Chapter 1689-1692

Chapter 1689

“No way. Young Master Jack, you can sense that resonance even from such a distance? Your mental strength is too strong!”

A young man from the Cabello family could not help but exclaim.

“Of course. He’s already a third-grade alchemist, and his mental strength is immense. Can someone of our cultivation level ever make such an observation?”

Another young man looked at Jack in admiration from the side.

“Second-grade ultimate god realm? Never mind. Since the spirited grass is so important, this is a chance for us. They are only at the second-grade ultimate god realm. They might not be a match for the monster. You find a chance to snatch the spirited grass. At any rate, that person is definitely not a White family member or a Cabello family member!”

After Alejandro thought about it, he gave the suggestion to Jack from the side.

Nash went silent for a while before saying, “It should be someone from the Pavilion of Divinity, right? After all, nine out of ten disciples there are women. But I remember that there’s no one who wears such a purple dress among the elders in the Pavilion of Divinity.”

“That’s not for certain. There are more than a dozen people from the Pavilion of Divinity who are at the peak of the true god realm. Besides, there’s probably quite a few of them who’ve already made a breakthrough within these few days after coming in,” Yolanda said. “Never mind those people—simply among ten of those people, there should be one who’s already broken into the ultimate god status. But to break into the secondgrade status, isn’t that a little too fast? As for the purple dress... They’re already here for so long, they probably changed their clothes. Isn't that normal?"

"Let's take a look first before saying anything!"

Jack also could not ascertain who the person was. Firstly, the distance was a little too big; secondly, the person's back was against them the whole time. All they could see was her purple dress as well as dark shoulder-length hair.

Roar!

At that moment, the young woman was already not too far away from the two-headed blood-red python. Once the giant python noticed her presence, it emitted a furious roar and unfurled its long body, lifting itself and glaring at the girl clad in purple before it.

"If you know what's good for you, creature, you'd better move aside. If not, I will kill you!"

The young woman emitted a light huff and flipped her palm. An ultimategrade spiritual sword appeared in her hand.

Roar!

Yet why would the two-headed blood – red python leave? It emitted another ferocious roar, and a fireball was actually spat out of one of its mouths. The resonance from the fireball was extremely powerful, and it was made out of Chi, radiating a fiery temperature.

"Hmph!"

The girl emitted a low harrumph and quickly channel her Chi into her sword. The sword trembled and released a light hum, suddenly turning a lot bigger.

Whoosh!

The girl slashed her sword forward when she saw that the fireball was right in between them. Suddenly, a frightening sword aura flew out, carrying with it, an uncompromisable aura. It was extremely fast.

“Who’s that girl? Her attack isn’t weak at all!”

Jack could not help but frown when he saw this. He did not remember there being such a powerful young woman in the Pavilion of Divinity. Most of their elders were in their forties or fifties. There were even a few women in their sixties and seventies. There were only two to three younger people, but Jack had truly never seen this silhouette before.

Chapter 1690

Just as Jack spewed those words out, the purple-clad girl’s attack slammed straight toward the fireball.

Bang!

A huge explosion rang out. The girl’s sword aura cut straight through the giant fireball. After the fireball exploded, it was completely destroyed. Meanwhile, there were still remnants of the long sword aura; it rushed forward and fell upon the huge two-headed blood-red python.

Roar!

The giant python released a furious roar, turning even more feral and violent. Meanwhile, the girl’s attack had left a wound that was more than twenty centimeters long on the monster’s body, and fresh blood was gushing out of it.

The wound was hardly a small one but it was nothing to the giant two-headed blood-red python. Instead, this agitated it even more.

Its two huge jaws released another furious roar. At the same time, they spat fireballs that were as big as basketballs toward the girl from two. Separate sides.

The purple-clad girl evidently did not dare to make a mistake when facing an attack like this. She quickly gathered her Chi in her sword and swung it forward. A shield made out of Chi actually appeared quickly before her, shielding her like a screen.

Boom!

In a flash, the two giant fireballs landed on the giant screen. The screen rippled continuously, but it stopped the two-headed blood-red python's attack. Then the screen moved forward, and the girl inched closer to the giant python, staying close to the screen.

"This girl is really strong. She's a second-grade ultimate god realm warrior, and the monster is also at the second-grade ultimate grade status. Usually, human fighters find it difficult to take on monsters that are at the same cultivation level. It'd be very difficult to fight them if two or three people do not band together. Yet this girl is evidently far stronger!"

After watching the battle for a few minutes, Nash spoke to Jack with some worry in his voice, "Jack, I think you shouldn't simply make a move. This girl is very powerful. You'd offend her greatly if you snatch away the spirited grass she's aiming for."

"Don't worry, Dad. I will make a move when the opportunity comes!"

Jack smiled. He was well aware that Nash was afraid he was no match for the girl.

Boom!

The girl's screen landed straight on one of the heads of the two-headed blood-red python, smacking so hard into it that it fell onto the ground. Meanwhile, she flashed forward and went straight for the spirited grass.

Yet at this moment, the two-headed blood-red python took the opportunity to whip itself as though it were a giant length of rope, lashing quickly toward the purple-clad girl."

"Jeez. This creature is hard to handle!"

The girl evidently did not want to fight such a powerful monster and wanted to quickly grab the spirited grass and leave. She did not expect the giant python to attack again.

She could do nothing but stop right in her tracks and hurriedly open another Chi-screen before her. The giant screen rushed toward the monster as soon as it appeared.

Bang!

Another explosion rang out. This time, the screen was actually shattered by the huge tail. The python's tail also bounced back from the momentum.

However, the giant python's two heads extended their jaws and rushed toward her again.

Whoosh!

The purple-clad girl could only retreat when she saw this, temporarily dodging the giant python's attack.

Roar!

Yet the speed of the giant python's attack had increased immensely. As it rushed forward again, one of its heads slammed against the young woman.

Wham!

A dull thud rang out, and the purple clad was smacked aside, blood spraying from her mouth. "Die!"

Chapter 1691

Chapter 1691 However, while the purple-clad girl was being smacked aside, she also slashed her sword, and a powerful sword aura flew out and landed on the giant python's body. Another wound was carved onto its body again, and the blood that flowed from it looked rather terrifying.

Roar!

This time around, the giant python was completely enraged by the girl although it had been wounded quite seriously before. After emitting another furious roar, it rushed toward the purple-clad girl at an accelerating speed, extending its jaws and intending to swallow the girl whole.

"Die!"

The girl fell onto the ground and spat another mouthful of blood. Her face had abruptly gone pale.

She had just gotten up and intended to quickly redirect her Chi to launch a counterattack, but she realized that she was gravely injured, and it was difficult for her to gather her Chi. She needed to rest for a while.

But it was evident that the current moment was a life-or-death situation.

“Am I going to die here?”

The girl was feeling a little regretful now. She had known that it would be dangerous to snatch the spirited grass, but she still wanted to give it a shot. She did not think that the monster would grow stronger and stronger after being agitated, and its fighting power was terrifying.

Whoosh!

Jack hesitated for a second, but he rushed out anyway. He guessed that the girl was probably an Elder from the Pavilion of Divinity. After all, the Pavilion of Divinity had a pretty good impression on him. If he managed to establish good relations with her, it would be good for them to look out for each other in this unknown world from then on.

Roar!

Just as its giant jaws were about to swallow the girl, Jack finally managed to rush over, slashing his sword forward.

“Blade Wave!”

As Jack released a short huff, he suddenly appeared before the giant python. After he swung his sword, multiple sword auras whipped outward as though it were a long dragon, rushing straight into the giant python’s mouth.

Boom bang boom!

The giant python’s body was evidently hard on the surface as it was encased in pieces of tough scales. However, the sword auras that went straight into its mouth could easily pierce through its body from the inside, dealing a fatal injury to it.

The sword auras flew inside, and the constant flow of attacks actually pierced straight through the python's head.

Roar!

The two-headed blood-red python emitted a ferocious roar. The other head rushed straight for Jack.

"Hmph!"

Jack emitted a cold harrumph and swung his sword again.

Bang!

The two giant heads then dropped from the sky just like that and landed by Jack's feet. The giant body lying lifelessly on the ground looked very frightening.

"Phew!"

Jack also released a long sigh after seeing that his abrupt attack helped him to easily defeat the giant python in a single shot.

He flew over and plucked the spirited grass out, keeping it in his martial ring before slowly turning around.

"You are?"

After he turned out and looked at the purple-clad girl before him, shock jolted in him. This girl was obviously not someone from the Pavilion of Divinity. Furthermore, he remembered that there was no such girl who had followed the fighters in.

Chapter 1692

Jack was bewildered. He had thought that the girl must have followed him and everyone in and had only managed to find some martial arts techniques out of pure luck. Perhaps she had even gotten her hands on some treasure to break into the second-grade ultimate god realm. Furthermore, he thought that this girl was likely to be an Elder from the Pavilion of Divinity.

He did not expect to be bewildered after looking straight at her. This was because the girl before him looked to be only about seventeen or eighteen. There was no genius fighter this young who had followed everyone in.

“Young Miss, fortunately, you were saved because my son jumped in just in time. You won’t blame him for taking your spirited grass, right?”

At this moment, Nash and the others also flew over, and he spoke with a grin on his face.

However, when he studied the girl’s face, his smile hardened.

This was because he felt that the girl looked way too young as well. Besides, he had zero recollection of her.

The girl carefully observed the people before her, and opened her mouth in surprise at the end, “There’s so many of you. Where are you from? Which among the Nine Armies are you from?”

Kenneth finally recollected himself. His expression darkened as he whispered toward Nash.

The corners of Nash's mouth twitched slightly. He did not think that they would run into natives here. What would they do if she did not welcome them as outsiders here?

"We—we don't know which Army we're from!"

In the end, Nash rubbed his nose and stammered out.

The girl was no fool either. She quickly widened her beautiful eyes. "Are all of you from that abandoned land? My goodness. That must be it. Why are there so many people coming over from there?"

The girl parted her lips in surprise when she saw that there were hundreds of people before her and could not help but cover her mouth with her hand.

Alejandro's face darkened and he told Jack, "Young Master Jack, it's obvious that this girl is a native here. No matter if she has companions here or not, for the sake of everyone's safety, we should just kill her. She's already gravely injured anyway. It'll be too dangerous for us if we keep her alive!"

"That's right. We have to kill her. Otherwise, we'd be in grave danger!"

Another Elder from the Cabello family echoed in agreement.

The girl was so shocked that she quickly gripped her sword, taking two steps back. "You-don't go overboard. I never offended you. I'll never breathe a word to the Alliance Guard!"

"Alliance Guard??"

The girl's words made Jack frown. He was confused because he did not comprehend the Nine Armies that the girl had talked about earlier, and now there was this Alliance Guard.

It was obvious that the things the girl was talking about were the forces in the space they were in

After he thought about it, he told the girl, "So long as you tell us what's going on in this place, we'll let you go!" No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1693-1696

Chapter 1693

"Really? You won't go back on your word?"

The young girl looked at Jack and asked with doubts plastering on her face.

"Don't worry. You have my word!"

Jack shot her a soft smile, he then flipped his palm and took out a healing pill, throwing it to the young girl. "You're injured, so take this healing pill. I made it myself."

"Humph, what if you are lying to me and this is some poisonous pill?"

The girl snorted coldly, and her eyes showed a hint of defensiveness.

"Heh? Now that you're badly injured, if I want to kill you, I could just do it right now. Why would I waste this so-called poison pill of mine? Isn't that unnecessary?"

Jack chuckled; he did not know whether to cry or to laugh at the girl's way of thinking.

The young girl frowned, and only then swallowed the pill reluctantly.

“Let me tell you this, I belong to one of the Nine Armies. Outside this forest, there are nine fortresses nearby, which are the Nine Armies. The martial practitioners of these Nine Armies will come to this forest to look for spirited grasses and resources for training and cultivation when they are free! So, at first, I thought that you were people from one of these Nine Armies, but apparently, I've thought it wrong!” The young girl looked at Jack and explained.

Jack suddenly understood the whole situation. It turned out that outside this forest, there were nine fortresses called the Nine Armies. The martial status of this young lady before him was already so high at such a young age. He wondered how many people and how many more strong fighters were in these fortresses.

“Then what about the Alliance Guard you have mentioned just now? What is that?”

Jack thought about it before asking the young girl again.

“Oh, it's just a group of prideful people who likes to boast about themselves!”

A bitter smile crept onto the girl's face. She walked to the bluestone at the side and plopped her butt on it. “I'm not sure how many years ago, this piece of land and the abandoned land were one big land. But, not sure what happened, the Chi energy was getting lesser and thinner every day. If that situation continued, it'd become more and more difficult to break into the ultimate god realm, let alone the soul-penetrating realm.”

“Then what happened?”

Jack and the others took a sharp intake of breath upon hearing the story. They should be able to find out about the past of this place from this young girl.

The young girl eyed at Jack, then continued, "There was a great elite fighter who was about to die, and just before that fighter died, he cropped out a small partition out of this big land, and inside that small partition, the Chi energy is richer and denser than the outside." The girl paused for a moment and added, "Oh right. By the way, if you could find and enter this place, meaning that you've found the seven stone balls, right? Oh. I might as well tell you the rest. Those seven stone balls are constantly absorbing Chi energy, and those absorbed Chi energies will flow into this forest. So, over the years, this place was full of chi energy, and we, the people in this place, could have rich Chi energy as well as an abundance of third and fourth-grade spirited grasses for training and martial cultivation!"

