

Chapter 1726

An old man from the Cabello family flew toward Helena and stood by her side; it was clear he realized something was wrong. "First young mistress, something seems a little off with these people. They're too powerful!"

Helena nodded. "Yes, something does seem a little off. This group of young people is masters in the ultimate god-level, and they're incredibly strong. I suspect that they're natives from this area. Only people from this area are capable of achieving the ultimate god-level at such a young age as they're able to enjoy the abundant resources and everything present in this area!"

The old man was visibly frightened when he heard that. He tried his best to remain calm and said to Helena, "Why are they willing to help us, then? Did they help us because we were bullied by our opponents, seeing how lesser we are than them? Aren't the people inside here against us entering this area?"

Helena was just as mystified. She thought about it for some time before she responded, "I'm not sure what's going on, either. Why would the people from this area be willing to help us?"

The old man took a closer look at Helena, and a weird expression appeared on his face. "I do have a theory, First young mistress. It seems that they're willing to help because of your beautiful looks. After all, these youths can't possibly resist your charm!"

Helena was embarrassed, but she had to admit that could be a reason. Why else would they come to her aid when they did not know any of them? Why did they not help the people from the seas instead?

"Run! Even Elder Lent has died!" Tom's allies panicked as they witnessed his death. They thus hightailed out of the scene.

Unfortunately, the dozen people who came to Helena's side were extremely strong. Together with the crazy fight back from the members of the Cabello family and White family, their opponents were slain-not one was spared.

“Haha... It’s been a long time since I’ve enjoyed killing with such alacrity!” Arthur laughed triumphantly as he killed the last person before he flew back and said to Helena, “Young lady, we still don’t know your name. By the way, I’m Arthur Whittemore, and I’m a member of the Whittemore Fortress from the Nine Armies.”

Hendrick, who descended from his flight, also gazed at Helena expectantly as he wanted to know her name just as much, too.

“I...I’m Helena Cabello!” Helena smiled and gestured to the other party politely before she continued, “Thank you very much for your help; we would’ve died without you. How about this? The trophies will all be yours as our token of thanks. Well, my company and I will be leaving now!”

After she spoke, she waved her hand and said to her companions, not waiting for the other party to respond. “Come on, everyone. Follow me!”

Helena was obviously afraid when she learned that these people were from this area and after she saw how scary they were. She wanted to lead her people. And leave quickly.

After all, these people might not have realized that she and her group had barged in from Cathysia. Who knew how they would act had they found out!

“Ms. Cabello, there’s no need for you to leave in a hurry. I’m Hendrick Lavigne, and I’m also a member of the Nine Armies. I’m from the Lavigne Fortress!” Hendrick panicked when he saw that Helena and the others were leaving, so he hastily introduced himself.

At that moment, a middle-aged man from the Cabello family could not help but mumble, “Nine Armies? What’s that place? Does it mean nine fortresses?”

Chapter 1727

The middle-aged woman beside him chimed in, puzzled, "I've never heard of them. The people who came in with us are from some families or are members of the four ancient clans. We don't even know how members of the Hall of Divine Royal followed us into this area! By the way, how can these people have such high fighting prowess when they're all young? Do you know which families they're from? Are they prodigies from the ancient clans?"

Helena fell mum instantly as the thing she feared the most had happened. While the thought did occur to her, she could not shut everyone up. The only thing she could think of was to quickly lead the others and leave.

However, some of them still started to make assumptions.

"Can the two of you stop talking?" Helena was furious as she glared at these two members of the Cabello family. She inwardly rebuked them for their foolishness and for running their mouths. After all, there was a possibility that what they said would cause everybody their lives. •

"What is this Hall of Divine Royal? The four ancient clans and families? You guys entered this area? Where did you guys come from?" Arthur frowned and had a puzzled look on his face.

Skye had been unhappy about how attentive Arthur was from the start. With a frown, she warily asked, "You guys have no idea about our Nine Armies? How can you guys know nothing about the Nine Armies when you're searching for precious items here? On top of that, you mentioned entering from some other place?"

As she thought about it, a surprised expression appeared on her face as she muttered, "Are... Are you guys from the abandoned world?"

"The abandoned world? What does that mean?" Some of the members of the Cabello family had stunned expressions on their faces.

Arthur and the others completely understood what happened when they studied their stunned expressions. Those standing before them, and those they had killed, were not from this area. The people would have at least heard of the Nine Armies and the abandoned world otherwise.

However, the people in front of them had no idea what they were talking about.

“The four ancient clans? Hall of Divine Royal and some other families?” Arthur frowned and looked at the glamorous Helena in front of him before he asked, “Don’t worry. Although we have a good relationship with the Anti-Alliance Guard, we’re considered members of the Anti-Alliance Guard, and we won’t kill you guys. Still, you’ll have to come clean: how many of you people have entered?”

Helene bit her sexy red lips. She knew they would have been exposed sooner or later even if she said nothing as so many of them had entered the area.

On top of that, these natives did not plan to hurt them after they learned they were outsiders. As she deliberated it all, she then confessed, “A total of three hundred to four hundred thousand of us came in, but we didn’t expect that members of the Hall of Divine Royal and Skies Pavilion would follow us here. There are around two hundred thousand of them, so there are a total of around six hundred thousand people who’ve entered.”

“Six hundred thousand people!” Arthur and the others inhaled deeply at her confession. That, after all, was a large crowd.

“Though, there should be fewer of us now. After all, you guys know that everyone would fight one another to take the precious items after we enter the area. On top of that, the Hall of Divine Royal has a mutually antagonistic relationship with many of our forces. Together with the fact that we encountered some really strong monster beasts, I think people have died by the day,” said Helena carefully when she saw how surprised the young people in the ultimate god-level were. “We’ve been here for more than ten days, and I’m afraid... I’m afraid that lots of us have died. Take a look: didn’t two thousand to three thousand people die here? The people who surrounded and attacked us were members of the Hall of Divine Royal!”

Arthur frowned, and he had a solemn expression.

This was a difficult matter, and he was not in the position to do anything.

He spoke up after keeping quiet for some time, "That's a large number of you, and even though many of you have died, be it more than hundreds and thousands, it's still a lot. If it's only you guys, we'd be able to inform the upper management and separate you among the nine fortresses. It'd be difficult for the others to notice anything as we'll then say that you people will be joining us, but this won't work with so many of you."

Skye then abruptly pulled Arthur to one side after she weighed it in.

When they were some distance away, Skye said to Arthur, "Young Master Arthur, I think we should kill these thousand people. These people barged in and are occupying our resources. After we kill them, we can then take the resources they obtained from this area. Together with the resources from those we've slain, it'll be a generous amount. Think about it: They must've garnered a bountiful amount of items after being here for more than ten days."

Skye's lips twisted into a smile before she added, "After killing them, we can just leave the forest and return to our fortress-no one will know we've come across these people. We can just act as if we were never here and that we've never met any of these people. We don't need to get involved in this troublesome matter."

Arthur might have had considered that before he stumbled across the belle Helena.

Her beauty, however, had latched itself onto him from the get-go, and Arthur's facial expression darkened as he spoke, "What are you talking about? I'm not that sort of a person, and if I wanted to kill them, I wouldn't have rescued them just now. You want me to kill them after rescuing them? Do I look like I'm so free that I'm looking for things to do?"

Skye instantly countered, "We rescued them because we didn't know who they were and their identity.

It makes sense to kill them now that we've learned about their identity, right?"

"Haha... Should we just kill them because you said so? We humans, and we can't just be that flippant. On top of that, we aren't members of the Alliance Guard. What if the fortress masters are displeased that we killed them? We don't have the power to act as we like yet!" Arthur laughed and was somewhat irked.

Skye crossed her arms at her chest and coldly chided, "You're just reluctant to let go of that woman. You're Young Master Arthur, and your grandfather is the First Elder of the Whittemore Fortress. Putting aside the fact that members of the fortress won't know about us killing them, they won't blame you even if they learned about it. On top of that, a total of several hundred thousand people came in, so why should you be afraid of killing several thousand people? Didn't you kill those people from the so-called Hall of Divine Royal just now?"

Arthur had a guilty conscience when Skye spoke openly about his thoughts. However, he still argued with her, "What do you know? Can't you see that @ Hendrick is painfully attentive toward that woman? It's very likely that they won't agree to it!"

Skye was speechless and could not lower her head in silence.

"Let's go! I still think that we need to inform my grandfather and the others about what has happened. Later on, the higher management can discuss what to do next." Arthur glanced at Skye before he walked toward Helena and the rest.

Helena smiled and said to Arthur when she saw him returning, "Young Master Arthur, there are only a small number of your people here. I can ask some of my people to help gather the trophies for you!"

"Alright, thank you for your help!" Arthur nodded, and it was not long until they finished gathering their trophies.

"I think you guys should follow us back to our fortress, seeing as we won't be able to hide this for long. Once we return, we'll decide what to do next after my grandfather and the other fortress master have their discussion." Arthur thought about it and continued to speak to Helena, "Fret not, Ms. Helena. We're not members of the Alliance Guard, so it'll be in your best interest to follow us back to the Nine Armies. Should anyone oppose our decision, I'll speak on your behalf, along with Hendrick and the others!"

"Thank... Thank you guys so much!" Helena's face blossomed with gratitude, though it did not diminish her worry about the whereabouts of her father and the rest. She thought about it before she brought it up to Arthur and the others, "Young Master Arthur, I'd like to suggest something: I have two younger sisters and my father, who have also entered this area. I don't know where they are now, however, and we're also at odds with the people from the seas. It doesn't help that the White family clashes with the Lagorio family and the Skies Pavilion. I'm worried that something will happen to them!"

Helena bit her lustrous red lips before she continued, "Why don't everyone head back to inform your grandfather and the others about our situation? I'll search for my father and my sisters!"

"You have younger sisters?" Arthur and Hendrick became giddy when they heard that Helena had two younger sisters. Since Helena was incredibly attractive, both her sisters would not look bad either. Both men had the urge to see both beauties.

They were not the only ones, though, as the eyes of the other youths also lit up.

"Haha... That's not happening. Who knows if you guys will escape?" Skye, however, grew jealous when she saw how happy Arthur was. She then chided with a mocking expression, "After all, there isn't a fixed solution as to how the upper management will deal with you people after their meeting. What if they decide to hand you over to the Alliance Guard?"

The fatty also thought of this possibility and immediately said, "That's right! What if you guys run. Away later on?"

Helena's expression faltered as she remained silent for a moment before she reasoned, "We're completely unfamiliar with this area, and we dare not run around! On top of that, there are so many of us, and we would be pinpointed by the Alliance Guard sooner or later. The situation might worsen if that's the case!"

Arthur, on the other hand, glared at the fatty fiercely. "What are you talking about? There's no need for them to escape. Even if we can't shelter them, we can't possibly send them to the Alliance Guard, right? I know all too well what sort of people the First Fortress Master and the others are!"

Ella immediately stepped forward and said, "That's right. The First Fortress Master and the others are magnanimous people, so how would they do such despicable things?"

Hendrick thought about it and said to Arthur, "How about this, Young Master Hendrick... Since Ms. Helena plans to search for her sisters and father, Ella and I will accompany her on the journey. With our presence, we'll be able to ensure their safety, even if they run into members of the so-called Hall of Divine Royal. As for you and the others, you can return to inform your grandfather and the others to discuss this matter. We'll return to this area soon."

"I think that'll work. Hendrick and Ella can leave with them. The rest of us can go back first!" agreed Skye instantaneously.

Chapter 1730

Arthur was not dumb. He knew that Hendrick was thinking of an excuse to send them away so he could have more alone time with Helena. He might have thought of impressing Helena's younger sisters, too.

It was only natural that he declined Hendrick's suggestion.

He was only slightly stunned for a short moment before he spoke with an indifferent smile, "It's alright; there's no need to hurry. None of the members from the Alliance Guard entered this area at this moment, so why should we be afraid? They barely come here, and if we need to send a person back to notify the rest that badly, I think Skye can go on her own. We can follow Ms. Helena to search. After all, some monster beasts in this area are quite strong, and it'll be safer if there are more people!"

Helena's expression contorted in apprehension. What the elder of the Cabello family had mentioned to her seemed right, after all. Both Arthur and Hendrick considered things on her behalf. Why else did they act. So proactively?

The most important thing was that these people came to their aid and saved everyone. It was difficult for her to refuse their kindness, so she could only respond to the rest with a smile.

"I'm not going back, either. Why should I go back when none of you are?" Skye naturally refused to return, and she flew up. "Come on. Where should we go next? The sun is setting, and I think we should find a place to rest for the night. We'll continue our search for precious items tomorrow!"

However, the fatty recalled something and blurted, "This is bad! Didn't we forget something? Members of the Bloodshed Clan are in charge of guarding the entrance this year, am I right? Although they're just disciples with low fighting prowess, they'd surely report to their pavilion when they know that so many people have entered the area. By then, wouldn't all the forces of the entire Alliance Guard learn about this?"

Another member of the Whittemore Fortress also said, "That's right! I think we should go back and inform the fortress master about this. If the forces of the Alliance Guard learned about this and sent one or two of their larger pavilions here... Haha... They might just infiltrate and annihilate the entire Nine Armies!"

Everybody inhaled deeply when they heard that.

"That's wrong!" Helena fought back. "We didn't bump into anyone guarding the area when we entered! Also, everybody got separated when we entered, and we had no idea which place was the entrance to this area!"

Only then did Ella smile bitterly and said, "That's because you people are lucky. It so happens that the formation of the entrance hasn't been maintained for a long time and is at the brink of being deposed. That's why everyone got separated when you entered, and it's no surprise that you didn't bump into those two guards! However, they should be chasing after those who entered after you guys left. There were a lot of you, mind you, and I'm sure that some would have appeared on the mountaintop."

“What should we do? They’ll surely notice that a lot of us have entered and are separated if he tracks us extensively. It’ll be troublesome when they report this to the members of his pavilion!” Helena grew incredibly anxious at that. If some from the Cabello family, including her sisters and the others, met those two people who guarded the area, would that not mean a definite death?

“Don’t worry. I happened to be searching for precious items in this area, and I saw that those two had been killed by an extremely strong monster beast. I’ve seen it all, so no need to fear!” Ella added, purposely lying. After all, if members of the Bloodshed Clan knew that those two disciples of theirs were killed by the people who entered this area, they would not rest with the fact.

“Is that so? Oh, that’s great! Thank you so much, Ms. Ella. You guys got us startled for a moment there!”

Chapter 1731

Since everyone had introduced themselves to one another, Helena knew the names of Ella and the rest.

Ella had a petite figure and had a pair of bright beautiful eyes. She gave others a very friendly feeling.

“Haha... Why do you need to thank me? I happened to see what went down, so I have to tell you!” Ella laughed and continued, “Let’s go. Sounds like people are fighting up ahead. Let’s go and have a look if they’re your younger sisters!”

