

No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1320-1322

Chapter 1320

As Tyrell truly was a master in the true-god level's final stage, he immediately detected something was wrong when the sword aura appeared and avoided it in a flash. The sword aura swept past him and cut down a tree.

Jack flew down from the slope, where he hid.

"It's you?" Tyrell was so angry that veins on his forehead surfaced when he saw Jack." What a coincidence, young man; you came just when I'm about to violate your girlfriend. Haha...! What fate this is!"

"Why... Why are you here?" Helena eyed Jack warily. How long had this guy been observing them, and why did he rush forward at this moment?

"Haha...!" Jack smiled bitterly and joked, "What could I have done? How can I not rescue you when he's already said you're my girlfriend?" Apart from a few who knew about their relationship at this moment, most people would have really thought of them as a couple. That bewildered Jack entirely.

Helena failed to fight back the blush on her face when she heard this, though she still rolled her eyes at Jack. "Why are you here? Do you have a death wish or something? I can't even defeat him, so you're no match for him either!"

She hesitated at this moment before she added, "It's best if you leave. One of us dying is better than both of us losing our lives!"

Truthfully, she felt extremely moved that Jack was willing to stand forward at this moment. She believed that it was the battling noises between her and Tyrell that captured Jack's attention.

Nonetheless, Jack should quickly leave, seeing that she was not Young Master Hunt's opponent. Going up against him was purely suicidal.

All of a sudden, Jack chuckled coldly, much to her surprise, as he said, "You really don't have much faith in me. We haven't started our fight yet. Isn't it bad to raise his ambitions and destroy my prestige at this moment?"

"Haha... Alright! I was afraid that we wouldn't this month, but I never thought you'd walk right into your death. I've never seen such a dumb person!" Tyrell, who was by their side, started laughing loudly. "It's good now that you've appeared!"

"Tsk, ts. You're really boasting shamelessly. See, I'm not afraid of you, seeing as I did come up to you. I wouldn't stand before you if I was afraid of you." Jack smiled coldly and appeared apathetically

Tyrell was slightly stunned before he looked as if he had seen through his act. "You're a rather smart young man. Do you think I'll be afraid of you if you act like this? No matter what, I'm in the real-god level's final stage. Do you think that I'd be afraid of you? Let me tell you this: you might not be my opponent even if you're at the real-god level's peak stage. My combat power can't be compared to a normal being. Moreover, I know you're just at the true-god level's intermediate level!"

"Jack, it's best if you leave. I'm grateful for your kindness, but you can't go up against him. I can still fight for some time, and I'll help to drag this out, so you should quickly escape. Remember to tell my father who killed me after you've gotten out." Helena gritted her teeth as she walked a couple of steps forward. She seemed ready for another battle.

"Don't talk such nonsense. I've never planned to kill you; I only plan to sleep with you! Haha...! It'd be even better if I'll get your second and third sister. Many people will envy me when I've tasted all Three Golden Flowers!" Second Young Master Hunt had a sleazy expression on his face. To him, Helena was already his.

"In your dreams!" Jack stepped forward and balled his fist as Chi was emitted.

Soon, a thick layer of Chi coated his fist.

Whoosh!

Chapter 1321

Jack swiftly flickered in front of Second Young Master Hunt and threw his fist at him.

This guy...truly is hard-headed to fight Tyrell in a life-and-death situation!' Helena was baffled as she saw Jack rushing forward. She merely used Jack as a decoy to deter Second Young Master Hunt from pestering her, yet not only did he not expose her lie, but he even came forward and helped her!

'Is he genuinely thinking I'm his girlfriend? Is it because I'm pretty and we once kissed?' Ideas began popping in Helena's head, thinking that this was most likely the case. After all, she and her two sisters were first-grade beauties and anybody else would be all too eager to become a hero saving a damsel in distress.

"Don't blame me; you're the one with the death wish!" Second Young Master Hunt also closed his hands into fists and activated his Chi before meeting Jack's punch.

Thoom!

A terrifying explosion could be heard as their fists met, and a strong wave of energy rippled outward from them.

The smirking Tyrell frowned right after. He thought his punch would send Jack flying, but the power that surged from Jack was not much weaker compared to his, and they were temporarily deadlocked.

"Impossible!" Helena took out a healing pill and consumed it, all the while thinking Jack would be sent zipping through the air, but she stood corrected.

The horrifying waves of energy were still counteracting. Both Jack and Tyrell suddenly increased their power, causing them to fly backward for a couple of meters before they regained their footing on the ground.

“How’s this possible? Your fighting prowess is obviously weaker than mine. How can your power match mine?” Tyrell was in disbelief. After all, he believed that the Hunt family’s martial art techniques were the best, thus it was impossible for Jack to be able to stand his ground when they both had the same fighting prowess.

Jack’s fighting prowess was obviously slightly lower than his, yet their fight showed that there was not much difference between them.

“Isn’t it quite normal for people to kill enemies of different levels?” Jack smiled indifferently and looked straight at Tyrell.

The corners of Tyrell’s mouth twitched. Jack’s words would not mean anything if he was just an ordinary casual trainer.

Who was he, then? He was the Hunt family’s young master, and what Jack said was undoubtedly humiliating him.

“That is it, young man!” Tyrell flew upward in a flash. He flipped his hand as he stood mid-air and a sky blue-colored sword appeared in his hand.

“Middle-grade spiritual tool!” Jack, who had also flown to the skies, was slightly surprised when he saw this sword.

Tyrell was quite satisfied with Jack's surprised expression.

He had a sinister smile as he raised his eyebrow and spoke, "How about that? Are you afraid? Haha..! Seems like you got foresight, seeing as you can see that this sword of mine isn't that simple!"

Tyrell raised his sword and, pointing it at Jack's direction, declared domineeringly, "Today, I'll cut off your hands with this sword of mine and wound you gravely!"

'Sigh! How troublesome... Jack has quite good combat power and is a genius among geniuses, but it's sad to see him going against this perverted Second Young Master Hunt!' Helena sighed inwardly as she eyed the sword and felt a faint fluctuation from it. Second Young Master Hunt used another sword, a lower-grade spiritual tool when he dealt with her, yet he suddenly pulled out this middlegrade spiritual tool against Jack.

It seemed like she and Jack were done for.

'Is this guy here to rescue me because I'm Daniella's sister?'

Thought Helena once more and smiled bitterly. This guy seemed infatuated, but it was sad to say he would die offending Second Young Master Hunt.

"Tsk, ts. You're still so confident!" Jack looked as if he could care less. He closed his fist and Chi started to surge on top of his fist again.

"Don't you have a weapon, or do you plan to defeat me with your martial skills and without a weapon?" Tyrell was taken aback when he saw that Jack did not even take out his weapon.

However, he soon grinned as he sneered, "Alright, I get it now.

You know you can't take any good weapons out that can increase your combat power!"

"Let's talk after you successfully block my attack!" Jack did not want to say much to Tyrell. He punched at his direction and the horrifying Chi immediately surged out unstoppably. A daunting Chi wave appeared in front of Second Young Master Hunt.

The wave surged unavoidably as it grew increasingly larger. Then, the horrifying wave went pouncing toward Second Young Master Hunt who was below.

"Sh*t. This martial skill is at least a second-grade elementary skill, but its momentum seems deadly in his hands!" Second Young Master Hunt's face turned serious when he saw the frightening wave in front of him. He had no idea that Jack's martial skill would be so powerful and had such momentum. This attack was not weaker than Helena's, who was at the real-god level's final stage.

Second Young Master Hunt heightened his guard when he heard Jack's scary martial skill, and he immediately infused his Chi into the sword in his hand.

The sword gave out a chilling humming sound, and the vibration of the sword grew stronger.

"Hundred Leaves Chop!" Second Young Master Hunt once again executed his powerful martial skill, but the leaves this time were far bigger than the previous ones and looked firmer as well.

It was obvious that Second Young Master Hunt's attack was stronger compared to before after he changed into a stronger weapon.No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1323-1325

Chapter 1323

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

The leaves that were formed by coagulating Chi and sword aura zipped forward speedily. After covering a huge space, they landed on Jack's Chi wave one after another.

Thoom! Thoom! Thoom!

Blasts followed one after another, and as the leaves exploded, Jack's Chi wave dispersed as it mitigated Second Young Master Hunt's attack successfully

"Damn!" As his attacks failed, Second Young Master Hunt's mouth twitched as his expression darkened at the sight...of a missing Jack. Not only that, but even the wounded Helena, who stood at the sidelines as they fought, had also disappeared.

