for Akali, the smile was glued to her face. She gloated over Phoebe's miserable situation.

And the other disciples were considering whether they should participate in the selection.

After all, if they could marry Phoebe, the eldest daughter of Overlord Cassio, their status would definitely increase from then on.

Finally, the grand ceremony of husband selection from the Blood

Thirst Sect was held as scheduled!

In the vast square, countless people from all over the world, elites and higher-ups of many Clans, came to participate!

Then, under everyone's gaze, a group of people walked to the stage, including Phoebe and Cassio.

At this moment, Phoebe, in splendid attire, displayed her beauty to the greatest extent. From the moment she came out, everyone present was impressed by her stunning beauty.

She was a great beauty. Her facial features, figure, and temperament were impeccable.

In particular, after she cultivated and reached the Innate Realm, she became even more charming.

When she appeared, there was immediately a burst of exclamation and cheers from the crowd.

"Wow, is she Cassio's daughter? She's gorgeous!"

"She is the most beautiful woman in the world!"

"And she's Cassio's daughter. If I can marry her, I'll get rapid promotion in life!"

Chapter 1229

Not many people were interested in Phoebe.

These people were elites, they were young and handsome, and extremely talented geniuses.

They all knew that as long as they married Phoebe, they would be much more successful in their careers and would gain more power.

This was also the reason why the selection of Phoebe's husband stirred up the entire Clan World and attracted so many people.

In fact, many people didn't know what Cassio was thinking.

there was no opponent here who could be a threat to him.

The only one that could be a threat to him was Cassio.

Except for Cassio, even Oliver was no match for him.

Of course, as a person who belonged to the Secular World, and Tom himself had killed so many masters of the Clan World, it was very dangerous for him to be here alone. Once his identity was revealed, then he would not only have to combat Cassio but also many others.

He would have to combat the entire Clan World.

By then, no matter how powerful he

Logically speaking, considering Phoebe's status, her marriage should be treated more seriously.

What if the winner of the selection was not a disciple of the Blood Thirst Sect, but someone else? Would Phoebe really marry that person?

But no matter what, since Cassio dared to hold this selection, then others dared to participate in it.

Tom hid within the crowd and did not say a word. He looked insightful, but he did not pay too much attention to Cassio and Phoebe since he feared being discovered.

He focused more on the powerful people present and soon found that was, he would not be able to escape!

Therefore, he was undoubtedly dancing on the tip right now. He had to be extremely careful with everything and could not make any mistakes.

Fortunately, his disguise was very successful. In order to test the effect, he deliberately walked in front of Phoebe and found that Phoebe didn't realize that was him.

Since even Phoebe couldn't find out that was him, let alone the others, he was a little relieved.

Soon, after Cassio's opening remarks, the selection of Phoebe's husband officially began!

To be a participant, there were several requirements.

First of all, the person must be a member of the Clan World, he must have reached the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. He could not be older than 40 years old and must be single.

These were all the requirements for participating in the selection.

Tom took part in it.

His first opponent was a master at the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm from the Blood Thirst Sect. His opponent was tall with a murderous look.

After Tom's opponent stepped on the stage, he saw Tom. His face was full of disdain and he said proudly, "I will give you a chance to surrender or you will die."

Tom didn't say anything. When the bell rang, he directly took the first move.

Tom did not show his peak strength from the beginning but rather suppressed his cultivation level to the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. It took him two minutes to defeat his opponent.

He didn't win very easily, and he looked very low-key and inconspicuous, so he didn't attract too much attention.

Soon, Tom encountered his second opponent, also someone who had reached the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. But this opponent was more powerful than the previous one.

However, since that person's opponent was Tom, of course, there was no suspense at all.

It took Tom only five minutes to win his opponent with difficulty, seemingly.

When Tom won the second round, he caught some people's attention.

But that was it.

The competition went on fiercely. Many people participated and many competitions were held at the same time, therefore, the audition was quickly finished. It did not take a long time for the top 32 people to be selected.

Tom was among them, and at this moment, finally, someone noticed Tom.

"Hey, have you ever heard of this man named Bishop? He is one of the top 32 people, he is quite powerful!"

"Yeah, I've never heard of him. Where was this Bishop from? Since he was one of the top 32 people, he must have reached at least the Half-step God Becoming Level!"

"I've heard of this name before. This Bishop is a genius from a small Clan. He usually keeps a low profile. I didn't know that he also joined this selection hosted by the Blood Thirst Sect. But I didn't expect him to be one of the top 32."

"He is powerful since he can make it to the top 32. However, this is the furthest he can go. The rest of the top 32 people are all famous masters, and some of them have even reached the God Becoming Level. This Bishop is definitely not a match for them."

When Tom heard these people's discussions, he looked excited and proud, but his heart actually remained calm.

Cassio also looked at him, but Cassio was only a little surprised and appreciative, it was obvious that Cassio did not recognize that he was Tom. Nor did Cassio find out about his real level.

Hearing these discussions, Phoebe also paid some attention to him, but she only glanced at him for a moment and quickly looked away. Her eyes were dull, it was obvious that she was in pain now.

Tom sighed. He really wanted to go up and take Phoebe away now. Unfortunately, he couldn't do that.

In the end, he was not powerful enough!

He took a deep breath, cleared his mind, and focused on the battle.

The selection on the second day was intended to pick the winner out of the top thirty-two.

All the battles were under Tom's control. His first opponent on the second day was a Half-step God Becoming Level master. His opponent was powerful and had quite a few fighting experiences. Tom showed his strength of the God Becoming Level in this battle, crushing his opponent.

