

Chapter 4110

Kelly did not clearly know about what happened to the Fei family,

So she did not know that Stella had already started her escape journey with her grandfather, at this time.

Moreover, in order not to leave clues to her eldest uncle, Stella did not dare to contact these two when she left.

However, Kelly did not think much of it.

After all, Stella is the Fei family's first lady, and she is not at all on the same level,

She must have a little something temporary needing her attention, there is no need to say hello to her every time.

So she put the matter behind her and laughed:

"Let's not worry about it, maybe one day she will come over to us after she's done."

At this time, Charlie also finished the check-in procedure, handed his luggage to the waiter to take upstairs first,

Then came to the two people and said, "The procedure is done, does Ms. West want to come up and sit down together?"

Kelly shook her head with a smile and said, "I won't go over there, you guys go back to your rooms and clean up first,"

“I’ll wait for you in the restaurant, but you don’t need to rush, we’ll eat just after seven o’clock.”

Then Mr. and Mrs. Charlie said goodbye to Kelly for the time being and took the elevator to the presidential suite on the top floor first.

As soon as they entered the elevator, Claire said to Charlie,

“Honey, Kelly couldn’t contact Miss Zhan even in the past two days, she won’t be in any trouble, right?”

Charlie laughed: “I don’t think so, she’s a rich girl, she enjoys life every day, what kind of trouble can she have?”

Claire said: “But that should not be unable to contact ah, call her it is off,”

“Sent her a message she did not return, sent a WeChat also no response.”

Charlie said casually, “I think the probability is that she has something important to go back to France,”

“After a while, she may go back to Aurous Hill.”

“Okay.” Claire nodded gently and didn’t think much more.

Charlie took Claire to the presidential suite on the top floor, and the moment the door swept open,

What came into view was a huge living room with an area of over a hundred square meters.

And because of the high floor, one side of the living room is full of floor-to-ceiling glass windows.

The entire city of Providence can be seen, and even from here, the entire Rhode Island School of Design can be seen in full.

As soon as she saw this living room, Claire was stunned speechless and asked offhandedly,

“Husband you what type of room did you book? How come it’s so big

Charlie laughed: “This is their presidential suite, at the southernmost end of the entire top floor,”

“A little better privacy and a little better environment.”

Claire was surprised and asked, “You wouldn’t have booked the presidential suite for a month

Charlie said with a smile: “A month is definitely not enough, I booked it for forty days,”

“If there is a change in the schedule, then we can easily extend the stay.”

Claire said: “Forty days here, I’m afraid it’s a million husband, this is too extravagant

“Why don’t we change the room, the two of us, a normal one-room suite is enough

Charlie said seriously: “Claire, you are here for further study, then every day in addition to classes at school,”

“Come back to review, drawing, do all kinds of homework, how can it all work?”

“Besides, you usually would go to school, I must be bored to death staying alone in the hotel,”

“This presidential suite has a large area, which can more or less relieve some of the boredom,”

“Otherwise, it won’t be long before I can’t stand it anymore.”

Once Claire heard this, she quickly said, “Husband, it’s really hard for you, coming all this way to accompany me

Charlie gently scraped on her nose and laughed: “I am your husband, this situation is certainly incumbent on me.”

Claire nodded and said, “I’ll go check our bedroom first,”

“You help me bring in the luggage from the living room, I’ll simply tidy up!”

“Okay.” Charlie agreed, Claire then hurriedly went to look for the bedroom.

This presidential suite is too large, without getting familiar with it first, you simply don’t know what each room is for.

So Charlie was ready to go and take his luggage when the cell phone in his pocket suddenly vibrated.

He took it out by hand and glanced at it, and found that the message came from a phone number that started with +1.

Charlie knew that the international area code for the whole of North America was +1,

So he instinctively thought that the message might be the same as a welcome text message from a certain city in China,

Which is a way to welcome in a certain city, but when he clicked on the text message,

He suddenly found that it read, "Xiaofen is in trouble, please come to Vancouver quickly!"