Jack used the mighty Chi wave to rush and block Second Young Master Hunt's line of sight once it stacked up before escaping with Helena

"This guy is too smart. He runs away after knowing he can't defeat me. F*ck, he better wish we never cross paths again, or I'll cut him into pieces!" growled Tyrell through gritted teeth, fists balled tightly in anger.

Meanwhile...

With his arms around Helena's waist from behind, Jack speedily flickered from the fight, occasionally changing direction from time to time.

Helena was bewildered in Jack's arms. She thought Jack would continue fighting Tyrell, seeing as his combat power was so impressive that it shocked her.

She did not expect that he would run away, taking her with him.

Helena's heart thrummed vehemently at the presence of Jack's masculine temperament. She secretly turned around to see Jack's handsome face and was absentminded for a short moment.

She had no idea that a man who she had framed previously would desperately help her at this moment.

After flying for some time, Jack eventually let Helena down after he was sure it was safe and that Tyrell was not after them.

"You... I thought you'd exert your utmost strength in fighting him. I'm surprised you chose to escape, taking me with you!" began Helena as she sat under a tree, her face slightly pinkish. She secretly glanced at Jack before saying, "You made the right choice, nonetheless. He has a higher fighting prowess compared to you, and I'm sure he hasn't used his strongest attack. If the battle continues, we'd both die back there. You purposely used your strongest attack and deliberately acted to exert your utmost strength in fighting him, then choosing to escape with me as the attack blocked his sight. Your intelligence is commendable!"

Jack smiled bitterly after he heard this. "Do you truly think I can't fight him? I just refuse to fight him as he's the Hunt family's second young master. If I kill him, the Hunt family will have our heads when we get out of here!"

"You can continue boasting. There aren't any other people there back there, and how sure are you that you can slay him?" Helena rolled her eyes at Jack. "It's not shameful to escape when you can't win a fight against him. Why are you ashamed to admit it? Your fighting prowess is much lower than his, and it's good enough that you can still escape with me!"

Jack smiled as he walked over and spoke while looking at Helena, "How do you know that! There aren't any other people over there? I've already felt two extremely hidden breathing sounds not far away from us. They were obviously attracted by your previous fighting sounds. If I really kill Tyrell Hunt, those two will definitely inform the Hunt family after they leave this place!"

Chapter 1324

"That's impossible. You can sense someone was watching us?" Jack's claim shocked Helena, seeing as she felt nothing else out of the ordinary back there. She had no idea if it was because she was too zeroed in on Jack and Tyrell's fight.

If that was the case, Jack should have been more focused on his battle. Why, then, was he able to make out the presence of more people?

Jack noted Helena's puzzled face as he smilingly said, "I'm an alchemist, and my mental strength is naturally much stronger than yours. My perception of the surroundings is stronger than yours, and I can feel that the other party's breaths are very hidden. Seems to me that their fighting prowess isn't low, either."

Jack paused here before he continued, "That's why I think it's best to let Second Young Master Hunt go this time."

Uncomfortable, the unimpressed Helena countered, "You can talk all you want. You're speaking as if you can win had you continued your fight with him. Who knows if Second Young Master Hunt still has any last tricks up his sleeves? After all, he's from the Hunt family, and I'm sure he didn't use all his power in fighting you just now, just toying with you as he pleased."

Surprised that Helena underestimated him, Jack smiled coldly. "Fine, fine, fine... You can just take it that I can't win if I go against him. However, at least I managed to escape with you safely. How about you? If I didn't appear in time, you would've died there!"

Helena bit her sexy red lips as she lowered her head and abashedly replied, "Since you know that Second Young Master Hunt has such a high fighting prowess and combat power, why did you still come for me then? Aren't you afraid of dying? Don't you hate me as I...I've ruined your reputation and forced you to act as my boyfriend?"

Stunned momentarily, Jack then replied, "Hate you? Sure, I hated you and despised you, but it eventually clicked that you had no choice but to do it. Apart from that, I don't think it's possible for me to not acknowledge our relationship later on. By then, people from the other families would say that we were toying with them and were taking them as idiots!"

“Then why did you rescue me?”

Helena could not help but ask again after thinking about it.

“I can’t explain clearly why I rescued you. Maybe I didn’t want a beauty like you to be insulted by that fatty!” replied Jack.

His reply somewhat disappointed her. “There’s no other reason than that?” she asked as she lifted her head to look at Jack.

“Other reasons? Why would there be? I’m just rescuing a person, so I didn’t put much thought into it. I don’t like that fatty either, so I can’t let him have his way,” replied Jack nonchalantly, frowning soon after. “If we need to come up with another reason, it might be because I feel that you’re not a bad person. Apart from that, you’re Daniella’s sister, and we’re truly good friends.”

Helena was dejected at that but was unable to pinpoint why she felt like that. She wondered if it had something to do with her giving her first kiss to this guy.

“Alright, thank you very much.”

Helena smiled and tried to not overthink things. She secretly reminded herself that this was her sister, Daniella’s boyfriend, and she had no relationship with this guy. It was already quite nice of him for not exposing her lies in front of everybody.

Jack lowered his head and looked at her, noticing the cut on her clothes and blood still seeping through the wound.

Jack frowned and reminded her, “You... You’re still bleeding.”

Chapter 1325

Helena lowered her head toward her chest, and her initially pale face turned crimson red with her blush. So embarrassed was she that she wanted the ground to part and consume her entirely.

She immediately covered herself and stared at Jack. "Don't you understand the saying, 'see no evil'? Why are you still looking at me? You're a pervert, no good like every other man out there!"

That shocked Jack entirely. Just a kind reminder from him painted him a pervert.

He grew unhappy as he recalled how troublesome Helena had been within these two days.

He simply smirked. "Really? Didn't you announce in front of everybody that I'm your boyfriend? Why are you so shy when we're in a relationship, even giving your virginity to me? Weren't you very proactive when we were on the streets the other day?"

"You..." His behavior angered Helena. She did not expect this guy to act rascally with her.

She rolled her eyes at Jack before saying, "I'm sure you know that I said that because I had no other choice. All we can do is just prolong that, now that everybody knows about our relationship. Don't you worry: we'll just announce that we've broken up after some time, and I won't implicate you."

Jack was speechless. "You won't implicate me? Haha...! Haven't you implicated me already? The Hunt family hates me so much and many of the young masters who like you also hate me. I'm now a public enemy!"

Helena could not control her smile at Jack's complaint as she pompously replied, "Well, I can't help it, I'm just that pretty. I'm sure many young masters dream of being mistaken as my boyfriend."

“Fine. Take this, and I’ll think of this as karma from my past life.” Eyeing the woman on the ground, he flipped his hand and took a healing pill out before throwing it to Helena.

“What’s this?” Helena looked at Jack suspiciously. “Let me tell you this: don’t think about feeding me some strange medication. I, Helena Cabello, am not so gullible!”

Exasperated, Jack argued, “Hey, do I need to use such means if I really have any intentions toward you? You can’t fight me, not when you’re this badly wounded!”

“Plausible. But, I’ve already taken a pill to heal my wounds. There’s no need to take this pill of yours.” Helena glanced at her wounds before speaking again, “Look, I’m not bleeding anymore.”

“Your medication has a bad effect. Your wounds would’ve stopped bleeding some time ago had you eaten mine, and your wound might’ve even healed!” Jack shook his head before saying again, “Up to you. Eat it if you believe in me; don’t take it if you don’t.”

“I... I’ll give it a try.” Helena glanced at Jack and hesitated for a short moment before swallowing the pill Jack gave her. No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1326-1328

Chapter 1326

Helena discovered that her wounds had started to heal shortly after she took the pill. The speed of her recovery was far better than the pill from her family, and not even a single scar was visible.

“The White family has such good healing pills? Seems like your family also has a good study into such things!” exclaimed Helena, assessing how powerful the pill Jack gave her was.

“This isn’t from the White family. I cultivated these when I had free time, and I’ve cultivated quite a lot of them.” Jack gave an awkward smile before he added, “I’ll teach the other members of the White family when I’ve got the time. They’ll be able to use better healing medication in the future!”

"I never thought you'd have such talent!" Helena looked at Jack in admiration. She had to admit that this man, her third sister's boyfriend, was an outstanding person. To top off his talented self, he was generous and quite the looker himself.

Envy sprung from within her, though faintly so. How was it that she never met such outstanding men throughout all these years?

Was it possible that her meeting with Jack would have been perfect had he not been her third sister's boyfriend?