Shock and surprise thundered down on Jack and the others upon hearing the truth. They truly did not expect the reason for the Chi energy being so thin outside the partition was because this small partition was stealing the Chi energy from the outside! And this led to fewer and fewer people being able to cultivate and train themselves!

Moreover, if this continued, there was no way for the people outside to pass on their heritage!

The crowd's expressions turned unsightly. If they did not find the seven stone balls and found the way to enter into the place they were, none of them the outsiders, would be able to break into the ultimate god realm!

The young girl flashed a bitter smile when she noticed the gloominess on Jack and the others' faces. "Sigh! It can't be helped. Humans are selfish. Otherwise, how could your world be called the abandoned world?"

Chapter 1694

"Hmm. It did sound like these ancient great fighters from many years ago truly intended to abandon us!"

Nash forced a bitter smile, his face full of emotions. If it was not for the fact that the legend of the ultimate god realm had been passed down, plus the fact that everyone had been looking for a way to break into the ultimate god realm, Nash was afraid that, with the passage of time, there would be no more legend about the ultimate god realm, and none would be able to enter this place and break into that realm anymore.

“Sigh! So many of you have suddenly entered this place at once. If the people of the Alliance Guard find out about this, it would be a problem! Too many of you came here!”

The young girl’s forehead creased, looking at the hundreds of people in front of her. Her face turned ugly.

However, after she gave the matter some thoughts, she turned to Jack and said, “Nah, never mind it. If you guys hadn’t appeared in time to save my life just now, I wouldn’t have bothered to help you!”

“Miss, so...you decided to help us out?”

Kenneth’s eyes immediately lit up upon hearing the young girl’s words, and even his demeanor became polite and gentle.

“Hundreds of you...fine! I’ll still help you guys out. It’s simple, just follow me to our fortress and I’ll plead to our fortress master to take you in. That shouldn’t be a problem. And when you meet the other people of this place, just tell them that you’re from our fortress. Remember, don’t reveal your identity! That should work.”

The girl plastered a smile on her face. She then felt her body for a while, and in the next second, she was surprised. “No freaking way! Your healing pill is hella awesome! I feel a lot better now and my injuries don’t hurt anymore. It’s truly amazing! Our people here could not even create and refine such an effective healing pill!”

“Hehe, of course! The alchemist is our Young Master Jack! The pills that he creates and refines are naturally awesome!”

Kenneth chuckled, then turned to the girl in front of him. "Miss, can you really convince your fortress master to take us in? You're not only boasting, right? Don't deceive us, please! Also, about that Alliance Guard, who are they?"

"The Alliance Guard? They're the people who came in here together back then, and their descendants are parts of the Alliance Guard as well. Anyway, they totally hate the idea of outsiders entering this place, so they formed an alliance under the slogan of guarding this holy land. If they see you, they'll definitely kill you without hesitation!"

The young girl blurted. She thought of something else and continued, "Wait, something's wrong! How did you guys get in here? Shouldn't you come in through the entrance? And there should be someone guarding the entrance! Although the martial status of those people is not high, none of you would be able to kill them if none had broken through to the ultimate god realm!"

Jack rubbed the bridge of his nose before he slowly spilled, "According to what you said, the Bloodshed Clan should be part of the Alliance Guard then! There were indeed two disciples of the Bloodshed Clan who ran into us, but I've killed them. But, of course, I didn't directly deal with them, I ambushed them! And I don't know what had gone wrong when I came in here. The spot that I came in was slightly deviant from the designated entrance. The entrance is on the top of the hill, but I came in through the bottom of the hill!"

"What the heck? You killed those two disciples? You'll be in big trouble if the Bloodshed Clan figured this out!"

The young girl gasped at the truth.

"Umm. That shouldn't be a problem. There're many monster beasts here and some of them are quite powerful. The bodies of those two disciples should already be in those monster beasts' stomachs! Anyway, even if the Bloodshed Clan found out that their disciples had died, they wouldn't know that we are the culprit; they may think that the two were killed by some monster beasts!"

Nash chimed in and expressed his point of view.

Chapter 1695

“You’re right. There shouldn’t be any problem! You guys are damn lucky! No one had been able to find this place, so none had come in before! There used to be a lot of people guarding this place, but later on, the number kept reducing. There used to be strong fighters of the soul-penetrating realm guarding the entrance!”

The young girl giggled before continuing, “But, years after years, after realizing that no one was able to find the entrance, nobody cared about guarding it anymore! So, those who are sent to guard the entrance are normally those of lower cultivation levels. You’re lucky in this sense, otherwise, you’d be dead within a day after coming in here! Besides, it is because no one cared, the entrance formation was not well-maintained, so when you came in, you did not enter through the top of the hill but the bottom. The location of the entrance was offset!”

“I see. Hmm. We were truly fortunate that day! If it was in the past, the entrance guardians who were those people of soulpenetrating level, we would immediately turn into dead meat right after appearing on the top of the hill!”

The crowd gasped at the newly learned information, shared by the young lady. Their hearts pounded and they were trembling inside.

“So yeah! You guys are truly lucky! And some of you are even luckier to be able to break into the ultimate god realm in such a short time after entering this place!”

The girl smiled but soon she felt that something was off. “Wait. Something’s off. If you’re from the outside world, you will be at the peak of the true god realm at most! And there are not many true god peak level fighters among you guys, right? Also, those seven stone balls were placed in dangerous places on purpose to prevent any of you from finding them! But...but how did you people find the seven stone balls? Given that there are not many strong fighters among you!” The girl frowned as she laid out her thoughts.

“Miss, we are not the only ones who had entered this place, in fact, there were almost four hundred thousand from the outside land and another hundred thousand or so from the outside sea territory that had sneaked in. I'm afraid that around five to six hundred thousand people have entered this place!" Jack spoke, a bitter smile appeared on his face.

"Eek!"

When these words came out of Jack's mouth, the young girl immediately gasped; she was truly startled by Jack's words.

She swallowed her saliva hard before she said incredulously, "No. Freaking. Way. Are you sure you're not joking? Five to six hundred thousand people had entered this place? Oh my goodness! There are too many of you, I can't help you guys! You should get out of here immediately! Otherwise, once the Alliance Guard finds out, you will all be dead!"

"No way! We won't leave this place. We've come here with great difficulty, even if we are to die here, we won't go back! Spirited grasses and resources are rare outside, and without high-grade spirited grasses, how can we continue to train and improve?"

An old man from the Cabello family immediately stepped forward and interrupted

"He's right! Also, there're so many of us here. It won't be easy for them to capture us all! We can move and act separately!"

Apparently, Alejandro had no intention of returning to the outside world. They had worked so hard to get here. Asking them to leave this place right now was more difficult than killing themselves.

"I'll definitely return to our world. Fernando is still waiting outside for me to treat him. But definitely not now!"

A bitter smile crept onto Jack's face as he spoke.

“You said almost six hundred thousand people had come in, where are the others? You guys went your separate ways after entering, right? This forest is huge, and there are many monster beasts, plus you guys will rob each other! So, I don’t know how many of you will be able to stay alive till the day you leave this place!”

The young lady stared at Jack and the others, biting her rosy-pink bottom lip as she spoke.

Chapter 1696

“Yeah. Not sure how the others are doing. Sigh! If they run into the people of the Alliance Guard, they’ll be in big trouble!”

Nash frowned as he spoke, his heart heavy. After all, Yule and Lizzie-his beloved daughter and second wife—had followed him here. If something bad happened to them, he would certainly be in extreme pain.

“Hehe, don’t worry about this yet. They should still be safe right now. After all, the people of Alliance Guard don’t always come here and very few of them actually wander around here to find treasure. This is because this area belongs to the Nine Armies!”

At this moment, the purple-clad girl smiled and introduced, “And the Nine Armies are acting under the slogan of ‘Anti-Alliance Guard’, you should know what that means, right?”

“Anti-Alliance Guard?” |

Nash and the others were taken aback by her words, then their spirits lifted again.

Jack felt delighted about the situation as well. “So, you’re also implying that there’s still some part of people here who do not hate the outsiders like us?” He asked carefully.

The young lady bobbed her head and added, "Indeed! The people who favor the concept of anti-alliance guard prefer a natural way. That means if someone finds this place and enters, they'll think that it's God's will! So, certainly, they don't have the intention to kill outsiders like you, or at least, they don't intend to pursue after the outsiders. Besides, people who are anti-Alliance Guard are mainly from the Harmonic Clan. It was an old ancestor of the Harmonic Clan who secretly passed down the martial techniques and cultivation skills and resources to his descendants. And, in the past, this made some of his descendants from the outside enter into this place!"

The young girl paused for several seconds before continuing, "It was also because of this matter, the bloodiest battle arose between the Alliance Guard and people who were against the Alliance Guard. In the end, both parties suffered great losses, so they negotiated and signed an armistice agreement. Of course, even after the agreement, there are still frictions and competitions between both parties, especially in scavenging treasures in this place. So, the disciples of the Alliance Guard and Anti-Alliance Guard would often fight each other!"

"I see. Miss, since you belong to the side of the Anti-Alliance Guard, I wonder if you can help us out? It's God's heavenly will for us to be able to come in here!"

Kenneth chuckled sheepishly at the young girl and asked politely, "By the way, may I know your name?"

The young girl smiled bitterly before answering, "My name is Ella Lavigne. Just call me Ella will do!"

However, several lines formed between Ella's forehead. "I want to help you. If there were only several hundred of you, I can help you and that wouldn't be a problem. After all, we have a lot of people in the Nine Armies, and it's not hard to shelter you in my clan. It's easy to hide a few hundreds of people, and as long as you don't expose yourself, nobody will know you came from the outside! But...but...the issue now is you have hundreds of thousands of people! How can I hide all of you?" |

Silence arose in the crowd. It was impossible to take in hundreds of thousands of people, and once the Alliance Guard finds out, it would put the people of the Nine Armies in great trouble!

Jack clenched his jaws as he thought. “Miss Ella, let’s just pretend we didn’t meet today; You’ve not seen us today! If the Nine Armies is willing to take us in, we’ll gladly accept the invitation, but if they’re not, we’re fine with it too! We’ll train hard and improve our strength. Now, at least the Alliance Guard is not aware of our existence, so we can try to enhance our combat prowess as much as possible!”

“He’s right. This place is big, and we can hide in some of the remote places. It won’t be easy for the Alliance Guard to detect us and sniff us out. As long as we train hard and improve quickly, we still have hopes of surviving! Besides, how would they know if we are outsiders or people from the Nine Armies, right?”

Alejandro spilled his thoughts after thinking about it.No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1697-1700

Chapter 1697

“Hmm...if that’s the case...”

Ella’s forehead knitted together. After a brief moment of silence, she finally said, “Well, I can pretend that I’ve not seen you guys today. The Nine Armies is made up of nine fortresses and there’s something special about us. Although we belong to the Anti-Alliance Guard, we’re not united in fact. All fortresses are playing their own game and having their own desires. So, I’d advise you not to enter any of the fortresses if the situation permits.”

Ella stared at Jack and the tokens on their waist. “In fact, it’s freaking easy to know if you’re coming from the outside world, your token on your waist for example. In here, let it be the Nine Armies or the Alliance Guard, we all have our clan symbolic tokens on our waist belts. With these tokens, we can immediately identify where they come from!”

The corners of the crowd’s mouths twitched upon hearing Ella’s words. If what she said was true, it would be truly troublesome for Jack and the group. It would be risky and dangerous for them to wander around the place!

“Right. Miss Ella, in this piece of land, Bloodshed Clan and the people of the Alliance Guard for example, to what extent those strong ones can grow in their martial level?”

Jack stopped to think for a moment and asked Ella.

The corners of Ella’s mouth turned up as she heard. “The highest martial level among them is ninth-grade soul-penetrating level. They cannot go any further because something is lacking in the Chi energy here, and nobody knows what is missing!” She answered.

“Alright. Thank you, Miss Ella, for telling us so much. Otherwise, we’d be truly confused, and would even get killed without knowing why!”

Jack smiled dryly before he arched his hand and gave her a fist-to-palm salute. “Well, Miss Ella, I hope you can keep your promise and not tell your master about us. In this way, we can buy ourselves some more time.”

Ella nodded. “I can do that! But, the other people of the Nine Armies will come in here to look for spirited resources occasionally, and you can’t hide hundred thousands of people!”

“Yes, I’m aware of it. We’ll see.” |

Helplessness surged through Jack’s heart but there was nothing he could do other than raising his martial level. He understood the importance of training and improving his combat prowess.

Several people on his side had broken through to the ultimate god realm, but to survive, he still had to raise his martial level to a higher level, otherwise, if the enemy sent out some random seventh-grade or eighth-grade ultimate god-level fighters to go after them, he and his men would not be able to defend themselves.

Therefore, whether it was for the sake of fending off the Alliance Guard or lifting the curse off Selena,

Jack realized the importance of urgently improving his martial level.

“Okay!”

Ella looked at Jack and returned a fist-to-palm salute before flying into the sky. “I’ll take my leave then!”

Chapter 1698

Looking at Ella’s figure as she flew away, Alejandro frowned, and hundreds of emotions flooded his heart.

An old man from the Cabello family, at this time, stepped forward and whispered to Jack, “Young Master Jack, are you really going to let her go? Just like that? What if she returns to her place and tells the others about what happened here? For the sake of our safety, I’d suggest killing her now! She’s injured and less of a match for you!”

