

The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

Chapter 3941 - 3950

The improvement is far beyond Gong Qianqiu's expectations, which is definitely an unexpected surprise.

Seeing that the first son fell asleep again, Gong Qianqiu got up and went to find the seventh son.

The various performances of the Seven Holy Sons were seen by Gong Qianqiu yesterday, and now I am afraid it is the moment when I look forward to my appearance.

He carried a food box in his hand, which contained a bowl of porridge and two dishes of side dishes.

When I came to the residence of the Seven Saints, I saw that the door outside was open, and there was a faint snoring sound from inside.

"This child, it's noon and still awake?"

Gong Qianqiu deliberately raised the volume a little, and sure enough, the snoring in the room stopped abruptly.

After a while, the door of the inner room was suddenly opened, and the Seven Holy Sons broke out from inside.

"elder sister?"

After confirming that the person in front of him was Gong Qianqiu, the pale and haggard cheeks of the Seventh Holy Son were instantly replaced by surprise and excitement.

Just as Gong Qianqiu guessed, since yesterday's wedding banquet, the Seven Holy Sons began to drink alcohol until they fell drunk in the bedroom in the middle of the night.

I was unhappy all day, as if the most precious treasure had been snatched away.

The whole sky above his head collapsed completely.

However, when he saw Gong Qianqiu visiting him, the Seven Saints felt that the originally dark world was instantly lit up.

“Is that you?”

While speaking, the Seventh Holy Son rubbed his eyes vigorously.

Gong Qianqiu walked closer, pointed out the green jade finger and nodded on Qisheng’s forehead, and said with a smile: “What happened to your child?”

“It smells so strong, rinse your mouth and eat something, or you won’t have this appetite for a long time.”

“Hey!”

The Seven Holy Sons suddenly felt like tears welling up in their eyes.

The love has not diminished, but it is still a familiar recipe and a familiar taste.

Soon after washing up, Gong Qianqiu had already placed the food in the food box on the table.

“Why are you still standing stupidly? Hurry up and sit down to eat!”

Gong Qianqiu urged.

The Seventh Holy Son resisted the urge to burst into tears, and after sitting down, he devoured it.

Although it was only the lightest white porridge and the simplest two dishes of pickles, the Seven Saints felt more delicious than any delicacies from the mountains and seas.

Soon the food on the table was swept away by the Seven Holy Sons.

And Gong Qianqiu watched quietly from the beginning to the end, his eyes were full of relief and love.

“As if you haven’t eaten for several days, wipe the corners of your mouth!”

Gong Qianqiu handed over a silk handkerchief and said.

The Seven Saints took it over and smelled the faint fragrance from the silk, feeling extremely happy at this moment.

“If only my sister could keep taking care of me like this.”

The Seven Saints said sincerely.

Gong Qianqiu sighed for a long time, and said with emotion: “I also think, seeing you like this, I am even more worried.”

“It’s a pity that I’m not alone now, there are many things... Forget it, not to mention such unhappy things.”

Gong Qianqiu deliberately made an appearance that he was hesitant to speak.

“Sister, what’s the matter? It’s the boss...Isn’t the eldest son treating you badly?”

I don’t know why, even the title of the Seven Holy Sons has changed.

“That’s not true, the Great Holy Son is very good to me.”

Gong Qianqiu paused, then turned the conversation and continued: “But sometimes, I can’t help myself.”

“Whether the secular world or the Kunlun Ruins is a place where the weak eat the strong, it is an eternal truth that the strong are respected.”

“Even if my elder sister’s cultivation is not bad, for those who are extremely strong, they are like ants after all.”

Although Gong Qianqiu didn’t say it clearly, the Seven Saints also understood what she meant.

“My sister is most likely wronged by the Great Holy Son, but because of her lack of strength, she has to listen to the latter’s words after all.”

The Seven Holy Sons thought secretly.

With Gong Qianqiu’s deliberate guidance, he resented the Great Holy Son even more.

“Sister, don’t worry, I have a solution.”

The Seven Saints said suddenly.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3942

Gong Qianqiu was excited for a while, but there was no expression on his face.

“Xiao Qi, don’t make my sister happy.”

Gong Qianqiu smiled bitterly.

The Seventh Holy Son said solemnly: “Sister, I’m not kidding, as long as you have enough strength, you don’t have to be controlled by others.”

“What kind of way is this?”

Gong Qianqiu sighed again and said, “Improving the realm of cultivation requires steady and steady progress, how can it be possible to ascend to the sky in one step?”

“It’s really impossible to reach the sky in one step, but my sister has the swallowing technique and root bone. As long as she cooperates with a higher level of spiritual veins, she can greatly improve her cultivation in a short period of time.”