“Alright!” Helena nodded. A faint warmth graced her at the thought of how she had met such a group of young people who were so considerate toward her.

Arthur and the others were utterly enthusiastic during their journey. No matter what Helena and the others asked about the situation of this place, they replied in detail. This, in turn, informed them about the area.

At this moment, Jack and the others had obtained a certain amount of spirited grass throughout the day.. Of course, they encountered quite the impressive crowd from the forces of the seas during the day. They did not let any of those people go and killed all of them.

However, they also saw bodies of some members from the mainland forces during their journey. Some of them should have died during fights with the members of the forces from the seas while some of them died in battles with monster beasts.

Jack and the others also found out that there were fights among the second-class aristocratic families from the mainland. Their bodies were strewn all over the ground.

It was obvious that these people had lost their reasoning upon entering the area and spotted the bountiful precious items. They never thought of working together and were clueless to the presence of aboriginal forces in this area. They also did not know that there was an Alliance Guard in this area that hated them and hated that they entered this area.

“Many have died within eighteen days!” In the evening, Jack and the others found a cave to stay in. Jack was slightly worried. “Everyone got so busy taking precious items upon entering that some of them had no idea that an Alliance Guard had been formed here to pinpoint on us. The future journey is a difficult one, and our strength will be weakened if our men are reduced.”

Nash smiled bitterly. “What else can we do? This is how the world is, and the strong ones get the say. On top of that, many people have never seen third-grade spirited grass on the outside. This area not only has third-grade spirited grass, but there are even fourthgrade ones, too. How can they not take to their heart’s content? How can they not go crazy over it? Look at the elders from the Hall of Divine Royal: They looked forward to Hall Master Matthew’s death once they break through into the ultimate god-level so that they can become the next hall master!”

The smiling Alejandro chimed in with a laugh, “Haha ... Angus Moseley is a joke and thinks that he’s almighty after breaking through into the Second grade ultimate god-level. It never occurred to him to become the hall master of the Hall of Divine Royal – he wants to rule all the forces that entered this area and wants everybody to submit to him!” |

“I think I should continue to try cultivating thirdgrade intermediate pills. Luckily, I have quite a handful of third and fourth-grade pill remedies right now.” In the end, Jack smiled bitterly and took out his pill furnace with the flip of his hand. He then took the ingredients out for cultivating third-grade intermediate pills and started cultivating them.

Chapter 1732

Of course, the cultivation of third-grade intermediate pills was far more difficult compared to that of third-grade elementary pills.

Jack had attempted numerous times during the previous life, so he knew the taste of failure.

As he cultivated the pills throughout the night, his degree of proficiency had improved compared to what he had yesterday. He nearly succeeded during his first attempt and only failed when he formed the pill. Jack was not the only one disappointed; everyone else felt somewhat of a pity as well.

After all, the ingredients wasted at every failure were enough to make everyone dejected.

“That’s fine! We’re seeing quite a few improvements here, so don’t overexert yourself. You’re at a tender stage, yet you’ve improved greatly!” Selena, who sat at the side, felt her heart tugged when she saw Jack’s forehead covered with a sheen layer of sweat. She then tried to assure Jack.

“Don’t worry-I can do it. After all, my fighting prowess has improved, and my mental strength has skyrocketed! The speed of the third-grade elementary pill does nothing to my current fighting prowess, since it gives nothing but a slow push to my prowess. On the contrary, if I’m capable of cultivating a third-grade intermediate pill, I’d experience a far better outcome!” Jack then gazed at Selena, who stood at the side. He knew that if he continued cultivating third-grade elementary pills, his fighting prowess would only raise another level as he was already in the Fourth-grade ultimate god-level.

While that was enough to raise the envy of others, he was not satisfied.

He understood well that the future held potential threats. Even though he had achieved the Fourth-grade ultimate god-level, meeting those in the Seventh-grade ultimate god-level would not faze him.

All that, yet he still felt it was not enough.

After his realm stabilized, his fighting prowess would increase two levels seamlessly if he could consume third-grade intermediate pills in the future. If that happened, he would be in the Sixth-grade ultimate god-level, and it would be a piece of cake to kill those in the Seventh-grade or Eighth-grade ultimate godlevel.

He would not quiver if he was to face those in the Ninth-grade'ultimate god-level after that.

On top of that, Jack had decided to help Selena lift her spell. He had to increase his level of cultivation pills hastily for that, and he could only complete his promise if the level of his pill cultivation increased continuously.

After he assured them, Jack took another set of ingredients out with the flip of his hands and repeated what he did. It was another round of cultivation.

It had to be said that Jack's talents in cultivating pills would cause the First Elder of the Cabello family, Kevin Cabello, to admire him greatly. Even though he failed every time he cultivated pills, they noticed that he began to improve in every attempt of pill cultivation. It was either in his grasp of fire, or in terms of the purification of the pill solution.

"I'm close! I'm close!" The second pill was also a failure, but a glimmer of excitement twinkled in Jack's eyes. "I'll definitely succeed if I pay more attention next time!"

"Really? Haha...! Alright! We were nervous for you as we watched you, but I think it'll work now, and you'll surely get it done!" Daniella's lips curved into a grin as she sat a distance away. She had been looking at Jack all this time and observed him as he cultivated pills. It brought her great joy as she did.

“Splendid! Who would’ve thought that you’d be able to get it in such a short time!”

Chapter 1733

Nash nodded in satisfaction before he said to Jack caringly, “I think you should take a rest for the rest of the night and continue studying the cultivation tomorrow. I know you’ll succeed tomorrow night.”

“Father, you don’t have to worry about me. You guys can go ahead and rest for now, so that everyone can increase their fighting prowess. I just need to rest for half an hour to recuperate before thinking about what went wrong in my cultivation. I know I’ll succeed next time. I refuse to think that I can’t cultivate one pill tonight!” Jack had finally seen a glint of hope and felt rather pleased about cultivating pills that night. How could he choose to rest the night?

After all, cultivating pills relied on a person’s feelings. If they were present, cultivation would become increasingly smooth with a great increase of chance.

None among them continued to persuade Jack when they saw how persistent he was. Thus, everyone else began to train silently nearby.

After resting for some time, Jack took out the third set of ingredients. He then exhaled heavily before he started preheating his pill furnace and continued cultivating the pill.

Time slowly passed, and about an hour later, Jack smiled. He slowly raised his right hand as a perfectly rounded pill with a faint scent that a pill usually had flew upward, floating before him.

“Haha... I did it! I finally did it! The color of this pill suggests that it’s a top-grade pill. Not bad! Not bad!” Jack looked at the pill before him, and excitement was written all over his face. He was finally a step closer to cultivating fourth-grade pills.

As he was capable of cultivating third-grade intermediate pills, Nash and the others would be able to consume third-grade intermediate pills in the future. That greatly benefited everyone in increasing their fighting prowess speedily.

It could be said that Jack's success in becoming a third-grade intermediate alchemist and the success of cultivating this pill were incredibly important.

"Incredible! This is incredible! You truly are adept in this, Young Master Jack. You've done it at last!" Alejandro almost danced in excitement. "You truly are a genius in the pill cultivation world. No, you must be the cream of the crop! I've never seen someone with such speed of improvement!"

"Haha... This is great! As long as you're able to succeed the first time, you'll be able to succeed the second time. After this, Young Master Jack only needs to search for ingredients needed to cultivate this certain pill and cultivate continuously to increase the odds of succeeding. You'll only be able to try third-grade premium pills when your probability of success has increased. In the future, you might even be able to try fourth-grade pills and become a fourthgrade alchemist!" Kenneth, Weston, and the others were honestly happy for Jack. What stopped the White family from rising up with such a great alchemist like Jack in their ranks?

It looked like the White family would have a special position in this area in the future.

Meanwhile, the middle-aged man who sat at the corner shook a little as a wave of aura was released before he quickly retracted it.

Everyone was so into Jack and his success that none of them noticed the aura ripple.

Jack, however, felt the wave of aura as he turned his head and beamed, "What a great night this is, with two happy occasions. The Third Elder has broken through!"

Chapter 1734

At Jack's words, Lancelot stood up slowly with a satisfied smile on his face.

"Third Elder, have you truly broken through?" Nash was just as elated when he heard that Lancelot had broken through. He looked at him anticipatngly and wanted to double-confirm if it was true.

Lancelot nodded as he met their expectant-filled eyes. "It wasn't easy, seeing as I've failed before, but I've finally succeeded this time. Had I gotten it down the first time, I'd be in the Third-grade ultimate godlevel like you guys right now!"

"You should be happy! The fighting prowess of Firstgrade ultimate god-level is good enough! You have no idea how many people want so badly to break through into the ultimate god-level. More importantly, you'll be able to live for two hundred years once you've broken through into the ultimate god-level!" an old man from the Cabello family chimed in with envy. "Sigh... Look at me. I'm only in the elementary level of the true god-level at this age. I don't know if I'll ever break through to the ultimate god-level in this lifetime!"

"I'm sure you'll get there, seeing as training in this area will grant a quicker outcome. The chi here is much richer, after all! I'm not exiting this place no matter what. No wonder all the so-called masters who came here disappeared after entering this place and only left a legend! Who'd want to leave such a place great for training?" said Alejandro giddily. The feeling of becoming stronger took him, and it filled him with anticipation.

"Haha... You're right. Breaking through into the higher realm is the most crucial action, and it'd be much easier when I break through into the Secondgrade ultimate god level in the future." With balledup fists, Lancelot grew determined when he felt the strength in his body that had increased several times.

"Do you crave to go out and test out your current combat power? Do you want to try it out with two monster beasts?" goaded Kenneth cheekily and happily at Lancelot. "Still, you need to wait for a bit. It looks like there's still one to two hours away from daybreak. We'll leave the monster beasts to you when the opportunity arises, once the sun rises."

"I think I should sit down and start getting comfortable with my power for now. I should try and stabilize my fighting prowess first before anything else!" Lancelot sat down with his legs folded and started training.

Jack also carefully put away the pill he cultivated. It was a good pill, but he had just broken through into the fourth-grade ultimate god-level several days ago, and he could not use this pill to continue his breakthrough. His realm had not completely stabilized, and it was not a good thing to use the pill to increase his fighting prowess. Even if his fighting prowess increased by then, his realm would not be steady, and it was not going to work for a long period.

The sky finally lit up about two hours later, and the group of people walked out.

The people guarding outside were also delighted when they learned about the achievements of Jack and the others.

Jack and his company did not expect to encounter about a dozen youths just several minutes after they started their journey, however. These young people had the same clothes and the same token at their abdomen. They were obviously members of the same force.

“This is weird. I have no idea which force the dozen people we met are from. Haha... They tried to snatch the spirited grass from me when they don’t have a high fighting prowess? Isn’t that a death wish?” One of the young men had a frown on his face. “On top of that, there are noises of people fighting all around the place. Why do I feel that something is wrong?”

A fatty smirked and said to the others, “Just ignore them. Come! Shall we go to the other side of the forest to take a look at those two guarding the entrance?”

Another young woman said, “What’s there to be seen? That place is so far away, and it’ll take us several days even if we fly at a normal speed to that place. All of that just to pay those two disappointing people a visit? If they didn’t make any mistakes, they wouldn’t be sent here to guard the entrance!”

Chapter 1735

“Haha... The problem isn’t that they made mistakes; everyone is susceptible to making them. They can only blame themselves for their stupidity!” remarked a disciple with a smile. “It was our turn, the Bloodshed Clan, to send our members to guard this area. They were selecting who among us would stand guard at the start of the year. Who would’ve expected those two to hit the muzzle of the gun!”

The smile on this young man's face froze, however, the moment he finished, all because he saw a group of more than a thousand people in front of them.

Jack and the others stopped in their tracks, equally surprised to notice the other party.

"Why are there so many people here?" The fatty opposite them frowned as he studied Jack and his company. Baffled, the fatty blurted, "That's not right. We've never seen the tokens on them before!"

One of the female disciples then thought of something and exclaimed, "This isn't right... These people aren't from this area. They might be from the abandoned place!"

Hiss! The disciples from the Bloodshed Clan inhaled deeply and wondered if they had heard wrongly.

"Young... Young Master Jack, we're done for. It looks like they're from this area!" Alerted, Alejandro looked at Jack grimly.

Kenneth, on the other hand, said, "Why should we be afraid? There are only around a dozen of them while we're a lot more in number!"

"If they have a high fighting prowess, it won't matter if there are many of us. On top of that, we only have less than two thousand people!" Weston frowned as he continued, "The most crucial point is that we don't know where these people are from. Are they also members of the Nine Armies like Ella Lavinge?"

Jack eyed the other party straight ahead before he noted, "These people should be members of the Bloodshed Clan. Look at their tokens: they're the same as those two people we killed before. The tokens are maroon-colored and have the wording 'blood' carved onto them."

Jack paused momentarily before he added, “ However, from the looks of their clothing and age, they should be disciples of the Bloodshed Clan, and they might not have a high fighting prowess!”

Words were exchanged softly among one another in fear of letting the opposing group hear their conversation.

The female disciple pointed her sword at Jack and his company as she interrogated, “Young man, how did you guys enter this area? Where are the two disciples from our pavilion who guarded the entrance?”

The fatty thought about it and immediately said, “ Senior Sister Rowan Xander, we noticed something was off with the forest as there were sounds of battle. It looks like the number of people who entered is much more than this.”

Rowan responded, “It’ll be troublesome if that’s the case. There may be more where these came from. They must’ve surrounded and attacked those two junior disciples or escaped from them. I think we should just kill these people and leave several people to guard the external area of the forest to prevent them from escaping. The others should immediately return to inform the elders of our pavilion about what ‘s going on!”

Chapter 1736

“Stop all of them!” Jack was shocked by what Rowan said. He immediately signaled for everybody to take action with the wave of his hand.

Whoosh whoosh whoosh!

Following the command from Jack, the others immediately flew outward to surround the dozens of disciples of the Bloodshed Clan, including Rowan.

Rowan and the others were slightly surprised when they saw this. “This is great. It looks like you people have just entered from outside recently. If not, all of you would have left this forest. Haha... How dare you people stop us when only several of you have broken through into the first-stage ultimate god-level?”

Are you guys being whimsical?"

Jack smiled coldly. "You people are just some of the disciples from the Bloodshed Clan. How would you know if we aren't your opponent if you don't give it a try? On top of that, it would be troublesome if we allow your people to go back and inform the others to send true masters here!"

The fatty immediately tightened his fists and Chi surged over them. He was actually in the third-stage ultimate god-level. He smiled coldly and said, "Young man, do you see this? A third-stage ultimate god-level fighting prowess. How long do you think you people will be able to hold out against us? I'm in the third-stage ultimate god-level while my senior Sister Rowan is in the sixth-stage ultimate god-level. Tsk tsk... Isn't that enough to kill you guys?"