However, the old man’s proposal was met with a cold and vicious stare from Jack. “Since when are we a fan of going back on our word? We promised her to spare her!”

Jack ceased talking and a dry smile crawled onto his face. “Besides, she has given us so much useful information! Information that could save our lives. If she hadn’t told us all that, we’d have gone out recklessly and entered the territory of the Alliance Guard. And when we enter their territory, do you think we’d have a chance to live?”

“Jack’s right. Ella told us a lot of useful information!”

Alejandro bobbed his head approvingly. “Besides, even if she doesn’t tell us, the hundreds of thousands of people will soon be discovered by the people here. This is something that will happen sooner or later. Jack’s absolutely right about improving our martial status. The only thing we can do right now is to strive to raise our martial level. As for our safety, we’re temporarily safe. Ella had said that we’re near to the Nine Armies and the people of the Nine Armies will not kill us, at least!”

“Alright. Let’s continue to look for spirited grasses! But we also have to be careful! After all, the people of the Nine Armies are not united!”

Jack nodded and led everyone to continue flying forward, searching for spirited grasses.

Frankly speaking, there was a generous amount of second-grade and third-grade spirited grasses in this forest, but fourth-grade spirited grasses were rare.

Jack and the group wandered and scavenged through the forest the whole day but could not find any fourth-grade spirited grass. Fortunately, they collected plenty of third-grade spirited grasses!

Something truly worth mentioning was that Jack and the group had finally met Yule, Lizzie, and some other young people of the White family that afternoon!

Their spirits brightened immediately at the sight of each other. Yule, Lizzie, and the young people, whose martial levels were not high, were living in fear for the past few days, fearing that they might run into some monster beast of true god level.

At night, Jack naturally continued to create and refine some third-grade elementary-level pills. On this very night, Jack’s success rate of refining third-grade pills had improved a lot, this included the speed of refining. He was refining six sets of pills and three sets of them were successfully created. So, he harvested three sets of third-grade elementary-level pills.

After seeing this amazing alchemy talent of Jack, although the crowd felt heavy in their hearts, they started to see light at the end of the tunnel again.

After all, third-grade alchemists were rare and hard to be found.

“We have six fighters of first-grade ultimate god level and six third-grade pills. Let’s take one for each of us. And I think the pills will help us to raise our martial level by at least two grades!”

Jack smiled as he distributed the pills to Nash, Titus, Kenneth, Weston, and Alejandro. Each of them got themselves a pill.

“Heh? You will give it to us just like that? I don’t have to trade it with anything? I...I haven’t gathered the needed materials for this pill yet!”

Kenneth held the precious pill on his palm, hand trembling. He could hardly contain his excitement right now.

“I can’t use six pills alone for now. I can see that we have stabilized our first-grade ultimate god realm. Hmm. Tomorrow! Let’s do it tomorrow! We’ll continue to search for more spirited grasses during the day, and at night, we’ll find a remote cave for the six of us to hide. Let’s attempt to break through to the third-grade ultimate realm. It’s difficult to break into a different and a higher realm, but it should be easier to make a breakthrough to a different grade within the realm.

Chapter 1699

After Jack thought about it, he told everyone, “After all, if all of us break into the third-grade ultimate god realm, our ability to protect ourselves in this forest will increase a lot.”

“Haha. Then I won’t hold back anymore!”

Alejandro burst into laughter. He suddenly felt that it was the right choice to establish good relations with the White family-a fantastically wise choice. Otherwise, how could he enter this land so easily and break into the ultimate god realm so soon!

Lancelot’s heart was full of admiration. The last time, he had failed to make a breakthrough to the first-grade ultimate god realm. He probably needed to wait a few more days before he could try the second time. After all, although making a breakthrough from the peak of the true god realm to the first-grade ultimate god realm looked like it was just a single step, it was actually a huge breakthrough. Just that one step felt like crossing a gorge. The fighting power of the first-grade ultimate god realm and the peak of the true god realm were two different matters entirely.

The next morning, everybody happily searched for the spirited grass.

However, they never imagined that along the way, they would actually run into disciples from the Pavilion of Soaring fighting with the Pavilion of Skies for spirited grass.

“Young Master Jack, save us!”

As the numbers of the disciples of the Pavilion of Soaring were too few, they were being surrounded by a group that was a few times their number. Many of them had already died, and even though they were preparing to give up their spirited grass, the enemy had no intention of letting them go.

“That’s right, Young Master Jack. We’ll give you the spirited grass as long as you save our lives!”

The disciples of the Pavilion of Soaring all had terrified expressions.

Jack had wanted to kill the people of the Pavilion of Skies for a long time coming. How could he miss such a good opportunity before him?

Besides, if he could kill over two hundred people from the Pavilion of Skies, he would be able to obtain plenty of treasures. After all, these people had been in the area for almost ten days. They would probably have plenty of second-grade and third-grade spirited grass on them.

“Young Master Jack, our Pavilion has never meddled in your affairs. This is something between us and the Pavilion of Soaring. We hope that you won’t interfere in this. Otherwise, you’ll be making an enemy of the Pavilion of Skies!”

The people from the Pavilion of Skies were naturally shocked by Jack and the others' abrupt appearance. One of the men, who was at the intermediate stage of the true god realm, immediately told Jack.

"Haha. We've never been allies with the Pavilion of Skies anyway!"

Jack laughed after he heard this. "Did you really think that you, Four Ancient Clans are as strong and mighty as before, instilling fear in us once your names are mentioned? Wake up! The name, Pavilion of Skies is useless now!"

The people of the Pavilion of Soaring were all delighted when they heard this. They could tell that Jack was going to take action.

"Young Master Jack, ever since our cultivation level has improved, we wanted to put our skills to the test long ago!"

Kenneth, Titus, and others all slammed their fists into their palms, eager to test their strength.

Chapter 1700

"Haha. I knew that all of you were itching to fight. Go ahead and fight if you want to. I'll just watch on!"

Jack did not know whether to laugh or cry. He shrugged his shoulders haplessly and replied to them.

"Charge!"

Kenneth, Titus, and the others had all been eager to show off their skills. After listening to Jack's words, they all shot out like a stampede, killing everyone they saw before them.

Naturally, Weston, Alejandro, and the others were also alert. They all flew out quickly, afraid that they would be slightly slower than the others.

“No way. Ultimate god status?”

“My god. There’s so many of them!”

The people from the Pavilion of Skies completely lost all hope when they saw this.

“My god. They’re too strong!”

“Only a few days have passed and there are already people who suddenly broke into the ultimate god realm?”

The disciples of the Pavilion of Soaring were surprised. The faint golden glow of Chi filled them with admiration.

Bang bang bang!

The sounds of fighting quickly rang out and ended even faster. After a while, the disciples of the Pavilion of Skies ended up as corpses splayed on the floor.

“Why are all of you rushing out as well? We’ve just: warmed up and everyone’s dead already?”

Kenneth looked at Weston and the others, speaking a few hapless words. It was evident that he was not satisfied.

“Our hands are itching too. You think you’re the only one?”

Weston glared at Kenneth and replied angrily.

“Gulp!”

The disciples from the Pavilion of Soaring who had begged for Jack’s help came before him and said, “Thank you all for helping us. We-we’ll give all our spirited grass to you!”

Jack looked at everyone before answering, “Your cultivation levels are not very high. It’ll be useful for you to keep some spirited grass for yourself. How about this? Take out all your spirited grass and I’ll see if there’s any that are suitable for me to create pills. I’ll pick some out if there are, and keep the rest for yourself!”

Here, Jack thought of something else and told the. People of the Pavilion of Soaring, “The situation here is really complicated. I’ll tell you what’s going on in a while. If you see your pavilion master or someone else, tell him about all this. Otherwise, I’m afraid that I wouldn’t even know if you’re dead!”

“Thank you, Young Master Jack! Thank you! We will be forever grateful for your kindness!”

The disciples from the Pavilion of Soaring were all extremely grateful. They took out their spirited grass and levitated it in midair, allowing Jack to take his pick.

After Jack studied the spirited grass for a while, he straightaway chose a few materials he could use to create pills. Only then did he gesture for them to keep the spirited grass. After that, he told them about the Alliance Guard and the Anti-Alliance Guard. Then he waved his hand, indicating that they could leave.

Meanwhile, the other people from the White family retrieved the martial rings from the disciples of the Pavilion of Skies that had been slain, taking their spoils of war.

“There’s quite a bit of treasure on these people from the Pavilion of Skies. Hehe. Take your pick, Young Master Jack. We’ll split the rest between ourselves!”

Titus and the others spoke while chuckling. Everybody knew that only with Jack taking some of the spirited grass, he could create alchemy pills. Then the spirited grass could be used to their greatest potential.

Chapter 1701

At that point, Jack was everyone’s hope. They could only grow their strength quickly to protect themselves better amidst the recent run-ins with the Alliance Guard.

“Hahaha, I’ll help myself then!”

Jack started picking after a hearty laugh.

In the afternoon, they continued to search for spirited grass. Perhaps due to their breakthrough, Jack and the others being delayed for a few days that they hardly met others along the way.

That caused Jack to feel slightly worried. He was worried that quite a number of people may have been killed by the Alliance Guard after exiting the forest.

Of course, he could not be bothered about those from the Skies Pavilion or the Hall of Divine Royal as they were his enemies. If he met them, he would have killed them too.

In the night, Jack and the others finally found a rather secluded cave. They left some people patrolling the perimeter to stand guard while those who needed to train, did so within the cave.

Jack's group of six experts of the first-grade ultimate god-level all sat down within the cave and took out the three highly sought-after third-grade elementary-level pills. They started preparing for their breakthrough after swallowing the pills.

The vortex of Chi within Jack's body had been helping him absorb the natural Chi around him, therefore making his fighting prowess the most stable among the group. Moreover, he had improved significantly.

Add to that, his familiarity with the circulation of Chi around his meridians, his training speed was significantly faster than the last time he broke through to the first-grade ultimate god realm by a large margin.

After only one night, Jack's body vibrated lightly and his fighting prowess had already reached the second-grade ultimate godlevel.

At that moment, only a small portion of the pill within Jack's body was used up with a big portion of it remaining.

Almost immediately after the vibration emanated from his body, Jack instantly restrained them. Everything happened incredibly quickly. Without careful examination, it was difficult to tell that Jack had just broken through.

He rejoiced internally and continued to circulate his Chi. Judging from the remaining strength of the pill in his body, he might be able to achieve the third-grade ultimate god-level in one go, which also gave him the hopes to move forward to the fourth-grade ultimate god-level.

Only then did he realize the impressiveness of his martial art technique which allowed him to train his Chi vortex at all times.

As expected, after spending two full days, Jack managed to reach the fourth-grade ultimate god realm at the very last moment. Moreover, he absorbed the powers from the pill much faster compared to his five companions, finishing up a few hours earlier.

“How was it? Was it good?”

Seeing Jack opening his eyes and standing up, Daniello, Selena, and the others quickly gathered around him as they looked at him expectantly.

“Hahaha, it’s a completely different feeling! This is just wonderful!”

Jack, who broke through three levels in one go, gripped his fists. The explosive growth of strength within his body brought him great joy.

With his powerful martial art technique and his terrifying combat powers, Jack believed that he could defeat an opponent in the sixth-grade ultimate god-level without much trouble while being at the fourth grade ultimate god-level himself.

After some time, the five finished absorbing the power from the pills one after another and got up with an expression of great satisfaction.

“This is great. Third-grade ultimate godlevel at last! This third-grade elementary level pill is really something!”

Nash clutched his fists with an excited look on his face.

“Yeah, we’re finally at the third-grade ultimate god-level!” Alejandro exclaimed excitedly.

It was obvious that nobody knew Jack had reached the fourth-grade ultimate god realm.

“Hahaha, it’s all thanks to Young Master Jack. If not for him, we wouldn’t have obtained these treasured third-grade elementary pills. Who knows how much spirited grass and training time we would need to break through slowly?!” Alejandro laughed heartily along.

He took a look outside and frowned. “Too bad it’s already dark outside. Otherwise, I’d love to find a few powerful monster beasts to try my strength!”

“Leave that for tomorrow morning!”

Nash chuckled bitterly while flexing his fists. The increase in strength within him made him feel extremely comfortable.

“Brother Jack, Big Brother Jack, I have some good news for you. Sister-in-law and I both had a breakthrough!” Yule announced happily while she rushed giddily toward Jack.

Hearing that brought a smile to Jack’s face. “Really? You’re already at the middle stage of the true god level? You have decent talent. Work hard and aim to reach the first-grade ultimate god-level sooner. That way you’ll look even better! Once you reach the ultimate god stage, your aging will slow down even more!”

“Really? Hehehe, then I’ll have to work even harder!”

Yule chuckled, then shot another look at Selena before saying, “Sister-in-law’s talent is even better. She’s already at the late stage of the true god level. By the look of things, she’ll be reaching the ultimate god-level very soon!”

“Yeah. Her talent is truly amazing. When she reaches the peak of the true god-level, I’ll give her a pill to help her achieve the fighting prowess of the ultimate godlevel!”

Jack smiled as he nodded. He naturally hoped for Selena’s fighting prowess to grow faster. That way, she would be able to protect herself should anything happen while he was not around.

“Since it’s already nighttime, you guys should stabilize your fighting prowess first! Meanwhile, I’ll start refining some pills. It’s about time to try refining some thirdgrade intermediate pills!”

Jack looked around and then sat down in a lotus position. He only had two recipes for the third-grade intermediate-level pills and they were both from the records of the First Elder from the Cabello family.