Gong Qianqiu said with a smile: “How can it be so simple, to my current strength, even the improvement of the Holy Vein to me is not obvious.”

“And the dragon veins are extremely rare. The dragon vein you discovered before is specially used for warming and nourishing the gods. Where is my share?”

“In the end, I’m still an outsider in the Taixu Shenzong.”

Gong Qianqiu smiled bitterly, with helplessness written on his face.

“Sister, to be honest, I also discovered another dragon vein, and the scale is even larger than the dragon vein of Wen Yang Shen Jie.”

“I’ll give it to you, so you can’t improve your cultivation base?”

The Seven Holy Sons said as if taking credit.

Gong Qianqiu was pleasantly surprised. She originally wanted to take the opportunity to get a few more holy veins in the hands of the Seven Saints, but did she think that there were still dragon veins in stock?

Just another surprise!

“No, this is something you discovered with great difficulty. Wouldn’t it be better for you to use it for cultivation?”

Gong Qianqiu deliberately refused.

The Seventh Holy Son said solemnly, “I don’t have any bones, and the dragon veins are of little use in my hands, so I’d better give it to my sister so that I won’t waste anything.”

“What’s more, I have the ability to detect spiritual veins, do I still worry about finding other dragon veins?”

“But.....”

“Don’t be my sister, if you don’t accept it, you won’t treat me as a relative.”

The Seven Saints said urgently.

Gong Qianqiu sighed and said 'reluctantly': "Okay, then my sister will accept it first. If you need it, my sister will return it to you."

Seeing Gong Qianqiu's acceptance, the Seventh Holy Son smiled again.

He just wants to make Gong Qianqiu continue to become stronger, so that he can get rid of the control of the Great Holy Son.

the other side.

Eternal kingdom.

With the sudden collapse of the Qianqiu Sect, the affiliated forces instantly collapsed and scattered.

And the few high-level survivors of the eternal kingdom have gathered members scattered all over the place, and there seems to be a resurgence trend.

Although they are still under the pressure of Levi Garrison, they can barely survive now.

In particular, Levi Garrison was preparing to enter the Kunlun Ruins at this time, and there was no cultivation method to deal with them.

It gave the eternal kingdom a certain living space.

In an underground secret base.

Several high-level officials of the Eternal Kingdom sat together.

"According to the reliable information of the eyeliner, the strong guard of the gods has appeared."

"And they are looking for super spiritual veins everywhere, especially they found a strange place in the War Eagle Country."

"It is said that there are a lot of spiritual veins in it, and the level of the spiritual veins is higher."

"If it wasn't for those who were guarded by the gods, we could also have a share of the pie, what a pity!"

Several high-level officials of the Eternal Kingdom shook their heads, their faces filled with unwillingness and helplessness.

The guardian of the gods is the force they are most afraid of. Even in the heyday, they have to shy away, let alone the current situation.

I am afraid that the gods guard a few strong people, and they can directly uproot them.

"It is said that Levi Garrison's people also appeared in the War Eagle Country before. Will these two groups of people meet?"

"I hope they meet, so we can sit on the mountain and watch the tiger fight."

"That's right, we can only reap the benefits of the fisherman when Levi Garrison and the guardians of the gods lose both."

The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

Chapter 3943

Levi Garrison's side is still haunted by the world discovered by the War Eagle Kingdom.

He now feels more and more that the effect of the holy vein quenching body on himself has been minimal.

If you want to improve, you must find a higher level of spiritual veins.

Of course, Levi Garrison learned from Xie Zhongmou's mouth that the sacred veins are called dragon veins.

I think the source of super power in the world where God's Brain said it is most likely the dragon vein.

This further increased Levi Garrison's determination to enter that world.

However, at this moment, a message came from God's brain again.

"Mr. Ye, I have used new equipment to conduct multiple investigations and found that there is no sign of any living creatures in that area."

"And that energy has a tendency to overflow, so I am afraid it will attract the attention of many forces."

The tone of God's Brain was quite urgent, and it was clear that the truth was much more serious than his narrative.

After learning this information, Levi Garrison immediately rushed to the secret realm to mark the location.

The absence of any creatures means that there are no peerless powerhouses in the secret realm, so there is no need to worry about the extra branches of the dragon veins.

After all, the Taixu Shenzong is still eyeing the Kunlun Ruins, and it would not be a wise move to provoke other unknown transcendental strengths.

"Mr. Ye, how do you plan to enter the secret realm?"

After the meeting, God's Brain asked straight to the point.

During this time, the Brain of God used many new devices to explore the secret realm, but without exception, they all ended in failure.

Levi Garrison said with a smile: "Break it with strength."

Before, I was worried that there were unknown powerhouses inside to avoid disturbing the other party, so I didn't use this simple and rude way to enter.

