The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Boss

Chapter 2081

Chapter 2081 Good Son-In-Law

Clayton was a Wall Street investor, so he would not be unaware of such a well – known figure in the industry. 1

Since Jay Malone retired, many rookies had not heard of him.

Jay Malone was the true big shot.

Clayton did not expect his late mother-in-law to have such a relationship with Jay Malone.

Jay was sitting in the living room. He was more than ten years older than Floyd, but he looked healthy and was an open-minded old man.

He looked authoritative and had such a strong presence.

However, Jay was excited at this time, so he did not look so cold and distant.

Nicole walked in and went over politely to say hello.

“Godfather, how are you?”

She looked at Jay. Her impression of Jay was from ten years ago. Jay was tall, strong, and omnipotent.

However, there was no denying that the old man in front of her had gotten older although he still had the same temperament.

The wrinkles on Jay's face could not be concealed, but he still had a strong build and looked to be in good spirits.

Jay was chatting with Floyd. He looked at Nicole and raised his eyebrows.

"This little girl is all grown up now! She looks more and more like her mother."

Nicole paused and subconsciously looked at Floyd.

Floyd's expression did not change. He nodded with a smile. 1

Nicole was a little relieved to see this.

Floyd pointed at Clayton, who was next to Nicole.

"This is Clayton Sloan, my good son-in-law."

Clayton was polite and knew what to say. Before Jay spoke, Clayton said with a warm and humble smile, "Mr. Malone, I've long heard of your name."

Jay was stunned for a while. He seemed to be deliberately making a fuss.

"Oh? When and where have you heard of my name?"

Nicole was speechless as she thought, 'Why is he embarrassing my husband?'

She looked to Floyd for help, but Floyd smiled nonchalantly.

This seemed expected.

Clayton smiled faintly and said calmly, "Back when I first started investing on Wall Street, I made my first pot of gold after reading numerous case studies from you, Mr. Malone. You're my inspiration. I've always admired you A

Jay was obviously shocked by Clayton's words.

He was not only shocked but also very satisfied.

Clayton looked gentle, but he was not timid, nor did he have the bad habit of pretending to be arrogant just because he was rich.

Jay thought, 'Why didn't I meet such a humble and honest son-in-law?'

He immediately slapped his thigh in excitement and praised Clayton.

"Floyd, you do have a good son-in-law! You have a good eye for picking him!"

After speaking, Jay gave Nicole a thumbs up.

"Lil N, you're a lucky one! "

Nicole blinked and smiled shyly.

If Jay continued to praise Clayton, Nicole would start blushing.

Nicole walked over, poured a cup of tea for Jay, and said with a smile, "Godfather, didn't you retire to an island? Why did you come back? Is Sister back too?" 1

She was referring to Jay's daughter.

Nicole had met Jay's only daughter before, but they did not keep in touch.

That was because Jay's daughter was a devoted scientist who traveled all around the world with no fixed place of residence. She would be in Europe one day and Africa the next.

She was a true science geek. 1

Jay sipped on the tea and said with a smile, “She didn’t come back, but I have a grandson to spend the rest of my days with now. It’s much better than being alone on the island.”

Nicole strongly agreed. “Right! It’s better to stay here. What’s the point of living on an island? With global warming, the island might be flooded! What will you do then?”

The corners of Jay’s mouth twitched as he looked at Nicole. “You little...”

Floyd chuckled. “Go away! Stop with your nonsense. You even bought one yourself! ”

Nicole muttered, “I’m selling it right away! ”

Jay sighed and pointed at Nicole.

“This brat only looks like her mother but doesn’t have the same temperament. Her mother was not at all extravagant or wasteful back then...”

Nicole raised an eyebrow. “I’ll be a fool if I don’t spend the money that I have. My family wasn’t that rich when my mother died anyway. So, now that we’re rich, I gotta spend my mother’s share as well!”

Jay could not help but laugh out loud. He shook his head and looked helpless.

Floyd sighed sadly when he heard Nicole’s words.

Nicole paused.

Jay seemed to reminisce about the past and sighed.

“Forget it. It’s also my fault. We owe her too much...”

Floyd looked grief-stricken. Clayton paused and said in a warm voice, “Dad, the physiotherapist is here. Why don’t we go for the physiotherapy session first and let Nicole stay here for a while?”

Floyd was about to refuse when Jay waved his hand and said, “Go on! You shouldn’t neglect your health. I’ll be staying with you for a while anyway, so we have ample time to catch up.”