Helena slowly fell into a state of trance as she thought about it.

"I see there's a cave over there, and it's quite late. Why don't we rest there for one night?" Jack glanced at Helena and continued, "You have blood on your clothes. Why don't you go in and have a change while I stand guard for you outside."

"You'll guard me?" Helena frowned and meekly continued, "How would I know if you'll peek?"

Flustered, he exasperatedly said, "It's up to you. You don't need to change if you don't want to and feel that wearing your current clothes is more comfortable. Might I remind you, though, that you got several tears in your clothes, and I'm afraid that others would stare at you no matter where you go after this."

Helena's pretty face immediately blushed into a crimson color. She glanced at Jack before agreeing, "Alright. You can't peek no matter what, do you understand? I... I'll tell my sister if you do!"

Jack was speechless. "You're going to tell Daniella? Tell her that I peeked at you? Haha...! Will you be shameless enough to tell others about something like this?"

“Hmph! Don’t act dumb. Do you think I don’t know anything? You ‘re dating my sister-even Daniella admitted to it!” Helena spoke indignantly and walked toward the cave that Jack mentioned. “So if you’re a pervert and dares peek at me, you’ll be done for when my sister learns about it. She’ll definitely break up with you then!”

Trotting behind Helena, Jack grumbled, unable to hold back, “ It’d be nice if she actually does break up with me.”

“Hmm? What did you say?” Who would have expected Helena to have such good hearing. She stopped walking and looked at Jack with a puzzled look on her face.

Jack quickly said, “It’s nothing. Sigh! I didn’t have a choice. I’m married and am much older than your sister, but your sister insisted and pestered me. I don’t have a choice but to accept my fate!”

Helena immediately rolled her eyes at Jack. “Alright, keep acting like that if you want. Do you think I’ll believe in what you say? You must’ve tricked my sister into being yours after seeing how young and pretty she is. My sister fell into your trap because she’s too naïve and had never been exposed to the outside world. After you’ve gotten what you want, you’re saying now that my sister pursued and pestered you. You really don’t have any conscience!”

“Uh!” Jack knew nobody would believe him if he told others about this story. After all, any man would have fallen for such a beautiful and young woman when they encountered one. Even he experienced a feeling of restlessness that he never had in the past when he rode on the horse with Daniella.

Chapter 1327

Jack never thought of pursuing Daniella, but that one night when they slept together after they got drunk changed it all.

“Alright. I’ll go in and change, so you can keep watch outside. Remember, don’t peek or you won’t hear the end of this!” Helena turned around and smiled before entering the cave alone.

“That woman...!” Jack smiled bitterly before taking out a cigarette and slowly enjoyed a smoke outside.

He never thought he would chance upon Helena and Second Young Master Hunt during the first day of this competition. Everything seemed as if it was fated.

All of a sudden... “Ah!”

Jack heard Helena’s yell from inside the cave just as he took two whiffs of his cigarette.

“This is bad. She’s in danger!” Startled, Jack rushed toward the cave.

“Roar!” He saw a tiger attacking Helena as he rushed into the cave.

With a flip of his hand, the black sword appeared in his hand and he waved toward the tiger.

Whoosh!

Jack rushed forward and a sword aura flew forward, severing the tiger’s head. The tiger landed on the ground with an audible thud, lifeless as it did.

“A monster beast that’s at the final stage of the semi-god level, and you...” Jack turned around to look at Helena who stood near the cave’s wall after he killed the monster beast.

“Don’t look!” With a new dress at hand, Helena quickly draped it before her form as her soiled clothes were on the ground.

Jack was stunned when he saw such a scene. Although Helena had covered herself with her dress, her fair thighs and collarbone looked sexy and alluring. He was rather bewitched at the sight.

Jack had no doubt that if another man saw her abashed expression and under the circumstances that her wounds were not completely healed, they would have acted on impulse.

“You... You’re still looking!” Helena blushed terribly and was tongue-tied; no man had ever stared at her in such a state.

Jack soon snapped out of his trance and had an embarrassed expression on his face. He immediately pretended to look around. “I’m seeing if there are any other monster beasts around here!”

Jack rushed outside after he looked around for a couple of times and said, “Ask me to come in after you’re done dressing up!”

Helena pursed her lips angrily after Jack left. She looked at her almost perfect figure and did not know how to react to what happened.

Chapter 1328

“Alright, you can come in now!” Changed into her new dress, Helena took a moment to recollect herself before calling out to Jack.

Jack entered the cave with a dead rabbit in his hands before he threw it aside.

“Why did you bring a rabbit in?” Helena immediately asked when she saw the tiny monster beast’s body on the ground.

Jack smiled. “Since we have time, let’s roast it as food later!”

He then exited the cave in search of some dried wood. He then ignited it and started roasting the rabbit after taking off its skin.

Sitting next to Jack, Helena took her time before softly asking, "Did you see anything just now?"

"Ahem, ahem! I didn't see anything. Didn't you cover yourself with your clothes?" mumbled Jack as he coughed, embarrassed. "Although you're hurt, that monster beast isn't a high-level one, and you should've been able to handle it."

Helena rolled her eyes at him and said, "The tiger hid at the dark spot over there, and I didn't notice that there was a monster beast in here. I was surprised when it jumped forward. Also, do you think I should fight without wearing clothes?"

Only then did Jack realize what had happened as he sheepishly said, "You're right. This is the first time I've come to such a place. I've forgotten that there are many monster beasts here, and I should've checked the cave before letting you in."

"Hmph," scoffed Helena. "I'd you know this." A moment later, she then said, "By the way, you cannot tell my sisters about what happened just now."

Smiling, Jack assured, "Don't worry. I've seen nothing, so there should be nothing to say, right?"

Helena frowned and said angrily, "What do you mean? You mean to say that you'd tell people about what happened just now if you've seen something?"

"Uh, there's nothing much say even if that's the case!" Fan smiled.

He pulled the rabbit's thigh down when the roasted meat was almost done and passed it to Helena. "Do you want to have eyeing Jack, the rather shocked Helena spoke, "You really know how to enjoy life. You actually brought this out with you!"

“Haha... Do you want a sip?” Jack smiled and handed the wine in his hand outward.

“I don’t want to drink it. I can have a couple of sips if we’re with the Cabello family, but I dare not drink at such a place since it’ll only spell trouble if I get drunk.” No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1329-1333

Chapter 1329

Helena waved his hand before she recalled something, asking Jack with great interest, “By the way, since you’re with Daniella, how did the two of you meet?”

“Some mounted brigands captured her, and I have history with them, so I killed them and incidentally rescued her.” Jack ate big mouthfuls of the rabbit meat in his hands and gulped down a huge mouthful of wine before he continued, “We gradually got together after spending some time together!”

Helena had a doubtful expression on her face. “You’ve just known each other for around one month, and you’re telling me you got together after spending some time together? That’s too fast, in my opinion. Many people who knew and pursued Daniella for many years, maybe more than a dozen years, had never won her heart before. You truly have some dumb luck to be able to win her heart.”

“Me, dumb luck? Haha!” Jack smiled awkwardly when he heard this and a complicated feeling rose from his heart.

It grew late as they chatted on.

The next morning, Helena’s wounds had completely recovered.

“Alright. I won’t follow you now that I’ve healed, or we’d fight over precious items that we come across!” Helena exited the cave and stretched herself. Her almost perfect body was once again out for show.

“Alright. Be careful now, and don’t run into the Second Young Master Hunt again,” reminded Jack before he flew upward.

“It won’t be so easy to meet someone!” Helena also started flying in a flash. She glanced at Jack and said, “Don’t worry, there aren’t many of my opponents here.”

Just as they were about to leave, however...

Thoom! Thoom! Thoom!

They heard battle noises not far away, and it sounded closer to them by the second.

“They’re members of the White family!” Jack took a look and soon discovered that four or five members of the White family were escaping from a group of people. He immediately rushed forward, hands curled into fists.

Helena initially had no plans to intervene, but she soon noted something else. The seven to eight people who were chasing participants from the White family were prodigies from the Cabello family.

She smiled bitterly, shaking her head before flying toward them.

“Damn it, Beth! Why don’t we just give it to them? They’re so persistent in chasing us!” said Yule, who was flying in front, frowning as she turned to look at their chasers.

“No way! We tried so hard to get a white token. Why do we need to give it to the Cabellos?!” growled Beth through gritted teeth as she saw the group chasing them come closer. “Why don’t we split up while we fly? The both of us won’t be killed at the same time if we do that!”