After this battle, he attracted a lot more attention and many people were surprised. Obviously, no one had expected that Bishop, who looked so inconspicuous, actually had the strength of the God Becoming Level!

This was incredible!

One of them patted his head and said, "I suddenly remembered that this Bishop had been to the Secret Realm the last time it was opened! This guy is so low-key that almost all of us have forgotten about it."

"So he's a God Becoming Level master... This guy can really conceal his ability."

Many people were surprised, including Cassio. He looked at Tom again, and this time he looked at him seriously.

Tom was still a little nervous inside, but soon he suppressed this emotion and showed the emotions that Bishop should have. Pride, nervousness, excitement...

Cassio nodded again and considered "Bishop" as a real identity.

Then, Tom entered the competition of the top 16, the top eight, the top four, and all the way to the finals!

After he reached the finals, the name Bishop spread quickly among the crowd.

Phoebe also heard the name for the first time, she muttered, "Bishop, Bishop". She didn't know why she felt this name sounded familiar to her.

Chapter 1230

Then Phoebe observed the man named Bishop carefully but only noticed that "Bishop" and Tom were totally different no matter how she looked at this man.

She noticed they were different in appearance, figure, and even temperament.

But the name "Bishop" was meaningful. Phoebe always had intuition as if she had seen this Bishop somewhere.

Like Phoebe, many people were looking at Bishop and didn't expect that such a strong young man would appear from the Clan World.

In the face of this situation, Tom act so impeccably that people could find anything wrong.

At first, someone did associate him with Tom.

However, after careful investigation and observation, they slowly changed their idea because this "Bishop" was different from Tom.

Some people deliberately touched Bishop's face during the examination and found it was a pure original appearance without any traces of disfigurement.

So they all thought that this man was Bishop, instead of Tom, because they had never heard of any martial arts in the world that could change people's appearance.

Even plastic surgery would leave some traces, there was no unnatural trace on the face of "Bishop".

This was Tom's secret.

He kept this method secret and did not tell anyone, including Albert.

In fact, he learned this skill after he came out of the Secret Realm.

He could now change the appearance of his face at will, without any trace. He guessed that it related to a hundred fruits he had eaten and felt he became more powerful in a different way after swallowing a hundred fruits.

After eating a hundred fruits, he not only improved his strength but also got some skills that ordinary humans did not have.

Therefore, he was confident enough to come to the Blood Thirst Sect alone and show up in front of so many people!

It turned out that what he did was right because no one in the entire sect world could recognize him.

In the final, Tom's opponent was a genius of the Blood Thirst Sect.

The genius had reached the God Becoming Level and was very powerful.

The genius stood on the stage with his hands behind his back and looked at Tom indifferently. Although he didn't give any taunt, it could tell that he was supercilious and highly disdained Tom from his gesture.

The genius was highly confident, instead of arrogant.

First of all, he was a super genius at Blood Thirst Sect, with a higher level than the King of Carefree.

As a God Becoming Level expert from the Secret Realm last time, he didn't care about Bishop, a younger generation.

Most importantly, the genius had carefully observed Bishop's battle and had an understanding of Bishop's strength. And he thought that Bishop was weaker than him though Bishop was indeed strong.

"Bishop, no one expected you to reach the finals. That means you are strong. You are excellent." The genius said to Bishop with some appreciation in his tone and regarded Bishop as an excellent younger generation although Bishop was his opponent.

Tom did not say anything but looked at his opponent quietly.

Tom didn't afraid though clearly knowing that the genius was a second-class God Becoming Level expert.

"You'd better give up." The genius paused and said, "You're not my snorted, "I'll give you one last chance. You'd better give up. Otherwise, you will die."

Then, the genius became so aggressive and murderous that everyone present could feel his determination.

Tom just clenched his fists and shook his head to say stubbornly, "No way!"

Tom, though came from a small sect, was unyielding and determined and wanted to challenge the God's Favored People of the Blood Thirst Sect. As a result, many people secretly praise Tom.

Even some masters of the Blood Thirst Sect looked at Tom with admiration.

However, the genius felt being opponent. I don't want to hurt you."

The genius said calmly and confidently.

Tom smiled faintly at this moment. "If you don't try, how do you know I'm not your match?"

"Hmm?" The genius replied.

The genius immediately frowned and became unhappy because Tom didn't accept his advice and even offended him in this way.

The genius was determined to get Phoebe.

The genius had decided that he would ill anyone no matter who hindered him.

The genius became solemn and offended by Tom and snorted heavily. Then the genius became murderous and aggressive and then took the lead in attacking Tom.

The genius directly used Thunder, a highly powerful martial art, and wanted to hit Tom seriously.

Many people shook their heads and thought that Tom was doomed to die.

But then, everyone was surprised because Tom did not panic in the face of this situation and behaved calmly.

Tom was not as powerful as his opponent in terms of his level.

However, Tom boasted a rich fighting experience and could use various martial methods.

Even under the oppression of his opponent, Tom did not fall to a disadvantage. Instead, he could easily handle this situation with his strong fighting talent, which surprised everyone. Once again, they were appreciative and surprised at this contestant named Bishop.

Some masters even wanted Tom to be their disciples!

These masters could tell this young man named Bishop was not as good as his opponent and just reached the First Rank of God Becoming Level.

However, with his excellent fighting skills, Tom always saved himself from danger and could fight with a higher-level master.

But the genius was highly furious and aggrieved because he, as God's Favored People of the Blood Thirst Sect, could not easily deal with a man from an insignificant sect. And he felt humiliated.