Floyd nodded and stood up supporting his back.

Clayton hurried over to help, but Floyd stopped him.

“You can stay.”

Clayton bowed his head and agreed.

Floyd intended to give Clayton a chance to interact with Jay Malone so that they could get acquainted.

Nicole smiled and leaned forward.

“Godfather, you don’t have to leave. Just stay with my dad! What’s your grandson’s name?”

“Fischer Malone. His nickname is Fish.”

Jay said with a smile, “That’s because I love fishing.”

Nicole was speechless.

“When did Sister give birth? We didn’t hear any news about it either!”

Jay clicked his tongue and sighed.

“She gave birth in Africa. I was so pissed off because she and her husband were roaming around and even wanted to bring my grandson with them! The places they go to are underdeveloped and unhygienic. Aren’t they just letting my grandson suffer?”

Nicole blinked, lowered her head, and explained to Clayton, “ Godfather’s daughter and son-in-law are both scientists. Both their names appear most frequently in international publications.” 1

Clayton nodded with a smile. “Talented people are truly rare.”

Jay snorted softly. “I wanted her to take over my company and managed to trick her into returning by saying that I was dying. She took over for a couple of days and started to contact people to acquire my company! I was so angry that I could only put my hopes on my son-in-law. That was when I found a man who was willing to marry her and take our last name. He was very capable and could take care of her. As a result, she eloped with her current husband and came back with a marriage license. I really think that I owed her in my past life!”

Clayton and Nicole looked at each other, and Nicole could not help but laugh.

“Godfather, is that why you insisted on keeping Fish by your side no matter what?”

Jay glanced at her. “Of course! I must nurture him well. I can’t let him follow in his parents’ footsteps.” 1

Nicole lowered her head and said to Clayton, “This is the difficulty of having a family empire to inherit.”

Clayton glanced at her and said with a smile, “Of course, someone ought to inherit Mr. Malone’s greatness.”

Jay nodded in agreement. "Just call me godfather as Nicole does."

Chapter 2082 You're the Most Sensible

Nicole had underestimated how much elders liked Clayton.

Jay meant that he had completely accepted Clayton.

Clayton was truly a force to reckon with for winning Jay over so easily.

Clayton replied obediently, "Godfather."

"Good."

Jay smiled, looked at Clayton, and shook his head.

"I can die without regrets if only I have a son-in-law like you.

Unfortunately..."

Jay sighed and changed the topic.

"Lil N, has your dad been single all these years?"

Nicole nodded. "My dad has been working for us half his life. He doesn't even think about his own affairs anymore."

Jay's eyes were deep and envious.

"Your mother chose the right guy! "

Nicole knew about the past, but she did not mention it much.

She smiled and said to Mr. Anderson, "Ask my brothers to come home. They haven't seen our godfather for a long time, so they should come back."

Mr. Anderson responded quickly and went out to contact the Stanton brothers.

Jay nodded at Nicole. "You're still the most sensible one."

He sighed and stood up.

"I'll get some rest in the guest room. Will you guys take care of Lil Fish for me? I really can't keep up with him at my age."

"Sure!" Nicole agreed immediately.

Jay took two steps out and suddenly remembered something. He then took out two black cards from his pocket and said, "I almost forgot to give you your gifts. Here you go! "

Nicole simply took it and said with a smile, "That's embarrassing. We didn't prepare any gifts for you. Thanks, Godfather! "

Clayton hesitated and took it under Nicole's watch.

"Thankyou, Godfather."

Jay pointed at him and laughed.

"Take good care of our Lil N. Otherwise, I'll make you regret it."

It was half a threat and half a joke.

However, Clayton understood Jay's meaning and respectfully responded with a smile.

Nicole asked a servant to lead Jay to the guest room. She breathed a sigh of relief, looked at the black card in hand, and said with a smile, "Godfather has always been generous! He definitely gave a sizable amount. We'd better give Fish more."

Clayton nodded but looked puzzled.

"Mr. Malone doesn't show up very often. Did he return to Mediana just for his grB:]xJoTSSon?"

Nicole glanced at him before muttering, "It's probably because Mom's death anniversary is coming up."