At that moment, Yule saw a man flying toward them, and hope filled her expression when she noticed who it was. "Hey, that... That seems to be brother Jack!"

"It really is him. This is great! We don't need to escape anymore. F*ck, we'll definitely win now that Young Master Jack is here to kill these damned Cabellos!" Beth immediately stopped and was relieved. Jack was here at last, and the Cabellos behind them were no match for him, no doubt.

Yule thought about it and said, "Do we really need to kill them? There's no need for it, right? Although these Cabellos are detestable, aren't my brother and Eldest Young Mistress Cabello a couple? There's no need for us to bring the situation into a deadlock, right?"

Astounded by her reasoning, Beth rolled her eyes at her before she argued, "You're such a gullible young lady. Can't you see what's going on? Your brother Jack and the Eldest Young Mistress Cabello aren't a couple, and they're forced to be a fake couple, left without a choice! Some time later in the future, the two of them will surely announce their break up after Helena finds the person she really likes!"

Chapter 1330

Beth's reasoning clicked for Yule. "That's true. I was also wondering how my brother and Helena dated all of a sudden. After all, they had just met each other and never crossed paths before! Looks like my brother is being kind to help Helena, so he didn't expose her. Otherwise, the Cabello family would've been in big trouble!"

Beth also nodded. "The most crucial point is the domineering nature of the Hunt family members. Both the Second Young Master Hunt and Eldest Young Master Hunt are greatly talented. It's best to not offend them if possible." Beth paused here before she continued, "However, if I'm Helena Cabello, I won't fall for that fatty, Second Young Master Hunt. I would've done something like forcefully kissing Young Master Jack to shake of Second Young Master Hunt!"

The second they finished speaking, Jack appeared in front of them and stopped.

The seven to eight Cabello family members also stopped not far away from them.

The expression of one man from the Cabello family darkened when he saw Jack arriving. “F* ck, this is troublesome! Why is the White family’s young master here? This guy is in the real-god level, intermediate stage!”

“Brother Jay, why don’t we just give up? We won’t be able to defeat them right now!” suggested a young lady to the man, Jay Cabello, after she glanced at Jack and the others.

Bitter, Jay was about to give up when his eyes lit up as he pointed to the area not far from their location. “Look, it’s the eldest young mistress!”

“Family master inheritor a couple? Would she help us take it?” A man thought about it and said with a weird expression on his face.

Jay thought about it with a frown on his face and said with a slight uncertainty, “I think she’ll help us. I heard from the elders of the Cabello family that the eldest young mistress said that on purpose so the Hunt family wouldn’t force her hand in marriage. Hence, she’s not that guy’s girlfriend. These are two independent incidents, and I believe that Eldest Young Mistress Cabello will help us!”

Whoosh!

After some time, Helena flew over and stood together with the Cabellos.

Helena glanced at Jay and the others before she asked, “What’s going on here?”

Jay walked one step forward and said to Helena, “Eldest young mistress, they got a white token, equivalent to ten black ones. Apart from that, that woman even got a second-grade elementary spirited grass. Let’s take it from them!” His eyes were seemingly ablaze as he mentioned the token and spirited grass—both items were worth fighting for.

“Young master, we found them first yet these people wanted to take them after we’ve gotten them!” Beth, Yule, and the others once again wore serious expressions on their faces when they saw that Helena had arrived.

Chapter 1331

“I get it now, don’t worry.” Jack smiled and said nothing else. Instead, he looked at Helena indifferently, wanting to see what Helena would decide on. After all, not only did he help her stop Second Young Master Hunt from pestering her, but he literally saved her life last evening.

However, there were many fights between both families in the past, so he was curious to know Helena’s choice.

“This belonged to them as they discovered it first. Why do you people need to take it from them?” Helena glared at Jay and the others before she continued, “Jack is a good person, and he even helped me at a very important moment yesterday. Let them have what they’ve earned!”

Met with looks of surprise from the Cabello family’s geniuses, Helena thoughtfully added, “By the way, when you meet members from the White family in the future, don’t take things from them. We’re friendly allies, do you understand? You guys need to help them if we happen to come across incidents where the Hunt family wants to bully them, do you understand?”

“Uh!” Jay and the others had their jaws wide open in shock, wondering if they heard wrongly.

Their chins almost dropped to the ground as they wondered: when did both families become friendly allies? Apart from that, they even had to help when the Hunt family members bully the White family members?

Helena once again glared at everyone before placing her hands behind her back and spoke in a serious manner, “Why are you people so surprised? Do you still remember what my father said? In this competition, I have the highest fighting prowess among all the contestants from the Cabello family, so everybody has to obey my arrangements, understand?"

"Yes, eldest young mistress!" The people from the Cabello family could only nod in agreement. However, they still could not accept the fact that the Cabello family had become friendly alliances with the White family.

Eyeing Jack, they recalled how Helena seemed to have flown over from the same direction as this guy did. They started to wonder if their eldest young mistress was genuinely dating Jack, or if their relationship had upped a notch within these couple of days because of what happened before.

"Alright, then we'll make a move first!" In the end, Helena glanced at Jack and gestured to him.

"Alright!" Jack nodded and looked on as they left.

"Young Master, you're awesome! It looks like Helena Cabello has fallen in love with you. I mean, why would she help you without any hesitation?" said Beth happily as she walked toward Jack after Helena and the others left.

"That's right! Congratulations on scoring another beautiful lady, Young Master Jack. Haha!" Another young man from the White family also started laughing. "It'd be best if we let go of our past grievances and become friendly allies. The relationship between both families will further improve when Young Master Jack and Young Mistress Helena get married."

Jack was speechless. What sort of nonsense were they talking about? Things had not started to take shape yet, and they were already thinking about marriage? That must not happen; that was Daniella's sister!

He immediately glared at that guy. "Stop speaking such nonsense about getting married. I've never even thought about it!"

“Uh!” The guy had a startled look on his face. “What? Young master, she’s a beauty—a sexy and aloof angel. She obviously likes you, and that’s why she helped us just now. You’re already dating her, yet you never thought of marrying her? The two of you are obviously made for one another!”

Chapter 1332

“What? Young Master, are you just playing with her? You’re being too irresponsible if that’s the case. Apart from that, Eldest Young Mistress Cabello is really pretty, and I think she suits you well!” Another young man from the White family was also startled. They never expected that Jack would only want to be in a relationship with Eldest Young Mistress Cabello without even thinking about marriage. Eldest Young Mistress Cabello would be saddened to hear this.

Those words made Jack embarrassed, and he had no idea what to say or how to explain himself at that moment. If he made an explanation and these people ran their mouth about how they were only a fake couple, both the Hunt family master.

“Alright, alright... Why should people like us worry about our young master’s relationship issue? You people really are...” Beth stood forward and rolled her eyes at both young men. With a flip of her hand, she took out two to three pieces of black tokens and one white token. Apart from that, there was also a second-grade elementary spirited grass and several firstgrade spirited grass. “Young Master, it’s best if you take custody of these things as they won’t be safe with us. Moreover, we won’t be able to place at the front few positions even if we take it with us. You should take it and bring honor to our White family by ranking top in the individual category!”

Yule chimed in, smilingly saying, “That’s right, Brother Jack. In the past, we didn’t have anybody with such a high fighting prowess or combat power like you when the White family joined the competition. Hence, we all kept the respective tokens we got during the competition. This also meant that nobody was really strong in the individual category, but our placement as a group was quite good. Still, the other families still made jokes out of us because

Of this.”

Yule then added, “Right now, everything is different. We can give all the tokens we got to you and make sure that we have someone at the top placing in the individual category!”

Jack was quiet for a short while before he took the tokens and spirited grass from them. Stashing it away, he said, "Alright, I'll take the tokens and other items with me. I think that it's best if you guys travel with me; it's much safer for you that way.

I'm afraid that the people from the Hunt family and Lagorio family will find an opportunity to strike at us."

Yule frowned the moment she heard this and thoughtfully offered, "Brother Jack, I think it's best if we travel separately as the forest is huge. I don't think that members from both the Lagorio and Hunt families have gathered together yet. Although it's much safer for us to travel with you, it'd be difficult to find more tokens in that case!"

Beth also nodded. "Yes, why don't we do this instead? Let's gather at the bottom of the Kobe mountain before we go up the mountain together. That'd be much safer as there are more tokens in the mountain, and many people must be rushing there right now!"

Assessing the idea, Jack replied, "Why don't we move separately and inform other members of the White family that we'll gather at a specific part at the bottom of the mountain before moving up together? After all, I'm sure that many people from the other families would also gather here. It wouldn't be beneficial to us if we move separately!