Rowan also started smiling coldly. "However, I have to admit it, these people are really quite smart. If they did not stop us, they were afraid that the elders or patronums of our pavilion would come over. If they were able to kill us, they would surely be safe for a certain amount of time, am I right? Unfortunately, aren't they looking down at us, the disciples? We aren't some informal disciples, we are formal disciples of the Bloodshed Clan!"

Another disciple in the second-grade ultimate godlevel also released his aura. He tightened his fists and said, "Formal disciples are only for those who are in the ultimate god-level. As for the informal disciples, they are at the true god level. As for those in the semigod level. Haha... They can only become normal disciples!"

It was obvious that these people had a high above expression on their faces after they spoke of their position. They were considered rare geniuses in their pavilion. Although they were not alike the true geniuses, disciples like Rowan would still attract lots of disciples fawning over her when they walked into the pavilion.

"This is troublesome. There's nothing to be afraid of if they are in the first-stage or second-stage ultimate god-level. Who knew that this young girl is already in the sixth-stage ultimate god-level!" Alejandro's face slightly darkened when he saw the true strength of these people in front of them. It looked like the strongest people among the other party was the female disciple known as Rowan.

The others should be in the first-stage or secondstage ultimate god-level. Even if they were in the third-stage or fourth-stage ultimate god-level, they had nothing to be afraid of based on their fighting! Prowess and Jack's combat power.

However, he knew that Jack was also in the thirdstage ultimate god-level. Would he be able to defeat the young girl in the sixth-stage ultimate god-level?

"We've just entered this area recently but you people cannot belittle us. If you bumped into the others who have just entered like us, they might be in trouble. However, you guys are the ones in trouble now that you've met us!" Jack tightened his fists without much care. With a thought, a wave of extremely hidden aura was slowly released and a slightly goldish Chi surged over his fists.

"A fighting prowess of the fourth-stage ultimate god -level, how's that possible? How did his fighting prowess improve so quickly?" Rowan was immediately surprised when she witness Jack's fighting prowess. She did not expect people who have just entered the area recently to have such fighting prowess.

Chapter 1737

"No way, he's already in the fourth-grade ultimate god-level?" Alejandro and Nash glanced at each other as they were dumbfounded. They have always thought that Jack was still in the third-grade ultimate god level, like them. Unexpectedly, this guy had already achieved the fourth-grade ultimate godlevel and this was slightly beyond their expectations.

After observing and discovering that Jack was really in the fourth-grade ultimate god-level, Alejandro said, "There might be hopes of killing the opponent if he's in the third-grade ultimate god-level, right? After all, Jack has a high combat power. In that case, we can still help Jack after we've killed the others. This time, it looks like we will be able to win!"

"Yes, that's great news. Jack must have broken through three levels in one go previously but he didn't tell us. Now, my heart is at ease!" Nash was also speechless as he spoke. Jack even deceived him and hid this from him!

“Haha... A fighting prowess of fourth-grade ultimate god-level plans to kill the Bloodshed Clan’s disciple like us who are in the sixth-grade ultimate god-level? Are you daydreaming?” The fatty on the opposite side laughed loudly when he heard this. “Let’s put us, the formal disciples from the pavilion aside, your fighting prowess must have piled up quickly after you people entered this area. Will such fighting prowess be stable? On top of that, you even plan to kill Senior Sister Rowan, who’s two levels higher? Aren’t you dreaming?”

“That’s right. These people are too naïve. They must be some casual trainers who have never experienced the world!” Another male disciple also said with a sneer.

“Stop talking nonsense with them. Leave this young man for me to deal with and you guys can kill the others for me! Let’s make it a quick battle, understand?” Rowan stared at Jack with a cold expression on her face. “It looks like you guys have been here for some time, maybe days and even months. Humph! However, no matter how talented you are, I will definitely kill all of you today. Why can t you guys just stay in the abandoned world obediently? Why do you guys have to break into a place where you shouldn’t have come into such as this Sacred Place. That is just suicidal!”

Jack smiled coldly and also stared at her. After breaking through into the fourth-grade ultimate god - level, it was the first time he has met somebody with a higher fighting prowess than him. He could take this opportunity to try the other party’s strength and judge how his combat power was. He wanted to know if he could defeat them easily or if he had to work hard to do so.

However, no matter what it was, Jack was still slightly confident about defeating the sixth-grade ultimate god-level female disciple who was standing in front of him.

“You guys stole the Chi and extract it from our area to this area so that this area becomes rich in Chi for you people to train easily. Now, you still dare to call this area the sacred grounds? You guys are really selfish!” Jack appeared in front of the other party in a flash and punched the female disciple angrily.

“You do know quite a lot of things but you people are intruders. We were originally living a great life here. Humph! Since you guys aren’t convinced, let’s fight, and shall the fittest survive!” The female disciple did not give in. After she finished speaking, the Chi on her fists surged outward and she directly met Jack’s punch.

Chapter 1738

Boom!

Both fists met each other and a loud bang could be heard. A huge energy fluctuation also radiated from where the two fists met.

“Im-impossible!” Rowan felt that something was wrong the moment her fist met with Jacks. The power coming from Jack’s hand was terrifying and it was so powerful to the point where she was unable to resist it.

She really could not believe that the strength of a person in the fourth-stage ultimate god-level was much stronger than her, who was in the sixth-stage ultimate god-level.

Bang!

The moment she finished speaking, Rowan could not hold on anymore. She was sent flying backward and flew almost 100 feet away before she could barely stabilize herself. She could not help but taste a sweet tang in her throat and a mouthful of blood poured out. Her face turned extremely pale.

“This is bad, Senior Sister Rowan. Several of them are in the third-grade ultimate god-level!” At this time, her other junior brothers and sisters also started to yell loudly. They originally thought that it would be quite easy to kill these intruders. However, they discovered after the first contact that there were not only first-grade ultimate god-level masters among them, there were several who were in the third-grade ultimate god-level.

“Haha, you’ve just learned about this now? It’s too late!” Alejandro laughed and directly slammed a guy in the first-stage ultimate god-level into the ground with a punch. Specks of dust flew up from the ground and his opponent was seriously injured.

“This guy is too strong but he can have a taste of my martial skills! His strength is very strong, but the richness of Chi in his body and his martial skills might not be as strong as mine!” Rowan had an uncertain look in her eyes. They were completely surrounded and her juniors could not hold on for long. However, she did not care much about their lives. All she had to do right then was to kill the guy in front of her. She had hopes of winning as long as she managed to kill Jack.

Rowan took a sword out with a flip of her hand as she thought about it and directly waved it forward.

Jack saw that the other party had started to use martial skills and he did not dare to react carelessly. With the flip of his palm, he took his sword out and injected Chi into it before slashing forward.

Whoosh whoosh!

Two terrible slashes met one another moments later. Then, a horrendous booming sound could be heard.

Boom!

What Rowan did not expect was that her attack only managed to resist Jack’s attack for a very short amount of time before the attack was completely defeated. Soon, Jack’s attack continued to travel forward and went straight at her. The attack arrived in front of her in a flash.

“This... This is impossible. How am I unable to defeat someone who just recently came in from the abandoned world?” Rowan had a disbelief expression on her face. The attack landed directly on her, splitting her body into two.

“Selena, look! Jack is really strong!” Daniella and Selena did not join the battle. After all, it was enough that Jack, Nash, and others went up. Instead, they stood outside and watched as the battle unfolded.

“Yes. I really didn’t expect this battle to end so quickly. He still has several powerful martial skills that he hasn't used!" Selena also smiled slightly and nodded.

Chapter 1739-1742

Chapter 1739

It did not take long for the battle to end and the dozen or so disciples from the Bloodshed Clan were killed on the spot.

"It looks like almost all the formal disciples of the Bloodshed Clan are at the ultimate god-level. Fortunately, they don't have a high fighting prowess, and there aren't many of them. It would be troublesome if there were several people with a high fighting prowess or if they had more people!" Kenneth wiped the cold sweat from his forehead and looked at the corpses lying on the ground.

Jack also flew down and picked up Rowan's ring before he said, "I wonder if there are any treasures in this disciple's ring!"

After observing for a while, he actually found a very nice third-grade intermediate martial skill, Twin Dragons Fist!"

"This is great! I'm taking this martial skill!" Jack placed it away after looking at it for a while. "You guys should take a look at the martial rings of the other disciples and see if there is anything suitable for you. By the way, you should take a look and see if there is any spirited grass suitable for alchemy!"

"Alright! If there are some good martial skills, it can help increase our combat power!" Lancelot and the others flew down happily.

After some time, everyone had divided the things that once belonged to these disciples among themselves. However, there were not many materials to be divided. There were however a couple of secondgrade premium martial skills and two third-grade elementary martial skills that were quite good.

“The corpses of these disciples from the Bloodshed Clan would be eaten by the monster beasts soon. If we leave this place quickly, people would not know that we were the ones who killed them.” Nash could not help but speak up after thinking about it.

Jack, on the other hand, started frowning. “Why did a dozen disciples from the Bloodshed Clan suddenly come here? Were they here to hunt for treasures? I wonder if there are other disciples of the Bloodshed: Clan who are headed here. It will be troublesome if there are more of them and if the other disciples have a higher fighting prowess!”

However, Alejandro said confidently, “Hey, what’s so scary about that? The woman just now was in the sixth-grade ultimate god-level and I saw how relaxed you were when you dealt with her. This means that you might be capable of killing disciples in the seventh-grade ultimate god-level. Hence, I’m sure you have the power to fight someone in the eighthstage ultimate god-level. However, such fighters must be patronums or people with a higher ranking in the Bloodshed Clan, am I right?”

Kenneth also said with a smile on his face, “Yes, as long as the people who come here aren’t patronum or elders, there’s nothing to be afraid of about these formal disciples. Unless a large group of them came over. Then, there’s nothing we can do. As for those so -called normal disciples and informal disciples, they would be a piece of cake for us.”

“We are still safe for now but I’m only afraid that the members of the Bloodshed Clan or other powerful members of the Alliance Guard find out about us. Besides, we have not met Helena and the others. We also do not know how the other members of the White family and Cabello family are doing now. Jack smiled bitterly and continued speaking emotionally.” Sigh... I hope that many of the members of the White family and the Cabello family managed to survive!”

“Yes, I am also quite worried about Helena!” Alejandro sighed as he felt helpless.

“This is great! Young Master Jack! It’s Young Master Jack and the others!” At this moment, a voice could be heard and a group of people flew over from another direction.

Jack was overjoyed when he heard this and immediately looked over. It turned out to be Liah, Chad, Mason, and the others. There were actually more than 1000 members of the White family with them. Apart from that, William, Yoseph, and the others were also traveling with them.

“This is great as we’ve met quite several familiar faces. There are more than a thousand people here! Jack was relieved to see these familiar faces.

Chapter 1740

“This is great! It’s really Jack and the others!” Ethan and the others were extremely excited when they flew over.

“This is awesome! It’s good that nothing happened to you guys!” Jack looked at the familiar faces in front of him and said with equal excitement.

“Yes. We’ve already broken through into the final stage of the true god level. This place is awesome as not only are there third-stage spirited grass, there’s also fourth-stage spirited grass. We’ve improved quite a lot in less than twenty days of entering this area!” Sam said with a smile on his face. All of them looked as if they were full of beans.

“Is that so? Great! I can see that everybody has improved quite a lot. It’s quite good that Abner and Ethan have already achieved the intermediate stage of the true god level!” Jack nodded in satisfaction. Their fighting prowess had obviously improved greatly compared to previously. If they continued training in this area, they would have the opportunity to break through into the ultimate god-level soon.

“Everybody has made some improvement but we’ve also seen lots of deaths during our journey. Several days ago, we discovered the bodies of some members of the White family. It looks like they were killed by the members of the Lagorio family and Hall of Divine Royal.” Nikini soon thought of something and said to everybody with a frown on her face.

“Humph! I will definitely kill those people from the Hall of Divine Royal and Skies Pavilion!” Jack humphed coldly and tightened his fist as he said.

“Who are these people?” Ethan soon discovered the bodies on the floor and he was slightly puzzled. He obviously realized that this was not one of the forces who entered the area from looking at the clothing on the disciples.

“Sigh... It’s a long story. Come on, let’s talk about it on our way!” Jack sighed and continued to lead the group toward the place where noises of people fighting could be heard.

In the woods, Helena saw that a large number of members from the Cabello family and White family have joined her group, expanding the entire team of people.

However, although they have killed quite a number of people from the Hall of Divine Royal, she still did not meet her younger sisters and father.

The Second Elder of the Cabello family seemed to have detected the sadness on Helena’s face. He smiled helplessly and said to Helena. “First Mistress, there’s nothing to be worried about. The family master and the others have quite a high fighting prowess and if they were lucky enough to obtain a martial art technique when they entered the area, they would have achieved the first-stage ultimate god -level by now. Although there are lots of strong monster beasts in this area, nothing will happen as long as the family master and the others stay alert!”

“Yes, Miss Helena. You can relax as I’m sure that nothing will happen!” Angus also followed beside them with a smile on his face. He was extremely happy as he was able to occasionally look at the beauty in front of him.

As for Skye, she had a cold expression on her face all this while and she had been angry the entire way. She wanted to find an opportunity so badly to kill Helena so that this alluring woman would not steal the soul of the person she liked.

In the past, she was still confident when Angus had thoughts toward Ella. After all, although Ella was a pretty woman, she was also quite beautiful. At least her boobs were bigger than Ella’s.

However, she had no confidence when facing Helena's beauty. Not only was she not as beautiful as Helena, even her figure was also incomparable to Helena. No matter how she compared herself with Helena, she would still fail behind.

Chapter 1741

Hendrick, who was on the other side, would also look over from time to time. Sometimes, he had a goofy smile on his face and it was obvious that he had been completely submerged in love.

"Haha... Are you sure there will be nothing wrong?" Unexpectedly, several figures flew out from the forest in front of them and blocked their way at this moment.

In front of them, there were actually more than 20 disciples of the Bloodshed Clan.

"This is bad. Why did the disciples of the Blood... Bloodshed Clan come here?" Angus' face darkened and secretly exclaimed that this was bad when he saw that these were members of the Bloodshed Clan.

"Haha... This is weird. Our Bloodshed Clan is not very far from here and this is also a treasure hunting place, why can't we be here?" A man in white clothes from the Bloodshed Clan hugged his arms folded in front of his chest and had a lofty appearance on his face. "Do you really think that this is a territory that belonged to the Nine Armies and people from other forces cannot come here to hunt for treasures?"

Angus smiled awkwardly. "This...this is not what I meant! You guys can definitely come here to hunt for treasure but didn't you guys used to hunt for treasures elsewhere previously? Why...why did you think about coming here this time? I just felt that this is a little unexpected!"

"Haha... This is because one of our elders who's an alchemist gave us a task that requires two or three materials that happen to be available in this forest. Hence, we came over to complete the task!" The man in white clothes laughed and said. "By the way, there should be quite a number of disciples who want to complete this task. Not only the informal disciples, but our formal disciples have also begun to rush over!