God's brain could not understand the meaning of this sentence for a while.

But Levi Garrison did not explain in depth, and said solemnly: "You take people away, and you will become affected."

The Brain of God hurriedly retreated with the members of the base camp responsible for his protection.

Levi Garrison entered the secret realm again, and the feeling of being restrained and delayed by the movement struck again.

“Hi!”

Levi Garrison let out a loud shout, and then ran the basic exercises, exuding terrifying energy pressure from his whole body.

There are visible energy fluctuations in the regional space, and the feeling of hysteresis has completely dissipated at this time.

“Break it for me!”

Levi Garrison punched out, and the violent fist wind swept out, directly hitting the denser energy barrier at the far end.

Clap clap!

There was a faint sound of some kind of barrier cracking in the ear, and this sound spread very quickly to the surrounding.

“Break it to me!”

Levi Garrison didn't stop at all, and continued to blast several punches in the same direction.

Boom!

Finally, there was a deafening sound of collapse in the void.

Immediately after that, the surrounding environment changed drastically, and an extremely rich spiritual energy rushed towards him.

The entrance is a beautiful landscape, like a paradise.

Looking from a distance, there are more mountains and mountains, and the mountainside is surrounded by clouds and mist, like a fairyland.

“This is simply a paradise!”

Levi Garrison was very emotional.

However, then Levi Garrison found that many scenes were displayed in an orderly manner, as if they had been deliberately arranged.

However, Levi Garrison released his strength to carry out a carpet search and exploration, but did not find any suspicious persons.

Buzz!

Suddenly, Levi Garrison had an extremely strong energy induction.

That was when the energy probe he released collided with other terrifying energy sources.

“It must be a super spiritual vein!”

Levi Garrison galloped quickly following the approximate direction of the energy induction.

After a while, Levi Garrison came to a mountain.

The strong energy aura overflowed, especially in the energy raw ore in front of him, and there was a faint voice.

The lavender energy halo filled the surrounding spiritual veins, making people unable to help indulge in it.

“Is this the legendary dragon vein?”

Levi Garrison was very surprised.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

Chapter 3944

The purity of the spiritual energy contained in this spiritual meridian is many times stronger than that of the holy meridian.

Moreover, Levi Garrison can clearly sense that there are several dragon veins of similar level not far away.

As for the spiritual veins of the Holy Vein level, there are simply too many.

“This is a big fortune!”

Levi Garrison was overjoyed in his heart.

However, at this moment, a cold and harsh voice came from a distance.

“Ignorance of the Oriental Monkey, I advise you to leave this place as soon as possible, otherwise you will be killed without mercy!”

As soon as the voice fell, a group of people rushed to the front at a very fast speed.

Levi Garrison’s eyes narrowed slightly. There were dozens of people in this team, and they were all strong.

Especially the leading ones, the energy fluctuations emanating from their gestures are actually much stronger than those at the helm of the five major sects such as Xie Zhongmou.

But these people are all Western faces, with yellow hair and blue eyes, with arrogance and arrogance in their eyes.

“Where did you guys come up with garbage, dare to take care of Lao Tzu’s business?”

Levi Garrison asked with a sneer.

How could Levi Garrison hand over the fat on his lips?

But we must understand the details of these people, so that we can take precautions in the future.

“We are the guardians of the gods, and all the spiritual resources in the War Eagle Country are owned by the temple. How can you all let monkeys covet?”

A burly middle-aged man headed by said proudly.

Levi Garrison noticed that a blazing flame was faintly beating around the palm of the burly man.

Even the surrounding area has become extremely hot and dry as time goes by, as if people are going to be steamed dry.

“Guardian of the gods? Never heard of it!”

Levi Garrison sneered: “By the way, are you and the Eternal Kingdom together?”

“How can the energy grafted on the so-called high-tech be compared with the guardianship of our gods?”

The burly and strong Chinese are full of contempt.

There are twelve guardian gods, corresponding to the twelve main gods in Western mythology.

Each of them has a terrifying power, which has been hidden from the world, and each has formed a huge force and called himself a temple.

The leader of the twelve guardian gods is the strong man who has amazing control over thunder and lightning. The force he formed became the Temple of Zeus.

There are also such as the Temple of Apollo, the Temple of Ares and so on.

These twelve forces have been searching for the top spiritual veins in the Western Domain.

Divine veins and holy veins have already controlled a lot, but there is no dragon vein.

If it wasn't for the level of the super spiritual vein in the Eternal Kingdom, they would have taken it for themselves long ago.

Levi Garrison was slightly startled, he grasped the key point of this sentence.

Eternal Realm is to select talented people to bless various high-tech to improve combat effectiveness, and even use the body to do various experiments to improve energy.

Of course, it is possible to use technology to cultivate a group of dead soldiers with strong combat power, but after all, it is very different from the improvement of cultivators.

