Chapter 1049 How Can I Stop Liking You?

“You also don’t like Nicole, right? Look at her. She’s so high and mighty, wearing branded clothes and sitting in luxury cars all day long. It’s like she’s afraid that people won’t know that her family is a parvenu. So what if she’s rich? Julie, don’t you think so?”

Julie raised her eyes and stood up. Her tone was indifferent.

“Can you guys stop being so blatantly jealous?”

At that time, Nicole was at the door.

From then on, Nicole liked to invite Julie to everything she did. Julie came out of her isolation and became just like them.

As for that classmate who badmouthed Nicole, Nicole very arrogantly got the teacher to transfer her out.

These memories seemed so recent.

Nicole thought that Julie would always be so strong.”

She closed her eyes as tears streamed down her cheeks.

The sky brightened slightly.

The sunlight pierced through the window and shone on their faces.

The smell of disinfectant made them dizzy.

Through the glass, they could see that Kai had not slept all night. He was just sitting next to Julie like a statue as he gently held Julie’s hand.

He did not even change his posture.

Yvette rubbed her eyes.

“Kai really likes Julie so much, huh?”

Yvette paused. “Jules will be very happy to see this. She always liked Kai!”

Nicole blinked. "You know about it too?"

"Who doesn't? The whole school knows that they dated. Julie really liked Kai, but they suddenly broke up. After which, they stopped contacting each other."

Nicole frowned. 'So, I was the only one back then who didn't know about it?'

"My third brother regretted it, but Julie may not like him anymore."

"Who said that?" Yvette denied it. "Of course, she likes Kai! Two days ago when I went out for a drink with her, she drank too much and said 'Kai, how can I stop liking you?' Doesn't that mean that she likes him?"

Nicole paused. "Then why did Julie not show any intention to make up with Kai after he chased her for so long?"

The doctor went over to do his rounds.

After the doctor saw Julie's condition, he pushed Julie out of the ICU.

Nicole was nervous. "What's going on?"

"Ms. Stanton, don't worry. We're just transferring her to the general ward. The patient's indicators are back to normal. She's now in a light sleep state, so she'll wake up in less than two hours."

Nicole sighed with relief. The huge boulder on her chest suddenly disappeared. 'Julie's fine!

Yvette followed along excitedly. "Then can we follow her to the ward too?"

"Yes, but don't make too much noise."

"We won't! We'll make sure she sleeps well!"

Kai had not slept all night and was in a bad state. His eyes were bloodshot, and he looked haggard.

When he came out, he shook his head and followed.

Nicole pursed her lips. "K, do you want to get some shuteye for a while?"

She knew that it was impossible for him to leave now.

Kai shook his head and stroked her hair.

"I'll leave when she wakes up."

Kai's tone was firm.

He then smiled gently and looked at Nicole.

"Your methods are the best. You handled this well."

Nicole nodded. "You were just too anxious and angry because you're too worried about Julie."

Worry often muddles the mind.

Kai smiled and left without a word.

In less than two hours, Julie woke up.

Julie opened her eyes and looked at the ceiling.

Her right hand was wrapped in a large, warm hand that felt very familiar and comfortable.

Kai noticed when Julie turned her head to the side and tightened his grip.

"You're awake?"

Kai's voice was hoarse, low, and careful.

Julie blinked when she saw Kai in this wretched state. He was not at all glorious and elegant like a movie star.

"What's wrong with me?"

Chapter 1050 You've Seen It All

Nicole saw that Julie's lips were a little dry, so she took her lip balm and carefully applied it on Julie to prevent cracking.

Yvette was so emotional that she cried on the side.

"You finally woke up! You scared me to death!"

Julie looked at them with a blank face. In the end, she looked at Nicole. "So, what happened to me?"

Nicole's eyes were slightly red.

"You don't remember? You jumped off a building! How could you jump off a building?! If you have any problems, we'll help you out. Why do you have to do that?"

Julie's pupils shrank in shock.

"How could I jump off a building?!"

Julie touched her head and felt the gauze.

She immediately realized that they were not lying.

"I... I really didn't jump!"

Yvette's cries came to an abrupt halt.