“Is...is that so?” Angus swallowed his saliva and said. “We, the members of the Nine Armies, have always been at peace with your Bloodshed Clan. I hope that you can find the spirited grass you want. We shall make a move first!”

After he finished speaking, Angus gestured to the other party politely with his hand and planned to leave with his people.

However, the white-clothed man sneered and said, “Yes, we from the Bloodshed Clan and you guys from the Nine Armies rarely have any disputes. As long as you don’t provoke us, we naturally would not provoke you people!”

Having said that, he paused and said with a playful expression on his face, “However, I am curious about something. Do you guys always bring so many people with you when you come out to hunt for treasures? Apart from that, you guys even brought people from the abandoned world!”

The facial expression of Angus, Hendrick, and others suddenly darkened.

Hendrick immediately retorted, “What abandoned world? This brother, you cannot speak as you like about this. We have no idea what you are talking about!”

“Haha... You don’t know what we are talking about Although the legend of the abandoned world has become a legend and who knows how many years have passed since then, I don’t believe you have not heard of it?” The man in white clothes chuckled before he said. “Since you guys said that you don’t know about this, then we can take action!”

Angus gritted his teeth and he knew clearly in his heart that the man wearing white clothes in front of him was considered quite famous among the formal disciples of the Bloodshed Clan. He was considered a genius among geniuses and he had already achieved the seventh-grade ultimate god-level.

Together with those people in the third-stage or fourth-stage ultimate god-level behind him. There were more than two dozen Bloodshed clan disciples and they were capable of killing the 2000 to 3000 of them.

Certainly, some might survive if they were lucky under the circumstances where everybody scattered and fled. However, it was certain that not many of them would be left.

Chapter 1742

“Hold on, why do you say that they are the people who came in from outside? Do you have any evidence?” Ella quickly thought about something and said. “All of these are people from the Nine Armies. Don’t talk nonsense if you have no basis and discriminate against us!”

“Haha... You’re still pretending?” The man in white clothing started laughing. “We have met a group of people previously and they have the same tokens around their waists. They were members of the Cabello family which we secretly heard from the chat of those fools. However, those hundreds of people were already killed by us!”

“You people...” Helena was extremely angry when she heard this. She did not expect hundreds of members of her Cabello family to be killed by these guys. It caused her to feel a wave of pain in her heart.

“What’s the matter? The beautiful woman has grown angry? Tsk tsk... It looks like these are members of your Cabello family and those who are with you might be your family members!” The man in white clothes continued speaking to Helena when he saw how angry she was. “What’s wrong? By the looks of how angry you are, do you want to avenge your Cabello family? Come on! Haha!”

“You don’t say, Brother Lucian. This woman is really good-looking. Tsk tsk... I never expected that there would be such a beautiful woman from the abandoned world.” Another man licked his lips while looking at Helena with fiery eyes. He wanted to take off Helena’s clothes immediately.

“Haha... She’s beautiful but unfortunately, she’s our enemy. These people have to be killed!” Lucian smiled and said to Angus. “You people from the Nine Armies should leave immediately and I might consider sparing your life. If you don't, today will also be the date of your death!" Angus and Hendrick glanced at each other. They had darkened expressions on their faces and were obviously hesitant.

They knew clearly in their hearts that if they were to make a move, they were not opponents of these people. It did not matter how much they wanted to. Help Helena.

"Young Master Angus, let's leave. We should not get into any trouble and we should not worry about anything else. These people broke into this area by themselves and it has nothing to do with us." Skye was extremely frightened that she hurriedly stepped forward and held Angus' hands while persuading him.

Helena bit her sexy red lips before speaking to Angus and Hendrick. "Young Master Angus and Young Master Hendrick, you guys should leave. Thank you for taking care of us along the way but Skye is right, this has nothing to do with you. I also do not want to involve you or let any of you die because of our affairs!"

After thinking for a while, Ella spoke again, "No way! We cannot believe them. What if they are lying to us? What if they turn around and come for us after they kill Helena? What if the other party just wants to separate our strength and defeat us individually?"

"Don't worry. I, Lucian, will keep my promise. Since I have said that I will let you people leave, I will naturally do so." Lucian raised his hand. "I can swear by my life. Otherwise, I will die a terrible death!" Lucian knew in his heart that even although Angus and the others did not have high fighting prowess, there were more than a dozen of their people. There were even two in the fourth-stage ultimate god-level.

He was not afraid of these people and it was not difficult to kill these people.

However, once the fight has started, several of his juniors might die if these people from the Nine Armies were also present. There were several of his juniors who were close to him and he did not want them to die.No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1743-1746

Chapter 1743

Besides, Angus was the grandson of an elder of the Whittemore Fortress while Hendrick was the son of another elder from another village. If these two died, they were afraid that the masters of the Nine Armies would be unhappy.

After all, their Bloodshed Clan was powerful, but they were not much stronger compared to the Nine Armies.

Therefore, it would be much better if they did not directly cause a rigid situation.

“Have you heard that? Young Master Angus, he has even sworn!” Skye was delighted when she heard this. At least she had a chance to survive. As for Helena, she had been unhappy about Helena for a long time. It was best if she died.

“Young Master Angus, you guys should leave!” Helena smiled bitterly. She was able to realize that -the man in white clothes was not a simpleton and must be particularly powerful. Otherwise, Angus, Hendrick, and others would not have such a darkened expression on their faces.

Although there were only around 20 people from the Bloodshed Clan, all of these disciples were masters from the Bloodshed Clan.

“All right!” Angus could only nod helplessly after staying quiet for some time. He then took a step forward and said to Helena, “There are so many of you and I hope you guys will be able to escape later!”

Even though Angus felt funny when he said those words, only Helena and the Second Elder of the Cabello family were in the first-grade ultimate godlevel. The others were only in the true god-level or semi-god level. Without the help of these people of the Nine Armies, it was extremely difficult for these people to escape.

Once they left, Helena and others would be dead by then.

Hendrick walked over after thinking for a while and -spoke softly to Helena, "Miss Helena, don't worry. We will quickly inform the members of the Nine Armies after we return. I will tell my father about this and maybe we will be able to rescue the others in this forest by dispatching all the members of the Nine Armies by then!"

Helena felt grateful when she heard what Hendrick said and nodded. "Thank you, thank you for doing this! You guys should leave now in case the other party regrets it later!"

"Alright, take care!" Hendrick nodded reluctantly. He waved before he flew away from the forest, leading Ella and others with him.

"Tsk tsks... That was really touching!" After Hendrick and the others left, Lucian had a faint smile on his face. "My beauty, you should tell me honestly, how many of your people are in here? What are the forces that have come in? How did you people find this place?! If you answer honestly, I can consider leaving several of you alive!"

Helena smiled bitterly after she heard this. "Haha... Do you need so much information? Unfortunately, I, Helena Cabello, would rather die than tell you. Just kill me if you want to do so, come on!"

After she finished speaking, Helena clenched her fists and Chi began surging over them.

"Brother, if we leave, I am afraid that Miss Helena will be dead, right? Could it be possible for several of them to escape?" Soon after they left, Ella frowned and said in a depressed mood. "Sigh... We previously said that we would protect them and help them find their relatives. I didn't expect that we would become deserters!"

Chapter 1744

"Ella, what are you talking about? Who are you calling deserters? What are you saying, it's such bad word." Skye was upset when she heard this and said, "Don't forget, we don't owe them anything."

Besides, you can stay with them if you don't want to continue staying alive! Why did you leave with us?"

"Skye, what nonsense are you talking about? My younger sister is right. We really don't have any sense of justice if we leave just like this!" Hendrick had been unhappy since the beginning. He finally met a beauty and he liked her with all his heart. In the end, he was unable to protect the other party. He had been blaming himself, but he was even more unhappy when he heard Skye speak like this.

"Dear me, so you are blaming me instead?" Skye grew increasingly upset and said angrily. Why didn't you stay back if you are such a righteous person? Don't you realize? Even if you and your sister stayed back, even if all of us stayed back, our ending would be dead and there's no way to salvage things! That so called Lucian is a famous genius of the Bloodshed Clan and is in the seventh-grade ultimate god-level! He broke through into the first-grade ultimate godlevel at the age of 20 and he is only 40 years old now. Although he looks like he is in his twenties, he's considered powerful for achieving such fighting prowess at such an age!"

"Stop talking and fly faster. We need to inform the fortress master and others first. Then, we shall have a quick discussion. We have let Miss Helena down, we cannot let her father and both her sisters down. There 's a possibility that her father and sisters are still alive. We need to have a quick discussion and bring people over to rescue them!" Angus increased his speed of flying while secretly praying. He hoped that Helena would be able to escape under the advantage of a large number of people around her. In that case, he might still have a chance to see her again.

"Every sentence is about Helena. It's so disgusting to listen to!" While looking at Angus' figure from the back, Skye was so angry that her face turned pale.

However, she felt a lot more comfortable when she heard the sound of people fighting behind her. At least, the fighting had already started. Helena Cabello. Would definitely die this time.

"Kill them!" Following a wave of Lucian's hand, more than 20 disciples of the Bloodshed Clan directly rushed into the crowd and started killing.

Lucian thought about it and said, "By the way, let's not kill this woman first and kill her last. Let her see how her family members, these people of the Cabello family, are killed!"

“You b*stard!” Helena almost burst out in anger when she heard this. She tightened her fists and appeared in front of Lucian in a flash before she directly punched him.

Slap!

However, Lucian was not interested in meeting Helena’s punch. He easily escaped Helena’s attack in a flash. Instead, he slapped Helena in her face.

A loud slap directly sent Helena flying outward.

Whoosh!

When Helena was flying backward, a figure flew over and stopped her by directly pulling her with his hands.

Helena opened her eyes and was surprised to see the person in front of her. She wondered if she was hallucinating. The person who flew over was actually Jack.

“Jack! It’s you!” Helena wondered if she was dreaming. She rubbed her eyes and discovered that it was really Jack.

Her nose twitched and she almost started crying. She did not expect that she would be able to meet Jack again before she dies.

Chapter 1745

“Jack, you should leave quickly. What are you doing? Lucian is a genius disciple of the Bloodshed Chan, a master in the seventh-grade ultimate god-level. Apart from that, those junior sisters and brothers of his are in the second-grade or third-grade ultimate god-level. You are not their opponents!” Soon, Helena thought of something. Was Jack not suicidal by rushing out single-handedly at this moment? Even if he was not alone, Jack would definitely die even if he came with hundreds of people. She clearly knew what a master in the seventh-grade ultimate god-level meant.

“I’m here to save you and you are asking me to escape?” Jack was speechless.

After he saw the situation from a distance, he was the first to rush over. The others traveled slower, but they would also rush over soon. Unexpectedly, he saw Helena being slapped in the face the moment he arrived.

However, he was slightly grateful. Fortunately, the other party did not intend to kill Helena first. Instead, he wanted to kill Helena last. Otherwise, if the other party meant to kill Helena just now, he would not be able to rescue her based on his previous speed.

“You’re suicidal!” One of the men, who was a master of the third-grade ultimate god-level from the Bloodshed Clan, was near to Jack. He immediately clenched his fists tightly when he saw that someone dared to come out to save Helena. The golden Chi surged over his fist and his punch came straight toward Jack.

“You are the one who’s suicidal!” Jack had a cold expression on his face as he clenched his fists. The Chi in his body instantly gushed out and his body slightly leaned to one side while his fist directly punched his opponent in his chest.

Bang!

A slightly dull voice could be heard. The next second, the man was sent flying into the air. His chest collapsed, and he landed on the ground heavily. After coughing out several mouthfuls of blood, he kicked his legs and died.

“Dear me, that man is in the third-grade ultimate god-level!” Helena swallowed her saliva and was so surprised that she stuttered as she spoke. This guy, Jack, seems to appear every time she was in danger.

On top of that, he was still amazing, and his combat power shocked her again. Everybody came in together, how could this guy's combat power improve so greatly!

"Haha... He's in the third-grade ultimate god-level but I'm in the fourth-grade ultimate god-level!" Jack chuckled and he completely released the momentum from his body.

"The fourth-grade ultimate god-level! You're actually in the fourth-grade ultimate god level!" After Helena heard this, she saw a glimmer of hope. However, when she thought of Lucian's fighting prowess, she started frowning again. "However, that guy is in the seventh-grade ultimate god-level and there are so many of them. Hundreds of us have died!

"Don't worry!" Jack smiled coldly and directly pointed in another direction before he spoke. "Take a look over there!"

"Father, Venus, Helena! They...they are here!" Helena looked in the direction Jack pointed at and covered her mouth in surprise. She could not believe that Jack brought thousands of people over this time.

"So many people? D*mn it, how many people have actually come in!" Lucian's face turned green when he spotted many people from the abandoned world.

However, he quickly replied, "You guys are here at the right time. Since you are all already here, then I shall kill all of you. That guy is actually in the fourth grade ultimate god-level. It looks like you guys can only leave him to me! I shall leave the others to my junior brothers and sisters, it should not be a difficult thing for them!"

Chapter 1746

"Motherf*cker! Is he trying to die?"

Alejandro rushed over, cursing as he saw a second grade ultimate god-level disciple killing a guardian of his Cabello family. He immediately followed up with a punch that sent the second-grade ultimate god-level disciple from the Bloodshed Clan flying back a great distance before he could steady himself.

“Third-grade ultimate god-level! My father is in the third-grade ultimate god-level!”

Seeing her own father sending a second-grade ultimate god-level fighter flying with a single punch, she was at a loss for words from the excitement.

“Don’t worry, just leave the others to our fathers. I’ll handle this seventh-grade ultimate god-level guy!”

Jack made a calm smile and opened his palm. He took out his treasured sword and stared straight at Lucian.

“Die!”

At the same time, Kenneth threw a punch at another first-grade ultimate god-level disciple of the Bloodshed Clan, causing his opponent to cough up blood immediately.

“No way! They actually have a few people in the third -grade ultimate god-level! Furthermore, they also have a few first-grade ultimate god-level fighters as well!”

Upon seeing Nash, Kenneth, and the others taking action, Lucian almost lost his temper. He originally thought that only Jack was the only powerful one and the rest were no match for him and his fellow disciples.

However, after they started fighting, he quickly realized that a few of his fellow disciples were killed in a short time while the rest were being surrounded by a big group of people. At that rate, they would most likely be killed.

“Kid, you are pretty talented to be able to kill my junior brother of the third-grade ultimate god-level with only one punch while being in the fourth-grade yourself. It seems that your fighting prowess is not: only limited to the level of a fourth-grade ultimate god-level!”

Finally, Lucian gritted his teeth and stared directly at Jack. “If that’s the case, I’ll kill you first. It’s not good to let an enemy with this kind of talent grow any further!”

Lucian knew deep down that these people had entered the forest for less than two months.

Two months ago, he came to this forest alone in order to complete an assignment given to him by an elder of his clan. Back then, the forest showed no signs of abnormalities, nor these people from the abandoned world!