And could these people be real Western practitioners?

“What kind of broken temple do you say these spiritual veins belong to, do you have proof?”

“If you don’t come out early, wait for Lao Tzu to find these spiritual veins and jump out again.”

“Hurry up, or don’t blame me for being rude.”

Levi Garrison said with a sneer.

The faces of the leaders guarded by the gods and the elites suddenly turned ugly.

In fact, they have been looking for these dragon veins in the secret realm for a long time, but there is no way to find them.

It was not until Levi Garrison used his strength to forcibly smash the barrier of the secret realm and the powerful spiritual energy leaked out, and they could clearly sense the position of the dragon vein.

“Eastern Monkey, don’t talk nonsense, in the name of the gods, I order you to get out of the way, or kill you.”

As soon as the voice fell, the crowd headed by the burly and strong man immediately entered the battle preparation.

“Gods? Are you sure you’re not a pig god?”

“Think before you speak, want to pick up ready-made?”

“It’s really a fool’s dream, I would like to experience the strength of the gods’ guardianship.”

Levi Garrison also made a fighting stance and said condensedly: "Fight!"

The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

Chapter 3945

"Since you are looking for death as an oriental monkey, then this seat will fulfill you!"

"You guys, kill him!"

The burly man gave orders to several elite subordinates.

"As ordered!"

Several elites had contemptuous expressions on their faces, and they did not take Levi Garrison in the slightest.

"Eastern Monkey, today I will let you know what divine power is."

During the speech, several people urged the exercises.

Levi Garrison didn't notice anything unusual at the beginning of the period, but soon discovered that something was wrong.

The ground beneath his feet seemed to have life, and he even released an invisible force to fasten his feet to control his mobility.

"Right now, let's go!"

The burly and strong man shouted loudly, and several people instantly launched an offensive in multiple directions.

One mouth recited words, and the water element continued to gather in the void, and finally formed a sharp blade comparable to that of super-strong materials.

At the same time, the surrounding trees and vines are also growing wildly, and soon they reach the thickness of the surrounding.

The tip is even sharper, directly piercing Levi Garrison's heart.

"Gold, wood, water, fire, soil, control of the power of the five elements?"

A look of surprise flashed in Levi Garrison's eyes.

Several people's ability to manipulate elements is not much worse than Levilia.

Of course, Levilia mainly uses the power of heaven and earth to form a fighting field that is unique to her.

"These guys who claim to be the guardians of the gods still have some skills!"

Levi Garrison put away his contempt, and quickly started the basic exercises.

The violent energy coercion spreads out, directly rushing towards the vines and water arrows.

Clap clap!

The power gap between the two sides is too large, and these things are instantly smashed to powder by the energy.

"It's too whimsical for you to try to control Lao Tzu with this little trick."

Levi Garrison took a step suddenly, and the earth element movement under his feet suddenly collapsed and disintegrated, and he had no ability to resist.

Several elites guarded by the gods were also instantly stunned, and their faces were filled with expressions of shock and astonishment.

The burly and strong man was also shocked in his heart. He never thought that Levi Garrison's instant explosive power was so powerful.

"Don't hold back any more, cast the strongest attack."

"And you guys are going to help too!"

The burly and strong man instinctively thought that his subordinates underestimated the enemy, and he did not exert his full strength, which led to the weak attack.

Levi Garrison sneered and said, "You can go together! It's a waste of time to die separately."

"Arrogant, let's talk about the top ten elites guarded by our gods first!"

The burly man said condensedly.

Levi Garrison obviously didn't show his full strength just now, so the burly and strong man wanted to see his depth, so that he could know himself and his enemy.

"Oriental monkey, die!"

"Taste the power of this giant water blade."

"Lightning Slash!"

In an instant, various bells and whistles of the ten-man team roared.

At this moment, the earth trembled violently, as if some terrifying monster was about to break out of the ground.

At this moment, the thunder and lightning jumped like a terrifying giant python, constantly attacking Levi Garrison's vital parts.

At this moment, the water blade was like a violent storm, giving Levi Garrison no space to escape.

"Go away for me!"

Levi Garrison never planned to escape from the beginning.

Although the strength of these people surprised Levi Garrison, they didn't take it too seriously.

Let him be stormy, and I will break it with one punch.

In an instant, Levi Garrison disappeared in place and punched against the offensive formed by many elements.

The violent fist wind swept out, forming an extremely terrifying energy vortex, which directly smashed the ten people's joint attack with the trend of destroying the dead.

The nearest elites guarded by the gods did not have time to dodge, and were directly swept into it by the terrifying wind, turning into a few blood mists.

"Ahhh!"

The screams came one after another.