Julie frowned in bewilderment and recalled what she knew.

"I was just sitting on the windowsill to get some air. I felt hungry and thought that my blood sugar was running low, so I wanted to get someone to send in some food. Then... I don't remember what happened after."

Julie's voice was getting softer.

The other people in the room finally understood.

Julie really was unlucky.

As a result, she fell out of the window.

Fortunately, it was not life-threatening.

Otherwise, Julie would really die in vain!

The soreness in Nicole's eyes instantly disappeared without a trace.

Yvette also stopped sobbing and immediately stood up.

"I'll order you some food!"

Nicole sat down. "I'm hungry too. Order more!"

Yvette walked to the door and thought of something. "Come with me!"

She stared at Nicole firmly. 'Is Nicole dumb or what?'

Nicole was baffled. She looked at Kai and Julie and suddenly understood.

“Sure, let’s go together.”

The two of them left one after the other and closed the door behind them.

Kai’s gaze was fixed on Julie’s pale face.

Whether it was true or not, Kai did not want to leave Julie alone anymore.

Kai had been thinking about something for the whole night, so he wanted to tell her about it now.

“Kai...” Julie tried to retract her hand, but it did not move.

Thus, she called out to him helplessly.

Kai paused and changed his position, but he still did not let go of her hand.

Julie looked at him. Her gaze gradually calmed down.

“You’ve seen it all?”

‘Those photos went viral, so everyone probably knows about it, right? I’m such a joke!’ Julie thought.

Julie was obviously wronged, but she had nowhere to complain about it.

She became an object of laughter for everyone.

Her righteousness suddenly broke.

Julie could not accept it, so she hid in the study and thought about everything that happened in her life.

She sat on the windowsill to feel the cold breeze, which made her mind clearer.

People said that when one was closest to death, one would know whether life was worth living or not.

Thus, Julie sat there.

When she wanted to get down from the ledge, she did not have a chance.

She very much wanted to live on!

Kai reached out and wanted to touch her head, but he remembered that she had a head injury, so his hand stopped mid-air.

He withdrew his hand and placed his face on the back of her hand. His tears were soaking her skin.

Julie flinched slightly as if she had been scalded.

Her heart felt like it was burned. It was sore and aching.

'Look, he turned out to be so sad!' Julie thought as tears flowed out uncontrollably.

At first, Julie was able to control herself, but she could no longer restrain herself and cried out loud.

Julie obviously did not do anything. She worked hard and struggled to walk through this muddy circle while keeping her dignity. However, she was still criticized for being dirty and lowly.

All Julie wanted was to get her company on the map to give her a firm foothold.

She was blind to fall for the wrong person, but she cut the losses in time. Even so, she was not ruthless.

She gave him money once, but that bastard Roman got a taste of it and thought that he could keep asking for more.

As a result, it ruined her.

Chapter 1051 If You Will Marry Me

There was nothing wrong with being kind or soft-hearted, so who was at fault here?

Julie could not figure it out when she was in her study, like she had reached a dead end.

Even though her innocence was proven, she could never face anyone again with those photos exposed.

"K..."

Julie choked up and reached out to cover her eyes, blocking the light.

Tears flowed out along her fingers.

The crystal droplets were blinding.

Kai stood up, leaned over to place his arm under her pillow, and bowed his head.

He leaned over her shoulder and hugged her gently.

Kai patted her other hand. His voice was gentle and husky.

"It's all in the past. Just think of it as a dream. It's okay. It's all over now."

Julie cried for a long time. Her voice was getting louder by the minute, which almost made the doctor come in.

She needed to vent, but Kai did not dare to let her cry any longer.

He coaxed her gently as he was still worried that crying so much would affect her head trauma.

Gradually, Julie's emotions calmed down.

Kai found the content online and showed it to her.

Only then did Julie believe that this nightmare was really over.

Julie's eyes were red, and her face was pale as she closed her eyes.

How could people's light-hearted apology make her forget today's nightmare?

The shame struck her.

She was hurting the most.

Kai's hand that was holding her tightened. He suddenly took something out from his pocket and silently put it on for her.

Julie noticed the cold feeling from the metal on her finger.

