Maysun did not get angry and she remained smiling. "What I meant is that I am still of noble birth now. My status is even higher than Kidon City's Poole family and South City's Ford family."

Aino immediately nodded. "I understood it already. You're saying that your status is higher than our Ford family and also my Uncle Poole's family, and you are from the topmost noble family, which is the Kemp family, right?"

Maysun nodded. "That's precisely what I meant. Therefore, little child, you always have to be polite and respectful whenever you're speaking to me because your grandparents and also your father are always respectful in front of me."

Aino instantly burst out laughing. "Ha!"

Maysun was speechless.

"My grandparents are respectful to you. Since you have such a high and noble status, then why are you still thinking of stealing my mom's husband and thinking of seducing my dad? Maysun Kemp, you must know that my dad is already married and his wife is my mom. You're such a noblewoman. Do you want to be my dad's mistress?"

The little girl's tone was so forceful that it made Maysun irritated.

"You! Aino Scott! You've gone overboard! " Maysun immediately scolded loudly. " When have I said that I am here to seduce your father and to be your father's mistress? Don't keep saying that I am a mistress and I am here to seduce your dad!"

After saying that, Maysun turned around and looked at Rose, who had not uttered a word the whole time. "Madam Ford..."

Rose's eyes were fixated on Sebastian. Sebastian had been looking at her since the moment he came in and that sent a chill down Rose's spine. She had also been watching Sebastian and Aino closely. She wanted to see how much did Aino and Sebastian hate her from their expression. In the end, what she saw made her feel a chill down the spine, and she did not even hear Maysun calling her.

"Madam Ford," Maysun called out again.

Only then did Rose regained her senses.

Madam Ford, Maysun called out again.

Only then did Rose regained her senses. She looked at Sebastian with embarrassment and tried her best to maintain her dignity as the matriarch of the house. "Sebastian! I know that you've been overwhelmed these few days because of what happened to Sabrina. However, no matter how overwhelmed you are, you should still care for your own dignity! Also, Aino! You are no longer a small child! You're already going to attend elementary school soon. As a child from the Ford family, you must learn to be a graceful young lady! You can't behave like a shrew when you meet an outsider! Particularly when Miss Kemp is an esteemed guest invited by us! In a while, the head of the Kemp family will also be flying over from Kidon City to pay their last respect to your grandpa! In the entire country, there is only one Kemp family. It is completely out of respect to me and your father that they are coming here to pay their last respects to your grandpa."

At that moment, Rose was lacking in confidence that she could only use the Kemp family's name to intimidate Sebastian

Kemp family's name to intimidate Sebastian.

Sebastian sneered. "Is that so?"

"Sebastian, what kind of tone is that you're using to speak to me?" Rose asked. Rose was trying her best to maintain her dignity in front of Maysun. Sebastian sneered again and he did not say anything. He just turned around and left, holding Aino's hand.

"You...Sebastian!" Rose called out behind them.

Sebastian did not even look back. He just held Aino's hand and walked inside. Old Master Ford had passed away. After all, he was Sebastian's grandpa and the deceased were to be respected, so no matter what, Sebastian had to bring Aino to pay their respect to him. As he led Aino further and further away, Sebastian said to Aino, "Little child, you were very brave and you're very smart. You could tell at a glance that Maysun Kemp wants to take over your mom's place?"

Aino raised her head and snorted. "I am very sensitive towards all of my mom's love rivals!"

love rivals!"

"Mm-hmm! My daughter has the best alertness," praised Sebastian.

"Hmph! After all, I am your daughter. Like father, like daughter." The little girl had learned this saying a long time ago from all sorts of cartoons she had watched on the tablet.

Sebastian could not help but smile. "However, little child, you have shown your hands just now."

"What's the meaning of show hands?" Aino did not understand, so she just looked at her father.

Sebastian's expression became cold. "Rose is clutching at straws like a desperate drowning dog!"

Chapter 1842

When Aino heard her father say that Rose was like a dog, Aino laughed gleefully. She covered her mouth as she laughed. "Dad, you said that grandma is a desperate drowning dog, and you even said that she is clutching at straws. She is so old. She doesn't have the strength to clutch on anything at all."

Of course, the little child only understood those words at face value.