Several other guardian elites of the gods at a distance were seriously injured and fell to the ground, losing their combat effectiveness.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

Chapter 3946

"This...how is this possible?"

The burly man was stunned in shock, he couldn't believe what was happening in front of him.

One hit kills five elites and seriously wounds five elites.

sizzle!

The rest of the guardian elites of the gods also gasped.

The comrade who was tragically killed and seriously injured just now was no weaker than him.

Some are even stronger.

However, under the counterattack of Levi Garrison, their joint attack would be so vulnerable?

“It’s really sad that the gods are guarded by your group of rice buckets.”

Levi Garrison said with a sneer.

contempt!

Scarlet contempt!

The anger in the burly man’s chest instantly rose to the extreme.

“Damn oriental monkey, you are seeking your own death!”

“Dare to offend the guardianship of our gods, and our Twelve Temples will never die.”

The burly man said angrily.

Levi Garrison shrugged and said indifferently, “Wouldn’t it be better to let you all die?”

“Fake! This seat will burn you to ashes today!”

The burly and strong man ran the exercise, and saw that two giant rings of fire soon appeared around his palm.

Moreover, the fire elements in the main area space are still rushing in frantically, constantly gathering the coercion of the fire ring for it.

Crack, crack, crack!

As the ring of fire got bigger and bigger, the sound of burning things came from the void.

If you look closely, you will find that the space around the two rings of fire seems to be distorted.

Apparently they couldn’t take their scorching heat anymore.

“This power is so interesting!”

Levi Garrison's eyes narrowed slightly, and he could clearly feel the energy pressure that burst out from the burly and strong man, and even killed Xie Zhongmou in seconds.

He had no idea that such a force existed in the West at all. Hearing the meaning of the burly and strong man, there were twelve forces of a similar level.

"Oriental monkey, die!"

Before he finished speaking, the burly and burly man disappeared in place in an instant.

The next second appeared before Levi Garrison approached, and two rounds of fire rings with the power of destruction, baked the surrounding area to the point of deformation.

There was also a faint pungent smell of burning things in the air.

Woo!

Two rounds of fire rings roared towards Levi Garrison's head.

"I want to see how strong you are."

Levi Garrison still didn't dodge, and threw two punches against the burly man's ring of fire.

I can clearly feel that Levi Garrison has a faint golden energy halo flowing on the surface of Levi Garrison's body at this moment, as if wearing a layer of indestructible golden armor.

Boom!

The energies of the two sides collided head-on in the void, and a deafening terrifying sound erupted.

Even the space seemed to shake violently, and the people around were shaken out.

The weaker ones were already seriously injured.

Whoosh!

After the energy collided, a figure suddenly flew backwards.

“guard!”

The members screamed, and they saw that it was the burly and strong man who was shocked and flew out.

And the two rounds of fiery fire rings in his hands have been extinguished, and the aura emanating from the whole person has also dropped significantly.

The burly and strong man was shocked and flew more than twenty feet away, and the red blood on the corner of his mouth was particularly dazzling.

On the other hand, Levi Garrison stood still, like an ancient god of war.

The key is that Levi Garrison did not change his face, as if the terrifying energy just now had nothing to do with him.

“hateful!”

The burly and strong man was panting heavily, his eyes filled with incredible.

Although he was not the strongest attack just now, he used 70% to 80% of his strength, and he didn't even touch Levi Garrison's clothes.

“Everyone will kill him together. If this person is not eliminated, it must be a serious problem for our temple's confidant.”

The burly and strong man gave an order, and everyone else quickly ran the elemental energy they were good at, and swarmed towards Levi Garrison without fear of death.

“It's long overdue, I can finally kill a happy man.”

Levi Garrison was awe-inspiring, and instead of retreating, he went straight to the guardian of the gods.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3947

Levi Garrison is like a tiger entering a flock, and screams can be heard wherever the silhouette flashes.

Within a few breaths, more than ten guardians of the gods were killed or seriously injured.

“The combat power of this Oriental monkey is too terrifying, isn’t it?”

The burly man swallowed hard.

Seeing that there are fewer and fewer guardians of the gods, the burly and strong man has the intention to retire.

Others are also a little unwilling to fight, Levi Garrison is simply a dimensionality reduction attack, even if everyone joins forces, they are powerless.

“We must take the opportunity to retreat!”

The burly and strong man made up his mind, and when everyone was besieging Levi Garrison, he gathered the power of the fire element to form several arrows with the thickness of his arms.

Immediately, they were thrown at Levi Garrison’s major key points.

Chi Chi Chi!

The blazing arrows pierced the air, and the heat wave advanced layer by layer, as if even the space began to boil.

The surrounding plants withered at a rate visible to the naked eye, eventually reducing to clumps of coke.

Bang bang bang!