Her body stiffened slightly as she looked at him sideways.

Kai lowered his head and gently kissed her ringed finger.

"Jules, I never told you that from the first day we broke up five years ago, I've been regretting it until today. Perhaps you don't remember how much you liked me back then, but I still do."

Julie looked at him as tears came out of her eyes. She covered her mouth to keep herself from making a sound.

Kai laughed in a low voice.

"I could only know about you from Lil N, and I didn't dare to inquire about you. When you wanted me to walk at your show last time, I was so happy that I didn't sleep all night because that was the first time you looked for me after the breakup. I didn't dare to tell anyone because I was afraid of being laughed at."

ised and became solemn. He looked at her seriously.

"Jules, but after this incident, I don't care if everyone laughs at me. I suddenly want everyone to know that the girl I like that I've been struggling to pursue, is you."

Julie was startled and wanted to pull her hand back, but Kai did not let go.

She clenched her lower lip and looked at him.

He held her hand tightly, so much so that he wanted it to fuse into his own body.

"Since you don't like anyone else, and whether you still like me or not, let's start over and try again, okay? If you feel insecure and if you're willing, let's get married. This time, you can call the shots. It's all up to you how we start and end."

Kai used all his strength to say what was in his heart.

He was the high and mighty movie star who had been held up for half his life, but he could not afford to put on airs in front of Julie.

Kai just wanted to be humble to her. He wanted to see her smile and get angry.

If others dared to say one bad word about her, he would kill them.

When Julie jumped off the building, Kai felt like he lost his soul.

He could not wait any longer.

If he waited any longer, he would go crazy.

Kai could only be assured if he could protect Julie openly.

Julie's tears simply could not be stopped. Her shoulders trembled as she cried even harder than she did just now.

Chapter 1052 She's Greedy

Julie subconsciously wanted to refuse because she felt that Kai was just taking pity on her for being someone who was laughed at by everyone.

Her nudes were flying all over the place, so what qualifications did she have to put up a front?

If people knew that the famous movie star Kai had married such a woman, so many people would poke at his back.

Why should she involve such a clean Kai?

Kai had always loved to maintain his spotless reputation, so how could she pull him down from the pedestal and dirty him?

Julie shook her head and cried. Words of refusal came to her lips, but she could not say them.

She was greedy.

Kai, who she had yearned for, offered himself on a silver platter. To make her feel secure, he could marry her and tell everyone how he liked her so humbly.

Back when her crush came to an end, she knew how hard it was.

By then, she had never regretted that she loved Kai. She also bore all the consequences by herself.

Now, his heart was also moved.

The tangled emotions were tearing her body apart. She did not know how to choose.

Kai touched her forehead. His voice was gentle as he said, "It's okay. You can think about it. Think it over before you leave the hospital."

Julie paused for a moment.

Her emotions stabilized.

She needed time to calm down.

His voice was drawn out with a slight tremor.

“Jules, please take pity on me and don’t leave me alone...”

The sourness at the bottom of Julie’s eyes came back up.

Julie closed her eyes. Her face was pale. She used an excuse to change the topic.

“K, I have a headache.”

Kai was stunned, then hurriedly stood up and ran out to find a doctor.

Julie sighed with relief. Her tears were still falling uncontrollably.

The doctor came over to do a checkup and also felt relieved.

“Your recovery is good, but you need to be hospitalized for a few days for observation. Rest well.”

Since this patient was related to so many people from Stanton Corporation, the hospital staff did not dare to be careless.

Thus, when Julie’s health improved, the hospital staff also felt happy.

It was a while before Nicole and Yvette entered the VIP ward together.

Julie was lying there with a pale face, and Kai was peeling an apple for her at the side with focus.

The light hit his well-defined fingers, which glowed with luster.

When Yvette saw this scene, she regretted barging in so suddenly.

Kai was interrupted.

Yvette braced herself and lifted what she was carrying in her hand as she smiled at Julie.

“I just went to buy your favorite custard buns. Aren’t you ecstatic?”

Julie could not help but laugh.

“Do you think that I’ll be that happy just for a bun?”

Kai put down the things in his hand. “Well, I’m hungry.”