"Alright. We'll surely ask everybody to inform one another and try our best to be extra careful. Then, we shall be able to get more tokens!" said Beth enthusiastically.

Jack nodded and said, "Alright. Be on your guard, everyone."

"Jack! This is great!"

A familiar voice was heard all of a sudden as a woman came flying toward Jack.

She rushed into Jack's arms in excitement as soon as she came before him, hugging him as she gushed, "This is great! I've finally met you! I was so worried about you!"

Jack was embarrassed. He did not expect Daniella to be so excited to see him.

"What...?" Yule and the others looked on in confusion and shock. Two of them had their jaws hung wide open until their chins almost dropped to the floor in their shock.

Was it not the Eldest Young Mistress Cabello Young Master that was Jack's girlfriend? Why did Daniella jump into Jack's arms the second she got in front of him? Could it be possible that they had made a mistake?

"Cough, cough...! Daniella, you..." Jack quickly reminded her.

Only then did Daniella glance to the side and immediately blush before she walked a couple of steps backward. "Don't... Don't misunderstand me. I'm too excited because... Haha...! It's been a long time since I've met Young Master Jack!"

Everyone was baffled at her explanation; that sounded rather unconvincing. Had they not just arrived here for one day? Why did this young lady imply she had not seen Jack for a long time?

"Haha...! We get it, we get it!" Yule laughed and exchanged glances with Beth. They were smart and could see that Daniella definitely liked Jack.

However, they were curious about why Daniella would fight her sister for her boyfriend when she knew that Helena was Jack's girlfriend.

At this moment, a young man from the White family stood forward and coughed embarrassingly. They obviously did not want to be thirdwheelers. "Ahem, ahem! We'll be taking our leave now."

"Let's go! Go! Go!" Yule and the others also smiled before waving goodbye to the two of them. One by one, they slowly flew away.

"Look at what you've done. They've misunderstood us!" Jack was exasperated as he noticed the White family's members leaving. Daniella was quite impulsive as she was slightly younger.

Daniella also felt that she had

Made a mistake. She bit her sexy red lips while lowering her head, saying, "I didn't do it on purpose. I was only worried about you because I haven't seen you. Apart from that, this can't be considered as a misunderstanding as I'm your real girlfriend. You've said that you'd take responsibility toward me. Do you want to break your promise?" No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1334-1338

Chapter 1334

Jack smiled and said to Daniella, "Don't worry. I, Jack White, never broke a promise!"

"Alright, let's go! I'm traveling with you!" Daniella felt butterflies in her stomach. With a flip of her hand, she revealed two black tokens and handed them to Jack. "Haha...! I found these yesterday. Here, they're for you!"

"For me?" Jack was flustered. "You're a member of the Cabello family. It's best if you reserve this for your eldest sister!"

"I am a member of the Cabello family," said the blushing Daniella before she added, "but I'm also yours. You're going to be my man in the future, so I have to help you!"

Her thoughtfulness moved Jack. He tidied up everything and held Daniella's hand as they flew down.

Daniella hugged Jack from his back the moment they landed on the ground. She then tilted her head toward Jack's back, lips curling into a sweet smile.

Jack had no idea that this young girl would be such a clingy person. Smiling awkwardly, he said, "Come on, let's continue searching for treasures. Stop clinging to me; we gotta look for the tokens."

"What are you afraid of? I'm your actual girlfriend. I notice I'd think of you so often if I don't see you for one day. Apart from that, both the young masters of the Hunt family have such terrifying combat power, and I'm afraid they'll attack you if they run into you!" Daniella still hugged Jack tightly, reveling in the heartwarming feeling. "My worries are finally resolved now that I've seen you."

All of a sudden... "My, oh my... Who knew I'd be fortunate enough to see such a scene. Haha!" A man's voice was heard not far from them several seconds later.

Daniella immediately let go of Jack, awfully nervous as her face blushed a crimson red color.

The two of them immediately turned around and saw eight people standing behind them. Four of them were prodigies from the Norman family while the other four were geniuses from the Lagorio family.

The person who spoke was none other than Joshua Norman, the person who lost to Jack before.

"This is so interesting. It looks like the saying, the brother-in-law owns half of his wife's sisters,' is true!" Another man from the Lagorio family smiled with a teasing expression on his face.

"Daniella, does your sister know about this?" asked the smirking Keith.

Daniella looked bitter at their words. She wanted to tell these dumb people that she was Jack's true girlfriend, and her sister was just faking it with Jack. She wanted to tell them their relationship was just a makeshift stratagem.

Nonetheless, she knew she could not bring it up, and she dared not to as well.

"Why? Are you jealous of me?"

Chapter 1335

Facing the taunts, Jack grabbed Daniella by her waist, pulled her close to his chest, and lowered his head to kiss her on her red lips.

Daniella's heart raced wildly in her bewilderment, taken aback at how Jack decided to prove their relationship at this moment in such a domineering way. Was he not afraid of these people spreading news about them? What should they do when the Hunt family learn about this?

"You..." All three sons of the Norman family liked the three young mistresses of the Cabello family. Their main target of persuasion was Daniella as she looked especially young and quirky. She, to put it simply, captivated them.

How could Jack make both Helena and Daniella fall for him? They spurned with jealousy that rose from their hearts. Moreover, they resented how the woman they loved was taken away by someone else.

"Oh, you'll die today, young man!" growled Conley Norman.

"Young Masters, what say we kill them together, seeing that we've easily outnumbered them?" The Lagorios immediately suggested it to Keith and the others as they were delighted when they heard this.

"Haha... Just with you people?" Jack laughed and had a cold expression on his face. "Since you guys like to come at me so much, I won't hold back today. Keeping you people alive doesn't benefit our White family!" Jack had made up his mind: They had to die, especially when the three sons of the Norman family were so talented. Keith and Joshua were at the intermediate stage of the real god stage. If they left this place alive, they would definitely attack prodigies of the White family in the later stages of the competition.

Jack decided to kill these geniuses from the Norman and Lagorio family at that moment.

"Haha! I'd love to know where you got all that confidence from." Joshua laughed out loudly. "Jack, do you think you can defeat us just because you've won against me and my second brother? Take a good look at our numbers and yours, not to mention that all eight of us are masters of the true-god level!"

"It's even better that you're all masters of the true-god level. You guys won't be able to threaten our White family if I get rid of everybody in one go!" Jack flipped his hand to take his black sword out before speaking, "Daniella, you should stay behind me. I can handle these people alone!"

"Can you handle it alone?" Daniella frowned and obviously did not believe in what Jack said. Sure, Jack was in the intermediate level of the true god level, and he might be able to defeat Keith and the others if they fought individually, but there were so many of them. How could Daniella not worry when so many of them were going to attack Jack altogether?

"Don't worry. They can't beat me." Jack smiled indifferently and asked Daniella to step back.

"Ah, no wonder women like you so much, young man-you're good at being chivalrous!"

The corners of Keith's mouth curled into a light smile." Although I'm in the intermediate stage of the true god level like my second brother, my combat power among those in this stage is almost invincible. Even if there are three masters in the intermediate stage of the true god level, they might not be opponents. Are you sure that you alone can stop all of us?"

"Young Master Norman, let's stop talking with this guy and kill all of them!" One of the men from the Lagorio family was impatient. Their family master, Trenton Lagorio would be happy if they managed to kill Jack, the White family master inheritor, with the help of the Normans.

“Kill all of them? That won’t work. We can kill that man, but it ‘d be unfortunate to kill Daniella!” said the grinning Keith, and he swallowed his saliva at the sight of Daniella’s long legs.

Chapter 1336

“You’re absolutely right, Big Bro. This woman is a rare beauty. It would be a pity to kill her just like that!”

Joshua gave a wicked smile. “ Besides, we can kill whoever we like in this competition. Haha. Even Daniella’s father wouldn’t dare to do anything to us if we toy around with her for a bit before killing her!”

Conley also chimed in, “Both of you are right. Daniella isn’t Jack’ s girlfriend, so it’s a possibility that she’s still a virgin. Hehe!”

“You’re right!”

Another genius from the Norman family had a wicked smile carved on his face.

The other two men from the Lagorio family also had wicked smiles. They stared at Daniella and gulped.

After all, it was difficult to find a beauty like her. Many men lusted after the daughters of the Cabello family, and taking their womanhood would give them plenty of bragging rights.