Levi Garrison fired several palms in a row, and five more people were knocked out.

“Sneak attack?”

The corner of Levi Garrison's mouth rose slightly, but he took it with his bare hands with a 'rocket'.

In fact, the burly man quickly fled the scene when he threw the fire element arrow.

He saw the scene where Levi Garrison caught the 'rocket' from the corner of his eye, and felt that his understanding of the fire element had been overturned.

The attack made by condensing all the power of fire elements was actually caught by someone with his bare hands?

Even fine steel will be instantly refined!

"Is this guy still human?"

The burly and strong man's heart sank to the bottom in an instant, and he even regretted provoking Levi Garrison.

How did he know that Levi Garrison's body had initially acquired the charm after being quenched by several holy veins.

Almost reached the level of King Kong's indestructible body.

When the elites under the guardianship of the other gods saw the leader fleeing, they instantly lost their fighting spirit and fled in all directions.

"How can it be so easy to escape?"

Levi Garrison threw several 'rockets' that he received with his bare hands at the fleeing crowd.

Several members of the guardian of the gods could not dodge and were directly burned to ashes.

"These people are not as strong as they think!"

Levi Garrison did not continue to chase and kill, and now the most important thing is to use these dragon veins to improve his strength.

“We have to call Wen Lei and the others to improve. Such high-quality cultivation resources must not be wasted.”

“Although the guardian of the gods does not pose a threat to me, it is not so easy for others to deal with it.”

“If there is not enough strength to deal with it, the guardianship of the gods will sooner or later become a serious problem for the confidant.”

Levi Garrison made up his mind to send information directly to the core members of the base camp and let them rush to the secret realm in batches.

Of course, Levi Garrison didn't worry about the people guarded by the gods killing a carbine.

He deliberately showed his super strength just now, just to frighten those who are guarded by the gods, so that they dare not act rashly.

At this moment, the top executives of the remnants of the Eternal Kingdom will have a serious look on their faces.

The entire conference room was silent, and needles could be heard.

After a long time, the leader of the Eternal Kingdom said in a dry voice: “I never thought that Levi Garrison's cultivation had reached such a terrifying realm.”

“Even the guardians of the gods suffered heavy casualties, and even the two leaders of the gods, the god of fire and the god of earth, were seriously injured.”

“It's just incredible.”

The rest of the Eternal Kingdom shuddered involuntarily.

The guardians of the gods, but the real god-like Kong does not exist. Even when the strength of the Eternal Kingdom is at its peak, it is necessary to shy away from them.

Even they once believed that if the guardians of the gods were willing, the eternal kingdom could be wiped out in an instant.

However, it was the powerhouse with such terrifying strength that he was shriveled under Levi Garrison's hands.

They suddenly realized what a stupid decision it was to provoke Levi Garrison in the first place.

Inside the Temple of Hephaestus.

Named after the god of fire, this temple is one of the twelve temples.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3948

The burly man slowly opened his eyes, and there seemed to be a blazing flame beating in his eyes.

After a long period of repairs, most of the internal injuries he suffered finally recovered.

"Fake, what's the origin of that oriental monkey?"

The burly man said angrily.

There were fifty people in the team he led before, but after this battle, only eight were brought back.

Thirty-five of them were killed on the spot, and seven were seriously injured, but it is estimated that there are more bad luck than good luck.

"Lucas, do you want to notify the other guardians that we will kill them together?"

"Yeah, if we don't avenge this revenge, what face do we have to call ourselves the guardian of the gods?"

"If the Lord God is born and knows about this in the future, he will surely punish me."

The rest of the people were also filled with righteous indignation, gnashing their teeth in hatred for Levi Garrison.

Lucas pondered for a moment, then said slowly: "This person's strength is too terrifying, don't act rashly until you have completely found out his details."

"Could it be that this person came from the Kunlun Ruins in the East?"

Before the words fell, someone raised an objection: "I don't think so, even the middle-level sect leader in Kunlun Ruins may not be stronger than you."

"If the top sectarians of Kunlun Ruins join the WTO, other divine envoys will definitely notice."

"You are right!"

Lucas agreed and said solemnly, "Let's go look for other dragon veins first! Then send someone to investigate the oriental monkey."

"In the final analysis, we don't have enough energy sources. Otherwise, as long as the main god is born, let alone a mere oriental monkey, even the Kunlun Ruins will have to give in three points."

Nowadays, there are not a few divine veins and holy veins mastered by the gods guarding the great envoys, but only the dragon veins are absent.

If the dragon veins are found, the main god that they have guarded for generations will be born.

Lucas is only the guardian family of the Vulcan lineage, and the other eleven guardian families of the main gods are scattered all over the West.

Resurrection of the Lord God is their mission from generation to generation, and of course the meaning of their existence.