Clayton glanced at Nicole. She pursed her lips and continued, "I only know a little bit about what happened between them back then. My godfather fell in love with my mother first, but they somehow broke up and he went abroad. When he came back, he was married and had children. He had already become famous then. My mom was also married to my dad, who was still a budding entrepreneur. They had it tough. My dad's business was growing fast, so his rival framed him. My godfather helped out my dad in secret. My dad said that if my mom wasn't married, my godfather would've definitely divorced his wife and married my mother. Unfortunately, my mom didn't love him anymore..."

Nicole sighed. "Godfather told me all these. I think he beautified the story. He probably broke up with my mom to go abroad and marry a rich young lady for his personal benefit. Otherwise, why would he be so guilty?"

Clayton touched her head.

“Alright. Let’s not mention this. Your mom might regret it if she had married him.”

Nicole nodded in agreement.

“That’s why I will always support my dad! ”

While they were talking, Chatty drove the little train over and laughed loudly.

Lil Fish was thrown off the train, but he ran behind it happily.

“Chatty! Chatty...”

Fischer’s smile was very sweet and charming. He was fair, tender, and very handsome.

Chatty was used to being domineering. She stopped the train from time to time to wait for him.

However, as soon as he touched the train, Chatty stepped on the accelerator and drove away again.

They kept playing like this, but Fish was not annoyed and laughed even more.

Clayton looked at them with a smile. He nodded reassuringly when he saw that his daughter was not at a disadvantage.

Mr. Anderson had already started to order the kitchen to prepare dinner.

After a while, Floyd’s physiotherapy session was over. Kai and Grant also came back one after another.

Clayton answered a few calls regarding Kirsi, and he instructed his subordinates in a low voice by the window.

Nicole was sitting on the sofa, slowly sipping on some juice.

When Aida brought Levi in, Levi obediently greeted everyone one by one.

It was Nicole's turn. Just as Nicole was about to hold Levi's face to kiss him, Levi suddenly pointed not far away.

"Someone is kissing my sister! "

Nicole looked back in shock.

Levi was not lying.

Chatty ditched the train and started to run around hand in hand with Fish.

At that moment, Fish was so excited that he wanted to kiss Chatty's cheek.

In the next second, someone picked up Chatty from behind, keeping her away from Fish.

Nicole saw that it was Clayton.

Lil Fish could not understand why Clayton was looking at him with such chill and disgust. The boy rubbed his hands and touched Chatty's little feet.

"Kissy..."

Just in time, Jay's voice came from upstairs. He was walking down the stairs.

Clayton frowned and looked at the little boy.

He could not offend Jay Malone, but he did not want this little boy to take advantage of his precious daughter.

Nicole stared at Clayton, amused.

Clayton reluctantly put Chatty down, looked at Fish, stuck out his cheek, and pointed at it.

“Here, you can kiss me...”

Nicole was speechless.

She laughed so hard that her stomach hurt.

Fish did not shy away from Clayton. He hugged Clayton and gave him a big, slobbery kiss. His saliva was stuck on Clayton’s cheek.

Chatty also hugged and kissed Clayton excitedly.

“Daddy, me too!”

Clayton smiled gently.

Fish followed suit, hugging Clayton with his little body.

“Daddy, me too!”

Clayton was helpless. He could not be rude to a child.

What’s more, this fair and tender kid was very likable.

Fish did not cry when Chatty pushed him to the ground, nor did he cry when Chatty accidentally hit him with a toy. Instead, Fish kept taking things around him to please Chatty.

Clayton looked at Fish and thought that this boy was becoming more pleasing to the eye.

Nicole grinned and watched as Clayton walked over after he coaxed the children.

“It’s rare to see you being so patient with other people’s children »

Clayton raised his eyebrows. “Really? He doesn’t fight back nor talkback to Chatty. Don’t you think that he’s very suitable for her?”

Nicole’s face froze as she thought, ‘Is Clayton considering Fish as his future son-in-law?’

“Don’t even think about it. Chatty is free to marry whoever she wants!”

“I know. I’m just seeing a prospect. In the future, I want Chatty to get a boyfriend like this! ”

This way, Chatty would never be bullied.

Jay Malone was obviously very envious of this family reunion.

However, he was in a good mood and made himself comfortable. He drank a lot of wine with them while talking and laughing.

At the same time, Kirsi packed her suitcase and prepared to move out that night.

She slept soundly in the afternoon, and she did not ask for much help. She only had one driver and one assistant to carry her things downstairs.

When she got downstairs, she suddenly heard a “bang”. 1

A chill spread from her bones to her whole body as she raised her head stiffly.

Kirsi saw a car window lowering gradually in the distance.