The two young women from the Lagorio family were internally speechless. They believed that all men were perverts who reverted to their cavemen selves once they saw a beautiful woman.

“Idiots!”

Jack was speechless before this lot. He was holding an ultimate grade spiritual weapon. Never mind if it did not increase his fighting power, but at any rate, this group of idiots would never be able to catch up to them if he were to flee with Daniella.

“What a mouth you have!”

Keith took a step forward and waved his hand. “Let’s all do this. Give your all if you want to have a taste of Third Young Mistress Cabello. Don’t hold back. Let’s join forces and get rid of this punk!”

“Big Bro, that sword looks like a flying sword. That-that’s an upper-grade spiritual tool. We’d better be careful!”

Conley thought about it for a while and told Keith, holding a weapon in his own hand.

“Don’t worry. In cases like this, a flying sword may be able to fly fast, but it’s not very strong in combat. I think it’s no good in increasing your fighting power!”

It was evident that Keith had some knowledge about spiritual tools. He gave a wan smile and spoke confidently, “I’m telling all of you that I’m the strongest here. After we kill this punk, I’ll take that sword. How about that?”

“Of course. It belongs to you!”

Joshua and Conley chorused in synchrony.

Several geniuses from the Lagorio family were eyeing the treasure, but they were only at the beginning stage of the true god status. They could do nothing but bow their heads and concede.

“You’re going to die here today, punk. I’ll show you the secondgrade martial technique from the Norman family-Feral Slash!”

Keith channeled his chi into the sword in his grip. Its blade began to glow and emit a terrifying hum.

Hum hum!

Joshua and Conley also took out their weapons, gathering their chi into them.

The other five people also began to scatter and take out their weapons.

Daniella, who was standing behind Jack with clenched fists, was worried about him.

Chapter 1337

After all, the eight men before him were all fighters in the true god realm, and two of them were at the intermediate stage. They were probably the aces among the contestants today.

Could Jack handle attacks from the eight of them alone?

Yet a small smile hung on his lips even as he faced against them. He tightened his grip on the black sword in his hand, slowly pouring his chi through the small hole on its hilt.

Hum!

As chi flowed into it, the sword started emitting a frightening hum. The blade rippled, and Jack’s aura grew stronger.

“What a powerful aura. The sword increased his martial ability!”

Joshua quickly sensed something and his expression darkened.

“Big Bro, didn’t you say that a flying sword wouldn’t usually increase the fighting prowess of its wielder?”

Conley was frightened after he felt that wave of energy. He quickly looked at his elder brother for assurance.

Keith’s expression stiffened, and he clenched his jaw. “I said ‘usually’. F*ck. There’s something different about that sword. That aura doesn’t belong to an upper-grade spiritual tool -it’s an ultimate-grade!”

“What? An ultimate-grade!”

Conley and the others were shocked beyond comprehension when they heard this as if they had just seen a ghost. Only the Hunt family should be able to pull out a treasure like that. How did that punk possess an ultimate-grade spiritual tool?

“Kill him! No backing out now!”

Keith gritted his teeth, and his eyes flashed with the promise of violence. He slashes his sword, and blade after blade of sword auras formed before him. They looked feral and their trajectories were unpredictable as they swept toward Jack.

“Get him!”

The other seven did not dare to hesitate for a second longer. They immediately lashed out with attacks of their own.

“Hmph. I’ll show you my second -grade premium martial skill!”

Jack gave a cold smile in the face of so many attacks. He took a vehement step forward, both hands gripped around the hilt of his sword. He arched his back and slashed outward. “Blade Wave!”

As he cried out, waves of sword auras appeared and continuously rippled, flying everywhere.

“No way!”

A girl from the Lagorio family was so frightened that her face paled at the sight of this attack. She felt as though she was facing someone at the peak of the true god realm.

“You’re kidding me. The White family has a second-grade premium martial skill?”

Keith was also shocked. It was rare to see martial skills that Were second-grade premium.

Even second-grade intermediate martial skills were hard to find. The Feral Slash technique from the Norman family was already unique to them.

Yet Jack used a second-grade premium martial skill. With amplified power from the ultimate-grade spiritual tool, that skill was pushed to its absolute maximum. All of them felt a grave premonition of death descending upon them.

Chapter 1338

Even Keith with the highest cultivation level and was the strongest fighter, was frightened, feeling as though death was coming for them. That feeling became stronger and stronger, and the other seven were all so terrified that color was completely leached from their faces. Fear filled their gazes.

“Don’t worry. We’ll definitely win. We have so many people attacking together. We’ll get him!”

Conley was so scared that his voice was trembling, yet he gripped tightly onto his sword and tried to encourage his comrades.

Bang bang bang!

A frightening explosion tore through the air. In the next second, the attacks from the Lagorio geniuses who were at the beginning stage of the true god status were all destroyed.

“Pfft!”

Those fellows spat a mouthful of blood, their faces twisted into grimaces.

“Sh*t. Their attacks were destroyed so easily!”

A few of their attacks had been destroyed by Jack. It was obvious that the attacks from Keith and the remaining men were not going to hold out for long. In a flash, beads of sweat began to drip from his forehead.

“This is bad, Big Bro. Let’s retreat!”

Joshua’s attacks were being suppressed as well. Jack’s sword auras were flying toward him non-stop, and he was so scared that his voice trembled.

“F*ck!”

Keith clenched his teeth and wheeled around to leave.

Whoosh whoosh whoosh!

Yet Jack was too fast, with the chi-enhanced sword and the sword auras. The blade swung outward, and immediately killed those of a lower cultivation level.

Only Keith and Joshua, who were a little stronger, managed to survive. Still, they were thrown backward by that horrifying force. Blood spilled from their lips and they fell with a heavy thud onto the ground.

“He’s too fast. We can’t escape!”

Joshua gritted his teeth. By the time he could lift his head, he realized that Jack had already flown over. He stood before the two brothers, giving them a cold

Stare.

“We are the young masters of the Norman family, Jack. We’re the young masters of a firstclass family. My father won’t forgive you if you kill us!”

Keith threatened Jack, gritting his teeth.

He did not think that Jack would give a mirthless smile instead.” You said that we can kill whoever we like in this competition, and no one can do anything about it. Besides, nobody is bearing witness to us. Who would ever find out that I killed you?"

After Jack said that, he swung his sword.

Chapter 1339-1345

A terrifying arc-shaped slash flew directly out and landed on the chests of the two brothers, killing them instantly.

"It's too... too amazing!"

Daniella on the side was already dumbfounded. After a while, she swallowed her saliva.

Jack collected all the loot from the eight people, and then he came to Daniella for a moment, before smiling at her, "Let's get out of here quickly, otherwise people will know it's me who killed these guys. When it's time to leave the forest and the Norman family finds out, even if they won't make a move for the time being, they will definitely find trouble with our family in the future!"

"Yeah!"

Daniella nodded obediently. She actually stretched out her hand and held Jack's hand, then they flew forward together, quickly disappearing from the place.

After the two flew for a while, they stopped, and Jack took out the tokens and spirit grass in their rings, and put it into his ring. Then they threw all of the rings collected in the grass.

Daniella, who was on the side, felt sweet in her heart. Jack actually kissed her proactively in front of those guys. This really surprised her. She never thought that such an old-fashioned, very serious guy would be so emotional as well.

Thinking of the previous scene, Daniella's mouth unconsciously showed a silly smile, and she was still a little nervous.

"By the way, yesterday, I saw your eldest sister!"

Jack thought for a while, then said to Daniella: "The second young master of the Hunt family has actually reached the late stage of True God Realm. This guy's combat effectiveness is really high. Your eldest sister is not his opponent. Fortunately, I saved her at a critical moment and escaped with her. Otherwise, I'm afraid your eldest sister would've already been killed."

"No way! My eldest sister's cultivation base is so high, she has already broken through to the late stage of True God Realm, and she actually couldn't beat the second young master of the Hunt family!?"

After listening to Jack, she couldn't help taking a breath: "The second young master of the Hunt family is really a master. He knows how to make pills and has a good talent for cultivation. If he joins the young master of the Hunt family, the strength of those two people will be even more terrifying."

After finishing speaking, she looked at Jack, then smiled and said: "Your combat power just now, I feel it is comparable to the strength of a true god peak powerhouse. You're too powerful, no wonder you could save my eldest sister! She must be very grateful to you for saving her. In the future, the relationship between our two families will get better and better!"

"Yes, what happened between our two families before and why? For many years, the relationship between the two families has not been very good and I don't know exactly what kind of hatred is there between our White family and your Cabello family!" After thinking about it, Jack looked at Daniella with a solemn expression.