Now the energy of the divine veins and the holy veins is far from enough, and only with the help of the power of the dragon veins can there be a chance for the Lord God to be born.

At that time, they will really have the backbone, and it will be easy to dominate the world.

“Eastern Monkey, wait for this seat. When the Lord God is born, you must kill everyone who has a relationship with you.”

Lucas said fiercely.

the other side.

After repelling the guardian of the gods, Levi Garrison devoted himself to a new round of cultivation and improvement.

In Levi Garrison’s opinion, if he wanted to completely eradicate the forces of the Taixu Shenzong level, his current strength would probably be a lot worse.

So Levi Garrison nearly frantically used the dragon vein to quench his body, and the chain quenching effect was as good as he expected.

If you use the sacred vein to compare with the dragon vein, it is basically equivalent to the difference between cloud and mud.

As for other people, due to the relationship between their cultivation and their physique, they can basically use their divine veins to improve their limit.

Only Levilia was born to devour spiritual roots and bones, and he has been able to use the holy vein to quench the body to improve.

“Reserve one dragon vein for Levilia, and another spare. I will use the rest.” Levi Garrison made up his mind secretly.

After another investigation, there are twelve dragon veins in the secret realm.

Divine veins and holy veins are countless, even if everyone in the base camp is pulled over to quench their bodies.

“This dragon vein is really extraordinary. There is a faint sound of dragon’s roar. According to ancient books, it is possible to breed a real dragon. I don’t know if it is true or false?”

Levi Garrison said with emotion on his face.

The Brain of God said with a smile: "I'm really looking forward to you being able to temper the strength of a real dragon's body. I'll study it carefully then."

"By your auspicious words, well, I'm going to start retreating."

Levi Garrison then began to use ten dragon veins to quench his body.

No one could have imagined that there are dragon veins in the mundane world, especially this kind of dragon vein group, which is exaggerated to the extreme.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

Chapter 3949

Kunlun Ruins.

In the Taixu Shenzong.

Since the acquisition of many cultivation resources provided by the Seven Holy Sons, the cultivation realm has improved qualitatively.

Duguxiao and Xuan Ming and other confidants have also benefited a lot. They have never had such sufficient cultivation resources.

So everyone became more determined to follow Gong Qianqiu.

"Even if there is no Taixu Shenzong to rely on, this leader is not afraid of the revenge of Levi Garrison and others."

Gong Qianqiu was bursting with confidence at this moment.

In particular, the dragon veins provided by the Seventh Holy Son have not been completely swallowed up, and she will be able to reach a new level by then.

And Levi Garrison and their worldly world will never have such terrifying cultivation resources, and the strength gap between them is getting bigger and bigger.

“Levi Garrison, Xiao Feng, you should never think about revenge.”

The smile on Gong Qianqiu’s face was even greater.

At this moment, Gong Qianqiu suddenly felt a sense of loneliness when Ling Jueding looked at the mountains.

“As this sect leader becomes stronger and stronger and his status becomes higher and higher, a small person like Levi Garrison is like an ant.”

“It’s completely negligible. Those enemies in the secular world will no longer be able to get into her eyes.”

Gong Qianqiu sighed and muttered to himself with some regret: “It’s just so boring, I can’t feel the feeling of playing them with applause at all.”

the other side.

The guardians of the gods are still not reconciled, and after multiple investigations, the identity background of Levi Garrison has basically been determined.

Lucas said quietly: “I never thought that the oriental monkey was the culprit that destroyed the eternal kingdom.”

“Sure enough, it’s not a strong man in Kunlun Ruins, so you don’t have to worry too much about it.”

“Penlio, what do the other guardians say?”

Opposite Lucas sat a red-haired middle-aged man. He was also burly, with a faint flash of electric light in his palm. He was the helm of the Temple of Zeus.

Pengliao said solemnly: “They feel that the dragon veins in the secret realm are bound to be won. Last time our team only had two guardians.”

“This time, as long as you combine a few more guardians to shoot at the same time, you can kill Levi Garrison.”

“And according to the information, Levi Garrison is in retreat now, which is the perfect time for us to launch a sneak attack.”

Lucas had a solemn look on his face, obviously thinking about the pros and cons.

There are twelve guardians of the gods, and now they have found the gods in their seats.

Only by allowing the temple to truly grow, can the birth of the Lord God be accelerated.

Cultivation resources are becoming more and more important, especially top-level cultivation resources like dragon veins, which are just needed.

The key is that they haven't found the dragon veins for so many years, and the secret realm where Levi Garrison is located has a dragon vein group, which is even more rare in a century.

“Assemble the elite immediately, and then notify the other envoys that Levi Garrison must be killed this time.”

Lucas finally made up his mind.