With that, he surmised that these people must have arrived in the past two months. Within two months, his opponent managed to achieve the fourth-grade ultimate god-level and obtain this level of fighting prowess. Just the thought alone was scary enough.

Moreover, the opposing party had a few people in the third-grade ultimate god-level. That was even more mind-boggling.

After all, there were no martial art techniques within the abandoned world that allowed one to break through to the ultimate god-level. That also meant that those people could not have made any progress after reaching the peak stage of the true god level. They must have started breaking through to the firstgrade ultimate god-level after arriving in this place and raised their strength slowly.

“You want to kill me? We’ll have to see if you’re capable of doing so!”

That person before him had killed quite a number of people from the White family and Cabello family. If not for Jack and his group arriving promptly, a lot more lives would be lost.

Therefore, Jack resolved himself to kill that person of the seventh-grade ultimate god-level.

Hearing Jack's reply, Lucian burst out laughing.

"Did I hear that right? You're merely at the fourthgrade ultimate god-level. Even if you could take on someone stronger, do you think you can cross that boundary and kill me? You're thinking too highly of yourself!"

"How would you know without trying?"

Jack channeled his Chi into his sword. With a light buzz, the sword let out a terrifying screech and immediately grew significantly in size. Moreover, the terrifying aura around Jack seemed to have grown stronger as well.No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1747-1750

Chapter 1747

Lucian's eyes brightened at the sight. "Not bad! From the looks of it, your sword is an ultimate-grade spiritual tool? Tsk tsk tsk...this sword will be mine soon. By then, you'll be helping me raise my strength significantly!"

Having said that, Lucian similarly channeled his Chi into the sword in his hand and struck out at Jack.

"Howling Wolf Strike!"

Along with the sword strike, a giant wolf formed from condensed Chi appeared before him. After the giant wolf's appearance, it gave off a strong and vicious aura. It let out a bone-chilling howl and then immediately charged straight toward Jack.

"Burning Chop!"

Faced with the ferocious attack, Jack did not dare let his guard down and immediately executed his Burning Chop technique. His fireball-like attack rushed forth along with a long tail dragged behind it like a meteor.

“How can someone at the fourth-grade ultimate godlevel execute such a powerful attack?”

Lucian was shocked when he saw Jack’s attack. That was because vibrations from Jack’s attack were able to match that of his own.

Boom!

A thunderous boom exploded forth. In the next instant, Jack’s attack managed to completely negate his opponent’s attack, much to the surprise of those watching

“No way! He blocked the attack!”

Helena was also worried if Jack would be a match for his opponent in the beginning as their power levels were too far apart.

However, Jack went beyond their expectations and managed to block the opponent’s attack. It proved that Jack’s fighting prowess was quite equally matched with his foe.

Moreover, she knew the technique Jack executed was not his strongest technique yet.

At that moment, Daniella had also joined Helena’s side after killing a few enemies. She smiled at Helena. “Big Sister, you don’t know how strong this guy is. Yesterday, he just killed a sixth-grade ultimate godlevel disciple from the Bloodshed Clan with ease. Even if he can’t kill this guy in the seventh-grade ultimate god-level, it would be impossible for the opponent to kill him.”

Having said that, she looked toward the battle on the other side and said, "That's right. Father and the rest are also quite powerful. They're basically experts in the third-grade ultimate god-level. The remaining disciples from the Bloodshed Clan will be taken care of very soon!"

Helena looked around and noticed that only a few of the twenty-over disciples from the Bloodshed Clan were left.

"How did you guys train? How did they get to the third-grade ultimate god-level? Moreover, Jack's strength has skyrocketed to the fourth-grade ultimate god-level. That's just too fast!" Helena quickly asked Daniella after her sudden realization.

"Hehe, try guessing!"

Daniella tried to remain mysterious and put on a sweet smile on her face.

"Tell me quick! It's impossible for me to guess!" Helena could not help but rolled her eyes at Daniella.

"Jack is already a third-grade intermediate alchemist!" Daniella said with a huge grin on her face.

Chapter 1748

"Third-grade intermediate alchemist? Am I hearing things? I-I-Is this for real? That's too fast!"

After hearing that, Helena's mouth went agape with shock. She was flabbergasted with Jack's talent in alchemy.

"Hehe, of course, that's real. Otherwise, how could their fighting prowess improve so quickly?!"

Daniella chuckled, then said with a frown, "Where could the First Elder be? Did his alchemy skills improve? I wonder if he has achieved the ultimate god realm yet.”

“Yeah. I wonder how he’s doing now. We haven’t seen him all this while!”

Danielle sighed along before looking forward. By then, Jack’s fight with his opponent had grown more intense. The two had been exchanging attacks for several rounds, but Jack seemed to have the upper hand.

“Damn it. This kid appears to have an abundance of Chi!”

Lucian looked forward with a serious expression as beads of sweat fell from his forehead.

Before this, he thought he could easily kill Jack. As the fight continued, he realized that he might not be Jack’s match if things dragged on.

After watching the battle on the other side, he felt even more speechless. The fellow disciples he had brought over were killed one by one and only two were left standing. If the third-grade ultimate godlevel martial artists managed to spare their efforts to assist Jack in his attacks, then his situation would worsen.

‘I’m going all out!

Lucian gritted his teeth, then bit into his finger and pressed it in between his brows as he started chanting.

As he did that, Jack could feel the opponent’s aura grow significantly stronger.

‘What secret spell is that? He can raise his combat power this way?’ Jack thought to himself as he watched in surprise. It was the first time he saw someone raising his combat power in such a fashion.

However, he believed the secret technique would definitely cause heavy strain on the body for it to raise one's combat power in such a short amount of time. There would surely be a time limit to it.

"Kid, I'll kill you right now. The rest of you can forget about holding me here. Once I get back to the clan and report this to the elders, all of you will be dead. I'll have all of your lives for my fellow dead disciples!"

Lucian glared at Jack with great hatred.

"Is that so? Let's give it a try!"

Jack pushed his foot down as his lips curled into a sneer. He clenched his fists tightly and lowered his body.

"I-I-Is that the Twin Dragons Fist?"

Lucian was shaken upon seeing that posture.

"Impossible! The Twin Dragons Fist is our clan's martial art. Moreover, this move is extremely difficult to master. Only internal disciples have the chance to learn them but hardly anyone mastered it! You've just arrived in this world recently. How did you obtain our technique? Even if you did, how could you learn it so quickly?"

Lucian was completely in shock. He knew the power of the Twin Dragons Fist. It was a third-grade intermediate martial art technique. Even their elders in the Bloodshed Clan could barely manage to get it to a novice level, much less the disciples.

"Is it that difficult?"

Jack frowned. He did not spend much time researching this martial art technique as he felt that it was rather simple.

Chapter 1749

However, Jack quickly understood why this martial art technique was abnormally difficult for normal people. Nevertheless, he learned the True Dragon Claw technique in the past and had the ability to transform into a true dragon, giving him a dragon's form.

Perhaps that was the reason why the Twin Dragons Fist was surprisingly suited for him as he could turn his hands into dragon claws.

Seeing Jack's confusion, Lucian almost coughed up blood from his agitation. Just what kind of a monster was the kid standing before him? How could he, someone at the fourth-grade ultimate god-level, be that much stronger? Moreover, Jack managed to learn the Twin Dragons Fist in under two months? How did he comprehend the technique?

"Wind Slash!"

Lucian had no confidence, but with his companions mostly dead, he gritted his teeth and slashed at Jack with his sword.

Whoosh!

Waves of horrifying sword aura flew forward, sweeping through the forest like the winds of Fall. The horrifying and numerous aura swept through a wide area.

"Twin Dragons Fist!"

Jack retaliated by sending his fists forward.

“Roar!”

Following his fists, two gigantic dragon claws appeared before Jack. The dragon claws were a manifestation of Chi but looked very real. They even gave off a terrifying roar of a dragon as they rushed forward.

Boom boom boom!

The sword auras landed on the dragon claws but were immediately destroyed on impact. Meanwhile, the two gigantic dragon claws rushed ever closer to Lucian at an alarming speed.

“I-I-Impossible!”

Seeing his attacks being completely destroyed by Jack ‘s attack made Lucian turn pale. His eyes were filled with terror. Judging from the speed of the attack, he would not be able to escape.

“No! I don’t want to die! Please spare me!”

Lucian immediately begged for mercy once he thought about the wonderful future he had before him. He hoped Jack would halt his attack and give him a chance to live.

Bang!

Nevertheless, how could Jack spare someone who killed the people belonging to the White family and Cabello family? Furthermore, Lucian belonged to the Alliance Guard. Jack would never believe the words from those people.

Two gigantic dragon claws charged straight ahead, tearing Lucian to pieces. Lucian, a seventh-grade ultimate god-level martial artist was reduced to dust, completely annihilated.

Right then, Nash and the others had also finished their battle and turned their attention to Jack.

“He’s too powerful. This kid really killed a seventhgrade ultimate god-level expert!” The second elder of the Cabello family lamented.

He never would have thought that Jack would reach such a level. That seventh-grade ultimate god-level expert had forced the forces from the Nine Armies to retreat in despair. He did not expect Jack to be able to kill that guy.

“Hahaha, I didn’t expect my son to be this awesome!” Nash laughed out loud with an extremely smug expression. Back then, Lily almost got Jack killed. Fortunately, he had survived under those circumstances and grew stronger steadily.

Chapter 1750 Jack managed to kill an expert of the seventh-grade ultimate god-level. The group was overjoyed.

Meanwhile, Helena approached Jack and asked bashfully, “Jack, thank you. If not for your help, I would’ve died earlier. Moreover, you’ve saved so many people from our Cabello family!”

Jack smiled nonchalantly and said, “You’re being too reserved. We’re all one big family. We should unite against our enemies.”

“That’s right. This is exactly the time we should be united!” Harry chuckled as he flew over.

He felt his decision to join Jack and company to be the best decision he has ever made. If he did not follow them and met these disciples of the Bloodshed Clan on his own, then he would have died for sure.

“Oh, I almost forgot. I have something to tell everyone!” Helena announced to the group as she suddenly recalled something.

“What is it?”

Seeing Helena’s serious expression, Alejandro and the others flew over in her direction as well.

“I...I saw the people from the Nine Armies. I’m not sure if you’ve heard, but I’ve seen over a dozen of them!”

Helena thought about it for a moment, then said to Jack’s group with a solemn expression, “Although we have also gathered several thousand people, there are even more people scattered in this forest and we don’t know about their situation...”

“You’ve seen over a dozen of them?”

Hearing that, Jack’s expression turned solemn too. He knew the Nine Armies would eventually find out that they have entered the forest, but he did not expect them to find out so soon.

After some consideration, he finally asked Helena, “Did they not try to attack or kill you after you met them?”

“They didn’t do that. It happened like this...”

Helena then explained everything she had experienced to Jack and the rest.

After listening to her story, Alejandro looked cluelessly at Jack. “Young Master Jack, what should we do now? If we leave this forest quickly and train in a secluded spot, I believe it won’t be easy for the Nine Armies or the Bloodshed Clan to find us, right?”

At that point, Alejandro paused for a moment before continuing, “However, we have more people scattered within the forest. If we leave now, our safety is ensured in the short term, but we can’t be sure if the people from the Nine Armies will help the others, or if the Bloodshed Clan would come after us!”

Jack nodded. “We can’t give up on the others. Right now, we can only try our best to find more spirited grass. The Bloodshed Clan sent quite a number of their disciples in here this time. Some of the disciples will surely report back to their clan after realizing the situation! The Nine Armies is our best hope for now. Let’s hope the Nine Armies can help us out! Nevertheless, we need to treasure every second to get stronger!”

“Yeah. We can’t give up on the other Cabello family members!”

Chapter 1751

Alejandro nodded. After all, there were too many Cabello family members who were yet to be found. Even if plenty had already died, there should still be at least ten thousand more men left.

“This is great, Master. You’re all truly here. My goodness. My eyes did not deceive me. Haha!”

Unexpectedly, at this moment, Kevin and a few other Elders from the Cabello family flew over, leading over three thousand Cabello family members as well as over two thousand White family members.

“This is great. Just great! Our master and the others are here, and so is Young Master Jack. This is fantastic. We’ve met up with the larger group!”

The eyes of plenty of White family members reddened when they saw Jack and the others. For the past few days, they had indeed found plenty of spirited grass and treasure in this new place. There were even a few who were at higher cultivation levels who had already broken into the first-grade ultimate god-level.

However, their days were filled with danger as well. They all traversed the place carefully, and along the way, found many of their men who had been killed.

The White branch family members, especially, kept trying to search for Jack, Nash, and the others, but they just could not find Jack and the others. They had no sense of safety, as though they had lost their compass.

Naturally, they would feel deeply moved now that they had found Jack and the others.

“Seventh Elder, Eighth Elder. Haha. This is great. It’s great that all of you are still alive!”

Nash smiled excitedly when he saw all these familiar faces. With this, they numbered over ten thousand men in total. A mighty force was now gathered.

“Master, it’s fantastic that we’ve met up with all of you. We’ve been standing on the edge for the past few days. A few days ago, the Seventh Elder and I finally broke into the first-grade ultimate god-level with great difficulty. We had been celebrating when we realized that there was a force called the Bloodshed Clan. Some of their disciples have entered this area, but fortunately, the few that we ran into did not have very high cultivation levels. Most were just at the true god-level or first-grade ultimate god-level. Everyone worked together to kill them, but many of our people perished as well!”

The Eighth Elder’s face was full of emotion. After he spoke, he looked at the corpses on the ground and took a sharp intake of breath. “My God. Did you run into the disciples of the Bloodshed Clan as well? And over twenty of them were killed by you? How were their cultivation levels?”

The Seventh Elder and the others were also shocked. They heard fighting noises moments ago and intended to secretly come over to watch. They did not think that the fighting sounds would stop before they even got to the scene.

They had sent a scout to take a look first.

Only then did they know that Jack and the others had also run into the disciples of the Bloodshed Clan.

“Haha. Let’s gather the spoils of war first while we catch up!”

Nash laughed and ordered a few people to clean up the spoils of war. Only then did he explain the current situation to the Seventh Elder and the others.

The Seventh Elder and the Eighth Elder had also managed to break into the first-grade ultimate god-level. It was fantastic news; at least they had two more fighters at the ultimate god-level here now.

“The sounds of fighting have already stopped. No need to think anymore. Probably not a single one of them escaped!”

At that moment, Arthur and the others had arrived outside the forest. Arthur and Hendrick kept glancing backward. Skye could not help but said impatiently, “You two had just better hurry on. If we manage to hold the discussion earlier, we might have a chance to save Helena Cabello and her two younger sisters, as well as her father. If we delay any longer, hehe, who knows how many of those people who have come in will die!”

Chapter 1752

“What! A few-a few ten thousand people have come in?”