At that moment, the only thing that troubled Jack was the lack of recipes for third-grade premium pills and fourthgrade pills. After this, the search for pill recipes was a higher priority. However, in their situation, they could only take things one step and a time.

Fortunately, there were plenty of thirdgrade spirited grass in the forest. That helped Jack to obtain quite a number of third-grade intermediate-level spirited grass, which allowed him to try refining the two types of pills.

Knowing Jack was about to start refining third-grade intermediate-level pills, everyone quiet down in fear of disturbing him.

After all, Jack was their only chance to grow stronger in a short time and survive.

Boom!

Beyond the cave, another intermediate stage true god-level monster beast was killed by Yolanda and Xavier’s concerted efforts.

“Yolanda, you’re really amazing. You’re already at the peak of the true god level. Once you get a pill from the young master, you’ll be able to reach the ultimate god level. I’m so envious of you. After all, you’re already the Ninth Elder of the White family despite being so young!”

After killing the monster beast, Yolanda forced a smile and said to Xavier, "Asking for a pill from Young Master Jack? That might not be a good idea. The other elders are all from the White family. Alejandro is the master of the Cabello family and his daughter has some unusual relationship with Jack. Only then was he given a pill."

Yolanda frowned, then added, "After all, you and I used to be members of the Lagorio family. Although we have sworn our loyalty to the White family, we still carry the Lagorio family name after all. To reach the first-grade ultimate god-level, we would at least need one second-grade premium pill. Those pills are highly treasured. I really can't bring myself to ask for one."

Chapter 1703

"You're being too reserved. Jack is a righteous leader. Back when I sent Lily back to the Lagorio family, Jack and the others did not even care about it. He never once picked on me because of that. Trust me, Jack will treat everyone equally. Them making you an elder is the best proof of that!"

Xavier maintained his smile. "If you're too shy to ask him yourself, I'll ask him for you some other time. I'll just say you've reached the peak stage of the true god level and would like to serve the White family better. Young Master Jack will surely understand my intention!"

"T-T-That's not a good idea!"

Even though Yolanda wanted to get her hands on a second-grade premium level pill as it would greatly reduce the difficulty for her to grow her prowess, she was too shy to ask for it, especially with her being a girl.

"What's so bad about it? I'll ask him on your behalf in a few days!" Xavier stated nonchalantly.

"Okay. I wonder how's Young Master Jack and the others are doing now. Have they broken through? They were using thirdgrade elementary-level pills. Do you think they'll be able to reach the third-grade ultimate god-level?" Yolanda added with a smile.

“As for that, we’ll know by tomorrow!” Xavier replied after some thoughts.

The next morning, Jack and company came out from the cave.

Jack looked at everyone before landing his sights on Yolanda and said, “Ninth Elder, good job. Seems like you’ve reached the peak stage of the true god-level. You and Venus are both at the peak true god stage now.”

Having said that, Jack opened his palm, revealing two second-grade premium level pills, and stated, “Ninth Elder, take one each for you and Venus. Once you’ve stabilized your level, find a suitable time to try to reach for the first-grade ultimate god-level. After all, you guys have mastered the martial art technique.”

Venus and Yolanda were surprised upon hearing that statement.

That was especially so for Yolanda. Right after discussing with Venus if they should ask Jack for a pill. They did not expect Jack to give them one before they even asked.

“I-I-I don’t think this is a good idea?”

Yolanda looked at Jack who was standing before her. At that moment, he gave her the feeling of a superior ruler. She was glad to have made her choice back then. Jack and Nash were truly suitable candidates to lead the White family to grow stronger.

“What’s so bad about it? With a few more people at the ultimate god-level, our White family will be stronger. That way, it’ll be easier for us to handle any emergency situations!”

Jack chuckled, then intentionally asked with a poker face, “Could it be that you’re not willing to reach the ultimate god-level to avoid serving our White family?”

“Of course I want to! It’s my dream to reach the ultimate god-level!” Yolanda replied bashfully while nodding repeatedly.

“Thank you Young Master Jack. I won’t stand on ceremony with you then!”

Venus walked over to take the pills and passed one to Yolanda. “Yolanda, just take it. You’ll have to raise your fighting prowess to repay the White family!”

Chapter 1704

“Yeah, I’ll definitely work harder. I’ll do anything for the White family!”

Yolanda received the pills gratefully and put them away with the utmost care.

“Let’s go. This forest is a pretty good place with plenty of spirited grass. So long as the Alliance Guard’s forces aren’t eyeing this area, we can stay a little longer and hopefully raise our fighting prowess further,” Jack said after taking another look at the forest before him.

“Hehehe, let’s go. Although this forest has ultimate god-level monster beasts, their fighting prowess seems to be lacking. We have only met monster beasts of the second-grade ultimate god-level at most. So far there are no signs of any third or fourth-grade ultimate god-level monster beasts. It should be pretty safe!” Nash, who had just reached the third-grade ultimate god-level started chuckling. He was brimming with energy and eager to try hit hands on some stronger monster beasts.

“Sigh, I wonder how things are with my sister.”

Meanwhile, Daniella thought of her sister, Helena. She could not help but feel slightly worried.

“Yeah. If we hide for two more days to train, the others might have traveled further or even left the forest. I’m afraid it’ll be even more difficult to find them again!”

Hearing that, Alejandro frowned immediately. After all, many unknown dangers were lurking in the area and nobody could foresee the future. All he wanted was to keep his three daughters safe by his side and to know how if Helena was safe.

“There’s plenty of third-grade spirited grass in this forest. I believe they won’t leave this place so fast. They will surely stay within the forest to look for martial art techniques in hopes of reaching the ultimate god-level, especially those at the peak stage of the true god-level. With third-grade spirited grass in hand, it should be no problem for them to reach the first-grade ultimate god-level if they refine a few stalks!”

After some thoughts, Jack continued, “Therefore, some of them will surely look for places to stay in to advance their training. This way, we can still catch up with some of them!”

“That’s right. Let’s go and check out ahead!”

Nash nodded along. Everyone started levitating as they moved forward slowly in search of spirited grass.

Sounds of combat could still be heard from within the forest. However, the forest was too big. Jack and the others could only follow the sound to check things out.

After all, if the commotion turned out to be their family fighting for resources with others, they should have an easier time rescuing their family with their current fighting prowess.

Chapter 1705

At that moment, sounds of a terrible battle were coming from the direction that Jack and the others were headed in. Master Yeager and his group from the Pavilion of Gods and Kings were being surrounded by Elder Moseley and his group from the Hall of Divine Royal.

Harry Yeager had a terrible expression on. In the past few days, he finally found a martial art technique and managed to help two other elders in the true god-level to break through to the first-grade ultimate god-level.

The others from his group got separated, but they managed to regroup with almost eight hundred people. To their surprise, they ran into the group from the Hall of Divine Royal and were surrounded.

If it was not for the experts at the true godlevel by his side, their group would have been annihilated by their opponents.

However, their situation was not looking good. Not only were they outnumbered, but Elder Moseley from the Hall of Divine Royal had also reached the second-grade ultimate god-level. Moreover, they have three more experts at the first-grade ultimate godlevel as well. It was evident that they benefited greatly after entering the forest.

Right then, Harry's group had suffered over 200 casualties. Although their opponents suffered similar casualties, that outcome was more substantial on Harry's side. They attempted to break through the blockade several times, but they all ended in failure.

Quite a number of people in their group had suffered significant injuries. If their opponents were to strike them again, they would be in trouble.

"Master Yeager, I suggest you surrender and join us. Things are different now. If your group joins our Hall of Divine Royal, I can even give you the seat of an elder!" Elder Moseley smirked condescendingly.

"Oh, I almost forgot. That dumb*ss Matthew keeps making stupid decisions. I heard from my men that his corpse was found in the forest. Hahaha, that idiot appeared to have died in less than two days after entering the forest. By my guess, he hasn't even reached the ultimate god-level yet. How funny for him to die just like that!"

The other old man made an ingratiating expression as he spoke to Elder Moseley, "Master Moseley, such is destiny. He is destined to die while you acquired a martial art technique right after entering the forest and broke through to the second-grade ultimate god-level. Hahaha, you're the chosen one. The Hall of Divine Royal will surely soar to the heavens with you as the lead!"

"Hahaha, of course! The position of hall master should've been mine a long time ago. That idiot Matthew wouldn't have been the hall master if not for him being stronger than me back then."

Angus roared with laughter. "Once I find the others from the Hall of Divine Royal and have them gather their forces from overseas to join us, then those forces on this continent will have to obey me or die!"

Meanwhile, another martial artist at the first-grade ultimate god-level snickered, "However, I must admit that Matthew might be stupid, but his talent was quite good. Otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to surpass Eld...I mean Master Moseley before he entered this forest!"

Hearing that, Angus' face darkened as he said, "Nonsense! Do you really think he has great talent? Hmph. Whenever we acquire treasures to raise our prowess, he would take away most of them. Once, I had a chance to surpass him in one go, but guess what? He took my treasure away! Otherwise, how else would he keep us suppressed?"

Angus grew agitated as he ranted, "I'm already old and had little interest in the position of hall master. Unexpectedly, the heavens blessed me with this chance to come here, giving me the opportunity to rise as an expert of the ultimate god-level with a longer lifespan. The only regret I have was to not have killed him with my own hands. Otherwise, I'll have him suffer great humiliation before killing him!"

Harry's expression was truly horrible. How could Angus ask them, one of the Four Ancient Clans, to surrender? If news got out, they would die from embarrassment!

However, it was an arduous journey for him to reach the ultimate god-level with an extended lifespan. Could this be the end of the line for him? At that moment, he was stuck in a great dilemma.

Chapter 1706

“Pavilion master, I-I don’t want to die here. There is so much spirited grass here and the Chi is so rich here. I wouldn’t be able to rest in peace if I die here like this when we’ve just seen hope!” An elder of the Pavilion of Gods and Kings approached Harry and said softly after gritting his teeth.

Harry glanced at the elder standing beside him and was afraid that the others would hear them. He said after gritting his teeth, “Bullsh*t, do you think I want to die? However, there are only several hundred of us here and we have yet to find the other members of the Pavilion of Gods and Kings. It’s shameful for us to just surrender like this. Apart from that, how can we surrender when we’ve already broken through into the first-grade ultimate god-level?”

The elder was speechless and he said helplessly, “But there aren’t any other ways. Why don’t we pretend to surrender and look for an opportunity to escape when there’s a chance to? We don’t know if any of the elders from our pavilion had already broken through into the second-grade ultimate god-level. It would be great if there were!”

“It’s useless even if they’ve already broken through. Unless they appear now, wouldn’t our death be definite? We need to resolve this imperative issue!” Harry had a darkened expression on his face as he felt that it was embarrassing to surrender but he was unconvinced to die just like this. Dying was a tragic reality for him now as he had just broken through to the first-stage ultimate god-level with many difficulties.

How could he just die like that before he knew about what was going on and what forces were in this area?

“What are the two of you mumbling between yourselves over there? Have you made up your mind after discussing it for such a long time?” Angus Moseley waited for some time and said impatiently when he saw the two secretly discussing something over there.

Harry opened his mouth but he was unable to say the words of surrendering as he felt that it was really shameful.

He was extremely speechless when the old lady from his pavilion, who had already broken through into the first-stage ultimate god-level, actually walked forward and said loudly while pointing her sword. "Old man, don't you think that our pavilion master will surrender. Our pavilion master is the leader of the Pavilion of Gods and Kings, one of the four ancient clans. He would rather die standing than die kneeling. I understand him well enough and he definitely would not surrender!"

Harry almost vomited blood and he wanted to give this old lady a beating. In the past, he would definitely be not afraid of death as he was already old and had not many years left. On top of that, nobody was capable of killing him so he was confident when he spoke.

However, the situation now was different and he had another 100 more years to live his life. According to the calculation of his longevity, he was considered a middle-aged man right now. If it was not for his appearance, his life would have been perfect.

"That's right! Our pavilion master definitely wouldn't surrender to evil forces!" Another patronum also stood forward and said loudly. He looked like he was not afraid of death but he did not realize the darkened expressions on Harry and another elder's face.

"That's right! We shall fight them with all we have and the worst ending is just death! What's so frightening about that!"

The other disciples also said angrily, "So many of our disciples are dead. Almost one to two hundred of them are dead. F*ck! We shall fight them with all we have and kill as many of them as we can!"

Harry was speechless. It looked like he was being put in a situation where it was impossible for him to stop.

"Haha... Who would have expected these people to be so strong-willed? If that's the case, fulfill their wishes and kill all of them!" Angus laughed loudly and said with a wave of his hand.

"Pavilion master, look over there. There's a group of people and it looks like there is a lot of them. There should be around a thousand of them!”

Chapter 1707

Just when Harry was about to give up, the elder who persuaded him to surrender suddenly saw a group of people flying over from far away.

“Yes, we just don’t know which forces these people belong to. There are many people from the forces in the seas and there’s a big possibility that they are one of them. Even if these are people from the mainland, the members of the other pavilion might not help us. Some of the forces would love to strike us while we are at our weakest!” Harry frowned and still did not carry much hope.

“Haha... They seem to be members of the White family and one of them seems to be Nash White. The White family has an enmity with the forces of the seas. When they went to the Black Windy Island with several other families, they had a battle with the members from the forces of the seas! I’m sure they will be willing to help us!” The elder was delighted when he suddenly saw a familiar figure among the group of people in front of them.