Sebastian patiently explained to his daughter. "What I meant by she's clutching at straws like a desperate drowning dog is that the old woman already knew how much we hated her, so she is already thinking of a way to fight against us."

Aino nodded. "I understand, Dad! I will fight against that old hag together with you!"

Sebastian looked at his daughter, feeling a little heartbroken. "Are you afraid?"

everyone other than the Ford family. Regardless of which corner in South City he was at, no one would dare to utter a sound if Sebastian were to just stomp his feet. Even though he was such a powerful man, he would still suffer all sorts of schemes set up by his own family. His father, stepmother, and his younger twin brother had set him up, which led to his wife being abducted. How sad and miserable was that? Moreover, no outsiders could help him. At that moment, the only person he and his six-year-old daughter could rely on was unexpectedly only each other. He wanted to rescue his wife as fast as he could, so he had to find another way. Sebastian looked at his daughter with a sorrowful expression.

"Dad, I am not afraid!" Aino said firmly. "To rescue Mom, I can do anything and I absolutely will not be afraid. Even if I was caught by bad people, I will not be afraid. Dad, I will think of many ways to escape. I had just escaped from being held by Uncle Holden a few days ago, and that is the best example."

Sebastian smiled with great satisfaction. "Would you be interested to put on an act

"Is it an act that could rescue mom?" asked Aino.

"Of course!"

Aino became excited. "Then of course I will be interested! Dad, I will be the best actress."

Aino had never felt happy and heartbroken at the same time before. She was heartbroken because her mother was still in the hands of the bad person and it was unclear if she was still alive.

However, at that moment, Aino felt happy because she could work together with her father. She raised her head and looked at her father with a determined gaze. They then walked hand in hand further inwards.

At that moment, both Lily and Maysun were standing on either side of Rose. Rose had to stand at the entrance to greet the incoming guests. The two of them, on the other hand, were sticking out like a sore thumb, but none of them was willing to leave. It was only natural that Lily was not willing to leave Rose's side. This was

The Kemp family was the topmost noble family in the country. They were so unmatched by anyone that even the Poole family in Kidon City and both the Ford family and the Shaw family in South City had to give the Kemp family a lot of money and resources every year as tribute. Although they were so unmatched by anyone, they actually had been living in seclusion in the past fifty years. That was particularly so for Maysun's parents. They were even more unconcerned with worldly affairs.

After all, the Poole family are in power in Kidon City, and the Ford and Shaw family are in power in South City. Therefore, regardless of what happened, the Kemp family had no business in them at all. It was already pretty good for the Kemp family to be able to have hereditary glory and wealth. What more can they ask for? Therefore, Maysun's father, Adrian Kemp, sent his few children abroad for studies soon after they were born. Later o Maysun, who was Adrian's youngest child, was the only exception. Just like her siblings, Maysun had been sent abroad to study when she was very young. However, as Maysun was born when Adrian was already rather old, she was more spoiled than her siblings. She could not get used to being abroad, so she kept running back to the country. So much so that for most of the time, her studies were neglected. When it was time for her to go college, she could only attend a diploma mill because of her bad grades. Later on, she spent quite a few years abroad without any employment after she graduated from college.

Fortunately for her, the Kemp family was the topmost noble family in the country, so even if Maysun did not work a day in her life, she could still maintain her lifestyle as a little princess of a noble family. Therefore, she had been living a lavish life abroad.

However, as the years went by, those true aristocrats abroad looked down on her even more. On the other hand, after she returned to the country, there were only a even more. On the other hand, after she returned to the country, there were only a few eminent and noble families that were up to her standards.

First of all, there was the Poole family in Kidon City. Alex was just a few years older than Maysun, so he would have been considered quite a suitable match for her. However, it was unfortunate that Alex had already had a sweetheart, Lily, at a very young age, and Maysun would not be able to defeat Lily. Later on, the Kemp family had also thought of marrying Maysun to one of the boys from the Ford family. Unfortunately, the first three boys from the Ford family were much older than Maysun, so they were not suitable. To marry into the Shaw family? Maysun was not too willing to do that because the Shaw family was not as rich as the Ford family.