As the Whittemore Fortress was the closest to the forest, everyone went headed over first. Once Arthur's grandfather knew about the situation, he jumped onto his feet from his chair in shock. His eyes nearly popped out of their sockets.

"That's right. Grandfather, let us discuss what we should do with the fortress master first. Ah, never mind that all these people have come in here-more importantly, many people from the Bloodshed clan have entered the forest to search for treasure to carry out the duties of their clan. Now that they've run into each other, Miss Helena and the others are probably dead already!"

Arthur felt a pang of pity when he mentioned Helena. He hated himself for being that much weaker. Otherwise, he would not have chosen to leave forlornly when she was in a life-or-death situation.

The old man could tell what Arthur was thinking and rolled his eyes unsympathetically. "You useless brat, going on about Miss Helena. Don't you forget that you are the grandson of the Elder of Whittemore Fortress, you can't get attached to a woman from that place, understand? How can the positions of those people ever compare to us?"

When he spoke, the old man cast a cursory glance at Skye. Then he added, "If you want to find someone, you should at least find a woman like Skye here. Understand?"

"That's right. Young Master Arthur, don't forget who you are. You have a high social standing. You can't think of the impossible!"

Skye was delighted, but she had no idea that the old man was merely giving an example. She thought that the old man had already intended to match her with his grandson.

Arthur went speechless for a while, then he huffed a reply, "What are you saying, Grandfather? This is not the time to discuss all this. We should seek the fortress master and the others to discuss the situation. Besides, you can't just look down on the outsiders, right? A long time ago, weren't our ancestors from that place too? We descended from the same lineage, so why should we fight each other?"

Standing beside him, Hendrick felt dissatisfied. He could not help but mutter, "Elder Whittemore, I think what Young Master Arthur said is correct. Our ancestors all originated from that place, so why do we look down on them? Rather, I think we're all the same since we all come from that place. Not a single one of us is better or worse than the other in terms of position."

Ella clenched her fists and spoke with a stony expression, "That's right. Grandfather Whittemore, this line of thought is incorrect. We're not even part of the Alliance Guard. How can we think of ourselves above others? I've seen the people who come from that place and their martial talent is pretty good!"

The old man also sensed that he had said something wrong. Although he still maintained that the people who came from that place were at the peak of the true godlevel at most-that was why he looked Down on them.

He gave an awkward smile. "What about this? All of you have worked hard," he then said, "I'll seek out the fortress master and the other Elders to hold a discussion!"

Arthur could not wait around any longer. "Grandfather, I think we shouldn't hold the discussion first. What about this? We'll send out a few of our fighters to help them out first," he said, panicked. "We cannot allow the people of the Bloodshed Clan to simply hurt the people who came in, at least. As for you, just call for the fortress master, the First Fortress Master, and the others to hold the discussion. How about that?"

Hendrick thought that this was the best course of action after he heard the plan. "That's right. This plan is great," he said excitedly. "We'll take action on both sides. There definitely won't be a problem!"

Unfortunately, Cooper replied with a dark expression, "What's the rush? There are too many people who have come in. This is not a small matter. Once our people go over and truly fight the Bloodshed Clan, it'll be a small matter if only a few of us die. But what if too many of our people die? It would create a ruckus. Once we wage war, do you know how many of our people we'll sacrifice?"

After he said that, he waved his hand and said, "I'll report this to the fortress master and get him to discuss this matter with the First Fortress Master and the others. In the end, the First Fortress Master will definitely hold a meeting with everyone. Once the meeting ends and everyone has decided what to do, we'll take action. We can't rush this matter, understand?"

Chapter 1753

"Grandfather, this involves human lives! The longer we delay, the more people will die! If we keep going on like this, who knows how many of them will be dead by the time we take action!"

Arthur panicked even more after he heard this, but he was still helpless.

Still, Cooper continued, "So what if some of them die? I can't just bypass the hierarchy. I have to inform the fortress master about this first and follow the appropriate process to handle the matter. Understand? If I go straight to inform the First Fortress Master without informing the fortress master, what will we do if the latter feels offended? Besides, so many of them have come in. They won't be wiped out so soon! Besides, the forest is so vast. They've all been scattered around. It won't be easy to find them with so many people. Not many disciples from the Bloodshed Clan went in. How many can they kill!"

Arthur and Hendrick were completely speechless. They did not imagine that Cooper would say something like this. However, they had no way about it now. They did not have enough power, and they had no authority over such a big case. They could only report this to their superiors.

"Then-then quickly go and tell the First Fortress Master about this. Let's go. We wish to follow as well!"

After Arthur thought about it, he looked at Cooper, extremely panicked.

"Let's go!"

Soon, Cooper led everyone to the fortress master of the Whittemore Fortress.

“Oh my. Uncle Whittemore. Why are you here? And you brought a group of kids with you!”

Kieran, who was drinking tea, asked while chuckling after he saw Cooper’s arrival.

The few Elders beside him also looked at Cooper in confusion. After all, it was nothing much if Cooper came to seek them out; but judging from his serious expression and the retinue of youths he brought along, he probably came over to discuss a serious matter.

“Something has happened, fortress master!”

Cooper stepped forward and immediately told Kieran, “A serious matter has happened, fortress master. Some people from the abandoned world have entered into our sacred land once more!”

Kieran simply gave a wan smile when he heard this. “Eh, I thought it would be something serious. Didn’t a few people come in here before too? It’s nothing to fuss about!”

“It was different then! That time, the Elder from the Pavilion Billow Cloud here went over there to take a look of his own accord. He happened to see a few people at the entrance and brought them in because he thought it was amusing. This time, they came in on their own after they found a way in. It’s different!”

Cooper gave a bitter smile. “A few ten thousand have come in this time,” he added. “Almost fifty to sixty thousand of them!”

Chapter 1754

“Fif-fifty to sixty thousand?”

Kieran’s tone notched a few octaves up. He suspected that he had heard wrong. If it was just fifty or sixty of them or even five or six hundred of them, he would not think that it was anything to make a fuss about. After all, such a long time had passed since that incident. Even if a few had made their way in, the Alliance Guard would not pursue about the matter, and they certainly would not create such a huge ruckus about it.

However, fifty to sixty thousand people was too much. That was way too many people. Furthermore, how much spirited grass would these people claim once they came in? They would have to give up so much of the martial resources!

Furthermore, that entrance was inside the forest near the Nine Armies. That forest could be said to be just like their backyard. Other than the occasional disciple from the Bloodshed Clan who came to find a few materials, the people of the Nine Armies, who were closest to the forest, found it the most convenient to go there.

Now that these few ten thousand people had entered the forest, they would probably use up plenty of the martial resources in a flash. When he thought about how many resources were being taken away, Kieran felt his heart twist in pain.

“Fortress master, what should we do about this? We’re not prepared at all for so many people to come in at once!”

The First Elder took a step forward and looked at Kieran before him. It was evident that he was in a complete panic!”

“What do we do? How should I know what do we do? This happened too abruptly. Who knew so many people would come in so suddenly!”

It was evident that Kieran did not know what to do either. After he thought about it, he said, “Let’s go and seek out the First Fortress Master. I am not daring enough to make a decision on my own regarding this matter. All of you, immediately go and inform the other fortress masters about this, and tell them to hurry over to meet at the First Fortress Master’s place!”

“Yes, sir!”

The people who had been drinking tea with him immediately ran out.

When they saw that the fortress master of the Whittemore Fortress did not hesitate long to inform the First Fortress Master and the others about the matter, Hendrick and the others heaved internal sighs of relief.

After Hendrick gave it some thought, he said, “Fortress Master Whittemore, no need to send people to our own fortress. I’ll head back to inform everyone about this!”

“All right. Thank you for your service!”

Kieran lifted his hands into a fist-to-palm salute. At least they did not need to send so many people to spread the message this way.

“Let’s go!”

Hendrick immediately waved his hand toward Ella and the few youths from their fortress and lead the others to fly off.

They all pushed themselves to the limits of their speed. After a while, Hendrick and the others had arrived inside the Lavigne Fortress. At this time, the sky had already begun to darken.

“Father, something has happened. Where’s the fortress master?”

He saw his father once he entered the place. Hendrick immediately spoke in a loud voice.

“What happened? Seems like something urgent has come up, judging from your looks!”

Hendrick’s father smiled without care. From his perspective, the Nine Armies were all not too far away from each other, and everyone looked after each other. If the Nine Armies were to band together, they were quite a strong force. The smaller forces usually did not dare to stir up trouble with them.

Chapter 1755

Therefore, the huge problem that came out of Hendrick’s mouth was hardly anything inside his father’s eyes.

“Listen. Those people...those people from the abandoned world have entered this place! And more than a hundred thousand of them had sneaked in! We have run into some of them and even talked to them. Besides...”

Hendrick blabbered about what he encountered in a panic tone. He did not know where to start.

“Wait. What? More than a hundred thousand of them?”.

Kye-Hendrick’s father-was truly taken aback by the number when he was told. If ten thousand of these outsiders entered this place, it would already be a huge mess, let alone a hundred thousand of them!

When Kye regained his senses after hearing the shocking news, he interrupted Hendrick before he could finish his sentence. “Hendrick, this is a serious matter, you better be honest about it. Are you sure what you said is true?”

Ella, who stood beside Hendrick, stepped forward and affirmed the statement. “Dad, it’s true! Brother would never lie to you about such a thing! It’s all true! Also, among them, there’s a talented genius called Jack. He saved my life before! I think he has at least broken through to the second-grade ultimate god-level, even maybe third-grade ultimate godlevel!”

“No freaking way! They have such a powerful genius among them? How long have they been here? They can’t have been here for months, right? Have they all reached such high martial levels after acquiring the martial technique?”

Looking at Ella’s agitated demeanor, Kye knew that Hendrick was telling the truth. It looked like they had truly come across some serious matter.

“He’s truly a talented genius! I don’t know how he trained himself till this level in the abandoned world! But I think it’s normal to have one or two super talented geniuses like Jack since hundreds of thousands of them have come here.”

A smile hung on Ella’s face. “Hmm. I don’t know how he’s doing now. Jack is a good man!”

Hendrick, on the other hand, interrupted and said, “Dad, the Whittemore Fortress knew about this. Let’s take a couple of elders and go to their fortress and discuss this. This is a huge matter. Not only those outsiders entered, but an elder from the Bloodshed Clan also issued a task to their disciples—they needed to gather some material for alchemy purposes. So, their disciple came to the forest to hunt for treasure! Sigh! I’m worried about Helena.”

“Wait a minute. Why are you in such a hurry? Also, who’s this Helena?”

Kye had yet to recover from the shock when both his children went on to mention some strangers’ names which confused him even further. His mind was in a muddle with the situation right now.

“Dad, Helena...Helena’s full name is Helena Cabello. She came in here with the Cabello family. We talked for a bit, and she is really a good person. I’ve also promised her that I will convince you to help them. Sigh! It’s so tough to explain everything in one shot. Let’s gather at the Whittemore Fortress, then Ella and I will tell you the situation from head to toe and then we will decide what to do next!”

Hendrick expressed his thoughts after pausing for a moment.

“Alright, alright! Let’s go to the First Fortress Master now!”

Kye was aware that this matter could not be delayed any further. Even though the sky had started to turn dark, they had to meet with the first fortress master and discuss this matter. This meeting could not be delayed.

When everyone arrived at the First Fortress Master’s place, they went to the conference room, and at this moment the sky had turned completely dark.

“Quiet! What’s going on? Fortress Master Whittemore, mind to fill us in?”

Austin Drago-the First Fortress Master of the Nine Armies-sat on the stage, overlooking the other fortress masters from above. He signaled the crowd to quiet down then turned to Fortress Master Whittemore and popped the question.

Master Whittemore smiled awkwardly and said, “Gentlemen, I think it’s better to let Cooper Whittemore, our fortress’s elder, fill you all in. I don’t know much about the situation. I was informed that hundreds of thousands of the people of the abandoned world had come into our place. I came here the moment I heard the news. As for the specific details, Elder Cooper knows more!”

Chapter 1756

At this moment, everyone turned to Elder Cooper

Elder Copper smiled and then explained to the crowd, “Gentlemen, around six hundred thousand people have entered, of which three to four hundred thousand are people from the mainland, while the remaining two hundred thousand are those from the sea territory. I’m not sure how they found the way in but they are here now. Moreover, they have been here for around twenty days now. During these twenty days, some of the talented geniuses have broken through to the ultimate god realm.”

“My goodness! They’re here for twenty days already? These outsiders, they’ve been here for so many days yet we only found out about it now!”

“Ya, we’re too careless about this! It would be even harder for us to notice their presence if they just entered and left the forest in a short period of time.”

“No. It’s impossible that we won’t be aware of them. After all, hundreds of thousands of them entered, and among them, there are different clans and families, and not all of them are united. There must be some bad blood between these clans and families.

The crowd gasped as soon as Elder Cooper dropped another bomb.

Ella forced an awkward smile and screwed up her face slightly. In fact, she was the first to find out that Jack and the others had come in. However, she promised Jack that she would help them hence she did not return to her fortress and report the matter immediately, rather, she continued searching for treasures inside the forest. Sometimes when she ran into those outsiders, she would simply take a detour and leave, pretending not to see them.

And what she did had led to the current situation. She tried to drag the matter to the point that it could no longer be hidden. The people of the Nine Armies were finally informed of the matter.

“And then? Anything else?”

Elder Cooper paused for a few seconds before continuing, “I’ll let my grandson tell everyone. After all, they are the ones who ran into them, and came back to us and reported. They know the best about the situation!”

Arthur then stepped forward, looked at the First Fortress Master, and said, “Alright. The thing is...”

Arthur then carefully narrated the situation from head to toe, sparing no details, to. Everyone in the meeting.

Of course, when he spoke about Helena Cabello, it was about the good things about her and her people- how kind and friendly these outsiders were, how they were concerned about Arthur and Ella's safety, asking them to leave the scene first, how understanding they were and so on. Arthur praised them thoroughly, praying that the First Fortress Master and others would not hate Helena and her group and would agree to save them

The meeting room once again became lively after listening to Arthur's words. It was an animated discussion.

"Sigh! What should we do with this bunch of outsiders? If we refuse to save them, it'd go against our values, after all, we are working with the Anti-Alliance Guard. And these years, we have been heavily relying on the Anti-Alliance Guard too. That's why those Bloodshed Clan and others would not dare to lay a finger on us! But...but Bloodshed Clan is a strong clan, and they're stronger than us! How are we, these rabbles, able to fight against them? Sigh!"

Chapter 1757

An old man from the fortress had his forehead knitted together as he breathed out a sigh of defeat. He was in a dilemma.

"I agree. There are too many of them! Once we take our stand and defend them, the Bloodshed Clan will definitely come at us. And then once we get into a battle, we may be no match for them!"

Another old man chimed in. He was used to the comfortable and spoon-fed life and did not want to go against the Bloodshed clan.

"Hmm... How about this?"