“Really? It seems true. F*ck me, young man Jack is also there!” Harry rubbed his eyes cautiously. He was extremely happy as Jack and the others seemed to be coming toward their direction.

“Hall master, what should we do? It looks like others are coming and there are quite a number of them!” An old man from the Hall of Divine Royal was immediately panicked. Although they had the upper hand at that moment, there seem to be a large number of people coming over from afar. If both parties worked together, they might not be the other party’s opponent.

“Why should we be afraid? Our hall master is now at the second-grade ultimate godlevel and how many people have already broken through into the second-grade ultimate god-level like him? The other party has a large number of people but they will be so frightened that they would not help the other party when they learn that we have masters in the second-grade ultimate god-level here with us!” A member of the Hall of Divine Royal smiled coldly and did not seem to care as he hugged his arms across his chest.

Another 20 seconds later, Jack and the others had already arrived at the scene. They formed an arc-shaped formation and had gradually surrounded the members of the Hall of Divine Royal.

“Members of the White family and members of the Cabello family?” Angus slightly narrowed his eyes before speaking to Jack and the others. “Jack, our previous hall master, Matthew, went up against you because of his stupidity and I do not plan to. Look into those past grudges. Now, I’m already in the second-grade ultimate godlevel and I’m the new hall master of the Hall of Divine Royal. Today, we plan to kill these insensible people and I hope that you will not interfere!” Angus was slightly fearful as Jack was a talented young man and he had no idea which level he had already achieved. This young man had the combat power to kill his enemies of a higher level. If he had broken through again, they would not be his opponent as there were a huge amount of them here.

“Haha... You only said this because you aren’t certain when you see how many of us are here, right?” Unexpectedly, Jack had already seen through his thoughts and said to Angus with a smile on his face. “It doesn’t matter if Matthew is a dumb person, he used to be the Hall of Divine Royal’s hall master and represents the Hall of Divine Royal. Hence, the grudges between us are the grudges between two forces. If you want me to stop holding what happened in the past against you guys, that would only be possible if you dismiss the Hall of Divine Royal!”

“Dismiss?” The corners of Angus’ lips trembled several times. “Young man, I was kind enough to let you off the hook and you actually want me to dismiss the Hall of Divine Royal? In your dreams!”

Chapter 1708

Jack’s words had completely angered his opponent. Angus had longed to become the hall master of the Hall of Divine Royal since a long time ago but he did not have the opportunity to. Now that he had finally become the hall master of the Hall of Divine Royal, the other party was actually asking him to dismiss the hall. He was so angry that his face turned blue before it turned pale.

However, he gritted his teeth but dared not take action immediately. After all, it did not matter if Jack had already broken through. Even if this guy had not broken through, he had the combat power comparable to the masters at the first-grade ultimate god-level. On top of that, the total number of people between Jack and the Pavilion of Gods and Kings was so much more compared to theirs. The number of people in the ultimate god-level on their side was also much lesser compared to the people on Jack’s side. If they fought under such circumstances, the chances of them winning were minute. Even if they had won, they would suffer substantial losses.

“Hall master, take a look. Those people over there seem to be our people!” However, Angus did not expect one of the elders from the Hall of Divine Royal, who was in the firststage ultimate god-level, to see a group of people flying over to them at this moment.

“That’s true. It’s Elder Lawrence and the others. This is great! There’s at least two thousand of them!” Angus had an instant confidence boost when he saw people from his side and happiness could instantly be seen on his expression.

“How’s that possible? Pavilion master, those are people from the Hall of Divine Royal! Aren’t we really unlucky? There are at least 2700 to 2800 of them!” The smile on the face of the man beside Harry immediately disappeared when he saw the situation. He really felt like he was sitting on a roller coaster at that instant.

The corners of Harry’s mouth twitched a couple of times. He was extremely happy when he saw Jack and the others’ arrival as there was a huge chance of them winning.

However, it was troublesome that there was an increase of more than 2000 people from the opponent’s side and they had no idea if any of these people had already broken through into the ultimate god-level.

Elder Lawrence and the other members of the Hall of Divine Royal soon flew over before stopping at a nearby distance.

Elder Lawrence slightly narrowed his eyes when he saw the situation and said, “Elder Moseley, why are you here? What’s going on now? It looks like you’ve surrounded those people before being counter-surrounded by members of the White and Cabello families?”

A man beside Angus immediately stepped forward and said, “Elder Lawrence, I wonder if you guys know that the hall master of our Hall of Divine Royal, Master Matthew, had already died. Our people saw his body the second day we entered this area. Right now, we’ve already agreed for Elder Moseley to be our hall master and everybody should obey him in the future. I’m sure everybody knows about Elder Moseley’s combat power and character. It’s best for him to be the new hall master!”

“What? The hall master has passed away?!” The members of the Hall of Divine Royal on the other side were immediately surprised when they heard this. They obviously did not expect Matthew to be so miserable and died so quickly.

Elder Lawrence and the others were slightly delighted after being stunned for a short moment. Since Hall Master Matthew of the Hall of Divine Royal had already died, did that mean that he also had the opportunity?

However, he still spoke with a sad expression on his face. “Sigh... The hall master had always been looking forward to breaking through into the ultimate god-level and he had always wanted to know of the ways to break through into the ultimate god-level. Now that there’s finally such an opportunity, who would have expected ... Who would have expected that he would pass away when we’ve just entered this area! His death...His death is really so sad!”

“Yes, Hall Master Matthew, you have the heart to achieve grand causes. Who would have expected for you to die at this moment?!”

Chapter 1709

Another man also expressed his grievance and looked as if he was going to cry.

“There’s no need for everybody to be too sad as we have learned to take life and death easily since we are trainers. Although the death of the hall master is slightly unfortunate, this is how life is!” Angus also had a pained expression on his face before he continued seriously, “However, there’s no need for everybody to worry. After I become the new hall master, I will definitely lead our Hall of Divine Royal toward a new glorious future.”

Angus paused here before he continued to speak, “However, there are some issues here that need to be resolved and I hope that everybody will work together and help us out. Let’s help to settle our enemies here first before we continue speaking about other things!”

However, Elder Lawrence had a darkened expression on his face and directly said, "Elder Moseley, it doesn't seem nice for you to self-proclaim yourself as the leader, right? Yes, you're considered one of the top elders in the Hall of Divine Royal previously and you were well-liked by the hall master. After all, not only are you courageous and smart, you have a high combat power. All of us here weren't your opponent!"

Elder Lawrence smiled coldly and continued speaking, "However, several elders here have already broken through into the firststage ultimate god-level and are masters of the ultimate god-level. Not only me, Elder Mitchell, Elder Ladd, and Elder Witherspoon also have the fighting prowess of the ultimate god-level. Haha... I think matters regarding the hall master should wait until we've gathered all the members of the Hall of Divine Royal and let everybody vote for their choice!"

Elder Witherspoon walked forward and said, "Why should we vote? I think that voting is the most unfair way in my opinion. After all, Elder Lawrence and Elder Moseley are senior elders in the Hall of Divine Royal who had lots of credit. It would definitely be favorable for the both of you if we really vote for our choice. I suggest that we choose our hall master by having a competition. After all, nobody knows who will be stronger by then!"

The corner of Angus' mouth twitched several times when he heard what these two had said. He finally realized that not only one or two people wanted to be the hall master.

"Haha... Sure, I'm also willing to have a martial art competition to make the decision!" Angus smiled coldly before finally releasing his momentum without holding back. "By then, the others will be convinced about who's much stronger by then!"

"A fighting prowess of second-grade ultimate god-level?" After feeling the momentum, Elder Lawrence, Elder Witherspoon, and the others took in deep breaths as they were really surprised by such horrendous momentum. They had never expected Angus to become a master in the second-grade ultimate god-level after ten days of entering the area.

"Hey guys, are you guys done?" Unexpectedly, Jack, who was observing by the side, could not help but slowly opened his mouth and said, "You guys should think about how you can continue staying alive above anything else. You guys have not yet succeeded in overcoming this challenge here and you guys are already thinking about fighting for the position of hall master. What a joke!"

Angus laughed loudly when he heard this. "Haha... Jack, you are really daring when you speak. Why don't you take a look at the situation right now? We have more members in the ultimate god-level compared to you and we also have more people. Do you still feel that you have the certainty of winning?"

"It's good that there are more people here. I shall be able to get rid of you people sooner if more of you are here!" Jack smiled coldly and directly waved his hand. "Attack them and show them our true strength!"

Chapter 1710

"Haha... Young Master Jack is right! Attack!" Alejandro had been looking forward to giving it a try. He directly flew forward when he heard what Jack said and released a strong wave of aura. The horrendous aura continued to increase and soon surpassed Angus, who was at the second-stage ultimate god-level.

"How's this possible? His momentum is so much higher compared to Elder Moseley?" Elder Lawrence was so frightened that he inhaled deeply when he saw what happened. If the people surrounding him did not also have a surprised expression on their faces, he would really suspect that he was dreaming

"Impossible! This is impossible!"

Angus shook his head continuously as he could not believe the truth. After all, he obtained the martial art technique soon after he entered this area and lots of precious items. He got a lot of the third-grade spirited grass and even obtained a fourth-grade spirited grass.

He was even able to refine the fourthgrade spirited grass and that was how he was able to break through into the second-grade ultimate god-level in such a short period of time.

He believed that not many people were as lucky as him so he was confident about himself.

However, Alejandro, who was in front of him, was actually at the third-grade ultimate god-level. This caused him to instantly feel defeated and he was unable to immediately accept this reality.

“Haha... What’s wrong? Are you surprised because of this? Everybody, attack! Attack to your heart’s content!” Alejandro was quite satisfied with the expression on these people from the Hall of Divine Royal. He had never expected himself to cause such a huge surprise among the masters at the second-grade ultimate god-level.

After all, more than a dozen days ago, even the first-grade ultimate godlevel was a realm they really wanted to break through, let alone the secondgrade ultimate god-level.

“Attack!” Kenneth and the others did not release their momentum. Instead, he curled his fists and Chi surged over his fists. He directly rushed toward Elder Lawrence from the Hall of Divine Royal in a flash.

“How’s this possible? This old man is also a master in the ultimate god level?”

Elder Lawrence originally smiled coldly when he saw Kenneth rushing toward him proactively and he thought that Kenneth was suicidal.

However, he completely panicked when he finally saw the golden color of the Chi on Kenneth’s fists. He clearly knew the representation of this color. This represented that the old man rushing over was also at the ultimate god-level. On top of that, the gold color was much richer and Kenneth’s fighting prowess seemed to be higher than him.

However, when he finally managed to react, Kenneth had already arrived in front of him and was punching toward him.

As he did not have much time to think about how to react, he could only quickly activate the Chi in his body and tighten his fist before directly meeting his opponent’s punch.

Boom!

The minute both punches met one another, an extremely loud humming noise could be heard and caused the space to slightly sway. A horrendous shock wave radiated to the surrounding area.

“This is impossible!” Elder Lawrence felt the difference between the two of them the moment they came into contact. It was not a slight difference as the old man in front of them was in the third-grade ultimate god-level.

Bang!

The moment he finished speaking, Elder Lawrence was sent flying backward like a kite with a broken line. He fell to the ground heavily and vomited blood.

A huge hole had appeared on the ground from the attack and terrible cracks spread around. Elder Lawrence, who was in the First-grade ultimate god level, laid there and was coughing blood without stopping. His face was so pale and he failed to even stand up.

Chapter 1711

“Dear me, this old man is definitely in the thirdgrade ultimate god level!” As the battle began, one of the onlookers exclaimed in fright and was shocked to his core.

“This is great! There are at least two masters in the third-grade ultimate god-level from the White and Cabello family. We will definitely win this time. As long as these elders in the first-grade ultimate godlevel and Angus Moseley in the second-grade ultimate god-level from the Hall of Divine Royal are killed, their people would lose all will to fight!” Hope started burning in Harry’s heart again when he saw how Kenneth killed those masters in the first-grade ultimate god-level one by one with his punches. He, who was once filled with despair, had an ecstatic expression on his face.

“Yes, pavilion master, we have been rescued. Kill, kill all of them! Haha... Jack and the others are really strong and they’ve never disappointed us!” The old lady in the first-grade ultimate god-level from the Pavilion of Gods and Kings was extremely excited at this moment. The feeling of recovering from a seemingly impossible situation was really a lamentable one.

“Yes, kill them! Kill all of them!” Harry, who saw the opportunity to stay alive, waved his sword and yelled loudly. “These people even wanted us to surrender. Do I, Harry Yeager, look like I will surrender so easily? Even if I die in this battle here today, I would not surrender to these people. Everybody, attack them and avenge our members who died previously!”

“Oh my god, there’s more than one third-grade ultimate god-level master here. The Second Elder of the White family is also a master in the third-grade ultimate god level. Dear me, this is serious!” Soon, somebody else discovered something and exclaimed again.

“Why do they have so many people at the ultimate god-level? On top of that, the butler of the White family is also in the third-grade ultimate god-level. How can we win against them?” The people from the Hall of Divine Royal were soon in desperation. Their masters in the first-grade ultimate god-level were unable to defeat those people at that moment.

“Run!” Angus was so frightened when he saw several people in the first-grade ultimate god-level were killed that his face turned pale. He turned around and yelled loudly before he was prepared to escape. Only a pale shadow of his figure was left as he ran, ignoring the fate of others.

However, another shadow traveled more speedily and arrived before him within several moves, stopping him from escaping.