"Hey, old grievances, it's been many years!"

Daniella smiled bitterly, then said to Jack: "It was your grandfather and my grandfather trying to snatch a treasure back then. As a result, the two sides fought and died together. Later, the two families began to have a bad relationship, and they fought. A few times there have been many deaths and injuries. So, now that so many years have passed, there are still some frictions between the two families. However, there is no direct war!”

After hearing this, Jack was a little bit dumbfounded: “That’s it, it’s actually a normal thing to snatch each other for treasures. After so many years, it should actually be let go.”

Daniella smiled again: “I feel it, in fact, my father and your father don’t hate each other anymore, but no one thinks that they are wrong, and they are prideful, not wanting to be embarrassed. Therefore, every time they meet, They are still like enemies, to put it plainly, they are doing it for the sake of their reputation.”

Hearing this, Jack was speechless, but thinking about it, if he was the head of a first-class family. In this case, who would bow his head to admit his mistake to the other party?

Daniella took a step forward and took Jack’s arm: “Don’t worry, when we get married in the future, the relationship between the two families will definitely get better. I will definitely convince my father!”

Not long after Jack left, several contestants from the Norman family once again came to the place where they had fought before.

After they found the corpses on the ground, they looked ugly.

“It’s over, the three young masters are dead, what can we do?”

One of the men in the early stage of the True God Realm frowned: “Especially the two young masters, Keith and Conley, they are the most hopeful of inheriting the Master’s position. They are also the most powerful masters in our Norman family. With them dead, I’m afraid we’re going to lose this competition!”

The other man on the contrary, was slightly happy in his heart. At this time, he actually chuckled: "It is indeed a big loss, but well, since the three sons of the master of the house are dead, doesn't it mean that we have hope to inherit the position of master of the house in the future?"

The man in the early stage of the True God Realm was overjoyed after hearing this, yes, these three masters are dead, their current cultivation base, among other masters, is considered very high, isn't it? They have the greatest hopes to be the heads of the family in the future.

However, he quickly suppressed the joy in his heart, and then said to the people: "I don't know who killed our Master's three young masters. It is really disgusting!"

"There are still four Lagorios here! It's impossible for the people of the Lagorio family to do it. The people of the Lagorio family are not so powerful. Moreover, judging from where they lie, the opponent should be standing opposite them. Therefore, the Lagorio family's people and people in our family should have teamed up with each other, but they were still not a match for their opponent, and then they were beheaded!"

There was a girl who looked at the situation here and analyzed it again: "The most important thing is, you can see the look of fear in everyone's eyes, which is enough to show that the other party is really too strong, so much so that our eldest master did not even have a chance to escape!"

"Yes, in this case, I feel, The opponent is definitely not one person, one person who can kill eight people who were considered strong, and they did not even have a chance to escape, is just not possible!"

The man at the early stage of the True God level also nodded: "If anyone can do it, it must be someone in the late stage of the True God Realm, and there are strong people who can fight against the peak power of the True God Realm, for example, The eldest young master of the Hunt family, as well as the top masters of the Canmore family and the Lucas family!" The girl nodded, but insisted: "I feel that even if there was such a strong person, it shouldn't be possible with just one person, and it was two or three people who worked together to prevent our people from escaping!"

"Well, now we can only guess, everyone is gone, and I don't know the specific situation. Besides, even if it's from the Hunt family. The young masters did what they did, and there is nothing to do about it. In this game, it was originally agreed that they could kill at will within this month.”

The man smiled bitterly, and then said to the people: “Let’s try to hide as much as possible. Four of our strong men have died. Now we don’t even have anyone in the middle of the True God Realm. Let’s try our best not to go to the depths of the forest and look outside here to find the tokens, and not lose too badly, what do you think?”

“Just outside?” The girl frowned, “If we don’t go to the depths of the forest or the mountains, doesn’t it mean that we are likely to lose to a second-class family? If we not only lose to a second-class family and also lose to a third-class family, then we will be shamed!”

The man also sank, and after a moment of silence, then said, “Okay, in order not to be shamed, we can go in, but if we meet a strong person from a first-class family, we immediately surrender and hand over the things, what do you think? It’s better than death, right?”

“This is also true. Even the three sons of our Master were killed. It seems that this time they really met some lunatics who are not afraid to cause trouble!” The girl finally nodded helplessly. If this goes on, the Norman family would have suffered a lot of losses. Should the family master know that all of his three sons were dead, he would probably be half-dead with anger.

At this time, Jack and Daniella flew slowly to the deeper part of the forest, continuing to search for tokens. “Jack, great, here is another piece!”

Soon, Daniella found another black token, picked it up, and flew back to Jack before passing the token to Jack.

“If you are like this, are you not afraid that your dad will find out and become unhappy?”

Jack smiled bitterly and then put the token away. With Daniella helping to find tokens, it was obvious that Jack’s efficiency in finding tokens would have been directly improved by at least more than half.

“I don’t care if he is happy or not, you will be my man in the future, and I will follow you!”

Daniella snorted, and then said with a shy expression: “I will help my man find tokens, helping him achieve a good place in the competition, there is nothing wrong with it!”

Jack’s heart warmed slightly, and as soon as the thought of Selena who was staying in the White family house came up again, he couldn’t help but sigh: “Hey, I don’t know how to speak to Selena. I don’t know how her cultivation is now. There are still twenty or more days left here. before we can go out if we are lucky enough to survive, She should also have broken through to the demi-god realm by then!”

“Sister Selena used to be a common person, yet her cultivation is really growing faster than normal. It seems that she must be very talented!” Daniella smiled and said, “In this practice, you have to have better techniques and better resources. In addition, talent is also a must!”

Jack also said with emotion: “Yes, in this world, there may be some people once on the path of cultivation, their talents will be very good, but unfortunately, there is no chance at all to break through. How can they even break through without the martial exercises, therefore they can only live their life normally and dull..”

After the two flew for a while, they heard a terrible beast roar not far away, and soon they saw dozens of people flying over here desperately.

“Wow, there are several people from the Cabello family, as well as from the White family, as well as from the Lucas family!” After Daniella took a look, her eyes lit up, facing the Cabello family woman who was wearing a purple skirt. Daniella yelled, “Second sister, second sister!”

Venus looked at her and immediately exclaimed, “Run, there are monsters!”

“What are you afraid of? Don’t you have many people? Second sister, aren’t you in the middle of the True God realm? With this cultivation base, what monsters do you fear in the periphery of this forest?”

Daniella said nonchalantly: "Don't worry, even if you can't beat it, there is still Jack. As soon as he makes a move, it will be okay!"

There was another roar, Jack's face sank, and he said to Daniella on the side, "There seems to be more than one monster beast! It's a group!" "No way, a group?"

Daniella breathed a sigh of relief when he heard it. This monster was already powerful, and difficult to deal with it alone, let alone a group of monsters.

"Go fast, it's too difficult to deal with. It's a pack of wolves. There are hundreds of them. The adult wolves are comparable to the early stages of the True God realm. Once you are surrounded you would be done for!" Venus said out of breath after flying over.

"Master, there are too many. Many of us here are in the early stage of the demi-god Realm, and there are also a few Ninth Stage Grandmasters. They dare not fight with the wolves!" Kayla Leigh also ran over and said to Jack out of breath.

Kayla Leigh, since she met Jack last time in the town under the White Family Mountain, and was recommended by Jack to join the White Family, under the hard work of cultivation, she has also made breakthroughs from the ninth level Grandmaster to the early stage of demi-god Realm. Because of her incredible talent she was selected for the games.

Jack thought about it for a while then said. "The monster beasts in the early stage of the demi-god Realm are not worrisome. However, if there are too many, fighting with them is just a waste of time. When the time comes, all our aura will be wasted, and time will be wasted!"

A man from the Lucas family who is in the early stage of the True God Realm, though he was not afraid, understood that with a pack of low level animals they would still be overwhelmed and some of the younger people may die. Seeing that the people of the White family and the people of the Cabello family were still discussing it, he stood speechless for a second, then shaking himself he flew up and shouted. "Everyone, come here! We won't fight. Let's run!"

“Everyone, come up here! These are low level monsters and they cannot fly!”

Jack smiled lightly, flipped his palm, took the sword out, and threw it into the air, and it suddenly became bigger.

“That’s great! You actually have a flying sword!” The Lucas family man’s eyes lit up and he immediately jumped up.

The others jumped up immediately, while Jack was controlling the flying sword and started to fly.