A middle-aged man gave the matter some thought before interrupting the conversation. "First Fortress Master, I do have an idea. Let's pretend that we're not aware of this matter, won't that be good? After all, Young Master Arthur had only told Helena Cabello and her people that he would come back and discuss it with us, and only Helena and her gang knew about this. Besides, I think they should have been killed by the disciples of the Bloodshed Clan by now. Since they're already dead, no one is going to testify against us! Let's pretend we didn't know that they came here, this way, even if the Anti-Alliance Guard knows about it, they would not blame us!"

"That's a great idea! It's truly a marvelous idea! Let's go with that, pretending not to know about the matter! Haha! Those outsiders can escape to other places, it's none of our business; they can be killed by the Bloodshed Clan, and we'll pretend we don't know anything! Anyway, we'll stop going to the forest for the next few days. That's it!"

The old man from before immediately echoed this idea. Obviously, he was not keen to help Jack and the others.

However, Cooper retorted with a cold face, "Have you forgotten which fortress we belong to? It doesn't matter if we're able to defeat the Bloodshed Clan, at least, the difference between our strength and theirs is not too big. Besides, we have been under the shelter of the Anti-Alliance Guard for a long time, and for that, we live a peaceful life until today. If the Anti-Alliance Guard knows that we fold our hands and let those people die, what would the Anti-Alliance Guard think of us?"

The middle-aged man immediately stood up and argued, "Elder Cooper, if everyone keeps their mouth shut, who is going to know what happened? Right? Those people that Arthur ran into would surely be killed by the Bloodshed Clan! Only two of them are at the second-grade ultimate god-level, and the rest of them are either at the true god-level or the semi-god level! In the face of a group of ultimate god-level fighters of Bloodshed Clan, how can they escape? There is even one seventh-grade ultimate god-level fighter, none of those outsiders can survive!"

"Hmph! What if several of them managed to escape from the Bloodshed Clan? And when they confront us, where should we hide then? Our image will be ruined! We're part of the Anti-Alliance Guard! How could we call ourselves one if we don't even dare to stand out and help the weak?"

Hendrick was extremely furious that he could feel anger flooding his veins. "Aren't you afraid that the Nine Armies would become a laughing stock in front of others? Not only the Alliance Guard would laugh at us even the Anti-Alliance Guard would look down on us!” He stepped forward and reprimanded with a huff.

When the middle-aged man heard this, he shot up from his seat and smacked the table, burning with anger. “We, elders and the fortress masters, are here to discuss the matter! What right do you have to speak in such a disrespectful manner in front of us? Elder Kye, is this how you raise your son? How disrespectful!”

Kye’s expression immediately turned cold as he heard this. “Oh, how do I raise and discipline my son is my business. You’re in no place to worry about it. Besides, I don’t think there’s anything wrong with what my son just said. We, the Nine Armies, have always been low profile and tolerant, not causing any problems. But how long should we live like this? Living with tails tucked firmly between our legs? Have we not progressed and improved a lot in terms of power and strengths over the years?”

“Tails tucked between our legs? Kye Lavigne, who is tucking his tail between his legs, you tell me! Don’t make yourself sound so mighty and righteous. I’m doing this for the sake of the lives of the people in the Nine Armies! If we acted recklessly and went into a war with the Bloodshed Clan, do you know how many of us will die?”

The middle-aged man stared fiercely at Kye, with hatred and resentment appearing in his eyes. He seemed like he was about to give Kye a good beating.

Chapter 1758

“What’s all the bickering about? I asked for all of you to come over to discuss, not to quarrel!”

After listening for a while, the First Fortress Master reprimanded, his tone impatient. He did not expect there would be two opinions over this matter—one of them did not favor helping the outsiders, while another was in favor of helping those outsiders.

Silence immediately took over the meeting room when the crowd saw that the First Fortress Master was furious.

After a few seconds of silence, the master of the Lavigne Fortress expressed his thoughts to the First Fortress Master, "First Fortress Master, I truly think that we have held back for too long, and our current overall strength and power is not any weaker than theirs. If we help those people, they will certainly be on our side! Then, perhaps, it would become a chance for us to grow out of our current position. By that time, don't you think the Bloodshed Clan will have to pay us some respect?"

"Fortress master Lavigne, you have a point!"

One of the elders who was working under the First Fortress Master nodded in agreement. "Those outsiders, they must be feeling very lost and don't know what to do now, therefore, if we could lend them our hand at this critical moment, they will certainly be grateful to us and be our use in the future. Besides, if we really have to fight with the Bloodshed Clan, it's still uncertain which side will win!"

"Indeed they have many people with them, but after wandering in the forest for some time, they must have lost a lot of men by now, right? The most important thing is that these outsiders are made up of different clans and families, so they may not be on the same page. Moreover, their martial level is still at the baby stagesome of them are in the true god level, and some of them are even lower than that, only being in the semi-god level. So, I think they would not be of much use to us. Also, don't forget, the Bloodshed Clan has more elite fighters of the ultimate god-level than we have!"

The middle-aged man from before was insistent, not wanting to help Jack and his group.

"Both sides have valid points!"

At this moment, the First Fortress Master smiled bitterly before saying, "It's true that their number of people is too many, and even people of the sea territory have come in. Helping them would definitely be somewhat beneficial to our future development, well, at least it can show our loyalty in the eyes of the Anti-Alliance Guard. Why don't we do it this way; we send someone to report this matter to the Pavilion of Billow Cloud immediately. They're the nearest Anti-Alliance Guard to us! Let them send people over to support us quickly!"

“But...But, First Fortress Master, I heard that the Master of the Bloodshed Clan is already halfway into the second-grade soul-penetrating level! And I’m afraid that you are no match for him, and if you couldn’t hold him up until the aid—the Pavilion of Billow Cloud—arrives, you could be killed by him! And this would certainly break our hearts and affect our fighting spirits, then we would suffer great loss!”

A wise old man expressed his concerns after thinking about it.

Austin-the First Fortress Master-paused for a moment, his face sank to the deepest, emitting gloomy aura.

However, after a brief moment of silence, he asked Ella, “Right, Ella, you mentioned that you’ve met a person called Jack, right? He is particularly gifted and has saved your life?”

Chapter 1759

“Yes, First Fortress Master, that guy might have already broken through into the second-grade or even third-grade ultimate god-level!”

Ella thought briefly and answered.

Austin went into thinking mode again, and then he finally spoke, “How about this? In my view, the Bloodshed Clan would not start a war against any of us recklessly, after all, if we and those outsiders fight against them, they would suffer a great loss even if they win the battle in the end. I don’t think that they are ready to pay such a heavy price. So, I think this isn’t something we can pretend that we don’t know!”

“First Fortress Master, are you saying that we will help those people?”

When Arthur heard Austin's words, his spirit lifted and asked excitedly.

Austin nodded his head in confirmation. "Let's not talk about anything else. We should at least try to get those talented geniuses among the outsiders over. Moreover, they will definitely fight each other for the treasures and resources in the forest, plus the disciple of the Bloodshed Clan will hunt them as well. So, they will certainly lose quite a few people, and by that time, those remnants will be those strong and talented fighters. After all, it's about the survival of the fittest! We only need the elites!"

Kieran was as though he was lost in a thick fog as he listened to Austin. "First Fortress Master, what do you mean?"

Austin smiled in return. "Even if we send people to seek help from the Pavilion of Billow Cloud, the round trip will take at least four days. We can't rush ourselves and act recklessly if we want to help those people, got it? We need to be patient so we don't lose out. Not only our image and reputation will be improved in front of the Anti-Alliance Guard, but we could also take this opportunity to recruit some great elites as well."

Kieran finally understood what the First Fortress Master meant, he then smiled. "The wisest person is still our First Fortress Master! What he means is that we should pretend that we don't know anything about this, or perhaps just say that we are still in the middle of the discussion, thinking of what to do about the situation. Wait for another two or three days until the Pavilion Billow Cloud arrives then we will make a move to help those people. Is that right?"

Austin nodded with satisfaction and said, "That's right! You're sharp! We have two to three days' time to stall. We will focus on training, pretending not to know anything. We will wait until when the Pavilion Billow Cloud is about to arrive, then we will save the outsiders. And when the Pavilion Billow Cloud sees that we, the Nine Armies, are fighting for the Anti-Alliance Guard, not letting them down, they will respect us too! We'll let those outsiders fight with the Bloodshed Clan for a few days first!"

An old man of another fortress, who disagreed to help Jack and his group before, was excited after hearing Austin's idea. His eyes lit up and said, "First Fortress Master, your idea is truly brilliant! There are a few of those outsiders who have broken through to the first-grade ultimate god-level, and some of them even broke into the second-grade ultimate god-level. Besides, with so many outsiders, they could definitely kill some disciples of the Bloodshed Clan and give them a heavy blow. Then we could weaken them without having to make a move!”

“Haha! That’s amazing! What a good idea! Let those people fight with the Bloodshed Clan for a few days, and this way, we don’t have to suffer high casualties. Furthermore, we can also get appreciation and praise from the Anti-Alliance Guard. Then, those who we will save in the end would be the elite ones, and these people will be grateful to us too! It’s a gain for us!”

That middle-aged man laughed out loud, his eyes beaming happily. “Besides, so many of them came in and took away so much of our training resources. Let those people suffer for a bit more and pay a price! Consider it a punishment for their reckless intrusion into this place!”

Kye opened his mouth and then shut it again, wanting to say something, but in the end, he did not. Because he knew in his heart that Austin’s idea was the most rational and reliable, and it would be the most beneficial for the Nine Armies. Most of the Nine Armies had also agreed to this idea, even if he opposed it, it would be useless and created a more unpleasant aura to the Nine Armies.

Chapter 1760

“Dad!”

Ella felt unhappy though. When she thought about how Helena and Jack were pretty good people- especially when they saved her life-naturally, she wanted the people of the Nine Armies to help Jack and the others as soon as possible.

That was why she could not help but step forward and tug on Kye’s sleeve, trying to give a hint in a soft voice.

Still, Kye shook his head at both her and Hendrick. “This involves our fortress, and it involves the survival or destruction of the Nine Armies. I know that the young man called Jack saved you, Ella, and you want to help him immediately. But we can’t make decisions on our own toward such a huge matter. We need to have everyone discuss this and have the majority agree to it before anything!”

When he spoke here, Kye paused for a while before continuing, "It's evident that the First Fortress Master's decision is the best for now. Everyone has agreed to it, so we need to agree to it too. Understand? If Helena and the others have already died then you'll say that we only rushed out to help when we heard the fights in the forest had grown fiercer. You have to explain like that if the Pavilion Billow Cloud people ask about it!"

Although Ella felt dissatisfied, she could only nod her head. "I understand, Dad!" she said softly. "We can't let our feelings decide our actions during this time!"

Kye nodded his head. "That's right. All of you just stay at home and cultivate yourself for the next three days. If you can improve yourself anyhow, so be it. Even if we fight the Bloodshed Clan in the end, it'll just be for show. Still, we'll probably be fighting for around four or six hours. It'll be difficult to avoid casualties then."

"Okay!"

Ella nodded her head and agreed to this.

"All right. This is a huge matter that involves the Nine Armies, after all. It's not decided based on my word alone. Everyone agreed to the suggestion I gave just now. It doesn't matter if they're fortress masters from other fortresses, or Elders or Patronums-all of them can vote via a show of hands. We should just go along with the majority!"

Although everyone knew what the conclusion was, Austin still declared to everyone in a loud voice, putting on a show.

It was clear that naturally, more than ninety percent of the people had raised their hand, expressing their agreement to Austin's decision.

The meeting finally ended. Everyone returned to their fortresses to rest, and they all agreed that before they set out, the First Fortress Master would launch a signal from here. Then everyone would set out together toward the woods and wait to observe the situation outside the forest.

At this moment, Jack and the others were cultivating themselves in a cross-legged position.

Jack was well aware that he and the others had led plenty of people in this time. Since the Anti-Alliance Guard and the Alliance Guard were enemies, which was why the Anti-Alliance Guard would not be able to ignore them. If they did, that meant that they were abandoning the ideals they held onto all this while. This would not do-even if they would throw their faces away, they would still help Jack and the others.

Furthermore, between the two factions, plenty of conflicts probably broke out while they were searching for treasure or something like that. Because of this, it was highly likely that the Anti-Alliance guard would do something to help them.

However, for the lone Pavilions or forces, such as the Nine Armies, he could not tell if they would wholeheartedly help him and the others.

After all, Jack had heard from Helena that the overall strength of the Nine Armies seemed to be slightly weaker than the Bloodshed Clan. If this was the case, they would carefully measure the consequences of their involvement.

Chapter 1761

Apart from that, the Nine Armies looked like one big force on the outside but there was certainly some personal agenda among each fortress. If they were to really start a battle, members of certain fortresses would not give their all as they were afraid that many of their people would die.

Hence, those who wanted to stay alive had to try their best in increasing their fighting prowess and raise everybody's combat power. In that case, they would be able to react to sudden situations.

It had to be mentioned that the martial art technique Jack obtained this time was an exceptionally good one. Even when he was not training during the daytime, the swirl in his body could continue rotating.

This helped him to proactively absorb the Chi from the atmosphere which in turn slowly increase and stabilize his fighting prowess. If he sat down to train at night according to the martial art technique, the effect would definitely be better.

'According to the current situation, my level would completely stabilize after two more days. By then, I can try refining the third-grade intermediate pill and I will not need to be afraid of the usual masters at the ultimate god-level.' Jack secretly thought about it and was slightly expectant toward it. If he could not increase his strength speedily, he would not be able to fight back when he comes face to face with true masters.

However, two badly wounded disciples from the Bloodshed Clan returned to their pavilion in an extremely embarrassed manner.

"Elder, elder! Something bad has happened!" Both disciples directly rushed into the room of the Bloodshed Clan's First Elder and started yelling loudly.

The First Elder was getting ready to rest. He asked impatiently when he saw the two disciples. "What's going on with the two of you? Don't you guys possess quite a high fighting prowess? How can you guys get hurt when both of you are in the first-stage ultimate god-level? Did you guys meet some strong monster beasts while searching for treasures in the forest?"

One of them said, "There were too many of them and several of them are in the firststage ultimate god-level and peak stage of the true god-level. Two out of our four people died and we escaped with much difficulty."

The First Elder frowned and said, "Who are they? Could they be members of the Nine Armies? D*mn it! The members of the Nine Armies dare take action against us? This doesn't sound right. Even members of the Nine Armies would not act so shamelessly? How would so many of them surround and attack the four of you guys? How many people were there?!"

"There were several thousands of them and they mentioned that they were members of the Hall of Divine Royal. We realized later on that these people were not members of the Nine Armies, they are people from the abandoned world!" Another man had an excited expression on his face. "During our journey back, we met members from some other families. We secretly listened to their conversation and it turns out, quite a number of forces came in with them. There were a total of 400 to 500 thousand people!”