“You must be suicidal!” When he saw that it was Jack, Angus tightened his fist and Chi surged over his fist as he punched toward Jack.

“Humph?” Jack humphed coldly and also raised his fist, meeting the attack with a punch.

“You don’t even plan to use your Chi?” Angus’s heart dropped when he saw how Jack did not even use Chi with his attack. However, there was not enough time for him to think about it, and could only meet the attack with his punch.

He was extremely puzzled by what was happening. Could it be that Jack was also in the Third-grade ultimate god level? However, was this not too much for a person in the Third-grade ultimate god level?

Boom!

Just as he was puzzled by what was going on, their fists met with each other's. The strong power in Jack's body directly broke Angus's arm and sent him flying backward before landing onto the ground with a thud. He died after vomiting several mouthfuls of blood.

"Oh my god! What...what's the fighting prowess of this guy? His combat power is really strong!" Harry happened to see this scene and he was so frightened that he stuttered when he spoke.

Chapter 1712

Angus, who was in the second-grade ultimate godlevel was killed by Jack with just a punch. This scene really shocked everyone at present.

Especially since Jack managed to do this without using Chi. This proved how frightening the guy's combat power was.

"Isn't this guy in the third-grade ultimate god level? It looks like his combat power has become comparable to fifth-grade or sixth-grade ultimate god level!" Alejandro looked over at Jack and glanced at his fist again. Jack's combat power seemed to have exceeded his expectations. He had suspected that the martial art technique Jack was practicing was a much higher level one compared to theirs.

"Run! Even Elder Angus had died!" The members of the Hall of Divine Royal were frightened out of their wits. They panicked and scurried around to escape.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

However, Jack and the others had really strong combat power. One after another, the attacks landed directly on the group of people who were trying to escape. Together with the fact that there were several masters in the third-grade ultimate god level, the number of people escaping continued to reduce. Soon, almost all of them were dead.

Only less than 100 people from the several thousands of people from the Hall of Divine Royal managed to escape while the others were killed. Blood flowed throughout the area and a thick smell of blood filled the air.

“Master White, Master Cabello, Young Master Jack, thank you for your help!” Harry flew over in excitement. He thanked Jack and the others.

“Haha... Master Harry, it’s very simple. If you really plan to thank me, just don’t snatch the trophies with us!” Unexpectedly, Jack only smiled and said to him. “However, we don’t want the martial ring that belonged to those dead members of your pavilion. Those are your people and you can keep those for yourself!”

The corners of Harry’s mouth immediately twitched a couple of times. Jack did not spare him any face. During the battle, the people from his side had also fought bravely and killed many people. This guy actually said in front of so many people that he was taking all the martial enhancement materials that the members of the Hall of Divine Royal had on them.

However, he could only speak with a smile when he thought about how Jack and the others had saved their lives. “That’s for sure, without the help of you guys, we would have definitely died!” On top of that, Jack and the others had overpowering combat power.

“That’s right, thanks to the help from Jack and the others, we escaped death!” The old lady from the Pavilion of Gods and Kings also nodded and said.

“By the way, there are some situations in this area and I wonder if you guys know about it!” Nash ordered the others to help collect the trophies as he started chatting with Harry and the others.

“What situation? There is quite a lot of third-grade spirited grass here and we have never seen them when we were outside. There is even fourth-grade spirited grass here and this is a really good place to train ourselves!”

Chapter 1713

Harry said happily, “I just wonder why this area is so rich with Chi. On top of that, there are some martial art techniques and I feel that this is a great place to look for precious items. What I worry about most are the people who entered this area in the past. Even if they had died, there must still be quite a number of masters now as they had many descendants, right? Would they take action against us if they bump into us? After all, we’re not from here!”

Nash smiled bitterly and said, “I need to tell you something regarding this area...”

Soon, Nash informed Harry and the others about the situation.

The facial expression on Harry and the others’ faces darkened after they heard what Nash said. They had never expected the area to have a force like the Alliance Guard, who was in charge of guarding the area and were incredibly against people from the outside entering this area.

Unexpectedly, the members of the Alliance Guard had let down their guard as nobody had entered this area throughout the years. That was why two disciples of only the first-grade and second-grade ultimate godlevel were sent to guard the entrance. If it was in the: past, they would have died not long after entering the area.

“We’re lucky that they have almost forgotten about the entrance. This enabled us to stay alive until now and even had the chance to break through to the ultimate god level. Now that I think about it, we are really lucky!” Harry smiled bitterly as his heart was filled with joy.

“Yes. Our goal right now is to raise our fighting prowess as fast as possible. In that case, when the members of the Alliance Guard realise what is going on, we would have increased our combat power. That would help us to have a better opportunity at staying alive!” Nash nodded. “Hence, forces who have entered this area like us need to work together and help each other!”

“By the way, Master White. How did all of you breakthrough into the third-grade ultimate godlevel? What’s the fighting prowess of your son? He killed Angus, who’s in the second-grade ultimate god -level, with a single punch and without using his Chi.: He’s so powerful!” Harry soon thought and could not help but ask Nash in surprise.

“Haha... We are all in the third-grade ultimate godlevel. This is all thanks to the third-grade elementary pills that Jack cultivated. If not, how would it be possible for us to achieve such fighting prowess in such a short time?” Nash laughed as he glanced over to Jack’s back, who was nearby, with satisfaction in his eyes. He had never expected his son to become such an excellent person. He no longer can catch up with his son’s pace anymore.

“He is also capable of cultivating third-grade elementary pills? Does that mean that Young Master Jack is now a third-grade elementary alchemist? Dear me, this...this young man has a promising future!” Harry exclaimed and continued, “There are several alchemists in our Pavilion of Gods and Kings but the most powerful one is just a second-grade premium alchemist right now. After breaking through into the ultimate god-level, second-grade premium pills don’t have much effect on us in the ultimate god-level. Those pills are incomparable to third-grade elementary pills!”

“Young Master Jack is really talented in cultivating pills. After several years, there’s hope for him to be a fourth-grade alchemist!” There was an unexpected hint of adoration when the old lady in the first-grade ultimate god-level standing beside Harry, looked at Jack.

It had to be known that these people were placed in higher positions and they had never paid much attention to the eight reclusive families. They had never expected that they would quietly start adoring a young master from one of the reclusive families at this moment.

Harry thought about it and said to Nash, “Master Nash, what you said is right. We should work together and help each other. What do you think if our people travel together with you? Don’t worry. In terms of the martial enhancement material, you just need to give us a little bit of it or don’t give us any!”

Once he thought about how this special area had the Alliance Guard, Harry proactively mentioned this after thinking about it. After all, staying alive was o more important. Jack and the others' combat power were definitely the strongest among all the forces that entered the area. It was much safer to follow Jack and the others.

Chapter 1714

Nash did not immediately promise the other party when he heard this. Instead, he said, "I'm sorry, Master Yeager, I need to discuss this with my son. You too, know that he has the strongest combat power right now. Not only the members of the White family are very convinced to follow him, but even the members of the Cabello family obeys him!"

"That's right...that's right. I will leave it to you, thank you!" Harry immediately gestured with his hands politely as he said.

Nash immediately walked over to have a discussion with Jack before flying back. "Master Yeager, we've had a discussion and my son agreed to it!"

Soon, everyone gathered the trophies together.

Just like what happened previously, everyone let Jack make the first pick. After all, he had to choose some spirited grass or ingredients to cultivate pills.

Jack did not act politely as he killed quite a lot of people. They obtained quite a generous amount of spirited grass. Although there was only one fourthgrade spirited grass, Jack was still quite satisfied.

Jack let the members of the Cabello family and White family share the other materials between themselves. At least, it was enough for everyone to train for a period of time.

What Jack did not expect was that there was an ancient tome in one of the martial rings.

The ancient tome did not look eye-catching but he was surprised when he opened the tome and took a look at the content.

“Oh my god, this is great!” Jack was incredibly excited after he took a look at the ancient tome. “Unexpectedly, there are many pill remedies for thirdgrade and fourth-grade pills in here. There are more than a dozen pill remedies for fourth-grade elementary, intermediate, and fourth-grade premium pills!”

Jack almost jumped up in excitement. What he needed most at that moment were pill remedies, especially pill remedies of fourth-grade pills.

He quickly flipped through the ancient tome and finally, he discovered the pill remedy to lift the spell off Selena. His eyes even turned red in excitement.

He immediately flew toward Selena and pointed at a spot in the tome before saying to Selena, “Honey, take a look. Look here, the pill remedy for the pill to lift your spell is here on this tome. On top of that, the ingredients needed can be found here. With this pill remedy, we would have a goal when we search for materials in the future!”

Selena felt a warmth in her heart when she saw Jack s excited expression. She smiled gently and said, “Yes, Honey. At least we’ve made another improvement. I believe that you will definitely succeed!”

“Yes, that’s for sure!” Jack nodded.

“Young Master Jack, should we leave now? So many people have died here and the monster beasts must have sniffed out the blood by now!” Harry and the others immediately walked forward to ask Jack as they were slightly afraid when they heard the roaring sound of monster beasts from afar.

“Yes, it’s almost done. Come on, let’s continue our journey!” Jack nodded and the group continued their journey.

At this moment, Ella had already exited the forest after harvesting quite a lot of spirited grass.

Chapter 1715

Ella frowned when she heard the fighting sound in the forest behind her. "I promised them to not proactively tell others about how they've entered this forest. However, this forest has never been so lively before. If members from the other fortresses of the Nine Armies come here to search for precious items, they would definitely suspect that something is off when they hear the fighting sounds in the forest!"

After all, Jack saved her life and Ella was obviously slightly worried about them at this moment.

"Nevermind...nevermind. I just need to pretend that I don't know anything and that I have never seen these people!" In the end, Ella shook her head and was prepared to fly toward her fortress.

However, she bumped into seven to eight young people from another fortress after flying for a short moment.

"Oh my, isn't this our beautiful Ella? Have you been collecting spirited grass in the forest? How is your result?" A young man in white clothes asked with a smile after he saw Ella.

Ella frowned when she saw them. These were not people from her fortress and they were members of the Whittemore Fortress.

The Whittemore Fortress was known as the Whittemore Fortress because there were many members of the Whittemore family in the fortress. The members of the Whittemore family occupied 40 % of the population of the fortress. Hence, the Whittemore family was considered the number one aristocratic family in their fortress.

This young man in white clothes was the grandson of one of the Whittemore family's elders. Due to this reason, he acts very arrogantly and always had on a domineering look when they meet others during normal days.

“Young Master Arthur, what a coincidence. Are you guys prepared to enter the forest?” Although she did not have a good impression of Arthur and did not like him, Ella had to respect him as he had a high position. She tried to force a smile before looking over at him all smiley.

“Yes. Why did you enter the forest by yourself? How dangerous is that! I heard that there are monster beasts in the third-grade ultimate god-level recently. The next time you want to go into the forest, you should gather several people to go together or you can also come with us! Don’t worry, we can share some of the spirited grass with you when we obtain them!” Arthur glanced at Ella with a playful expression on his face. He discovered that after several months of not meeting this young woman, she seemed to have become more mature and prettier. In another two years, she would be considered a rare beauty as matures.

A young woman standing beside was slightly unhappy when they saw how Arthur was staring at Ella. She said angrily, “Young Master Arthur, let’s go. This Ella Lavinge is not a member of our Whittemore Fortress, why do you care so much about her?”

“That’s right, Young Master Arthur. The members from Ella’s fortress even snatched our spirited grass. I’m so angry and my father originally was able to obtain a fourth-grade elementary spirited grass. He found one with much difficulty but it was snatched away by the members of their fortress!” A fat young man, who was beside them, also said angrily.

Arthur was slightly unhappy when he heard this. His facial expression darkened and said, “Isn’t it normal for fortresses to have fights because of spirited grass? As long as it isn’t some great hatred and no lives have been lost, anything is allowed! On top of that, didn’t the First Fortress Master say previously that the members of the nine fortresses should help one another and have a good relationship?!”

After he finished speaking, Arthur said to Ella with a smile, “Am I right? Ella, especially for our fortresses that are very close to one another, we should help one another, right?”

Ella smiled embarrassingly. “Yes, the First Fortress Master did say something like this during the meeting previously!”

“Humph!” The young lady from the Whittemore Fortress humphed coldly in anger. She hugged both her hands in front of her chest and almost rushed forward to start a fight with Ella.

Chapter 1716

Skye Lanson could not say anything else although displeased with Ella, so she merely said to Arthur with a smile, “Young Master Arthur, should we be on our way? She has already returned from her treasure search, and we’re still empty-handed.”

However, Arthur pretended as if he did not hear what she said. Instead, he smilingly said to Ella, “Come, Miss Ella. Why not join us and go in for a couple more days? After all, you don’t have any other matters after you go back, right? Won’t you be safer if you join us? We’ll equally share the items we obtained!”

The fatty, who stood at the side, was displeased with the idea and quickly reminded Arthur, “That doesn’t seem like a good idea, Young Master Arthur. After all, she’s not a member of our fortress. On top of that, you’re in the fourth-grade ultimate god-level. Although: her fighting prowess is somewhat impressive, how can she share the items equally with you when she’s only in the second-grade ultimate god-level?”

Arthur’s expression faltered as he remarked, “Fatty, how can you say something like that? Aren’t you in the second-grade ultimate god-level, too? I didn’t mention that you’re a burden, did I? On top of that, the First Fortress Master said that we need to be on good terms with the other fortresses, especially when we’re so near to each other. Didn’t I always give you precious items?”