It so happened that Maysun met Lily when she returned home this time. Maysun almost could not recognize Lily. Maysun had the impression that although Lily was not from the noblest family in Kidon City, Lily was still very haughty. The reason for her haughtiness was that Lily had a very powerful boyfriend, Alex Poole. However, why was Lily in such a downcast state at that moment? ①

Maysun felt very pleased with the way Lily addressed her, so she immediately replied politely, "Of course, there is no problem, little princess of the Parker family, who had been practicing medicine for generations. How about we find a cafe and properly continue our conversation?"

No problem.

The two of them sat in the café for an entire afternoon, and Lily helped Maysun devise a plan to find a husband.

"Let me tell you this, little princess. The current head of the Ford family has been in charge of the Ford Group for seven years. The Ford Group had doubled quite a few times in his hands. Also, Sebastian Ford truly is..."

What Lily said made Maysun long for Sebastian greatly. She had even already started to dream about him. "Isn't he the man that I have been searching for and always wanted? Such a man is the most compatible with my status and my beauty."

"The South City today is in pandemonium caused by those few shrews. It's truly very infuriating!" said Lily as she slapped the table.

Maysun smiled gently. "It's fine now that I am here. We'll join hands and get rid of this pandemonium!"

"Alright!" Lily wore a sinister smile on her face. Rose was immensely happy to have gotten Maysun on her side. This

● I've gotten Maysun on her side. This way, not only could she further her relationship with the Kemp family, but she could also gain a daughter-in-law who would obey her. She could kill two birds with one stone! That was great!

Each of the three women who stood at the entrance were harboring evil intentions in their mind.

Maysun said to Rose and Sean politely, "Mister Ford, Madam Ford, it's not quite appropriate for me to stand here at the entrance to greet the guests. After all, I don't know many of the guests here. I want to go in and pay my respects to Old Master Ford."

"Alright, go ahead," Rose agreed without waiting for Sean to answer.

Looking at Maysun walking inside elegantly, Sean questioned Rose. "Are you really planning to create an opportunity for Sebastian to change his wife?"

Chapter 1844

Rose sneered. "Can't I?"

Sean was speechless. If he were not at his father's funeral, Sean would have slapped this damned old woman to death with his own bare hands! It was her! Everything happened because of her! He glared at Rose with a vicious gaze. It was only after he glared at her for a while that he remembered Lily was still beside them.

"Godfather," Lily called out to Sean awkwardly.

Sean was annoyed. "Lily! You should not be greeting guests here. Go back to your room immediately!"

"Got it, Godfather," Lily said. She left unhappily, and only Sean and Rose were left at the entrance. It was still very early in the morning then, so the majority of the people who were coming to pay their last respects and offer condolences have not arrived yet. It so happened that there were no one around during that window, so Sean scolded Rose without any qualms, "D*mned old woman! It's all your fault! Now, even Aino doesn't acknowledge me

Sean was absolutely exasperated as he looked at Rose. People said that couples who got married young would grow to become lifelong companions. After a married couple had been together for so many years, it was reasonable to say that they should take care of each other when they get older. However, what about Sean? Looking back on his life, Sean realized that his whole life was almost destroyed by this old woman.

Sean used to be a domineering and powerful man as well. Fifty years ago, the Ford Group was not as thriving as it was at that moment. There was even a time when the Ford Group was almost shut down because of Henry's poor management. However, after Sean had taken over, he revived the Ford Group with all his might. The Ford Group was already a very dominant force in South City back then. However, this woman! This woman named Rose Quinton insisted on urging Sean to develop business on Star Island because she business on Star Island because she wanted to showcase her conduct as a strong and capable woman. In the end, not only were there not much improvement in business performance within three years, but Sean almost lost the Ford Group that had built after working hard for several years.

Back then, the Ford Group had invested the majority of its funds in Star Island, so if they were to give up, then it would be a complete lost cause. If they continued to occupy Star Island, they would anger the natives of the island. It was Rose, the d*mned old woman, who came up with an idea again! She made him seduce the daughter of the former Chief of the Island, who was the true princess of Star Island! Only then could they truly establish a firm position on Star Island. That one wrong decision that Sean made back then caused him to continuously make mistakes every step of the way.

She was quite a nice girl. She was pure and was very intelligent and talented, especially in architecture designing. She loved him so much, and her love was incomparably pure. However, he lied to her instead. He had lied to her for her instead. He had lied to her for her whole life, so much so that she never married and she could not even see him, who was her husband in a true sense, before she died. Not only that, but it was also because of him that she was not able to see her youngest son once even when she was on her deathbed.