Nicole followed in from behind. “K, Dominic called me just now. Your new movie’s premiere meet and greet is today. Why don’t you go over?”

Dominic spent a lot of effort on this call.

Kai frowned, took out his phone from his pocket, and looked at it.

Sure enough, there were two dozen missed calls.

“My phone was muted. Don’t worry about it.”

His tone was relaxed.

With Kai’s standing, it was a surprise if he attended such a premiere. Even if he did not show up, he would not get scolded.

Julie paused. “You should go. Your fans have been waiting for this movie for a long time. If you don’t show up, there won’t be much hype, and the whole crew’s efforts will be wasted.”

Nicole blinked.

She seemed to understand that Julie did not want Kai to be here the entire time.

After some thought, Nicole went over to urge him.

“K, listen to Jules. I’ll take good care of her. It’s only two or three hours anyway. I promise I won’t leave her side.”

Chapter 1053 Mushy Person

Kai did not want to leave at all. He did not care about the crew’s efforts.

For him, his mission was complete as soon as he finished filming.

The rest of the publicity activities like the premiere and so on were just too troublesome.

However, since Julie and Nicole said so, Kai could not find a reason to refuse.

After a few seconds of hesitation, he stood up.

Kai looked at Nicole and instructed her seriously.

“Take good care of her. Don’t leave her side, not even one step away!”

Nicole nodded solemnly. "Don't worry!"

Kai reached out to hold Julie's hand before he left reluctantly.

Once he left, Yvette could not help but cover her face.

"OMG! Since when did Kai become such a mushy person? I'm jealous!"

Nicole laughed and looked up at her.

"My third brother has always been like that. It's just that he was used to being held up in the past and usually wouldn't show it. He's actually very clingy, right Jules?"

The two people looked at Julie meaningfully.

Julie blushed as she glared angrily at Nicole.

"Why are you asking me?"

Although Julie experienced it herself, she could not admit it.

Nicole sat next to her and took the apple that Kai had just finished peeling. She carefully cut it into small pieces and put it on a plate, then fed it to Julie with a fork.

"Jules, since this has already happened, we're trying to figure out how to solve it. Right now, there's basically nothing threatening. My dad has already greeted the police, and we've hired the best lawyer. The online discussion about you has basically died down."

"Thank you..."

Julie smiled with pale lips.

She knew that if Nicole had not used Stanton Corporation to suppress public opinion, she would still be suffering from this spiteful noise now and every day thereafter.

Then, once again, she could only jump off from a higher window.

Nicole pursed her lips. Her voice was a little hoarse.

"Jules, you know what? When I went to find that bastard Roman, I saw my third brother there, about to push him out the window of the 16th floor. It was very high, and if I was one step late, he might have really thrown him out..."

Nicole choked for a while and dared not imagine what would happen.

Although Kai was wacky, he was never impulsive.

He almost ruined himself the only time that he was impulsive.

Blatantly attempting to kill someone would completely ruin his future. He would go from a famous movie star with millions of fans to a prisoner who would have to spend the rest of his life in the dark.

Julie's body stiffened. Her eyes widened as she stared at Nicole incredulously.

Julie was clueless.

She did not know that Kai had actually done so much for her.

What's more, she did not know that Kai's previous humble expression of his feelings turned out to be true.

He seemed to have entrusted his whole life to her.

The ring on her finger was still cool to the touch, but she felt like it was burning.

The wall she built because of her poor self-esteem collapsed.

Tears came gushing out of Julie's eyes.

Nicole bowed her head and sighed.

She did not know what to say. Although Nicole would love to see Kai's dream come true, she could not kidnap her best friend with her own thoughts.

Nicole could only tell Julie everything she knew.

Yvette was silent for a moment and chuckled.

"Jules, you're so lucky. Last night when you were in the emergency room being resuscitated, Kai went crazy. I thought that such a man could only exist on TV... You've always liked him, but you feel that he doesn't like you enough and will hurt you, so you don't dare to give it a shot. If I were you, I wouldn't want to waste another minute. We should live in the moment! The person you like also likes you back, so aren't you both lucky to have each other?"