The fatty immediately blushed a crimson color. He lowered his head and was at a complete loss for words.

Ella was not dumb, and she understood that Arthur was fawning over her on purpose. She also realized that Skye obviously liked Arthur and was irked at her.

She smiled embarrassingly and said, "Ah, no need. My brother needs a certain type of spirited grass, and I just so happened to have found it. I better bring it back to him soon, and you guys should go your way!"

Skye, who stood at the side, crossed her arms at her chest and oddly commented, "See, Arthur? She may not appreciate your kindness!"

"Haha... It's alright, it's alright. We'll have other chances of searching for precious items in the future, right?" Although Ella did not agree to his suggestion, Arthur felt that this was because Ella was a slightly shy person. This was quite normal as they seldom interacted with one another. Hence, he smiled embarrassingly and said with a wave of his hand, "Let 's go and take a look in the forest. Let's try to stay a couple more days inside and see if we can find some fourth-grade spirited grass. Although the fourthgrade spirited grass is quite rare, we'll definitely find some!"

Ella turned around and was prepared to leave before she overheard what the portly man said.

The fatty was prepared to fly forward when he frowned and said to Arthur, "Young Master Arthur, it seems like something is wrong with the forest. We would barely hear so many roars of monsters and fighting sounds before, am I right? Could it be that quite a number of members from the other fortresses had gone into the forest to search for precious items?"

Arthur listened precariously and frowned as well. "You're right. It's quite weird for so many fights to be happening inside, and it's unlikely for monster beasts to fight one another. Have those creatures had an uprising recently?"

"No matter what it is, you're already in the Fourthgrade ultimate god-level, and there are only a handful of monster beasts in this forest that can contend against you. We'll all be very safe in the forest with you!" The fatty was afraid that he had offended Arthur, so he immediately buttered up to Arthur. He feared that Arthur would give him less spirited grass because of what happened.

The Nine Armies was not big in size and was incomparable to the pavilions or others. Even so, there were still many in the older generation who were in the Eighth-grade or Ninth-grade ultimate god-level.

The fortress master of the biggest fortress was addressed as the First Fortress Master by them. The First Fortress Master was extremely strong and had already achieved the First-grade soul-penetrating level.

Chapter 1717

“Haha... Let’s go take a look. No matter what the situation is, we’ll know what’s going on when we get there. We’re considered geniuses among the younger generations, and all of us are at the ultimate godlevel. What do we need to fear?” Arthur chuckled loudly and looked as if he could care less.

After all, they were in the ultimate god-level and were considered outstanding among the youths, capable of defeating many people.

Although they were still slightly behind compared to the true geniuses of the younger generation, they were still able to defeat 80 to 90% of the younger people.

Worry crept up to Ella as she overheard their conversation. After her deliberation, she turned and caught up to Arthur and his company. “I’ve given it some thought, Young Master Arthur, and I don’t have anything special to do after going back home. I think I’ll follow you guys into the forest.”

Her answer delighted Arthur, who was inwardly smug at the assumption of how his charm won over her. That was why she abandoned her shyness and made a bold step

“Not a problem at all. Haha! The more, the merrier. Let’s go!” Arthur laughed loudly, extremely gratified with himself. He then had thoughts of how he would rescue Ella and hold her in his arms in the jaws of danger, encountering extremely powerful monster beasts. By then, Ella might repay him with herself when his gallantness won her over.

Skye, who was by their side, glowered as she could not help but mumble, “Ella Lavinge, didn’t you say that you need to send some spirited grass back to your brother? Why aren’t you in a hurry now?”

Ella was instantly flustered at the reminder. She was not sure if she wanted to follow them to take a look because Jack rescued her previously. She wanted to follow them and see if she could notify them or help buy them time.

Although the members of the Nine Armies were on the territory of the Anti-Alliance Guard and the forces of the Anti-Alliance Guard seldom disturb them, there remained bitterness between the nine fortresses.

It was possible that some of these people wanted to do something bad.

“Hey, isn’t that easily solved?” Before Ella said anything else, Arthur proactively said, “Since it isn’t far from here, Ella, why don’t we go back with you? You can send the treasure you obtained back home first before leaving with us to enter the forest!”

“Sure! Thank you so much for doing this!” Ella smiled as she succeeded to stall time for Jack and the others.

“Young Master Arthur, a to-and-fro trip like that will take up around two to three hours, won’ it? What a waste of time!” grumbled Skye in dissatisfaction and grew increasingly angry the more she thought about

“Isn’t it just a matter of two to three hours? We’re already masters in the ultimate god-level, and it’s easy peasy for us to break through into the soul- penetrating level in the future. We’ll live up to five hundred years old, so won’t two to three hours be nothing to us?” Arthur glanced at Skye speechlessly. “If you can’t wait for us, you can go into the forest by yourself first. We’ll go in and look for you later.”

Chapter 1718

Skye was infuriated. With her high fighting prowess, she wanted to head into the forest on her own out of anger. After all, she was in the Third-grade ultimate god-level, and her fighting prowess was higher than Ella. Since Ella dared to enter the forest alone, she dared to do it, too.

She then recalled how the foxy Ella would seduce Arthur if she were to truly enter the forest. Arthur was head over heels for Ella when Skye was present, what more if she was not?

She tightened her fists and said, "Alright, let's go back with Ella!"

However, what Arthur and the others did not expect was that Ella asked three young people from her family to follow them into the forest after handing over the items she obtained from the forest, much to Arthur's chagrin.

It was slightly inconvenient for him to do anything to Ella if other members of the Lavinge family were present. Moreover, Ella's eldest brother had joined them, and Hendrick Lavinge was in the Fourth-grade ultimate god-level. Although he had just broken through, his combat power was nearly on par with Arthur's.

Arthur and the others walked in the front while Ella, Hendrick, and the others lagged slightly behind them.

Hendrick looked at the frown on Ella's face, and he knew his sister had something in her mind. He asked softly out of curiosity, "Ella, what's going on with you? Why did you ask us to go with you since it's already in the afternoon? I just thought of raising my fighting prowess and entering the forest a couple of days later. After all, I just came out of the forest several days ago!"

Hendrick paused before he added, "Also, didn't you just return? Why do you want to go into the forest again?"

Ella glanced at the people in front of her, and after she studied the distance between them and Arthur's company, that they would not overhear her, she softly spoke, "Hendrick, please don't tell anyone : what I'm going to tell you next. I almost died in the forest when I tried to take a spirited grass. Luckily, somebody rescued me!"

Hendrick inhaled deeply when he heard that, and he felt a wave of fright filled his heart. He thought about it and guessed, "Was Arthur your rescuer?"

Ella had an embarrassed look on her face. "It... It's not him... The people from the abandoned world had entered this area."

"The abandoned world?" Hendrick's mouth hung wide open as his jaw almost fell to the ground. After so many years, the world was like a legend to them.

As for the members of the Alliance Guard, they seemed to have felt that it was difficult for the people over there to find the entrance into this area. Hence, they only symbolically sent two disciples who made mistakes to guard the area for a period of time. Basically, the pavilions took turns in sending people over, who then would stand guard for a year.

In the beginning, everyone sent disciples with higher fighting prowess as they felt that this was an important task, but they eventually grew to care less.

Not only did the Alliance Guard act in such a way, but they even nearly forgot about that world.

Unexpectedly, Ella suddenly told him that people had come barging in from the abandoned world.

Chapter 1719

Ella quickly reminded Hendrick as she feared the rest would notice his dumbfounded expression. " | Hendrick, speak softly so that others won't hear us. What should we do now? I'm just as lost. I was afraid that Arthur and the others would bump into these people, so I purposely stalled for them. I asked you guys to join us for this... I even promised them that I wouldn't tell others that they've entered this area, but I'm out of options right now!"

After a moment of silence, Hendrick burst into assumptions, "Dear me, are you joking? Have you been duped by others? Why don't you think about it? The people from that world shouldn't have a high fighting prowess, right? I'm sure that nobody has broken through into the ultimate god-level, right? If that's the case, how could they have rescued you, a person in the Second-grade ultimate god-level?"

"How's that possible? I saw that those people didn't have a high fighting prowess!" Ella started frowning. She thought about it and said, "Apart from that, they don't have tokens of other items that we're familiar. With, so they must've come over from that side, no? This forest also contains martial art techniques and other items, so they might've broken through after they found the techniques! Then..." |

"Break through? If the person needs to achieve the standard of rescuing you, he'd need to spend a long period even if he's a genius, don't you think? Have they stayed in the forest for a longer time, then? Even if they have broken through, wouldn't they only be in the First-stage ultimate god-level? Is it possible for a person in the First-stage ultimate god-level to rescue you?" Hendrick continued to ask.

"That person can't be in the First-stage ultimate god -level. The monster beast is in the Second-stage ultimate god-level, which was why I couldn't defeat the beast. I estimate the person to be at least in the Second-stage ultimate god-level and might have the combat power of the Third-stage ultimate god-level. He seemed too relaxed!" recalled Ella.

"Brother, what should we do now? Our Nine Armies have always had the same standpoint as the Anti Alliance Guard, and we comply with destiny. Even if we don't go over the abandoned world to fetch them here, we'd agree for them to train here if any of them arrive here by mistake. Now that they've entered this area, I'm afraid that Arthur and the others might not think that way. It's hard to fathom a person's mind, and the Nine Armies aren't very united!"

"Did many of their people come through?" Hendrick pointed out with a frown. "It won't be an issue if only a handful of them entered. After all, the entrance of several people wouldn't take up too much martial enhancement resources if a couple of people entered this area, and it'll be no problem if members of the Anti-Alliance Guard learned of their existence. If we take them in, we just need to have a symbolic conversation with the members of the Anti-Alliance Guard, and the issue would be dropped afterward."

Ella smiled bitterly and said, "You're right. I remembered that several people barged into this area around six months ago, and some of them were recruited by the Pavilion of Anti-Alliance Guard after that alliance learned about them. They were brought back by these people to train."

However, Ella had a weird expression on her face as she continued, "However, it seems like there are several hundred thousand of them that entered this time."

"Several hundred thousand people?!" The corners of Hendrick's mouth twitched several times. It might not be an issue if only a couple of people, or a dozen, entered, but they would not be able to hide the news if several hundred thousand of them entered!

Hendrick's expression faltered and, patting his thigh, muttered, "Too many. That's a big problem already!"

Chapter 1720

Hendrick instantly recognized the weight of the issue. And looked extremely anxious.

Startled at how Hendrick yelled his responses, Ella quickly shushed him, "Talk softer, Brother!"

At that moment, Arthur and the others who walked ahead stopped in their tracks.

Arthur slowly turned his head and frowningly asked, "Hendrick, what did you say just now? What big issue has happened?"

Hendrick immediately touched his head in embarrassment. "No... Nothing!"

"No, from the looks of your expression, you're obviously lying." Arthur frowned and slowly walked up to them. "Hendrick, I think it's best that you tell the truth. We'll learn about it sooner or later!"

Hendrick glanced at Ella and visibly hesitated.

Ella frowned as well, clueless as to what to do next. As she gritted her teeth, however, she squeezed out an embarrassing smile. "It's nothing, really. I told my brother that the monster beasts in the forest seemed to be quite irritable recently, and the roars seemed to. Be quite different!"

Only then did Arthur said impatiently, "Oh, I thought something serious had happened, seeing how jumpy you both are. It's just a group of monster beasts who don't have high fighting prowess. Some monster beasts are powerful when compared to some of those from the fortresses who have low fighting prowess, but these monster beasts are nothing to us geniuses or the masters of our fortresses!"

"That's very true. These monster beasts would occasionally act abnormally, but it's nothing weird!" added the fatty with a grin. "Come. There are several of us here, so let's see if we can stay for a couple of days in the forest to find more fourth-grade spirited grass!"

"Let's... Let's go!" Hendrick smiled a forceful smile before the group continued to fly toward the direction of the forest.

They finally arrived outside of the forest around four in the afternoon.

'Sigh... Jack, oh dear Jack... I've tried my best to stall time for you, and I'm out of ideas. It's every man for themselves right now! It's been more than ten days, and I hope your fighting prowess has increased. I pray that you've left this forest," sighed Ella inwardly as she looked at the forest.

"Something seems different about the forest. Why are there so many sounds of fights?" Fatty looked at the forest and was also puzzled. "Nothing like this had happened before!"

"Why don't we head to one of those places where there seems to be a fight?" suggested Arthur after thinking about it. "We'd know what's going on after we investigate the place nearest to us where there are noises of fights!"

Flustered, Ella chimed in, "Why should we look? Aren't they just fights between monster beasts for precious items? It might even be some casual trainers who are Searching for treasures in the forest, and that's all normal!"

However, Arthur shook his head. He was obviously not someone that could be easily bamboozled. "No, this seems more than that to me. There are some fighting noises not far away from here, and it seems to be extremely heated. From the noises, it doesn't seem to be one or two people. Come on, let's go take a look before we decide!"

Chapter 1721

"Young Master Arthur, I think we should slowly search for precious items. As the saying goes, 'Curiosity kills the cat.' There's nothing worth seeing!" Hendrick piped in on Ella's behalf in an obvious attempt to steer Arthur away from the area.

"Haha! My curiosity and need to see what's happening only grew after what you said, Young Master Hendrick. Everybody, let's go! We'll search for treasures as we fly there. Let's fan out a little; we might obtain some spirited grass on the way by doing so!" Arthur laughed and flew away with a wave of his hand.