“Oh my god, are these all true? This is a huge issue and you guys cannot lie. If I find out that any of you are lying to us, the same day next year would be the anniversary of your death!” The First Elder of the Bloodshed Clan stood up from his chair in excitement after he heard this. He could not believe what he had just heard.

“It’s true, First Elder. Look at the embarrassing state we are in, do we look like we need to lie to you? Elder, you should have a discussion with the pavilion master about this as this is a really important matter!” Both disciples looked at the First Elder anxiously as they were afraid that the First Elder would not believe them.

Chapter 1762

The First Elder did not hesitate for long. Soon, he gathered the other elders and the pavilion master.

The pavilion master of the Bloodshed Clan and the elders had puzzled expressions on their faces. Some of them were busy training while some were prepared to go to sleep. They could not understand why the First Elder would gather them so late in the evening.

“First Elder, what’s going on? It’s late at night and everybody is prepared to rest. Why did you wake us up?” The pavilion master looked at the First Elder and asked puzzlingly.

He understood well that the First Elder was a person who acted extremely cautiously.

Something huge must have happened if he suddenly gathered them so late at night. If not, based on the First Elder’s characteristics, he would not have done

This!

The First Elder smiled bitterly before he explained to the group of people there. "Pavilion master, I would not have gathered everybody here if it wasn't a serious matter. The issue this time is really shocking I'm sure that everybody has heard about the legend of the abandoned world, right?"

The Second Elder directly said with a smile, "Definitely! Around six months ago, didn't several people from the abandoned world enter this area? It all happened because the elder of the Pavilion Billow Cloud from the Anti-Alliance Guard got into the mood and wanted to make a trip outside. He happened to meet those people at the entrance and led those people in. Due to this matter, we, the members of the Alliance Guard, even condemned them for their actions."

The Second Elder paused here before he said with a lament expression on his face, "However, this matter was silently dismissed as those people who came in were young and did not have a high fighting prowess. Certainly, we agreed because those people agreed that they aren't returning to the abandoned world!"

The Third Elder frowned and thought about it before he said, "First Elder, why are you bringing this matter forward? Could it be that those people are geniuses and have improved speedily? However, those people used to train at places without much Chi and it is natural for them to feel like they've entered a new world when they suddenly arrive here. It is normal for their fighting prowess to have a sudden increase! There's no need for you to make a huge fuss over it!"

The Fourth Elder immediately shook his head and guessed. "This is impossible. If it's only such a minor issue, the First Elder would not make such a huge commotion and gather all of us here. On top of that, it's late at night. He could have just informed us about it during the meeting tomorrow. I think some other people from the abandoned world must have made their way into this area!"

Everybody inhaled after they heard this as they were obviously shocked by what the Fourth Elder said.

The Third Elder once again shook his head and said in disbelief, "There's a small possibility for that to be the case, right? Unless the previous incident re-occurred and the members of the Anti-Alliance Guard proactively went over to bring people here. The people from the abandoned world would need to gather all seven stone balls if they want to enter this area or they wouldn't have such an opportunity!"

“I have no idea how they actually came in!” The First Elder said while smiling bitterly when he saw how the people were making guesses. “What I know is that when our people went to the forest in front of the Nine Armies to search for spirited grass in order to complete the pavilion’s task, they met these people and started a fight with them.”

“Which people?” The pavilion master of the Bloodshed Clan had a deep frown on his face after he heard this. “It looks like a large number of people have entered our place. If it was a small number, isn’t it extremely easy for our disciples to kill those who are in the true god-level or semi-god level?”

Chapter 1763

The First Elder nodded. “Not only did a large number of them enter, but they’ve also already been in this area for more than 20 days. Some of them have already broken through into the first-stage ultimate godlevel. The most crucial point is that too many of them have entered the area. The situation our disciple learned about them is that apart from the top forces from the mainland, the forces from the seas have also made their way in. There are at least 400 to 500 thousand people in total!”

The First Elder paused here before he continued to speak, “They even saw the bodies of some of those people during their journey back. Some of our people, who are in the second-stage ultimate god-level, have also died. It’s obvious that our disciples had a huge battle with the other Party!”

“What?!” The pavilion master of the Bloodshed Clan was shocked when he heard this. “If a member in the first-stage ultimate god-level was killed, this means that our people were surrounded and attacked by the other party. It’s normal for our people who are in the true god-level or semi-god level to die. It’s also normal for

Level to die. However, it’s quite abnormal that even disciples in the second-stage ultimate god-level have died!”

The Second Elder’s eyes immediately lit up as he stood up while saying in an agitated manner. “The members of the Nine Armies must have taken action! If not, disciples in the second-grade ultimate god-level would not have died so easily!”

“That’s right! The Nine Armies is just a small force under the protection of the Anti-Alliance Guard. F*ck, they’ve grown to be too much. How dare they take action against our people!” The Third Elder slammed the table and tightened his fist in anger. He wanted to immediately carry out an attack on the Nine Armies’ territory.

“Regarding this, we don’t have any evidence to prove that they helped those people so we should refrain from saying that. Even though there’s a huge possibility that the people from the Nine Armies took action!” The pavilion master of the Bloodshed Clan was silent momentarily before he continued to say, “How about this, let’s send somebody to inform the Sword King Clan about this matter tomorrow morning. On top of that, inform them to guard the external area of the forest to prevent those outsiders from scattering all over the place. Then, we shall send a portion of our people into the forest and kill those people.”

“That sounds good. F*ck, I’ve hated those people from the Nine Armies since a long time ago. They don’t have as many members who are in the ultimate god-level as we do. Now that our pavilion master is entering the second-grade soulpenetrating level, we would have hopes of wiping out the entire Nine Armies if you manage to kill the First Fortress Master of the Nine Armies, Austin Drago!” The Third Elder was extremely excited after he heard what the Bloodshed Clan’s pavilion master, Edward Gray said. He used to have a female disciple that he was very proud of. That disciple was killed by the members of the Nine Armies because of an altercation with them. He almost vomited blood due to anger when it happened.

He wanted to wipe out the entire Nine Armies during that time but the Bloodshed Clan was not as powerful as they were right now. The pavilion master persuaded him to endure things and he had been doing so throughout a couple of years.

Unexpectedly, the opportunity had finally arrived today. The opportunity to avenge his beloved female disciple was finally here.

“Alright, let’s do this since everybody agreed to it. There’s a small possibility that we should be able to completely wipe out the Nine Armies. However, it is possible to wound them badly and make them run away from where they are staying right now. By then, we shall make the Nine Armies’ territory one of our bases. Our disciples shall enter the forest to search for martial enhancement materials on purpose and send the materials back to us. This is something that I have been looking forward to!” Edward smiled coldly and an insidious look flashed through his eyes.

Chapter 1764

After one night of training, Jack’s fighting prowess had increased greatly. His realm of fourth-stage ultimate god-level had also further stabilized.

The next morning, Jack and the others bumped into quite a number of disciples from the Pavilion of Gods and Kings not long after they left the place. The disciples were also delighted after they met Harry and the others. They told Jack and the rest about their altercation with the disciples of the Bloodshed Clan.

Jack thought about it before he spoke to Nash and the others. “Father, we need to find the members of the White family, Cabello family, and those from the Pavilion of Kings and Gods as soon as possible within these couple of days. We need to immediately gather those who have a good relationship with us. We cannot afford to be separated as not only would they be killed by monster beasts or hunted by the members of the Hall of Divine Royal, they might even be killed by the disciples of the Bloodshed Clan who enters this forest. We might be divided and conquered by these people!”

Nash also nodded. “You are right. We will be in trouble if the Bloodshed Clan sends some members in the fourth stage ultimate god-level or even higher fighting prowess as they will be able to kill a large number of our people! We’ve gathered 2000 to 3000 people here but a dozen of their disciples might easily kill our people and that will be a huge loss for us!”

Alejandro, on the other hand, joined the conversation. “It will not be easy to gather all of them as this is a huge forest and everyone has been separated. However, there’s one benefit. When we first entered the area, the fights were scattered and happened all over the place. It’s different right now as once the sound of a fight was heard, it’s obviously between two groups of people, and the places where these fights happened have reduced. In that case, everybody has started to gather together and they have found people from their own forces!”

Jack spoke with a bitter smile on his face. “There are pros and cons to this matter. If a large group of people is gathered together and there aren’t many members who are in the ultimate god level, the entire group of people will be easily killed if they are discovered by the Bloodshed Clan’s formal disciples. If they are separated, there’s a smaller possibility that the other party is able to kill everybody as the forest is a huge one!”

“Helena had a frown on her face. “We would be stronger if we gather together but we are still incomparable to the Bloodshed Clan. If they are usual or informal disciples, it will be easy to defeat them. However, we will be easily wiped out if those people are formal disciples or elders. Hence, it will not be beneficial for us if we plan to gather the remaining members of the White family or Cabello family!”

On the other hand, Kenneth said, “It might not be beneficial for others to gather their people but it will be much better for us. After all, there are quite a number of us here who are in the ultimate god-level and Young Master Jack is capable of killing those in the seventh-grade ultimate godlevel. Hence, it will be the safest for the others to find us!”

Helena nodded and responded, “That is true. Based on Jack’s current combat power, we will be quite safe unless we bump into their elders or pavilion master. However, we will be a large target and can be easily discovered if there are too many of us. Sigh, I realized right now that both gathering together and traveling separately are both not good choices!”

The others also felt a wave of headache and they had no idea how they should handle the situation.

Harry was silent for some time before he said while looking at Jack, “Jack has the highest fighting prowess and the strongest combat power. I don’t care about others, I shall listen to him. Whatever he says floats with me as I feel that following Young Master Jack is the safest choice!”

Jack was speechless. Everybody there was “looking at him as they were obviously waiting for him to make a decision.

He thought about it and said, “No matter what, let’s find our people or the forces who have a good relationship with us and those who are willing to follow our lead. Some of the forces might not be willing to come with us even if we are willing to let them follow us! Let’s find them and let them understand the situation we are in. Some people might not know what the situation outside is like and have no idea about the general condition of this area.”

“That’s right. We should at least let the others know that there’s a possibility where we have been pinpointed by the Bloodshed Clan. Everybody might stop killing one another because of this. If not, our forces would be weakened due to mutual killing before the enemies arrive!” Nash thought about it and said.

“Yes. At least the members of the Cabello family look forward to meeting us!”

Chapter 1765

Alejandro said while nodding his head as he was very confident towards the loyalty of “the Cabello family’s members.

“Let’s go. There are some fighting noises around that area. Let’s go over now to take a look!” Jack flew up to take a look. He pointed to his right and said.

The group of people soon flew towards that area.

Soon, they saw that Kevin was leading around 1000 members of the Cabello family in a fight against 2000 members of the Lagorio family and disciples of the Skies Pavilion.

Kevin and two other elders of the Cabello family had already broken through into the First-grade ultimate god-level at this moment. However, the other party had four members in the First-grade ultimate god level and they had the upper hand in terms of their number of people. This caused Kevin and the others to be in a completely passive situation. They were obviously suppressed by the other party in this fight.

“D*mn it! The members of the Lagorio family and Skies Pavilion are real b*stard as they always pinpoint against our Cabello family!” Kevin started scolding while he was fighting as he was absolutely unhappy about the situation.

“Haha... You have to blame the members of the Cabello family for constantly assisting the White family! Since you people are great friends with the White family, you are the enemies of our Skies Pavilion and Lagorio family!” An old man from the Skies Pavilion yelled out loudly. “However, Kevin Cabello, I know that you are the alchemist of the Cabello family. We can spare your life if you choose to surrender. However, you have to cultivate pills for our people in the future. Do you understand?”

Kevin was furious. “A*shole! You people are our enemies and you want me to cultivate pills for my enemies? Are you dreaming?”

“Haha... You should think this true as you’ve just broken through into the ultimate god level with much difficulty and your lifespan has just been increased. How wasteful would it be if you die here? Once you choose to surrender to us, we shall not be enemies and you are one of our members. Isn’t it quite normal for a person to cultivate pills for their members?” The old man from the Skies Pavilion laughed out loudly and he obviously need not look forward to killing Kevin. After all, alchemists were noble professions, especially second-grade alchemists like Kevin. He might have experienced some improvement and keeping him alive would be extremely beneficial for these people!

“Blecch! I would rather die than surrender!” Kevin said hatefully.

Chapter 1766

“What a stubborn old man you are! Since you want to die that badly, don’t blame us for killing you!” The old man standing opposite had lost his patience. His attack was much stronger than before, and he did not hold back when he took action.

“First Elder, look! Over there!” yelled a young man from the Cabello family, pointing in a direction. He exclaimed, “Those look like members of our Cabello family, and it seems that members of the White family are also there. Thank goodness that there are lots of them, and it’s our main group of people! We’ve finally met our main team of people!”

The eyes of other Cabello family members turned red. They thought that they would die, but they saw hope in the situation and in winning “It’s really the family members and our other members!” Kevin’s eyes also turned “red in excitement. “Master, we’re here! Come quickly and save us!”

Meanwhile, their opponents paled when they realized it was indeed Jack, and there were a total of 10,000 to 20,000 people with him.

“Run!”

“F*ck! Why are there so many of them?!”

Members of the Lagorio family and Skies Pavilion were so frightened to the core that their previous momentum was long gone.

“Kill them!” Jack would not hold back when he found out that they were his old enemies. Casting his order, he zipped forward-the fastest he had ever been.

“F*ck! You guys have a death wish for wanting to go against my Cabello family’s members!” Alejandro and the others rushed forward just as fast. They had been worried about Kevin and the others all this while, and upon encountering this group of people, they wanted to kill every last opposing fighter.

“How’s this possible? How can they be so speedy?” The people of the Skies Pavilion were so frightened that their faces turned ashen, seeing how swiftly they moved. No doubt it would be difficult to evade them with that speed.

“D*mn it! A person in the First-grade ultimate god-level can’t achieve such speed. They must’ve achieved the Thirdgrade or Fourth-grade ultimate god-level!” A person who was in the First-grade ultimate god-level was in complete despair. Within seconds, Jack and the others were right in front of them, surrounding their opponent at every corner. Their opponents would not be able to escape unscathed.

“Attack!” Jack took out a sword with a wave of his hand, and after activating his chi, he waved his sword outward.

Whoosh!

A long wave of sword aura immediately rushed forward and instantly killed more than 100 people. The sword aura was incredibly extensive and had a long tail that covered the entire area.

“Dear me! Jack’s attack instantly killed those people, regardless if they’re in the true god-level or First-grade ultimate godlevel!” Kevin gaped at the scene. “What’s his current fighting prowess again? It looks like he’s improved a lot after entering this area!”

Boom! Boom! Boom!

He took another look. Whether it was Nash and Kenneth—both in another direction or their family master, Alejandro, all of them were extremely strong and managed to kill a few hundred people within several moves. At this rate, not only would they be victorious, but they would not incur a hefty price for it, too.