These were all the sins that Sean had committed! It was an ill-fated relationship that he started! It was his fault and his sins, but disaster was brought onto his first three sons and they all died a horrible death because of him.

Chapter 1845

That was not all! At that moment, Sean was only left with two sons. They were clearly twins and had the same mother, but because of the instigation by this d*mned old woman, Rose, the two brothers became arch enemies! How could Sean not be hateful? When he thought of the hatred he felt, Sean unexpectedly raised his hand and slapped Rose viciously across her face in broad daylight. "D*mned old woman! Why are you not the person who died! You deserved to die!"

Rose instantly became furious. "You slapped me?"

Sean was still glaring at her with his eyes widened. "Yes, I did slap you!"

"You actually openly slapped me in this place where we're greeting guests at my father-in-law's funeral?" Rose's tears streamed down her face. "Sean Ford! Are you bullying me because firstly, I don't have my family to back me up now and secondly, I don't have my own sons to back me up, which means I am already a lonely old lady, so even you want to beat me up and bully me? lonely old lady, so even you want to beat me up and bully me? I have worked so hard my whole life for your Ford family! In the end, even the lives of my three sons have been sacrificed! I have also given the only nine hundred million dollars I have to you and that mistress' son! What I got in return is you slapping me?" said Rose.

The more she spoke, the more aggrieved she felt and the more upset she got. When she felt more upset, she was reminded of the past. "Sean Ford! You were the one who fooled around with women! Initially, I did let you keep Grace as your mistress! However, I also had no choice at that time, and I had my back to the wall! If there were any other way, would I have pushed my own husband into the arms of another woman? Under those circumstances, if you had any conscience for me and for our children, would you have let her get pregnant with your child? You were obviously having so much fun when you were with her that you had forgotten to use protection. That's why my sons suffered the fate of being exterminated later, and I ended up being a lonely old lady, and yet, just see for yourself, does this son of yours have the slightest bit of respect for you now? ghtest bit of respect for you now? Has Sebastian ever treated you as his father? No! He never did!"

Sean was speechless. Rose was right, and so, Sean suddenly was in deep thoughts.

Rose sighed. "Old man, you and I are already in our seventies. After giving our whole lives to the Ford family, could it be that we can't even die a good death when our time comes? Have you seen Aino's gaze when she was here just now? Her gaze was clearly saying that if she did not have both of us old farts killed, then she wouldn't be called Aino Scott!"

Sean suddenly shuddered.

Rose was right. Sean had also clearly seen Aino's gaze earlier on. The child had changed a lot in the past two days. The incomparably strong hatred in her eyes was very obvious.

"Sean, you're just too soft-hearted,"

Rose said. "You have always wanted to be close to that child. You thought she was your granddaughter, but what about her? She will never acknowledge you as her grandfather in her life. She will never feel sorry for you. She will never care for you.

ry for you. She will never care for you. She will only find the opportunity to kill you!"

After saying that, she added, "She is so young. She is only six years old. Yet, her eyes were filled with murderous intent. She has Sebastian's blood in her bones! Sebastian is a person who had killed his three brothers in one fell swoop! What about you and me? Sean, although you are Aino's grandfather, you are just her grandfather and not her father, let alone the fact Aino hates you. What about me then?"

Speaking of that, Rose smiled miserably. "I am even worse than you. I have no blood relations with her at all and she hates me even more. Sean, after Aino has grown up a little more, do you think she will spare you or me?"

Sean was speechless. He had nothing to say. What his wife said were all true. Judging by how much Aino hated him, Aino certainly would never spare him in her life, let alone sparing her grandmother, who was not close to her and had no blood relations to her.

There was a long pause before Sean said i

There was a long pause before Sean said in a deep voice, "What are you planning to do?"

Rose smiled helplessly. "I just want to save myself and I don't want to die a very miserable death. I only want to spend my sunset years in peace."

"Spit it out. What do you want to do?" Sean wanted to hear what Rose had in mind.

Rose leaned into Sean's ear and whispered something.

"No! D*mned old woman, you're too vicious!" Sean raised his hand and slapped Rose in her face again.