The others then flew and spread out. They queued into a straight line and slowly flew forward.

A young man who came with Ella and the others scratched his head as he spoke to Hendrick, "I'm just as curious, Brother Hendrick. The forest seems quite different compared to how it was previously!"

"Sigh... It's different... It's completely different!"

Hendrick did not want to explain too much. He sighed and flew up to catch up with the others.

"Brother, should I sneak past everyone else and disperse those fighting ahead?" said Ella to Hendrick after careful deliberation.

Unexpectedly, Hendrick shook his head with a tightlipped smile. "Sister, that won't help. Arthur is right. Paper can't contain fire. It'll be useless even if you notify them beforehand, and there must be dozens of dead bodies on the ground, too. Could you quickly clean up the dead bodies?"

Ella finally understood that it was a hopeless case after Hendrick reminded her. It was just a matter of time before Arthur and the others discovered what happened.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Sounds of battle were heard up ahead as people died and laid in pools of their own blood.

At that moment, Helena-with over a thousand members of the Cabello family and around three hundred members of the White family-was attacked by a group of people from the Hall of Divine Royals.

Those from the Hall of Divine Royal had no idea that their hall master, Angus and the others were slain. However, as a large number of people had entered this area, there were more than 3,000 of them, and they surrounded Helena and the others.

Of course, there were already around a thousand bodies from both the Cabello family and White family as the battle prolonged. As for the Hall of Divine Royal, they had a large number of members who were in the semi-god level. Hence, there were around 1500 to 1600 bodies on the floor as Helena and the others valiantly fought back.

However, it was obvious that Helena and the others were losing from the overall looks of things.

"Haha... Tom Lent, our hall master and the others would be delighted if they knew that we killed so many members from both the White and Cabello families!" An old man smiled at a middle-aged man with red hair. He had an extremely confident look in his eyes after he waved his sword outward.

“That’s for sure!” Tom smiled coldly. “I do wonder what our hall master is doing right now. Luckily, I’ve already broken through into the First-grade ultimate god-level. Surely, our hall master has broken through, no? I think he might’ve broken through into the Second-grade ultimate god-level, seeing how we’ve been in this area for around twenty days!”

“Haha... He must’ve broken through. As our hall master, he had to be ashamed of himself if he didn’t!” The old man started laughing loudly after he heard this. “By the way, Tom, you’re considered to have made some great contribution, now that you’ve led us to kill these people. I’m sure that they have a generous amount of spirited grass with them, and we’ll obtain lots of spirited grass. Tsk, tsk! I think you can find a place and try to break through into the Second-grade ultimate god-level. After all, your realm is stable enough!”

Chapter 1722

“Haha... It’s still early! Let’s talk more after we kill. These people!” Tom laughed loudly and pointed at Helena as he spoke. “It’d be a waste for that woman to just die like this, though. Hand her over to me. This woman is really difficult!”

“Haha! I do...understand what you mean!” The old man chortled at Tom’s remark. It was a waste for such a beauty to just die like that.

Even he had such thoughts about Helena; it was not just Tom.

Whoosh!

With that, Tom flickered right before Helena as he cut down several people within a few flashes. “Tsk, tsk! Who knew that there would be such beautiful women on the mainland. From your looks, you seem to be in your thirties. Haha... I like mature women like you!”

Helena smiled coldly when she noticed Tom’s fiery expression. “Aren’t you doing this because you have more people? Even if I die today, I’ll pull you to hell with me!”

The grip on her sword, infused with pale gold chi, tightened around her sword as she spoke. She then waved her sword forward.

It just so happened that Arthur and the others had arrived in the forest nearby. They hid inside the woods and looked forward in surprise. “Why are there so many people here?”

“Oh my god... There are so many people here!” Ella inhaled deeply when she saw the bodies on the ground. She initially wanted to sneakily come and warn everyone to scatter, but her brother was right when he said that it was useless even if she notified them. There were too many people, and there were tons of bodies as well. It was only natural that Arthur and the others would find out that these were not people from this area.

“Young Master Arthur, these aren’t people from our Nine Armies. F*ck! This forest is mainly the place where members of our Nine Armies hunt for treasures, and people from the other forces barely step foot here. Apart from this forest being slightly far away, the others know that we need martial enhancement resources to train. It’s shocking to see. These people come into the forest, and they might take a large amount of the martial enhancement resources that are meant for us!” hissed the fatty angrily.

Over the years, the other forces seldom went treasure hunting in this area. Hence, members of the Nine Armies thought of this area as their back-garden to obtain martial enhancement resources, even though this area was not legally theirs. Even if others did come over to this area, only a small number of people would be in the forest.

Of course, they were displeased at the sudden presence of so many individuals in their territory.

Skye’s eyes lit up at the opportunity that they could take their items for free. “These people don’t have a high fighting prowess, and only two of them are in the ultimate god-level. On top of that, they’re only in the First-grade ultimate god-level. Haha! Let them fight! We’ll go out when they’re wrapping up. Although there aren’t many of us here, they can’t compare to us with our combat power. By then, won’t their precious items be ours for the taking?”

Arthur, however, frowned and stretched out his hands to touch his chin before he languidly remarked,

“I’m quite curious as to where these people came from, seeing how many of them are here. There are a few thousand of them here! On top of that, those people outside are wearing the same clothing and are carrying the same token. It looks like they’re members of the same force!”

Skye also inhaled deeply at the remark. “That’s right. It looks like these aren’t some casual trainers. However, we’ve never seen the tokens on these people from both the forces of the Alliance Guard or the forces of the Anti-Alliance Guard!”

Chapter 1723

“These aren’t people from either side?” Fatty frowned, but he then smiled. “Impossible—they’re surely from either side! One side might be members of the Alliance Guard, and the others are members of the Anti-Alliance Guard. It’s expected to have some conflict recently!”

That made sense for Arthur, too. He nodded and said, “That makes sense. After all, there are quite many forces from both the Alliance Guard and the AntiAlliance Guard, and it’s understandable if we can’t recall the looks of their tokens. However, I’m sure that one party is the Alliance Guard while the others are members of the Anti-Alliance Guard. Such a huge conflict under such a situation is as expected.”

“Yes, yes, yes... I think that must be it!” Ella earnestly agreed and instantly nodded like a chick that pecked at rice. She was afraid that Arthur and the others would realize that these people came from the abandoned world.

“Brilliant, Young Master Arthur. I guess that must be it!” Hendrick also wiped his cold sweat, but that seemed to be the case when he thought about it. It was quite difficult for normal people to think about that, and the world everyone abandoned was almost forgotten by others as time slowly passed. Who would suddenly think about that place?

Arthur was rather flustered at Ella and her brother’s praises, and he then said in a pretentious humble way, “It’s all simple, really. You’ll know just by looking at it!”

The moment he finished speaking, he suddenly discovered that there was a beautiful woman among the group of people fighting. This woman was not only beautiful, but she had an astoundingly good figure.

Although she looked slightly old, the hint of maturity caused him to gulp.

If Ella was a fresh, immature girl, that woman caught in a fight was a fascinating, mature woman. Moreover, that woman had a haughty expression on her, and such a woman could fascinate every man effectively.

F*ck! That woman doesn't seem to be able to fight against that man, and they're being attacked, too. If we wait much longer, she might get killed!' Arthur thought to himself and estimated everything as he gazed at Helena, who was some distance away. "If... If not many people are left from both parties or when the woman seems to be in danger, wouldn't I have the opportunity if I go to rescue her? That's the best time for me to be a hero and rescue the beauty!" Arthur had thought of all sorts of scenarios in his brain.

"Attack!" growled Helena through gritted teeth. Big beads of sweat covered her forehead at that moment. She wanted to lead her people to fight their way out and also wanted to see if they could open a gap and allow some people to escape.

However, she had only broken through for two to three days, and her realm was not stabilized. Alas, she was slightly beneath Tom, who already had the possibility of upgrading to the Second-grade ultimate god-level. Hence, she still failed to grab the opportunity after several rounds of attack.

"Haha... You're so desperate! Do you think you can escape?" Tom laughed loudly and attacked Helena with even powerful attacks. He went close up to Helena, and she was slightly overwhelmed.

Finally, he slammed his palm against Helena's chest with all his strength, and it sent her flying.

Chapter 1724

"Mpfh!" Helena flew backward, and her face turned pale after she vomited blood. Alas, she was no match for Tom in the end; she could not even react when he attacked her up close.

Just as she nearly fell to the ground, two figures rushed toward her nimbly. One of the figures hugged her by the waist and slowly descended to the ground.

The man who held her was a stranger and looked extremely handsome. Unlike the masculine, tough look like Jack's, this man had a slightly feminine type of handsome.

It made her rather flustered as he held her to his form.

As she gazed at the man before her with a light blush, Helena then recalled her situation and urgently warned, "T... Thank you for rescuing me, young master, but there are too many of them, and you can't fight against them. Run, quickly! What's happening here has nothing to do with you!"

"It's... It's alright. Let me help you!" Hendrick sheepishly smiled and scratched his head shyly. It was the first time he saw such a beautiful lady, and it puzzled him just as much when he felt a pang at his chest when he saw her wounded. It was then that he rushed forward and caught her.

Arthur, who was a second or two slower, was so angry that his face turned pale. He was elated when Helena was sent flying, thinking his chance had come. That was why he rushed out without hesitation.

However, he never expected Hendrick to act faster than him and was a step ahead of him.

Still, Arthur was no fool, despite his displeasure. He quickly took out a healing pill and passed it to Helena. "Young lady, I have pills that'll heal your wounds. You can try one of them, they'll help you a lot!"

"Thank you! Thank you!" Helena had never seen those two men, but their kindness moved her to be very thankful. After she took the pill and swallowed it, she smiled at Arthur.

Helena's smile completely won Arthur over. The way she smiled made her all the more charming.

Hendrick, who was by their side, regretted his action. He was so smitten when he held her against him, catching a whiff of her scent, that he forgot to take out a healing pill for Helena. That gave Arthur the opening, and Hendrick wanted to punch himself.

Arthur smiled indifferently and said confidently, "Don't worry, pretty lady. With us here, these fellas are no sweat!"

At that moment, Ella and the others also immediately flew over. Around a dozen people stood there and stared down at the men before them in anger.

The sudden appearance of these people caused both sides to be in a standstill.

Tom could not help but frown when he saw the situation. "Which family are you guys from? You guys are awfully presumptuous. Do you guys plan to rush over and help them?"

Obviously, Tom thought that those who came to Helena's aid were members of some random family. From the mainland. After all, members of the Hall of Divine had always lived in the seas, and they did not know many of the forces from the mainland. They naturally felt that those youths who came to Helena's rescue were members of some family from the mainland.

"Haha... Why do you want to care so much?" Arthur smiled coldly and pointed at the other party. He condescendingly spoke, "F*ck off if you understand the situation. Otherwise, the amount of people here isn't enough for us to show how we'll kill!"

"You're too full of yourself, young man!" Tom did not want to flee when he was so close to winning. With a wave of his hand, he yelled, "Attack! These nosy people who rushed into the battle have no regard for their lives. Kill them all!"

Chapter 1725

"Attack!" The people Tom led immediately rushed and attacked to his loud order.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Sounds of people fighting could be heard once again.

“Haha... You guys have a death wish, alright!” Hendrick realized that Arthur wanted to act cool in front of Helena, and he did not want to fall behind. He, who had never liked to steal the limelight, flickered toward Tom. The chi surged from his fist, and he swung his fist violently toward Tom.

“This guy...!” Tom almost vomited blood when he saw Arthur act before he did anything. He also realized that Hendrick wanted to show off before the elegant woman. He would not have acted so boldly otherwise.

Stunned, Tom’s expression faltered as he recalled something. ‘This is bad. His attack is incredibly fast!’

However, he had no time to assess it as his opponent’s fist was right before him. As he tightened his fist, he quickly activated the chi in his body before he swung toward Hendrick’s fist.

Oddly, a strange smile blossomed at Hendrick’s face as though he anticipated it from the start. He slightly slanted his body, and his punch landed squarely against Tom’s chest.

“!...Impossible!” Tom never thought his opponent would shift his direction so quickly in a split second, causing him to miss.

Thomp!

The powerful force caused Tom’s chest to collapse, and he flew backward like a cannonball. He perished mid-air.

'Oh my God... That's impossible!' The worried Helena did not expect that Tom, who was in the First-grade ultimate god-level, would be defeated just like that. She was so astonished that she covered her mouth, and her heart was overwhelmed with astonishment.

He managed to kill a First-grade ultimate god-level: Could the opponent's fighting prowess be in the Third -grade ultimate god-level?

However, she knew almost everyone who entered this area and were in the peak stage of the true god-level, and she did not remember such a young genius.

Could such a prodigy surpass Jack?

Thoom! Thoom! Thoom!

She looked at the others, and she was even more blind. The young man who gave her a healing pill had extremely strong combat power. A single wisp of chi was capable of killing dozens of people, and several hundred were killed in just several strokes. It was terrifying how he assassinated them so quickly.

As for the others, their chi was slightly golden in color. It was the same for all of them.

'What? Are all of them at the ultimate god-level? Some of them are definitely not in the First-stage ultimate god-level; they're at least in the Third-stage ultimate god-level!' After Helena observed for some time, she grew increasingly mortified. She became more and more certain that these people were not the people who came into this area with them. After all, it was impossible for such a young group of people to achieve such a high fighting prowess.

It was then a thought occurred to Helena, and she was so surprised that she did not know what to say." Could they be natives to this place?"