Penglio said with a smile: “That's right, how can our guardian gods be scared by an oriental monkey?”

“This time we dispatched five guardians, a hundred elites, and they will definitely be able to kill them.”

“I hope so!”

Lucas added in his mind.

If it wasn't that the dragon veins belonged to the just-needed cultivation resources, he really didn't want to provoke Levi Garrison again.

It can be said that the terrifying combat power that Levi Garrison showed before has made Lucas have a shadow in his heart.

Soon Lucas, Penglio and other five guardians led a hundred temple elites to rush to the secret realm of the dragon veins.

“Levi Garrison, come out and die!”

When he came to the secret realm, Pengliao shouted directly.

Levi Garrison has used three dragon veins to quench his body at this time, and his cultivation realm has been significantly improved.

He never thought that after the last battle, the people guarded by the gods would dare to come over and ask for trouble.

“Looks like you weren’t beaten enough last time!”

Levi Garrison said with a playful face.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

Chapter 3950

In the face of the protection of the gods and the siege of more than a hundred people, Levi Garrison was not afraid at all, and even his tone was full of ridicule.

“Levi Garrison, today our five guardians will bring you down to ashes.”

“That’s right, the West is guarded by our gods, and it’s not your turn to show off your power.”

“Stop talking nonsense and die!”

The other guardians were aggressive, and they had never seen Levi Garrison’s strength.

Although Lucas reminded them to be cautious, these people have always been arrogant, believing that Lucas was defeated purely because of his lack of strength.

Levi Garrison hooked his fingers at the guardian of the gods, full of provocation.

“court death!”

Penglio took the lead in attacking, and then watching him run the exercises, the electric light in his palm surrounded, and two electric balls were formed in an instant.

lol!

The terrifying sound of electric current came, Penglieo suddenly shook his hand, and the two electric balls hit Levi Garrison's body directly like cannonballs.

"You'd better go together, so as not to waste Lao Tzu's time."

Levi Garrison didn't dodge in the slightest, and directly reached out his hands to directly charge the ball.

"Dongfang Monkey, you are too arrogant to pick it up with your bare hands, just wait to be electrocuted into coke!"

Penglio said with a sneer.

"yes?"

The corner of Levi Garrison's mouth rose slightly, and he caught the two electric balls with great precision.

"I'll give you back what's yours!"

Levi Garrison's arms shook slightly, and the two electric balls shot at Penglieo like cannonballs.

The speed of the electric ball was even several times faster than before.

"how can that be?"

Penglio was dumbfounded in shock, but he was well aware of the power of the electric ball, so he did not dare to stop at all, and tried his best to dodge to the side.

The electric ball swept past his body almost swiftly.

However, the elites of the temple behind them were not so lucky.

They thought that even if the Pengliod terrorist attack could not kill Levi Garrison, it would at least cause him to be severely injured.

He never thought that Levi Garrison not only caught the electric ball with his bare hands, but even threw it back the same way.

“Ahhh!”

Several people couldn't dodge in time, and were instantly roasted into coke by the electric ball.

Penglio almost vomited blood in anger, feeling like he was shooting himself in the foot.

Lucas said solemnly: “Don't watch the show, let's go together and make a quick decision.”

The other three guardians are no longer arrogant, and directly display their housekeeping skills.

Water blades, rockets, electric balls...

All kinds of fancy and lethal attacks attacked Levi Garrison like a violent storm.

The other temple elites also attacked with all their strength. Although they were not as good as the guardian's single attack, their advantage was the large number of people.

“Good come!”

The guards of the gods attacked it, and Levi Garrison was awe-inspiring.

Instead of retreating, he advanced, directly facing the opponent's attack and threw several punches in a row.

“Wow!”

The violent tornado swept out, and everyone heard the faint sound of dragon roars within the terrifying energy fluctuations.

Boom!

In an instant, the joint attack guarded by the gods was all smashed.

The key is that Levi Garrison's fist strength has not weakened much, and he still continues to attack the guardians of the gods with the momentum of destroying the dead.

"Ahhh!"

The screams and howls were endless.

Those with weaker strength were directly torn to pieces by fist strength, while those with slightly stronger strength barely kept the whole corpse.

Even the five guardian gods were seriously injured.

"The power of one punch is so terrifying!"

There was a hint of despair in the hearts of the five guardians, and they didn't even have the idea of continuing to resist.

"Since you are here, then stay completely!"

Levi Garrison punched again, and three of the guardians failed to dodge and died in Huangquan.

Lucas and Penglio were a little farther away, but their speed was obviously faster than the other three, so they escaped.

The two fled in embarrassment without looking back, and the other elites fled in all directions, completely frightened.

After repelling the invincible guardians of the gods, Levi Garrison once again felt the horror of the effect of the dragon veins.