A Mochizuki wolf with a height of almost three feet tall, roared and rushed over, and when Jack and others were about to fly, two Mochizuki wolves in the middle stage of the demi-god realm roared and rushed towards two young women of the Lucas family.

“Ah!” Those two women were not high in cultivation. One in the early stage of the demi-god realm, and the other in the middle stage of the demi-god realm.

Though they are masters, however, facing such a monster beast, they obviously couldn’t compare, and they immediately yelled in fright, as if they didn’t know what to do.

However, at this moment, Jack appeared in front of the two of them in a flash, clenched his fists, and blasted the wolves.

The two huge Mochizuki wolves were slammed on the ground with one fist and one blow by Jack. Blood flowed directly from their mouths as they lay there motionless. Just like that they were killed by Jack.

“He’s too strong!” The two women swallowed their saliva, both frightened by Jack’s combat effectiveness.

“This guy!” Venus on the side was also slightly surprised. Although she could match the attack power, the speed at which Jack rushed out just now was so fast that she was shocked. The other wolves all charged toward them, trying to take revenge on their fallen pack members. But Jack controlled the flying sword and flew far away in a flash, leaving behind the snarling and howling pack of wolves.

“What fast speed! What level is your flying sword?”

Seeing the speed of this flying sword, Venus couldn't help but curiously ask.

“Second sister, this is an Ultimate Grade Spiritual Weapon. With this sword, Jack's offensive power is much more powerful. Even ten of you are not his opponent!” Daniella said of Jack, her head raised and her eyes full of pride.

“Ten of me are not his opponents?” Venus was taken aback, and then said with some suspicion: “Danielle, you are exaggerating. My cultivation in the middle of True God Realm is almost invincible. Ah! Even if I can't beat him, it's impossible that 10 of me couldn't beat him, right?”

“That's right!” After thinking about it, Daniella nodded, and said quickly: “I think ten was too low, it should be twenty!”

“I...” Venus was speechless. She thought her sister looked down on her too much.

Soon, those Mochizuki wolves who were chasing them were thrown off the trail by Jack.

After flying for a while, Jack lowered the flying sword and everyone jumped down. Then he put the flying sword away.

The man in the early stage of the True God Realm of the Lucas Family, after thinking about it, came over and took out five black tokens, and then handed them to Jack: “Master White, thanks to you just now, if it wasn't for you I am afraid we would have lost many of our family. This is regarded as a reward for you!”

“No, there’s no need for that!”

Jack smiled awkwardly. The Lucas family’s relationship with the White family is not bad. They didn’t have much interaction before. Therefore, Jack didn’t even think about it just now, and asked them to jump onto the sword.

If this were the Norman family or Lagorio family, then he wouldn’t be polite.

“Master White, don’t be humble. It is only natural, you saved us, and we will repay you. You earned it!”

The man smiled and stuffed the tokens into Jack’s hands. “If it were someone from a stronger family, they would probably have just robbed us!”

“Haha, brother, don’t say that. I’m just glad I was able to help out in the time of need.” Jack laughed as he replied.

“By the way, my name is Harry Lucas. Although my cultivation level is not high, I am also the grandson of the Elder of the Lucas family. Thank you so much this time. I hope that we will see you again!” Harry also smiled heartily and replied. After that, he quickly left with the Lucas family.

“That was worth the visit!” Looking in the direction they were leaving, Jack had a smile on his face.

“I will give you a few tokens!” Venus on the side gave Jack a blank look, and then took out five tokens and handed it to Jack. “Take it, The relationship between our two families is not good, I don’t want to owe you favors!” Jack’s was embarrassed, he smiled bitterly, and did not take the token in Venus’ hand. “Miss Venus, with our relationship, I really can’t take that from you.”

When another Cabello family heard this, he immediately stepped forward and smiled: "Second Miss, have you forgotten, this is your eldest sister's boyfriend. He will be your brother-in-law, so there is no need to give any tokens, you should put them away!"

"Yeah, yeah, Master White and the eldest Miss are a couple. How could he take your tokens?"

Another Cabello girl also stepped forward, her face full of excitement: "Hey, that is great! Since he with the eldest Miss, we won't have to be afraid of being bullied in the future!"

Venus gave the girl a fierce look, and then said to Jack: "Fine. Don't take it if you don't want it, but don't say I didn't try to give you something!" After speaking, Venus flipped her palm, and then put away the token in her hand.

Several young people from the Cabello family looked at each other, their expressions were a little weird. The temper of this second young lady was really similar to that of the Master. At this time, they had to deliberately draw a line.

"Well, let's go! We can't go with our enemies. They might decide to attack us from behind if we find more treasures!" Venus said with a wave. She took the Cabello family members to leave.

However, after they walked a few steps, Venus couldn't help but frown, and looked back at Daniella, who was still standing next to Jack, and then said with a deep frown. "Daniella, why aren't you coming with us? Could it be that you still want to be with this enemy of our family?"

Daniella frowned, and was rather embarrassed: "Sister, that happened many years ago. In the past two or three years, the relationship between our two families has eased a lot. Jack and I are good friends so I will stay with him!"

"I..." Venus was speechless for a while, she didn't expect that Daniella would stick with Jack so strongly even though they were not married.

But she also knew in her heart that Daniella and Jack are the real lovers. Therefore, after she thought about it, she glared at Daniella and said, “Well, you can do whatever you like. Anyway, even though I am your older sister I don’t need to hold your hand everywhere!”

“Hey, sister, be careful!” Daniella smiled awkwardly, and waved to Venus.

“Let’s go.” Venus sighed, and finally left with her family quickly.

“Looking at this, your second sister seems to know that we are in a relationship!” Jack looked at Venus’ back and couldn’t help but speak.

Daniella nodded: “Yes, the eldest sister and the second sister know about it, but they didn’t tell my father. They are cold about it but I know in my heart that they are actually good to me.”

“Well, let’s go!” Jack nodded and left with Daniella.

In one afternoon, the two found several spiritual grasses, and they also found 5 tokens. The harvest was quite good.

After all, with so many people coming in such a large forest, some might find it difficult to find even one token in an afternoon. If you want to find the white token and the red token, it will be really difficult. After all, there are only a few, especially the red ones!

Previous Chapter

Back to Section

Next Chapter

Daniella said to Jack “Jack, it will be dark soon, let’s find a place to rest!”

Jack nodded and looked around. After searching for a while, Jack found that there was a big crack that was not easy to see on the rock wall of a cliff. Based on how it looked, it should be able to easily allow two or three people to spend the night in it.

“If you didn’t find the cave, it would be more dangerous if you rested on a tree. There is a crack on the cliff over there. Will that make do tonight?”

Jack looked at Daniella in front of him. The young women are indeed good-looking, but they have lived in a big family since they were young, and I don’t know if they can endure hardships.

“Hey, let’s go!” Daniella smiled and held Jack’s hand: “I will sleep with you anywhere you want, as long as you are next to me, I will be happy! ”

After Daniella finished, his face flushed.

“You girl!” Jack smiled bitterly. Daniella’s simplicity is really rare, it makes one feel like a first love.

The two quickly flew towards the crack, which was big enough for two people to walk in side by side.

What Jack didn’t expect was that the crack was small on the outside and big on the inside. There was more than ten meters space inside, and the space inside was enough for two people to sit inside and have a good rest.

Someone had been here before, and there were a lot of weeds in it. Sitting in it was also very comfortable.

“Great, I can spend another night with you!” With a smile on Daniella’s face, she sat next to Jack and couldn’t help but gently lean her head on Jack’s shoulder.

“Master Trevino, you promised me that as long as you meet someone from the White family, you will kill them for me. You can’t keep any of them alive!”

After sitting for a while, Jack and Daniella heard a faint voice coming from outside.

“Haha, don’t worry, baby, what I, Hugh Trevino, will not break my promise!”

Soon, a man’s hearty laughter sounded, and then he said: “Baby, look, there is something over there, a crack in the cliff. Let’s go inside the crack and have fun!”

Hearing this, Daniella and Jack looked at each other. Someone else had found them so quickly!

“There are so many masters from the Trevino family around? How about we go out later after the games and I can give it to you then?”

The woman deliberately said coquettishly, and the voice was so close that Jack heard it all.

“Dog men and women!” Daniella gritted her teeth and said angrily.

“That’s not good, baby, we do things for you and you will benefit now, but you might not give any benefits after the game is over. Maybe when we leave you will not admit to anything that happened here.” The man named Hugh Trevino said again.